month shall be prorated based upon the actual number of days of said month. Payment of Rent shall be made to Lessor at its address stated herein or to such other persons or place as Lessor may from time to time designate in writing. Acceptance of a payment which is less than the amount then due shall not be a waiver of Lessor's rights to the balance of such Rent, regardless of Lessor's endorsement of any check so stating. In the event that any check, draft, or other instrument of payment given by Lessee to Lessor is dishonored for any reason, Lessee agrees to pay to Lessor the sum of $25 in addition to any Late Charge and Lessor, at its option, may require all future Rent be paid by cashier's check. Payments will be applied first to accrued late charges and attorney's fees, second to accrued interest, then to Base Rent, and any remaining amount to any other outstanding charges or costs. All payments hereunder shall be made by check or wire transfer and may not be made in cash.

4.3 Operating Costs Payment. Lessee shall pay to Lessor the Operating Costs as set forth in Paragraph 62. Further, Lessee shall during each calendar year pay to Lessor an estimate of the Operating Costs as hereinafter set forth. Beginning on the Commencement Date, Lessee shall pay to Lessor each month on the first day of the month an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of the Operating Costs for the calendar year in question as reasonably estimated by Lessor, with an adjustment to be made between the parties at a later date as hereinafter provided. If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, Lessee shall pay a prorated portion of the Operating Costs for such partial month on the Commencement Date. Furthermore, Lessor may from time to time furnish Lessee with notice of a re-estimation of the amount of the Operating Costs and Lessee shall commence paying its re-estimated Operating Costs on the first day of the month following receipt of said notice. As soon as practicable following the end of any calendar year, Lessor shall submit to Lessee a statement setting forth the exact amount of the Operating Costs for the calendar year just completed and the difference, if any, between the actual Operating Costs for the calendar year just completed and the estimated amount of Operating Costs which were paid for such year. Such statement shall also set forth the amount of the estimated Operating Costs reimbursement for the new calendar year computed in accordance with the foregoing provisions. To the extent that the actual Operating Costs for the period covered by such statement is higher than the estimated payments which Lessee previously paid during the calendar year just completed, Lessee shall pay to Lessor the difference within thirty (30) days following receipt of said statement from Lessor. To the extent that the actual Operating Costs for the period covered by the applicable statement is less than the estimated payments which Lessee previously paid during the calendar year just completed, Lessor shall at its option either refund said amount to Lessee within thirty (30) days or credit the difference against Lessee's estimated reimbursement for such Operating Costs for the current year. In addition, with respect to the monthly reimbursement, until Lessee receives such statement, Lessee's monthly reimbursement for the new calendar year shall continue to be paid at the then current rate, but Lessee shall commence payment to Lessor of the monthly installments of reimbursement on the basis of the statement beginning on the first day of the month following the month in which Lessee receives such statement.

5. Security Deposit. Lessee shall deposit with Lessor upon execution hereof the Security Deposit as security for Lessee's faithful performance of its obligations under this Lease. If Lessee fails to pay Rent and such failure continues beyond all applicable notice and cure periods, or otherwise Defaults is in Breach under this Lease, Lessor may use, apply or retain all or any portion of said Security Deposit for the payment of any amount already due Lessor, for Rents which will be due in the future, and/ or to reimburse or compensate Lessor for any liability, expense, loss or damage which Lessor may suffer or incur by reason thereof. If Lessor uses or applies all or any portion of the Security Deposit, Lessee shall within ten (10) days after written request therefor deposit monies with Lessor sufficient to restore said Security Deposit to the full amount required by this Lease. If the Base Rent increases during the term of this Lease, Lessee shall, upon written request from Lessor, deposit additional monies with Lessor so that the total amount of the Security Deposit shall at all times bear the same proportion to the increased Base Rent as the initial Security Deposit bore to the initial Base Rent. Should the Agreed Use be amended to accommodate a material change in the business of Lessee or to accommodate a sublessee or assignee, Lessor shall have the right to increase the Security Deposit to the extent necessary, in Lessor's reasonable judgment, to account for any increased wear and tear that the Premises may suffer as a result thereof. If a change in control of Lessee occurs during this Lease and following such change the financial condition of Lessee is, in Lessor's reasonable judgment, significantly reduced, Lessee shall deposit such additional monies with Lessor as shall be sufficient to cause the Security Deposit to be at a commercially reasonable level based on such change in financial condition. Lessor shall not be required to keep the Security Deposit separate from its general accounts. Within thirty (30) days after the expiration or termination of this Lease, Lessor shall return that portion of the Security Deposit not used or applied by Lessor together with an itemized statement showing any deductions made by Lessor. Lessor shall upon written request provide Lessee with an accounting showing how that portion of the Security Deposit that was not returned was applied. No part of the Security Deposit shall be considered to be held in trust, to bear interest or to be prepayment for any monies to be paid by Lessee under this Lease. THE SECURITY DEPOSIT SHALL NOT BE USED BY LESSEE IN LIEU OF PAYMENT OF THE LAST MONTH'S RENT. Any Lender shall not be responsible for the Security Deposit until it has received the same. Lessee waives the provisions of all provisions of law now in force or that become in force after the date of execution of this Lease, that provide that Lessor may claim from a security deposit only those sums reasonably necessary to remedy defaults in the payment of rent, to repair damage caused by Lessee, or to clean the Premises. Lessor and Lessee agree that Lessor may, in addition, claim those sums reasonably necessary to compensate Lessee for any other foreseeable or unforeseeable loss or damage caused by the act or omission of Lessee or Lessor's officers, agents, employees, independent contractors, or invitees.

6. Use.

6.1 Use. Lessee shall use and occupy the Premises only for the Agreed Use, or any other legal use which is reasonably comparable thereto, and for no other purpose. Lessee shall not use or permit the use of the Premises in a manner that is unlawful, creates damage, waste or a nuisance, or that disturbs occupants of or causes damage to neighboring premises or properties. Other than guide, signal and seeing eye dogs, Lessee shall not keep or allow in the Premises any pets, animals, birds, fish, or reptiles. Lessor shall not unreasonably withhold or delay its consent to any written request for a modification of the Agreed Use, so long as the same will not impair the structural integrity of the improvements on the premises or the mechanical or electrical systems therein, and/or is not significantly more burdensome to the Premises. If Lessor elects to withhold consent, Lessor shall within seven (7) days after such request give written notification of same, which notice shall include an explanation of Lessor's objections to the change in the Agreed Use.

Lessee shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that patients, customers, employees, agents, and owners of Lessee and Lessee's dispensary neither loiter, nor use, smoke, vape, dab, consume, in any form or fashion, any marijuana product in the Premises or on any sidewalks, parking areas or walkways serving the same. Since marijuana products may cause odors that migrate off site, Lessee shall have the duty to reasonably mitigate odors.

Lessee agrees that no smoking of any kind shall be permitted by any of Lessee's employees, agents, customers or invitees in the Premises or on any sidewalks, parking areas or walkways serving the same.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Lessor acknowledges that the sidewalks, parking areas and walkways referenced in the preceding paragraphs are public areas outside of Lessee's control and Lessor therefore agrees that Lessee's responsibility with respect to those spaces shall be limited to making commercially reasonable efforts within the Premises to request that patients, customers, employees, agents, and owners of Lessee refrain from loitering or using/consuming cannabis in any way in these areas.

As soon as reasonably possible after the Commencement Date, Lessee shall open for business at the Premises for the Agreed Use.

6.2 Hazardous Substances.

(a) Reportable Uses Require Consent. The term "Hazardous Substance" as used in this Lease shall mean any product, substance, or waste whose presence, use, manufacture, disposal, transportation, or release, either by itself or in combination with other materials expected to be on the Premises, is either: (i) potentially injurious to the public health, safety or welfare, the environment or the Premises, (ii) regulated or monitored by any applicable state or local governmental authority, or (iii) a basis for potential liability of Lessor to any applicable state or local governmental agency or third party under any applicable statute or common law theory. Hazardous Substances shall include, but not be limited to, hydrocarbons, petroleum, gasoline, and/or crude oil or any products, by-products or fractions thereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Hazardous Substance shall not include cannabis/marijuana or products derived therefrom. Except as otherwise provided herein, Lessee shall not engage in any activity in or on the Premises which constitutes a Reportable Use of Hazardous Substances without notice to the express prior written consent of Lessor and timely compliance (at Lessee's expense) with all Applicable Requirements. "Reportable Use" shall mean (i) the installation or use of any above or below ground storage tank, (ii) the generation, possession, storage, use, transportation, or disposal of a Hazardous Substance that requires a permit from, or with respect to which a report, notice, registration or business plan is required to be filed with, any governmental authority, and/or (iii) the presence at the Premises of a Hazardous Substance with respect to which any Applicable Requirements requires that a notice be given to persons entering or occupying the Premises or neighboring properties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Lessee may use any ordinary and customary materials reasonably required to be used in the normal course of the Agreed Use, ordinary office supplies (copier toner, liquid paper, glue, etc.) and common household cleaning materials, so long as such use is in compliance with all Applicable Requirements, is not a Reportable Use, and does not expose the Premises or neighboring property to any meaningful risk of contamination or damage or expose Lessor to any liability therefor. In addition, Lessor may condition its consent to any Reportable Use upon receiving such additional assurances as Lessor reasonably deems necessary to protect itself, the public, the Premises and/or the environment against damage, contamination, injury and/or liability, including, but not limited to, the installation (and removal on or before Lease expiration or termination) of protective modifications (such as concrete encasements) and/or increasing the Security Deposit.

(b) Duty to Inform Lessor. If Lessee knows, or has reasonable cause to believe, that a Hazardous Substance has come to be located in, on, under or about the Premises, other than as previously consented to by Lessor (a "Hazardous Substance Condition"), Lessee shall immediately give written notice of such fact to Lessor, and provide Lessor with a copy of any report, notice, claim or other documentation which it has concerning the presence of such Hazardous Substance.

(c) Lessee Remediation. Lessee shall not cause or permit its employees, agents, contractors or invitees to cause any Hazardous Substance to be spilled or released in, on, under, or about the Premises (including through the plumbing or sanitary sewer system) and shall promptly, at Lessee's expense, comply with all Applicable Requirements and take all investigatory and/or remedial action reasonably recommended, whether or not formally ordered or required, for the cleanup of any contamination of, and for the maintenance, security and/or monitoring of the Premises or neighboring properties, that was caused or materially contributed to by Lessee, or pertaining to or involving any Hazardous Substance brought onto the Premises during the term of this Lease, by or for Lessee, or its employees, agents or contractors or any third party.

(d) Lessee Indemnification. Lessee shall indemnify, defend and hold Lessor, its agents, employees, lenders and ground lessor, if any, harmless from and against any and all loss of rents and/or damages, liabilities, judgments, claims, expenses, penalties, and attorneys' and consultants' fees arising out of or involving any Hazardous Substance brought onto the Premises by or for Lessee, or any employee, agent, or contractor of Lessee (provided, however, that Lessee shall have no liability under this Lease with respect to (a) any acts or omissions of Lessor or its employees, agents or contractors or (b) underground migration of any Hazardous Substance under the Premises from adjacent properties not caused or contributed to by Lessee). Lessee's obligations shall include, but not be limited to, the effects of any contamination or injury to person, property or the environment created or suffered by Lessee, and the cost of investigation, removal, remediation, restoration and/or abatement, and shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease. No termination, cancellation or release agreement entered into by Lessor and Lessee shall release Lessee from its obligations under this Lease with respect to Hazardous Substances, unless specifically so agreed by Lessor in writing at the time of such agreement.

(e) Lessor Indemnification. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph 8.7, Lessor and its successors and assigns shall indemnify, defend, reimburse and hold Lessee, its employees and lenders, harmless from and against any and all environmental damages, including the cost of remediation, which are caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Lessor, its agents or employees. Lessor's obligations, as and when required by the Applicable Requirements, shall include, but not be limited to, the cost of investigation, removal, remediation, restoration and/or abatement, and shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

(f) Investigations and Remediations. Lessor shall retain the responsibility and pay for any investigations or remediation measures required by governmental entities having jurisdiction with respect to the existence of Hazardous Substances on the Premises prior to Lessee's occupancy, unless such remediation measure is required as a result of Lessee's use (including "Alterations", as defined in Paragraph 7.2(a) below) of the Premises, in which event Lessee shall be responsible for such payment. Lessee shall cooperate fully in any such activities at the request of Lessor, including allowing Lessor and Lessor's agents to have reasonable access to the Premises at reasonable times in order to carry out Lessor's investigative and remedial responsibilities.

(g) Lessor Termination Option. If a Hazardous Substance Condition occurs during the term of this Lease, unless Lessee is responsible therefor as provided in this Lease (in which case Lessee shall make the investigation and remediation thereof required by the Applicable Requirements and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, but subject to Lessor's rights under Paragraph 6.2(d) and Paragraph 13), Lessor may, at Lessor's option, either (i) investigate and remediate such Hazardous Substance Condition, if required, as soon as reasonably possible at Lessor's expense, in which event this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, or (ii) if the estimated cost to remediate such condition exceeds $[], give written notice to Lessee, within thirty (30) days after receipt by Lessor of knowledge of the occurrence of such Hazardous Substance Condition, of Lessor's desire to terminate this Lease as of the date 60 days following the date of such notice. In the event Lessor elects to give a termination notice, Lessee may, within 10 days thereafter, give written notice to Lessor of Lessee's commitment to pay the amount by which the cost of the remediation of such Hazardous Substance Condition exceeds $[]. Lessee shall provide Lessor with said funds or satisfactory assurance thereof within thirty (30) days following such commitment. In such event, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, and Lessor shall proceed to make such remediation as soon as reasonably possible after the required funds are available. If Lessee does not give such notice and provide the required funds or assurance thereof within the time provided, this Lease shall terminate as of the date specified in Lessor's notice of termination.

6.3 Lessee's Compliance with Applicable Requirements. Except as otherwise provided in this Lease, Lessee shall, at Lessee's sole expense, fully, diligently and in a timely manner, materially comply with all Applicable Requirements related to Lessee's business and specific and unique use, the requirements of any applicable fire insurance underwriter or rating bureau, and the reasonable recommendations of Lessor's engineers and/or consultants which relate in any manner to the Premises, without regard to whether said Applicable Requirements are now in effect or become effective after the Commencement Date. Lessee shall, within 10 days after receipt of Lessor's written request, provide Lessor with copies of all permits and other documents, and other information evidencing Lessee's compliance with any Applicable Requirements specified by Lessor, and shall immediately upon receipt, notify Lessor in writing (with copies of any documents involved) of any threatened or actual claim, notice, citation, warning, complaint or report pertaining to or involving the failure of Lessee or the Premises to comply with any Applicable Requirements. Likewise, Lessee shall immediately give written notice to Lessor of: (i) any water damage to the Premises and any suspected seepage, pooling, dampness or other condition conducive to the production of mold; or (ii) any mustiness or other odors that might indicate the presence of mold in the Premises. In addition, Lessee shall provide copies of all relevant material safety data sheets (MSDS) to Lessor within 10 days of the receipt of a written request therefor. In addition, Lessee shall provide Lessor with copies of its business license, certificate of occupancy and/or any similar document within 10 days of the receipt of a written request therefor.

6.4 Inspection; Compliance. Lessor and Lessor's "Lender" (as defined in Paragraph 28) and consultants and other persons authorized by Lessor shall have the right to enter into Premises at any time, in the case of an emergency, and otherwise at reasonable times after reasonable notice, for the purpose of inspecting and/or testing the condition of the Premises and/or for verifying compliance by Lessee with this Lease. The cost of any such inspections shall be paid by Lessor, unless a violation of Applicable Requirements, or a Hazardous Substance Condition caused by Lessee (see paragraph 9.1) is found to exist or be imminent, or the inspection is requested or ordered by a governmental authority and is caused by Lessee. In such case, Lessee shall upon request reimburse Lessor for the cost of such inspection, so long as such inspection is reasonably related to the violation or contamination. In addition, Lessee shall provide copies of all relevant material safety data sheets (MSDS) to Lessor within ten (10) days of the receipt of a written request therefor. Lessee acknowledges that any failure on its part to allow such inspections or testing will expose Lessor to risks and potentially cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the extent of which will be extremely difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, should the Lessee fail to allow such inspections and/or testing in a timely fashion the Base Rent shall be automatically increased, without any requirement for notice to Lessee, by an amount equal to []% of the then existing Base Rent or $100, whichever is greater for the remainder to the Lease. The Parties agree that such increase in Base Rent represents fair and reasonable compensation for the additional risk/costs that Lessor will incur by reason of Lessee's failure to allow such inspection and/or testing. Such increase in Base Rent shall in no event constitute a waiver of Lessee's Default or Breach with respect to such failure nor prevent the exercise of any of the other rights and remedies granted hereunder.

7. Maintenance; Repairs; Utility Installations; Trade Fixtures and Alterations.

7.1 Lessee's Maintenance Obligations.

(a) In General. Subject to reasonable wear and tear, the provisions of Paragraph 9 (Damage or Destruction), and 14 (Condemnation), Lessee shall, at Lessee's sole expense, keep the Premises, Utility Installations (intended for Lessee's exclusive use, no matter where located), and Alterations in good order, condition and repair, which shall include all necessary replacements (whether or not the portion of the Premises requiring repairs, or the means of repairing the same, are reasonably or readily accessible to Lessee, and whether or not the need for such repairs occurs as a result of Lessee's use, any prior use, the elements or the age of such portion of the Premises), including, but not limited to, all equipment or facilities, such as plumbing, HVAC equipment, electrical, lighting facilities, boilers, pressure vessels, fire protection system, fixtures, walls (interior and exterior), foundations, ceilings, roofs, roof drainage systems, floor coverings, windows, doors, plate glass, skylights, landscaping, driveways, parking lots, fences, retaining walls, signs, sidewalks and parkways located in, or on, or adjacent to the Premises. Lessee, in keeping the Premises in good order, condition and repair, shall exercise and perform good maintenance practices, specifically including the procurement and maintenance of the service contracts required by Paragraph 7.1(b) below. Lessee's obligations shall include restorations, replacements or renewals when necessary to keep the Premises and all improvements thereon or a part thereof in good order, condition and state of repair. Lessee shall, during the term of this Lease, keep the exterior appearance of the Building in a first-class condition (including, e.g. graffiti removal) consistent with the exterior appearance of other similar facilities of comparable age and size in the vicinity, including, when necessary, the exterior repainting of the Building. Lessee hereby waives all right to make repairs at Lessor's expense under applicable state or local law.

(b) Service Contracts. Lessee shall, at Lessee's sole expense, procure and maintain contracts, with copies to Lessor, in customary form and substance for, and with contractors specializing and experienced in the maintenance of the following equipment and improvements, if any, if and when installed on the Premises: (i) HVAC equipment, (ii) boiler, and pressure vessels, (iii) fire extinguishing systems, including fire alarm and/or smoke detection, (iv) landscaping and irrigation systems, (v) roof covering and drains, and (vi) clarifiers. However, Lessor reserves the right, upon notice to Lessee, to procure and maintain any or all of such service contracts, and Lessee shall reimburse Lessor, upon demand, for the cost thereof.

(c) Failure to Perform. If Lessee fails to perform Lessee's obligations under this Paragraph 7.1, Lessor may enter upon the Premises after ten (10) days' prior written notice to Lessee (except in the case of an emergency, in which case no notice shall be required), perform such obligations on Lessee's behalf, and put the Premises in good order, condition and repair, and Lessee shall promptly pay to Lessor a sum equal to []% of the cost thereof.

7.2 Utility Installations; Trade Fixtures; Alterations.

(a) Definitions. The term "Utility Installations" refers to all floor and window coverings, air and/or vacuum lines, power panels, electrical distribution, security and fire protection systems, communication cabling, lighting fixtures, HVAC equipment, plumbing, and fencing in or on the Premises. The term "Trade Fixtures" shall mean Lessee's machinery and equipment that can be removed without doing material damage to the Premises. The term "Alterations" shall mean any modification of the improvements, other than Utility Installations or Trade Fixtures, whether by addition or deletion. "Lessee Owned Alterations and/or Utility Installations" are defined as Alterations and/or Utility Installations made by Lessee that are not yet owned by Lessor pursuant to Paragraph 7.3(a).

(b) Consent. Lessee shall not make any Alterations or Utility Installations to the Premises without Lessor's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Lessee may, however, make non-structural Alterations or Utility Installations to the interior of the Premises (excluding the roof) without such consent but upon notice to Lessor, as long as they are not visible from the outside, do not involve puncturing, relocating or removing the roof or any existing walls, will not adversely affect the electrical, plumbing, HVAC, and/or life safety systems, do not trigger the requirement for additional modifications and/or improvements to the Premises resulting from Applicable Requirements, such as compliance with Title 24, and the cumulative cost thereof during this Lease as extended does not exceed a sum equal to 3 month's Base Rent in the aggregate or a sum equal to one month's Base Rent in any one year. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Lessee shall not make or permit any roof penetrations and/or install anything on the roof without the prior written approval of Lessor. Lessor may, as a precondition to granting such approval, require Lessee to utilize a contractor chosen and/or approved by Lessor. Any Alterations or Utility Installations that Lessee shall desire to make and which require the consent of the Lessor shall be presented to Lessor in written form with detailed plans. Consent shall be deemed conditioned upon Lessee's: (i) acquiring all applicable governmental permits, (ii) furnishing Lessor with copies of both the permits and the plans and specifications prior to commencement of the work, and (iii) compliance with all conditions of said permits and other Applicable Requirements in a prompt and expeditious manner. Any Alterations or Utility Installations shall be performed in a workmanlike manner with good and sufficient materials and in compliance with Applicable Requirements. Lessee shall promptly upon completion furnish Lessor with as-built plans and specifications. For work which costs an amount in excess of one month's Base Rent, Lessor may condition its consent upon Lessee providing a lien and completion bond in an amount equal to []% of the estimated cost of such Alteration or Utility Installation and/or upon Lessee's posting an additional Security Deposit with Lessor.

(c) Liens; Bonds. Lessee shall pay, when due, all claims for labor or materials furnished or alleged to have been furnished to or for Lessee or anyone claiming by, through or under Lessee at or for use on the Premises, which claims are or may be secured by any mechanic's or materialmen's lien against the Premises or any interest therein. Lessee shall give Lessor not less than ten (10) days' notice prior to the commencement of any work in, on or about the Premises, and Lessor shall have the right to post notices of non-responsibility. If Lessee shall contest the validity of any such lien, claim or demand, then Lessee shall, at its sole expense defend and protect itself, Lessor and the Premises against the same and shall pay and satisfy any such adverse judgment that may be rendered thereon before the enforcement thereof. If Lessor shall require, Lessee shall furnish a surety bond in an amount equal to []% of the amount of such contested lien, claim or demand, indemnifying Lessor against liability for the same. If Lessor elects to participate in any such action, Lessee shall pay Lessor's attorneys' fees and costs.

7.3 Ownership; Removal; Surrender; and Restoration.

(a) Ownership. Subject to Lessor's right to require removal or elect ownership as hereinafter provided and except as expressly provided herein, all Alterations and Utility Installations made by Lessee shall be the property of Lessee, but considered a part of the Premises. Lessor may, at any time, elect in writing to be the owner of all or any specified part of the Lessee Owned Alterations and Utility Installations. Unless otherwise instructed per paragraph 7.3(b) hereof, all Lessee Owned Alterations and Utility Installations shall, at the expiration or termination of this Lease, become the property of Lessor and be surrendered by Lessee with the Premises.

(b) Removal. Lessee may, but is not required to, remove any or all Lessee Owned Alterations or Utility Installations prior to the expiration or termination of this Lease. By delivery to Lessee of written notice from Lessor not earlier than 90 and not later than thirty (30) days prior to the end of the term of this Lease, Lessor may require that any or all Lessee Owned Alterations or Utility Installations be removed by the expiration or termination of this Lease. Lessor may require the removal at any time of all or any part of any Lessee Owned Alterations or Utility Installations made without the required consent.

(c) Surrender; Restoration. Lessee shall surrender the Premises by the Expiration Date or any earlier termination date, with all of the improvements, parts and surfaces thereof broom clean and free of debris, and in good operating order, condition and state of repair, ordinary wear and tear and damage caused by Lessor excepted. "Ordinary wear and tear" shall not include any damage or deterioration that would have been prevented by good maintenance practice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Lessee occupies the Premises for 12 months or less, then Lessee shall surrender the Premises in the same condition as delivered to Lessee on the Commencement Date with NO allowance for ordinary wear and tear. Lessee shall repair any damage occasioned by the installation, maintenance or removal of Trade Fixtures, Lessee owned Alterations and/or Utility Installations, furnishings, and equipment as well as the removal of any storage tank installed by or for Lessee. Lessee shall also remove from the Premises any and all Hazardous Substances brought onto the Premises by or for Lessee, or its employees, agents or contractors any third party (except Hazardous Substances which were deposited via underground migration from areas outside of the Premises) to the level specified in Applicable Requirements. Trade Fixtures shall remain the property of Lessee and shall be removed by Lessee. Any personal property of Lessee not removed on or before the Expiration Date or any earlier termination date shall be deemed to have been abandoned by Lessee and may be disposed of or retained by Lessor as Lessor may desire. The failure by Lessee to timely vacate the Premises pursuant to this Paragraph 7.3(c) without the express written consent of Lessor shall constitute a holdover under the provisions of Paragraph 24 below.

8. Insurance; Indemnity.

8.1 Payment For Insurance. Lessee shall pay for all insurance required under Paragraphs 8.2, 8.3, and 8.4. Premiums for policy periods commencing prior to or extending beyond the Lease term shall be prorated to correspond to the Lease term. Payment shall be made by Lessee to Lessor within ten (10) days following receipt of an invoice.

8.2 Liability Insurance and Other Insurance

(a) Carried by Lessee. Lessee agrees to maintain in full force and effect from the date on which Lessee first enters the Premises for any reason, throughout the Lease term, and thereafter so long as Lessee is in occupancy of any part of the Premises, a policy of commercial general liability insurance which insures Lessee's operation and use of the Premises and includes premises liability and products liability (including but not limited to cannabis retail/sales and dispensary use), the following exclusionary endorsements may be attached to this form, along with any standard and customary exclusions: nuclear energy exclusion, asbestos exclusion, and employment practices liability. Lessor, Lessor's managing agent, Lessor's Lender, and any other parties reasonably requested by Lessor shall be named additional insured for ongoing and completed operations on a primary basis and non-contributory Each such policy shall be written by a reputable and financially sound, duly licensed insurance company with an AM Best rating of at least A -. The minimum limits of liability of such insurance shall be $[] for each such occurrence and in the aggregate. All such insurance coverage shall be written on an occurrence form, except for the products liability coverage which may be written on a claims-made form. Any claims-made coverage shall be in full force from lease commencement date and coverage will be maintained for a period of three (3) years after termination of this Lease and its obligations herein.

Lessee further agrees to maintain a Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability Insurance policy. The limit of liability as respects Employers' Liability coverage shall be no less than $[] per accident.

Except for Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability coverage, Lessee agrees that Lessor and Lessor's managing agent shall be named as additional insureds on a primary and non-contributory basis. A duplicate original or a Certificate of Insurance evidencing the insurance requirements contained in the Lease shall be delivered to Lessor upon the execution of this Lease and then annually in advance of each policies renewal. Copies of additional insured endorsements, if required for coverage of additional insureds, also shall be delivered to Lessor. Lessor shall be given thirty (30) days advance written notice of any required insurance policy cancellation or non-renewals

(b) Carried by Lessor. Lessor may, at Lessor's sole cost and expense, maintain liability insurance as described in Paragraph 8.2(a), in addition to, and not in lieu of, the insurance required to be maintained by Lessee. Lessee shall not be named as an additional insured therein.

8.3 Property Insurance - Building, Improvements and Rental Value.

(a) Building and Improvements. The Insuring Party shall obtain and keep in force a policy or policies in the name of Lessor, with loss payable to Lessor, any ground-lessor, and to any Lender insuring loss or damage to the Premises. The amount of such insurance shall be equal to the full insurable replacement cost of the Premises, as the same shall exist from time to time, or the amount required by any Lender, but in no event more than the commercially reasonable and available insurable value thereof. Should Lessee so choose, Lessee Owned Alterations and Utility Installations, Trade Fixtures, and Lessee's personal property shall be insured by Lessee not by Lessor. If the coverage is available and commercially appropriate, such policy or policies shall insure against all risks of direct physical loss or damage, excluding the perils of flood and/or earthquake unless required by a Lender, and including coverage for debris removal and for demolition and increased cost of construction to comply with any Applicable Requirements ("DICC Coverage"), provided however that DICC Coverage may be subject to limits of no less than $[] per occurrence. Said policy or policies shall also contain a waiver of subrogation. If such insurance coverage has a deductible clause, the deductible amount shall not exceed $[] per occurrence for All Other Perils, and Lessee shall be liable for such deductible amount in the event of an Insured Loss.

(b) Rental Value. The Insuring Party shall obtain and keep in force a policy or policies in the name of Lessor with loss payable to Lessor and any Lender, insuring the loss of the full Rent for one year with an extended period of indemnity for an additional 180 days ("Rental Value Insurance"). The amount of coverage shall be adjusted annually to reflect the projected Rent otherwise payable by Lessee, for the next twelve (12) month period. Lessee shall be liable for any deductible amount in the event of such loss.

8.4 Lessee's Property; Worker's Compensation Insurance.

(a) Property Damage. Should Lessee so choose, Lessee may obtain and maintain insurance coverage on all of Lessee's personal property, Trade Fixtures, and Lessee Owned Alterations and Utility Installations. Such insurance shall be full replacement cost coverage with a deductible not to exceed $[] per occurrence. The proceeds from any such insurance shall be used by Lessee for the replacement of personal property, Trade Fixtures and Lessee Owned Alterations and Utility Installations.

(b) Worker's Compensation Insurance. Lessee shall obtain and maintain a Worker's Compensation Insurance and Employers' Liability Insurance policy. The limit of liability as respects Employers' Liability coverage shall be no less than $[] per accident. Such policy shall include a 'Waiver of Subrogation' endorsement. Lessee shall provide Lessor with a copy of such endorsement along with the certificate of insurance or copy of the policy required by paragraph 8.5.

(c) No Representation of Adequate Coverage. Lessor makes no representation that the limits or forms of coverage of insurance specified herein are adequate to cover Lessee's property, business operations or obligations under this Lease.

8.5 Insurance Policies. Insurance required herein shall be by companies maintaining during the policy term a "General Policyholders Rating" of at least A-, as set forth in the most current issue of "Best's Insurance Guide",. Lessee shall not do or permit to be done anything which invalidates the required insurance policies. Lessee shall, prior to the Commencement Date, deliver to Lessor certificates evidencing the existence and amounts of the required insurance. Lessee shall, prior to the expiration of such policies, furnish Lessor with evidence of renewals, or Lessor may increase his liability insurance coverage and charge the cost thereof to Lessee, which amount shall be payable by Lessee to Lessor upon demand. Such policies shall be for a term of at least one year, or the length of the remaining term of this Lease, whichever is less. If either Party shall fail to procure and maintain the insurance required to be carried by it, the other Party may, but shall not be required to, procure and maintain the same.

8.6 Waiver of Subrogation. Without affecting any other rights or remedies, Lessee and Lessor each hereby release and relieve the other, and waive their entire right to recover damages against the other, for loss of or damage to its property arising out of or incident to the perils required to be insured against herein. The effect of such releases and waivers is not limited by the amount of insurance carried or required, or by any deductibles applicable hereto. The Parties agree to have their respective property damage insurance carriers waive any right to subrogation that such companies may have against Lessor or Lessee, as the case may be, so long as the insurance is not invalidated thereby.

8.7 Indemnity. Except for Lessor's gross negligence or willful misconduct, Lessee shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless the Premises, Lessor and its agents, Lessor's master or ground lessor, partners and Lenders, from and against any and all claims, loss of rents and/or damages, liens, judgments, penalties, attorneys' and consultants' fees, expenses and/or liabilities arising out of, involving, or in connection with, a Breach of the Lease by Lessee and/or the use and/or occupancy of the Premises by Lessee and/or by Lessee's employees, contractors or invitees. If any action or proceeding is brought against Lessor by reason of any of the foregoing matters, Lessee shall upon notice defend the same at Lessee's expense by counsel reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and Lessor shall cooperate with Lessee in such defense. Lessor need not have first paid any such claim in order to be defended or indemnified. Lessor shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold Lessee, and any of Lessee's affiliates, subsidiaries, parent companies, and any of their officers, directors, employees, and agents, harmless against any and all Claims arising out of or related to Lessor's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

8.8 Exemption of Lessor and its Agents from Liability. Notwithstanding the gross negligence or breach of this Lease by Lessor or its agents, neither Lessor nor its agents shall be liable under any circumstances for: (i) injury or damage to the person or goods, wares, merchandise or other property of Lessee, Lessee's employees, contractors, invitees, customers, or any other person in or about the Premises, whether such damage or injury is caused by or results from fire, steam, electricity, gas, water or rain, indoor air quality, the presence of mold or from the breakage, leakage, obstruction or other defects of pipes, fire sprinklers, wires, appliances, plumbing, HVAC or lighting fixtures, or from any other cause, whether the said injury or damage results from conditions arising upon the Premises or upon other portions of the building of which the Premises are a part, or from other sources or places, (ii) any damages arising from any act or neglect of any other tenant of Lessor or from the failure of Lessor or its agents to enforce the provisions of any other lease, or (iii) injury to Lessee's business or for any loss of income or profit therefrom. Instead, it is intended that Lessee's sole recourse in the event of such damages or injury be to file a claim on the insurance policy(ies) that Lessee is required to maintain pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 8.

8.9 Failure to Provide Insurance. If Lessee does not maintain the required insurance during the Term and/or does not provide Lessor with the required binders or certificates evidencing the existence of the required insurance, then, after ten (10) days' prior written notice, Lessor may obtain insurance policies sufficient to meet the requirements herein. Lessee shall pay to Lessor an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the actual costs and expenses of such policies incurred by Lessor upon receipt of an invoice therefor. Lessor obtaining such policies shall in no event constitute a waiver of Lessee's Event of Default with respect to the failure to maintain such insurance, prevent the exercise of any of the other rights and remedies granted hereunder, nor relieve Lessee of its obligation to maintain the insurance specified in this Lease.

9. Damage or Destruction.

9.1 Restoration Following Destruction.

If any portion of the Premises or any appurtenance thereto shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, then, whether or not such damage or destruction shall have been insured, Lessee shall give prompt written notice thereof to Lessor and shall proceed with reasonable diligence to repair or rebuild the same at its sole cost and expense or to replace the same with improvements of no lesser quality or value. To the extent such casualty is covered by the casualty insurance required by the provisions of Paragraph 8.3, Lessee shall not be required to commence restoration until such time as it shall have received insurance proceeds for such fire or other casualty and in any case until it has received all necessary permits.

Any repair or rebuilding following either a total or a partial destruction shall be performed pursuant to Paragraph 9.3, and, if there are insurance proceeds resulting from such damage or destruction and Lessee is in the process of repairing and restoring as provided in this Paragraph and in said Paragraph 9.3, then except as provided in said Paragraph 9.3 such proceeds shall be deposited with a bank or trust company pursuant to Paragraph 9.5 (the "Depository") and disbursed in the manner as provided in this Lease. If at any time Lessee shall fail to prosecute such work of repair or rebuilding with diligence and promptness, then Lessor may give to Lessee written notice of such failure and if such failure continues for sixty (60) days thereafter, then Lessor, in addition to all other rights which it may have, may enter upon the Premises, provide labor and/or materials, cause the performance of any contract and/or take such other action as it may deem advisable to prosecute such work. Lessor shall be entitled to reimbursement for its costs and expenses from any insurance proceeds and any other moneys held by the Depository for application to the cost of such work. All reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Lessor in carrying out such work for which it is not reimbursed by the Depository shall be paid by Lessee upon demand, which demand may be made by Lessor periodically as such costs and expenses are incurred, in addition to any damages to which Lessor may be entitled hereunder.

All insurance proceeds in excess of $[] shall be paid to the Depository.

9.2 Lessee Obligations Following Destruction.

Rent shall not abate because of any damage to or destruction of the Premises, or to the appurtenances thereto. Lessee shall continue to perform all of its obligations hereunder, notwithstanding any such damage or destruction.

Any rent insurance proceeds received by the Depository by reason of such damage or destruction shall be applied by it to the payment of the Rent and to premiums for any insurance required to be maintained by Lessee under this Lease. However, such payment shall not relieve Lessee of its obligations to pay punctually all such rents, real estate taxes and insurance premiums should rent insurance proceeds held by the Depository be insufficient to pay the same or if for any reason such rent insurance proceeds are not actually applied by a Depository to the payment of such amounts. All rent insurance proceeds and any balance of any insurance proceeds in excess of amounts utilized for repairs and/or rebuilding (where the damage has been fully repaired or restored) shall be paid to Lessee provided Lessee is not then in monetary default hereunder. In the event that there shall be excess insurance proceeds by reason of the fact that Lessee is precluded from making repairs and/or rebuilding by reason of operation of law (such as zoning changes, etc.) any such excess insurance proceeds shall be paid promptly to Lessor.

9.3 Restoration after Fire or Condemnation

Whenever Lessee shall be required to carry out any restoration or repair, Lessee, prior to the commencement of such work, shall comply with the following requirements if such work has a cost in excess of $[] as determined by an independent architect or contractor selected by Lessee whose report is furnished to Lessor and any lender. If Lessee fails to have such a report promptly prepared then it shall be deemed that such work has a cost in excess of $[].

1. Lessee shall furnish to Lessor complete plans and specifications for such work.

2. Lessee shall furnish to Lessor a budget for such work setting forth Lessee's good faith estimate of the cost of completion of such work. Such budget shall be updated periodically upon request of Lessor.

3. Lessee, at its sole cost, shall at Lessor's requests furnish to Lessor certified or photostatic copies of all permits and approvals required by law, regulation or ordinance in connection with the commencement and conduct of such work.

4. If the amount of fire insurance proceeds held by the Depository to be applied to pay for the cost of such work pursuant to this Paragraph shall be less than the Lessee's estimate of the cost of completion of such work, then Lessee shall deposit with the Depository an additional sum so that the Depository shall have at all times an amount equal to the estimate of cost of completion of such work.

5. The Depository shall not be required to make disbursements to Lessee more often than at thirty (30) day intervals or in interim amounts of less than [] Dollars ($[]), except for the final disbursement. Lessee shall make written request for each disbursement at least seven (7) days in advance, and shall comply with the following requirements in connection with each such disbursement:

A. Lessee shall deliver to the Depository, at the time of request for a disbursement, a certificate (the "Certificate") of an independent architect reasonably satisfactory to Lessor (the "Architect"), dated not more than ten (10) days prior to the application for withdrawal of funds and accompanied by such invoices, receipts, contracts or other evidence of the amount requested, setting-forth the following:

(i) That the sum then requested to be withdrawn either has been paid by Lessee, or is justly due to persons (whose names and addresses shall be stated) who have furnished services or materials for the work and giving a brief description of such services and materials and stating the progress of the work up to the date of said certificate;

(ii) That the sum then requested to be withdrawn, plus all sums previously withdrawn, does not exceed the cost of the work insofar as actually accomplished up to the date of such certificate, less any contractor holdbacks;

(iii) That all prior disbursements under this Paragraph have been expended solely in payment of costs for the work actually incurred;

(iv) That the remainder of the moneys held by the Depository will be sufficient to pay for the completion of the work in accordance with the estimate thereof.

(v) That no part of the cost of the services and materials described in the foregoing paragraph (i) is being made on the basis of the withdrawal of any funds in any previous or pending application; and

(vi) That, except for the amount requested, there is no outstanding indebtedness known, after due inquiry, in connection with the work which, if unpaid, might become the basis of a mechanic's or other similar lien upon the Premises, unless Lessor is contesting such indebtedness in good faith and agrees to discharge (by bonding or otherwise) any lien once filed.

B. Lessee shall deliver to the Depository satisfactory evidence that the Premises and all materials and all property described in the Certificate are free and clear of all liens, or encumbrances, except (a) liens or encumbrances encumbering the Premises as of the date of this Lease, (b) this Lease and any mortgages made by Lessor and (c) liens for taxes and other charges payable by Lessee which are not delinquent or the payment of which has been deferred by Lessee in full compliance with this Lease. The Depository shall receive a certificate of a title insurance company acceptable to Lessor, dated as of the date of the disbursement confirming the foregoing.

C. Lessee shall deliver to the Depository a survey of the Premises dated as of a date within ten (10) days prior to the advance, showing no encroachments or extensions over set-back lines. Surveys need not be so updated, however, if a foundation survey is provided and the work being performed does not touch or extend beyond the perimeter of the building on the Premises and would not affect any facts shown on an existing survey thereof.

D. There shall be no default by Lessee under the terms of this Lease. At the time of each disbursement, Lessor shall deliver to the Depository a certificate signed by Lessee, certifying to the fulfillment of the conditions of this clause. The Depository may rely on said certificate as being accurate unless, prior to the disbursement then being made, the Depository (where other than Lessor) shall have received a written notice from Lessor, referring to this clause, containing statements contrary to those set forth in said certificate.

Lessor shall receive a copy of each item required to be delivered to Depository hereunder concurrently with delivery to the Depository.

Upon compliance with the foregoing, the Depository shall pay to the persons named in the Certificate, the respective amounts stated in said Certificate to have been paid by it. Lessor shall have the right, from time to time, to inspect the restoration work. If, after all of said work shall be completed in accordance with the terms of this Lease, Lessee shall not be in default thereunder and all governmental approvals required shall have been obtained, there are funds held by the Depository for application to the cost of such work in excess of the amounts withdrawn, then such funds shall be paid out by the Depository as provided herein.

9.4 Completion by Lessor.

If, after a default by Lessee, Lessor shall perform any of such work, then Lessor may withdraw funds held by the Depository for application to the cost thereof. In withdrawing such funds Lessor need not comply with any of the preceding requirements, but must only comply with the requirements hereafter set forth. Such withdrawals shall be made not more often than at thirty (30) day intervals. At the time of each withdrawal request Lessor shall deliver to the Depository, a certificate from either the Architect or other architect selected by Lessor stating that the sum then requested to be withdrawn either has been paid by Lessor, and/or is justly due, to contractors, subcontractors, materialmen, engineers, architects or to other persons (whose names and addresses shall be stated) who have rendered or furnished services or materials for the work, and giving a brief description of such services and materials and the respective amounts so paid or due to each of said persons in respect thereof. Such certificate shall also state that no part of the cost of the services or materials described therein has been or is the basis of a withdrawal of funds in any previous or pending application.

9.5 Depository.

In any instance when a Depository is to serve, such Depository shall be selected by Lessor within ten (10) days after written notice by Lessee. The Depository so selected shall be a bank(s) or trust company(ies) authorized to do business in the State of Illinois and having a net worth of $1,000,000,000 or more. Upon the selection of such Depository, Lessor shall give to Lessee written notice thereof. If Lessor shall not select a Depository within ten (10) business days after notice from Lessee, then Lessee may select such Depository, which shall be a bank or trust company or escrow company authorized to do business in the State of Illinois.

Before paying out any moneys pursuant to this Lease, the Depository may retain free of trust its reasonable fees and expenses for acting as Depository. In the event there are not sufficient funds held by the Depository to pay its fees and expenses, Lessee shall pay all such fees and expenses.

The Depository shall be obligated to pay interest at competitive rates on any funds held by it. Any interest paid or received on the funds held in trust by it shall be accumulated with such funds. The Depository shall have no affirmative obligation to ascertain a determination of the amount of, or to effect the collection of, any insurance proceeds or condemnation awards(s), unless it shall have given an express undertaking to do so.

No contractor or any other person whatsoever, other than Lessor, Lessee and any Lender shall have any interest in or rights to any funds held by the Depository.

The Depository shall not commingle its own funds with funds received pursuant to any of the provisions of this Lease but shall hold such funds in trust for the purposes provided in this Lease. The Depository shall not be liable or accountable for any action taken or suffered by it or for any disbursement of funds made in good faith. If Lessor, Lessee and any Lender shall jointly instruct the Depository with regard to the disbursement of any funds held by it, then it shall disburse said funds in accordance with such instructions, and shall not be liable to anyone for having so disbursed said funds in accordance with such instructions.

10. Real Property Taxes.

10.1 Definition. As used herein, the term "Real Property Taxes" shall include any form of assessment; real estate, general, special, ordinary or extraordinary, or rental levy or tax (other than inheritance, personal income or estate taxes); improvement bond; and/or license fee imposed upon or levied against any legal or equitable interest of Lessor in the Premises, Lessor's right to other income therefrom, and/or Lessor's business of leasing, by any authority having the direct or indirect power to tax and where the funds are generated with reference to the Premises address. Real Property Taxes shall also include any tax, fee, levy, assessment or charge, or any increase therein: (i) imposed by reason of events occurring during the term of this Lease, including but not limited to, a change in the ownership of the Premises, and (ii) levied or assessed on machinery or equipment provided by Lessor to Lessee pursuant to this Lease and (iii) any special tax on rents, and any special taxes relative to the Agreed Use.

10.2 Payment of Taxes. In addition to Base Rent, Lessee shall pay to Lessor an amount equal to the Real Property Tax payment due at least twenty (20) days prior to the applicable delinquency date. If any such payment shall cover any period of time prior to the commencement or after the expiration or termination of this Lease, Lessee's share of such installment shall be prorated. Lessor may estimate the current Real Property Taxes, and require that such taxes be paid in advance to Lessor by Lessee monthly in advance with the payment of the Base Rent. Such monthly payments shall be an amount equal to the amount of the estimated installment of taxes divided by the number of months remaining before the month in which said installment becomes delinquent. When the actual amount of the applicable tax bill is known, the amount of such equal monthly advance payments shall be adjusted as required to provide the funds needed to pay the applicable taxes. If the amount collected by Lessor is insufficient to pay such Real Property Taxes when due, Lessee shall pay Lessor, upon demand, such additional sum as is necessary. If the amount collected by Lessor is more than the Real Property Taxes due, Lessor shall credit such additional amount to the next installment(s) of Base Rent due. Advance payments may be intermingled with other moneys of Lessor and shall not bear interest. If requested by Lessor, Lessee shall pay the Real Property Taxes directly to the taxing authority.

10.3 Personal Property Taxes. Lessee shall pay, prior to delinquency, all taxes assessed against and levied upon Lessee Owned Alterations, Utility Installations, Trade Fixtures, furnishings, equipment and all personal property of Lessee. When possible, Lessee shall cause its Lessee Owned Alterations and Utility Installations, Trade Fixtures, furnishings, equipment and all other personal property to be assessed and billed separately from the real property of Lessor. If any of Lessee's said property shall be assessed with Lessor's real property, Lessee shall pay Lessor the taxes attributable to Lessee's property within ten (10) days after receipt of a written statement setting forth the taxes applicable to Lessee's property.

11. Utilities and Services. Lessee shall pay for all water, gas, heat, light, power, telephone, trash disposal and other utilities and services supplied to the Premises, together with any taxes thereon. If any such services are not separately metered or billed to Lessee, Lessee shall pay a reasonable proportion, to be determined by Lessor, of all charges jointly metered or billed. There shall be no abatement of rent and Lessor shall not be liable in any respect whatsoever for the inadequacy, stoppage, interruption or discontinuance of any utility or service due to riot, strike, labor dispute, breakdown, accident, repair or other cause if beyond Lessor's reasonable control or in cooperation with governmental request or directions. Lessee hereby waives the provisions of any applicable existing or future law, ordinance or governmental regulation permitting the termination of this Lease due to an interruption, failure or inability to provide any services.

12. Assignment and Subletting.

12.1 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Lease, Lessee covenants and agrees that it will not assign this Lease or sublet (which term, without limitation, shall include the granting of concessions, management arrangements and the like) the whole or any part of the Premises without, in each instance, having first received the express written consent of Lessor, which Lessor may withhold in its sole discretion except as expressly provided in this Paragraph 12.1. Lessor's consent to any proposed assignment of this Lease or subletting of all but not less than all of the Premises, shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, provided that (i) any such assignee or sublessee (or an affiliated entity or parent company thereof) demonstrates the financial capacity to carry out all of the obligations under this Lease or the sublease, as the case may be, (ii) the assignee or sublessee has a business reputation that will not detract from the image of the Building and (iii) in the case of an assignment, the proposed assignee has a tangible net worth reasonably sufficient in Lessor's reasonable judgment to fully perform the obligations of Lessee under this Lease then remaining to be performed or in the case of a sublease, the proposed subtenant (or an affiliated entity or parent company thereof) has a financial net worth reasonably sufficient in Lessor's reasonable judgment to fully perform those obligations of Lessee under this Lease to be performed by the subtenant under the proposed sublease. Any assignment of this Lease or subletting of the whole or any part of the Premises (other than as permitted to an Affiliate of Lessee as set forth below) by Lessee without Lessor's express consent shall be invalid, void and of no force or effect. In any case where Lessor shall consent to such subletting, the Lessee named herein shall remain fully liable for the obligations of Lessee hereunder, including, without limitation, the obligation to pay the Rent and other amounts provided under this Lease. Any such request shall set forth, in detail reasonably satisfactory to Lessor, the identification of the proposed assignee or sublessee, its financial condition and the terms on which the proposed assignment or subletting is to be made, including, without limitation, the Rent or any other consideration to be paid in respect thereto and such request shall be treated as Lessee's warranty in respect of the terms on which the proposed transfer is to be made.

It shall be a condition of the validity of any such assignment or subletting that the assignee or sublessee agrees directly with Lessor, in form satisfactory to Lessor, to be bound by all the obligations of Lessee hereunder, including, without limitation, the obligation to pay Base Rent and other amounts provided for under this Lease and the covenant against further assignment and subletting except in compliance with the terms of this Lease; any such subletting shall not relieve the Lessee named herein of any of the obligations of Lessee hereunder, and Lessee shall remain fully liable therefor. In no event, however, shall Lessee assign this Lease or sublet the whole or any part of the Premises to a proposed assignee or sublessee which has been judicially declared bankrupt or insolvent according to law, or with respect to which an assignment has been made of property for the benefit of creditors, or with respect to which a receiver, guardian, conservator, trustee in involuntary bankruptcy or similar officer has been appointed to take charge of all or any substantial part of the proposed assignee's or sublessee's property by a court of competent jurisdiction, or with respect to which a petition has been filed for reorganization under any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code now or hereafter enacted, or if a proposed assignee or sublessee has filed a petition for such reorganization, or for arrangements under any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code now or hereafter enacted and providing a plan for a debtor to settle, satisfy or extend the time for the payment of debts.

For the purposes of this Lease, the entering into of any management agreement or any agreement in the nature thereof transferring control or any substantial percentage of the profits and losses from the business operations of the Lessee in the Premises to a person or entity other than the Lessee (or an affiliate, subsidiary, or parent company of Lessee), or otherwise having substantially the same effect, shall be treated for all purposes as an assignment of this Lease and shall be governed by the provisions of this Paragraph 12.

Without limiting Lessor's discretion to grant or withhold its consent to any proposed assignment or subletting, if Lessee notifies Lessor in writing of Lessee's intent to assign this Lease or sublet the entire Premises, except in the case of a Permitted Transfer (as defined below), Lessor shall have the option, exercisable by written notice to Lessee given within thirty (30) days after Lessor's receipt of such notice of intent to assign or sublease, to terminate this Lease as of the date specified in Lessee's request.

Notwithstanding any contrary provisions herein, Lessor's consent shall not be required for an assignment or subletting to an Affiliate of Lessee, and for the purposes hereof, an "Affiliate of Lessee" shall mean (x) an entity which controls, is controlled by or under common control with Lessee, (y) a successor corporation related to Lessee by merger, consolidation, non-bankruptcy reorganization, or government action, or (z) a purchaser of substantially all of Lessee's assets at the Premises or stock; provided, however, that in the case of any assignment to an Affiliate of Lessee, the Affiliate shall agree directly with Lessor to be bound by all of the obligations of the Lessee under this Lease. Further, any person or entity owning directly or indirectly, a majority of either the outstanding voting rights or the outstanding ownership interests of Lessee, may assign or otherwise transfer such interests to another person or entity, provided that, in all instances, the combined net worth of the Lessee shall continue to have a net worth following consummation of such transaction that is at least equal to the net worth of Lessee as of the date of the assignment. In the avoidance of doubt, it is agreed that no assignment of this Lease, whether with or without the Lessor's consent, and no subletting of all or any portion of the Premises, again with or without the Lessor's consent, shall act to relieve the Lessee of its obligations under this Lease or release the Guarantor of its obligations under its guaranty. Any assignment or subletting pursuant to this paragraph shall be a "Permitted Transfer".

(a) An assignment or subletting without consent, other than a Permitted Transfer, shall, at Lessor's option, be a Default curable after notice per Paragraph 13.1(d), or a noncurable Breach without the necessity of any notice and grace period. If Lessor elects to treat such unapproved assignment or subletting as a noncurable Breach, Lessor may either: (i) terminate this Lease, or (ii) upon thirty (30) days written notice, increase the monthly Base Rent to []% of the Base Rent then in effect. Further, in the event of such Breach and rental adjustment, all fixed and non-fixed rental adjustments scheduled during the remainder of the Lease term shall be increased to []% of the scheduled adjusted rent.

(b) Lessee's remedy for any breach of Paragraph 12.1 by Lessor shall be limited to compensatory damages and/or injunctive relief.

(c) Lessor may reasonably withhold consent to a proposed assignment or subletting if Lessee is in Breach or Default at the time consent is requested.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, allowing a de minimis portion of the Premises, i.e. 20 square feet or less, to be used by a third party vendor in connection with the installation of a vending machine or payphone shall not constitute a subletting.

12.2 Terms and Conditions Applicable to Assignment and Subletting.

(a) Regardless of Lessor's consent, no assignment or subletting shall: (i) be effective without the express written assumption by such assignee or sublessee of the obligations of Lessee under this Lease, (ii) release Lessee of any obligations hereunder, or (iii) alter the primary liability of Lessee for the payment of Rent or for the performance of any other obligations to be performed by Lessee.

(b) Lessor may accept Rent or performance of Lessee's obligations from any person other than Lessee pending approval or disapproval of an assignment. Neither a delay in the approval or disapproval of such assignment nor the acceptance of Rent or performance shall constitute a waiver or estoppel of Lessor's right to exercise its remedies for Lessee's Default or Breach.

(c) Lessor's consent to any assignment or subletting shall not constitute a consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting.

(d) In the event of any Default or Breach by Lessee, Lessor may proceed directly against Lessee, any Guarantors or anyone else responsible for the performance of Lessee's obligations under this Lease, including any assignee or sublessee, without first exhausting Lessor's remedies against any other person or entity responsible therefor to Lessor, or any security held by Lessor.

(e) Each request for consent to an assignment or subletting shall be in writing, accompanied by information relevant to Lessor's determination as to the financial and operational responsibility and appropriateness of the proposed assignee or sublessee, including but not limited to the intended use and/or required modification of the Premises, if any, together with a fee of $1000 as consideration for Lessor's considering and processing said request. Lessee agrees to provide Lessor with such other or additional information and/or documentation as may be reasonably requested. (See also Paragraph 34)

(f) Any assignee of, or sublessee under, this Lease shall, by reason of accepting such assignment, entering into such sublease, or entering into possession of the Premises or any portion thereof, be deemed to have assumed and agreed to conform and comply with each and every term, covenant, condition and obligation herein to be observed or performed by Lessee during the term of said assignment or sublease, other than such obligations as are contrary to or inconsistent with provisions of an assignment or sublease to which Lessor has specifically consented to in writing.

(g) Lessor's consent to any assignment or subletting shall not transfer to the assignee or sublessee any Option granted to the original Lessee by this Lease unless such transfer is specifically consented to by Lessor in writing, provided however the foregoing shall not apply to any Permitted Transfer. (See Paragraph 37.2)

12.3 Additional Terms and Conditions Applicable to Subletting. The following terms and conditions shall apply to any subletting by Lessee of all or any part of the Premises and shall be deemed included in all subleases under this Lease whether or not expressly incorporated therein:

(a) Lessee hereby assigns and transfers to Lessor all of Lessee's interest in all Rent payable on any sublease, and Lessor may collect such Rent and apply same toward Lessee's obligations under this Lease; provided, however, that until a Breach shall occur in the performance of Lessee's obligations, Lessee may collect said Rent. In the event that the amount collected by Lessor exceeds Lessee's then outstanding obligations any such excess shall be refunded to Lessee. Lessor shall not, by reason of the foregoing or any assignment of such sublease, nor by reason of the collection of Rent, be deemed liable to the sublessee for any failure of Lessee to perform and comply with any of Lessee's obligations to such sublessee. Lessee hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs any such sublessee, upon receipt of a written notice from Lessor stating that a Breach exists in the performance of Lessee's obligations under this Lease, to pay to Lessor all Rent due and to become due under the sublease. Sublessee shall rely upon any such notice from Lessor and shall pay all Rents to Lessor without any obligation or right to inquire as to whether such Breach exists, notwithstanding any claim from Lessee to the contrary.

(b) In the event of a Breach by Lessee, Lessor may, at its option, require sublessee to attorn to Lessor, in which event Lessor shall undertake the obligations of the sublessor under such sublease from the time of the exercise of said option to the expiration of such sublease; provided, however, Lessor shall not be liable for any prepaid rents or security deposit paid by such sublessee to such sublessor or for any prior Defaults or Breaches of such sublessor.

(c) Any matter requiring the consent of the sublessor under a sublease shall also require the consent of Lessor.

(d) No sublessee shall further assign or sublet all or any part of the Premises without Lessor's prior written consent.

(e) Lessor shall deliver a copy of any notice of Default or Breach by Lessee to the sublessee, who shall have the right to cure the Default of Lessee within the grace period, if any, specified in such notice. The sublessee shall have a right of reimbursement and offset from and against Lessee for any such Defaults cured by the sublessee.

13. Default; Breach; Remedies.

13.1 Default; Breach. A "Default" is defined as a failure by the Lessee to comply with or perform any of the terms, covenants, conditions or Rules and Regulations under this Lease. A "Breach" is defined as the occurrence of one or more of the following Defaults, and the failure of Lessee to cure such Default within any applicable grace period:

(a) The abandonment of the Premises; or the vacating of the Premises without providing a commercially reasonable level of security, or where the coverage of the property insurance described in Paragraph 8.3 is jeopardized as a result thereof, or without providing reasonable assurances to minimize potential vandalism.

(b) The failure of Lessee to make any payment of Rent or any Security Deposit required to be made by Lessee hereunder, whether to Lessor or to a third party, when due, to provide reasonable evidence of insurance or surety bond, or to fulfill any obligation under this Lease which endangers or threatens life or property, where such failure continues for a period of 3 business days following written notice to Lessee. THE ACCEPTANCE BY LESSOR OF A PARTIAL PAYMENT OF RENT OR SECURITY DEPOSIT SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF ANY OF LESSOR'S RIGHTS, INCLUDING LESSOR'S RIGHT TO RECOVER POSSESSION OF THE PREMISES.

(c) The failure of Lessee to allow Lessor and/or its agents access to the Premises or the commission of waste, act or acts constituting public or private nuisance, and/or an illegal activity on the Premises by Lessee, subject to Paragraph 51, where such actions continue for a period of 3 business days following written notice to Lessee. In the event that Lessee commits waste, a nuisance or an illegal activity a second time then, subject to Paragraph 51, the Lessor may elect to treat such conduct as a non-curable Breach rather than a Default.

(d) The failure by Lessee to provide (i) reasonable written evidence of compliance with Applicable Requirements, (ii) the service contracts, (iii) the rescission of an unauthorized assignment or subletting, (iv) an Estoppel Certificate or financial statements, (v) a requested subordination, (vi) evidence concerning any guaranty and/or Guarantor, (vii) any document requested under Paragraph 42, (viii) material safety data sheets (MSDS), or (ix) any other documentation or information which Lessor may reasonably require of Lessee under the terms of this Lease, where any such failure continues for a period of 10 days following written notice to Lessee.

(e) A Default by Lessee as to the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of this Lease, or of the rules adopted under Paragraph 40 hereof, other than those described in subparagraphs 13.1(a), (b), (c) or (d), above, where such Default continues for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice; provided, however, that if the nature of Lessee's Default is such that more than thirty (30) days are reasonably required for its cure, then it shall not be deemed to be a Breach if Lessee commences such cure within said thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes such cure to completion.

(f) The occurrence of any of the following events: (i) the making of any general arrangement or assignment for the benefit of creditors; (ii) becoming a "debtor" as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101 or any successor statute thereto (unless, in the case of a petition filed against Lessee, the same is dismissed within sixty (60) days); (iii) the appointment of a trustee or receiver to take possession of substantially all of Lessee's assets located at the Premises or of Lessee's interest in this Lease, where possession is not restored to Lessee within thirty (30) days; or (iv) the attachment, execution or other judicial seizure of substantially all of Lessee's assets located at the Premises or of Lessee's interest in this Lease, where such seizure is not discharged within thirty (30) days; provided, however, in the event that any provision of this subparagraph is contrary to any applicable law, such provision shall be of no force or effect, and not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.

(g) The discovery that any financial statement of Lessee or of any Guarantor given to Lessor was materially false.

(h) If the performance of Lessee's obligations under this Lease is guaranteed: (i) the death of a Guarantor, (ii) the termination of a Guarantor's liability with respect to this Lease other than in accordance with the terms of such guaranty, (iii) a Guarantor's becoming insolvent or the subject of a bankruptcy filing, (iv) a Guarantor's refusal to honor the guaranty, or (v) a Guarantor's breach of its guaranty obligation on an anticipatory basis, and Lessee's failure, within sixty (60) days following written notice of any such event, to provide written alternative assurance or security, which, when coupled with the then existing resources of Lessee, equals or exceeds the combined financial resources of Lessee and the Guarantors that existed at the time of execution of this Lease.

13.2 Remedies. If Lessee fails to perform any of its affirmative duties or obligations, within thirty (30) days after written notice (or in case of an emergency, without notice), Lessor may, at its option, perform such duty or obligation on Lessee's behalf, including but not limited to the obtaining of reasonably required bonds, insurance policies, or governmental licenses, permits or approvals. Lessee shall pay to Lessor an amount equal to []% of the costs and expenses incurred by Lessor in such performance upon receipt of an invoice therefor. In the event of a Breach, Lessor may, with or without further notice or demand, and without limiting Lessor in the exercise of any right or remedy which Lessor may have by reason of such Breach:

(a) Terminate Lessee's right to possession of the Premises by any lawful means, in which case this Lease shall terminate and Lessee shall immediately surrender possession to Lessor. In such event Lessor shall be entitled to recover from Lessee: (i) the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination; (ii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that the Lessee proves could have been reasonably avoided; (iii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that the Lessee proves could be reasonably avoided; and (iv) any other amount necessary to compensate Lessor for all the detriment proximately caused by the Lessee's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom, including but not limited to the cost of recovering possession of the Premises, expenses of reletting, including necessary renovation and alteration of the Premises, reasonable attorneys' fees, and that portion of any leasing commission paid by Lessor in connection with this Lease applicable to the unexpired term of this Lease. The worth at the time of award of the amount referred to in provision (iii) of the immediately preceding sentence shall be computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of the District within which the Premises are located at the time of award plus one percent. Efforts by Lessor to mitigate damages caused by Lessee's Breach of this Lease shall not waive Lessor's right to recover any damages to which Lessor is otherwise entitled. If termination of this Lease is obtained through the provisional remedy of unlawful detainer, Lessor shall have the right to recover in such proceeding any unpaid Rent and damages as are recoverable therein, or Lessor may reserve the right to recover all or any part thereof in a separate suit. If a notice and grace period required under Paragraph 13.1 was not previously given, a notice to pay rent or quit, or to perform or quit given to Lessee under the unlawful detainer statute shall also constitute the notice required by Paragraph 13.1. In such case, the applicable grace period required by Paragraph 13.1 and the unlawful detainer statute shall run concurrently, and the failure of Lessee to cure the Default within the greater of the two such grace periods shall constitute both an unlawful detainer and a Breach of this Lease entitling Lessor to the remedies provided for in this Lease and/or by said statute.

(b) Continue the Lease and Lessee's right to possession and recover the Rent as it becomes due, in which event Lessee may sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations. Lessee acknowledges that the limitations on subletting and assignment set forth in Paragraph 12 herein are reasonable. Acts of maintenance, efforts to relet, and/or the appointment of a receiver to protect the Lessor's interests, shall not constitute a termination of the Lessee's right to possession.

(c) Pursue any other remedy now or hereafter available under the laws or judicial decisions of the state wherein the Premises are located. The expiration or termination of this Lease and/or the termination of Lessee's right to possession shall not relieve Lessee from liability under any indemnity provisions of this Lease as to matters occurring or accruing during the term hereof or by reason of Lessee's occupancy of the Premises.

(d) Lessee waives any right of redemption or relief from forfeiture under any other present or future law in the event Lessee is evicted and Lessor takes possession of the Property by reason of a default.

13.3 Late Charges. Lessee hereby acknowledges that late payment by Lessee of Rent will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of which will be extremely difficult to ascertain. Such costs include, but are not limited to, processing and accounting charges, and late charges which may be imposed upon Lessor by any Lender. Accordingly, if any Rent shall not be received by Lessor within five (5) days after such amount shall be due, then, without any requirement for notice to Lessee, Lessee shall immediately pay to Lessor a one-time late charge equal to []% of each such overdue amount or $100, whichever is greater. The Parties hereby agree that such late charge represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs Lessor will incur by reason of such late payment. Acceptance of such late charge by Lessor shall in no event constitute a waiver of Lessee's Default or Breach with respect to such overdue amount, nor prevent the exercise of any of the other rights and remedies granted hereunder. In the event that a late charge is payable hereunder, whether or not collected, for 3 consecutive installments of Base Rent, then notwithstanding any provision of this Lease to the contrary, Base Rent shall, at Lessor's option, become due and payable quarterly in advance.

13.4 Interest. Any monetary payment due Lessor hereunder, other than late charges, not received by Lessor, when due shall bear interest from the 31st day after it was due. The interest ("Interest") charged shall be computed at the rate of []% per annum but shall not exceed the maximum rate allowed by law. Interest is payable in addition to the potential late charge provided for in Paragraph 13.3.

13.5 Breach by Lessor. Lessor shall not be deemed in breach of this Lease unless Lessor fails within a reasonable time to perform an obligation required to be performed by Lessor. For purposes of this Paragraph, a reasonable time shall in no event be more less than thirty (30) days after receipt by Lessor, and any Lender whose name and address shall have been furnished to Lessee in writing for such purpose, of written notice specifying wherein such obligation of Lessor has not been performed; provided, however, that if the nature of Lessor's obligation is such that more than thirty (30) days are reasonably required for its performance, then Lessor shall not be in breach if performance is commenced within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently pursued to completion. In no event shall Lessor be liable for punitive, consequential, special or indirect damages or loss of profits or the like.

14. Condemnation. If the Premises or any portion thereof are taken under the power of eminent domain or sold under the threat of the exercise of said power (collectively "Condemnation"), this Lease shall terminate as to the part taken as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever first occurs. Condemnation awards and/or payments shall be the property of Lessor, whether such award shall be made as compensation for diminution in value of the leasehold, the value of the part taken, or for severance damages; provided, however, that Lessee shall be entitled to any compensation paid by the condemnor for Lessee's relocation expenses, loss of business goodwill and/or Trade Fixtures, without regard to whether or not this Lease is terminated pursuant to the provisions of this Paragraph, provided that no separate award to Lessee shall reduce Lessor's award. In the event that this Lease is not terminated by reason of the Condemnation, Lessor shall repair any damage to the Premises caused by such Condemnation, but shall not be obligated to expend more than the award in such restoration. Further, if any substantial part of the Premises are taken or condemned, Lessee may, at its option, terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever first occurs. For purposes of the preceding sentence a "substantial part of the Premises" shall mean (i) 20% or more of the total floor area of the Premises or (ii) any portion of the Premises, the loss of which materially and adversely impacts (x) Lessee's ability to use the Premises for its Agreed Use, (y) the accessibility of the Premises, or (z) the visibility of the Premises. If Lessee does not terminate this Lease in accordance with the foregoing, this Lease shall remain in full force and effect as to the portion of the Premises remaining, except that the Base Rent shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction in floor area of the Premises.

15. Estoppel Certificates; Financial Statements.

(a) Lessee shall within ten (10) business days after written notice from Lessor execute, acknowledge and deliver to Lessor a statement in writing in form similar to the then most current "Estoppel Certificate" form published by AIR CRE or such other form as Lessor shall reasonably require, plus such additional information, confirmation and/or statements as may be reasonably requested by Lessor.

(b) If Lessee shall fail to execute or deliver the Estoppel Certificate within such 10-day period, Lessor may execute an Estoppel Certificate stating that: (i) the Lease is in full force and effect without modification except as may be represented by Lessor, (ii) there are no uncured defaults in Lessor's performance, and (iii) not more than one month's rent has been paid in advance. Prospective purchasers and encumbrancers may rely upon Lessor's Estoppel Certificate, and Lessee shall be estopped from denying the truth of the facts contained in said Certificate. In addition, Lessee acknowledges that any failure on its part to provide such an Estoppel Certificate will expose Lessor to risks and potentially cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the extent of which will be extremely difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, should the Lessee fail to execute and/or deliver a requested Estoppel Certificate in a timely fashion the monthly Base Rent shall be automatically increased, without any requirement for notice to Lessee, by an amount equal to []% of the then existing Base Rent or $100, whichever is greater until the Estoppel Certificate is provided for remainder of the Lease. The Parties agree that such increase in Base Rent represents fair and reasonable compensation for the additional risk/costs that Lessor will incur by reason of Lessee's failure to provide the Estoppel Certificate. Such increase in Base Rent shall in no event constitute a waiver of Lessee's Default or Breach with respect to the failure to provide the Estoppel Certificate nor prevent the exercise of any of the other rights and remedies granted hereunder.

(c) Lessee and all Guarantors shall, within ten (10) days after a request from Lessor, deliver to Lessor such financial statements as are reasonably required by Lessor to verify the net worth of Lessee, any Guarantor of Lessee's obligations under this Lease or an affiliate or parent company of Lessee as Lessor may request. Lessee represents and warrants to Lessor that all such financial statements provided in connection with this Lease including, without limitation, any that have been provided prior to the date of this Lease, are true, complete and correct as of the date thereof. Lessee further agrees to cooperate with any request by Lessor for Lessee's written permission or other cooperation in connection with Lessor's obtaining a credit report or similar information regarding Lessee and/or Lessee's principals or Guarantor from third-party sources; and in this regard, Lessee, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, hereby waives any obligations to Lessee which Lessor may otherwise have with regard to Lessor's seeking and/or obtaining any such third-party reports or information. Lessor anticipates that its request for the additional information prescribed in this Paragraph 15(c) will be limited either to a potential sale or financing of the Premises or of all or a portion of the Premises or to Lessor's concern as to the continuing financial ability of Lessee to perform its obligations under this Lease or of Guarantor to perform the obligations under the Guaranty. Lessee acknowledges and agrees that any financial statements submitted by Lessee to Lessor at any time in connection with this Lease are being relied upon by Lessor in entering into this Lease and extending any credit to Lessee and, to the extent that such financial statements, or any financial statements provided by Lessee to Lessor subsequent to the execution of this Lease, are materially false or incorrect, it shall be deemed a Lessee Default, and Lessor, upon or after discovery of such, may terminate this Lease or pursue any other applicable default remedies set forth in this Lease. Further, Lessor specifically reserves all rights it may have to object to a discharge or reorganization by Lessee or any Guarantor in any bankruptcy proceeding filed by or against Lessee or any Guarantor based upon such materially false or incorrect financial statements.

(d) If Lessor desires to finance, refinance, or sell the Premises, or any part thereof, Lessee and all Guarantors shall within ten (10) days after written notice from Lessor deliver to any potential lender or purchaser designated by Lessor such financial statements as may be reasonably required by such lender or purchaser, including but not limited to Lessee's financial statements for the past 2 years, provided such request is not made more than once per calendar year. All such financial statements shall be received by Lessor and such lender or purchaser in confidence and shall be used only for the purposes herein set forth.

16. Definition of Lessor. The term "Lessor" as used herein shall mean the owner or owners at the time in question of the fee title to the Premises, or, if this is a sublease, of the Lessee's interest in the prior lease. In the event of a transfer of Lessor's title or interest in the Premises or this Lease, Lessor shall deliver to the transferee or assignee (in cash or by credit) any unused Security Deposit held by Lessor. Upon such transfer or assignment and delivery of the Security Deposit, as aforesaid, the prior Lessor shall be relieved of all liability with respect to the obligations and/or covenants under this Lease thereafter to be performed by the Lessor. Subject to the foregoing, the obligations and/or covenants in this Lease to be performed by the Lessor shall be binding only upon the Lessor as hereinabove defined.

17. Severability. The invalidity of any provision of this Lease, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall in no way affect the validity of any other provision hereof.

18. Days. Unless otherwise specifically indicated to the contrary, the word "days" as used in this Lease shall mean and refer to calendar days.

19. Limitation on Liability. The obligations of Lessor under this Lease shall not constitute personal obligations of Lessor, or its partners, members, directors, officers or shareholders, and Lessee shall look to the Premises, and to no other assets of Lessor, for the satisfaction of any liability of Lessor with respect to this Lease, and shall not seek recourse against Lessor's partners, members, directors, officers or shareholders, or any of their personal assets for such satisfaction.

20. Time of Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to the performance of all obligations to be performed or observed by the Parties under this Lease.

21. No Prior or Other Agreements; Broker Disclaimer. This Lease contains all agreements between the Parties with respect to any matter mentioned herein, and no other prior or contemporaneous agreement or understanding shall be effective. Lessor and Lessee each represents and warrants to the Brokers that it has made, and is relying solely upon, its own investigation as to the nature, quality, character and financial responsibility of the other Party to this Lease and as to the use, nature, quality and character of the Premises. Brokers have no responsibility with respect thereto or with respect to any default or breach hereof by either Party.

22. Notices.

22.1 Notice Requirements. All notices required or permitted by this Lease or applicable law shall be in writing and may be delivered in person (by hand or by courier) or may be sent by regular, certified or registered mail or U.S. Postal Service Express Mail, with postage prepaid, or by facsimile transmission, or by email, and shall be deemed sufficiently given if served in a manner specified in this Paragraph 22. Each Party's present address for delivery or mailing of notices is set forth below. Either Party may by written notice to the other specify a different address for notice, except that upon Lessee's taking possession of the Premises, the Premises shall constitute Lessee's address for notice. A copy of all notices to Lessor shall be concurrently transmitted to such party or parties at such addresses as Lessor may from time to time hereafter designate in writing.

22.2 Date of Notice. Any notice sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, shall be deemed given on the date of delivery shown on the receipt card, or if no delivery date is shown, the postmark thereon. If sent by regular mail the notice shall be deemed given 72 hours after the same is addressed as required herein and mailed with postage prepaid. Notices delivered by United States Express Mail or overnight courier that guarantees next day delivery shall be deemed given 24 hours after delivery of the same to the Postal Service or courier. Notices delivered by hand, or transmitted by facsimile transmission or by email shall be deemed delivered upon actual receipt. If notice is received on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, it shall be deemed received on the next business day.

23. Waivers.

(a) No waiver by Lessor of the Default or Breach of any term, covenant or condition hereof by Lessee, shall be deemed a waiver of any other term, covenant or condition hereof, or of any subsequent Default or Breach by Lessee of the same or of any other term, covenant or condition hereof. Lessor's consent to, or approval of, any act shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of Lessor's consent to, or approval of, any subsequent or similar act by Lessee, or be construed as the basis of an estoppel to enforce the provision or provisions of this Lease requiring such consent.

(b) The acceptance of Rent by Lessor shall not be a waiver of any Default or Breach by Lessee. Any payment by Lessee may be accepted by Lessor on account of monies or damages due Lessor, notwithstanding any qualifying statements or conditions made by Lessee in connection therewith, which such statements and/or conditions shall be of no force or effect whatsoever unless specifically agreed to in writing by Lessor at or before the time of deposit of such payment.

(c) THE PARTIES AGREE THAT THE TERMS OF THIS LEASE SHALL GOVERN WITH REGARD TO ALL MATTERS RELATED THERETO AND HEREBY WAIVE THE PROVISIONS OF ANY PRESENT OR FUTURE STATUTE TO THE EXTENT THAT SUCH STATUTE IS INCONSISTENT WITH THIS LEASE.

24. No Right To Holdover. Lessee has no right to retain possession of the Premises or any part thereof beyond the expiration or termination of this Lease. In the event that Lessee holds over, then the Base Rent shall be increased to []% of the Base Rent applicable immediately preceding the expiration or termination. Holdover Base Rent shall be calculated on monthly basis. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as consent by Lessor to any holding over by Lessee.

25. Cumulative Remedies. No remedy or election hereunder shall be deemed exclusive but shall, wherever possible, be cumulative with all other remedies at law or in equity.

26. Covenants and Conditions; Construction of Agreement. All provisions of this Lease to be observed or performed by Lessee are both covenants and conditions. In construing this Lease, all headings and titles are for the convenience of the Parties only and shall not be considered a part of this Lease. Whenever required by the context, the singular shall include the plural and vice versa. This Lease shall not be construed as if prepared by one of the Parties, but rather according to its fair meaning as a whole, as if both Parties had prepared it.

27. Binding Effect; Choice of Law. This Lease shall be binding upon the Parties, their personal representatives, successors and assigns and be governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Any litigation between the Parties hereto concerning this Lease shall be initiated in the county in which the Premises are located.

28. Subordination; Attornment.

28.1 Subordination. This Lease and any Option granted hereby shall be subject and subordinate to any ground lease, mortgage, deed of trust, or other hypothecation or security device (collectively, "Security Device"), now or hereafter placed upon the Premises, to any and all advances made on the security thereof, and to all renewals, modifications, and extensions thereof. Lessee agrees that the holders of any such Security Devices (in this Lease together referred to as "Lender") shall have no liability or obligation to perform any of the obligations of Lessor under this Lease. Any Lender may elect to have this Lease and/or any Option granted hereby superior to the lien of its Security Device by giving written notice thereof to Lessee, whereupon this Lease and such Options shall be deemed prior to such Security Device, notwithstanding the relative dates of the documentation or recordation thereof.

28.2 Attornment. In the event that Lessor transfers title to the Premises, or the Premises are acquired by another upon the foreclosure or termination of a Security Device to which this Lease is subordinated (i) Lessee shall attorn to such new owner, and upon request, enter into a new lease, containing all of the terms and provisions of this Lease, with such new owner for the remainder of the term hereof, or, at the election of the new owner, this Lease will automatically become a new lease between Lessee and such new owner, and (ii) Lessor shall thereafter be relieved of any further obligations hereunder and such new owner shall assume all of Lessor's obligations, except that such new owner shall not: (a) be liable for any act or omission of any prior lessor or with respect to events occurring prior to acquisition of ownership; (b) be subject to any offsets or defenses which Lessee might have against any prior lessor, (c) be bound by prepayment of more than one month's rent, or (d) be liable for the return of any security deposit paid to any prior lessor which was not paid or credited to such new owner.

28.3 Self-Executing. The agreements contained in this Paragraph 30 shall be effective without the execution of any further documents; provided, however, that, upon written request from Lessor or a Lender in connection with a sale, financing or refinancing of the Premises, Lessee and Lessor shall execute such further writings as may be reasonably required to separately document any subordination and/or attornment provided for herein.

29. Attorneys' Fees. If any Party or Broker brings an action or proceeding involving the Premises whether founded in tort, contract or equity, or to declare rights hereunder, the Prevailing Party (as hereafter defined) in any such proceeding, action, or appeal thereon, shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees. Such fees may be awarded in the same suit or recovered in a separate suit, whether or not such action or proceeding is pursued to decision or judgment. The term, "Prevailing Party" shall include, without limitation, a Party or Broker who substantially obtains or defeats the relief sought, as the case may be, whether by compromise, settlement, judgment, or the abandonment by the other Party or Broker of its claim or defense. The attorneys' fees award shall not be computed in accordance with any court fee schedule, but shall be such as to fully reimburse all attorneys' fees reasonably incurred. In addition, Lessor shall be entitled to attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred in the preparation and service of statutory 3-day notices of Default and consultations in connection therewith, whether or not a legal action is subsequently commenced in connection with such Default or resulting Breach ($250 is a reasonable minimum per occurrence for such services and consultation).

30. Lessor's Access; Showing Premises; Repairs. Lessor and Lessor's agents shall have the right to enter the Premises at any time, in the case of an emergency, and otherwise at reasonable times after reasonable prior notice for the purpose of showing the same to prospective purchasers, lenders, or tenants, and making such alterations, repairs, improvements or additions to the Premises as Lessor may deem necessary or desirable and the erecting, using and maintaining of utilities, services, pipes and conduits through the Premises and/or other premises as long as there is no material adverse effect on Lessee's use of the Premises. All such activities shall be without abatement of rent or liability to Lessee. If approval from any state or local governmental regulator or any other governmental authorities is necessary in order for Lessor or any mortgagee to inspect the Premises, Lessee shall use its best efforts to support obtaining such approvals for inspection, time being of the essence.

31. Auctions. Lessee shall not conduct, nor permit to be conducted, any auction upon the Premises without Lessor's prior written consent. Lessor shall not be obligated to exercise any standard of reasonableness in determining whether to permit an auction.

32. Signs. Lessor may place on the Premises ordinary "For Sale" signs at any time and ordinary "For Lease" signs during the last 6 months of the term hereof. Except as permitted in Paragraph 53, Lessee shall not place any sign upon the Premises without Lessor's prior written consent. All signs must comply with all Applicable Requirements.

33. Termination; Merger. Unless specifically stated otherwise in writing by Lessor, the voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Lessee, the mutual termination or cancellation hereof, or a termination hereof by Lessor for Breach by Lessee, shall automatically terminate any sublease or lesser estate in the Premises; provided, however, that Lessor may elect to continue any one or all existing subtenancies. Lessor's failure within 10 days following any such event to elect to the contrary by written notice to the holder of any such lesser interest, shall constitute Lessor's election to have such event constitute the termination of such interest.

34. Consents. All requests for consent shall be in writing. Except as otherwise provided herein, wherever in this Lease the consent of a Party is required to an act by or for the other Party, such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Lessor's actual reasonable costs and expenses (including but not limited to architects', attorneys', engineers' and other consultants' fees) incurred in the consideration of, or response to, a request by Lessee for any Lessor consent, including but not limited to consents to an assignment, a subletting or the presence or use of a Hazardous Substance, shall be paid by Lessee upon receipt of an invoice and supporting documentation therefor. Lessor's consent to any act, assignment or subletting shall not constitute an acknowledgment that no Default or Breach by Lessee of this Lease exists, nor shall such consent be deemed a waiver of any then existing Default or Breach, except as may be otherwise specifically stated in writing by Lessor at the time of such consent. The failure to specify herein any particular condition to Lessor's consent shall not preclude the imposition by Lessor at the time of consent of such further or other conditions as are then reasonable with reference to the particular matter for which consent is being given. In the event that either Party disagrees with any determination made by the other hereunder and reasonably requests the reasons for such determination, the determining party shall furnish its reasons in writing and in reasonable detail within ten (10) business days following such request.

35. Guarantor.

35.1 Execution. The Guarantors shall each execute a guaranty in the form attached hereto, and each such Guarantor shall have the same obligations as Lessee under this Lease.

35.2 Default. It shall constitute a Default of the Lessee if any Guarantor fails or refuses, upon request to provide: (a) evidence of the execution of the guaranty, including the authority of the party signing on Guarantor's behalf to obligate Guarantor, and in the case of a corporate Guarantor, a certified copy of a resolution of its board of directors authorizing the making of such guaranty, (b) current financial statements, (c) an Estoppel Certificate, or (d) written confirmation that the guaranty is still in effect.

36. Quiet Possession. Subject to payment by Lessee of the Rent and performance of all of the covenants, conditions and provisions on Lessee's part to be observed and performed under this Lease, Lessee shall have quiet possession and quiet enjoyment of the Premises during the term hereof.

37. Options. If Lessee is granted any Option, as defined below, then the following provisions shall apply.

37.1 Definition. "Option" shall mean: (a) the right to extend or reduce the term of or renew this Lease or to extend or reduce the term of or renew any lease that Lessee has on other property of Lessor; or (b) the right of first refusal or first offer to lease either the Premises or other property of Lessor.

37.2 Options Personal To Original Lessee. Any Option granted to Lessee in this Lease is personal to the original Lessee, and cannot be assigned except in connection with a Permitted Transfer, or exercised by anyone other than said original Lessee (or a transferee pursuant to a Permitted Transfer) and only while the original Lessee (or a transferee pursuant to a Permitted Transfer) is in full possession of the Premises.

37.3 Multiple Options. In the event that Lessee has any multiple Options to extend or renew this Lease, a later Option cannot be exercised unless the prior Options have been validly exercised.

37.4 Effect of Default on Options.

(a) Lessee shall have no right to exercise an Option: (i) during the period commencing with the giving of any notice of Default and continuing until said Default is cured, (ii) during the period of time any Rent is unpaid (without regard to whether notice thereof is given Lessee), (iii) during the time Lessee is in Breach of this Lease, or (iv) in the event that Lessee has been given 3 or more notices of separate Default on 3 separate occasions, whether or not the Defaults are cured, during the 12 month period immediately preceding the exercise of the Option.

(b) The period of time within which an Option may be exercised shall not be extended or enlarged by reason of Lessee's inability to exercise an Option because of the provisions of Paragraph 37.4(a).

(c) An Option shall terminate and be of no further force or effect, notwithstanding Lessee's due and timely exercise of the Option, if, after such exercise and prior to the commencement of the extended term or completion of the purchase, (i) Lessee fails to pay Rent for a period of thirty (30) days after such Rent becomes due (without any necessity of Lessor to give notice thereof), or (ii) if Lessee commits a Breach of this Lease.

38. Multiple Buildings. If the Premises are a part of a group of buildings controlled by Lessor, Lessee agrees that it will abide by and conform to all reasonable rules and regulations which Lessor may make from time to time for the management, safety, and care of said properties, including the care and cleanliness of the grounds and including the parking, loading and unloading of vehicles, and to cause its employees, suppliers, shippers, customers, contractors and invitees to so abide and conform. Lessee also agrees to pay its fair share of common expenses incurred in connection with such rules and regulations.

39. Security Measures. Lessee hereby acknowledges that the Rent payable to Lessor hereunder does not include the cost of guard service or other security measures, and that Lessor shall have no obligation whatsoever to provide same. Lessee assumes all responsibility for the protection of the Premises, Lessee, its agents and invitees and their property from the acts of third parties. Lessee acknowledges that, in all events, Lessee is responsible for providing security to the Premises, and Lessee shall indemnify, defend with counsel subject to Lessor's reasonable approval (which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), and save Lessor harmless from any claim for injury to person or damage to property asserted by any personnel, employee, guest, invitee or agent of Lessee which is suffered or occurs in or about the Premises by reason of the act of an intruder or any person other than Lessor or any personnel, employee, contractor, guest, invitee or agent of Lessor in or about the Premises.

40. Reservations. Provided same do not materially increase Lessee's obligations or materially diminish Lessee's rights hereunder, Lessor reserves to itself the right, from time to time, to grant, without the consent or joinder of Lessee, such easements, rights and dedications that Lessor deems necessary, and to cause the recordation of parcel maps and restrictions, so long as such easements, rights, dedications, maps and restrictions do not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Premises by Lessee. Lessee agrees to sign any documents reasonably requested by Lessor to effectuate any such easement rights, dedication, map or restrictions.

41. Authority; Multiple Parties; Execution.

(a) If either Party hereto is a corporation, trust, limited liability company, partnership, or similar entity, each individual executing this Lease on behalf of such entity represents and warrants that he or she is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Lease on its behalf. Each Party shall, within thirty (30) days after request, deliver to the other Party satisfactory evidence of such authority.

(b) If this Lease is executed by more than one person or entity as "Lessee", each such person or entity shall be jointly and severally liable hereunder. It is agreed that any one of the named Lessees shall be empowered to execute any amendment to this Lease, or other document ancillary thereto and bind all of the named Lessees, and Lessor may rely on the same as if all of the named Lessees had executed such document.

(c) This Lease may be executed by the Parties in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

42. Conflict. Any conflict between the printed provisions of this Lease and the typewritten or handwritten provisions shall be controlled by the typewritten or handwritten provisions.

43. Offer. Preparation of this Lease by either Party or their agent and submission of same to the other Party shall not be deemed an offer to lease to the other Party. This Lease is not intended to be binding until executed and delivered by all Parties hereto.

44. Amendments. This Lease may be modified only in writing, signed by the Parties in interest at the time of the modification. As long as they do not materially change Lessee's obligations hereunder, Lessee agrees to make such reasonable non-monetary modifications to this Lease as may be reasonably required by a Lender in connection with the obtaining of normal financing or refinancing of the Premises.

45. Waiver of Jury Trial. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE THEIR RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING INVOLVING THE PROPERTY OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES KNOWINGLY AND IRREVOCABLY WAIVE THEIR RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION TO RESOLVE ANY DISPUTE RELATING TO OR ARISING OUT OF THIS LEASE OR ANY PART THEREOF; AND IN CONNECTION WITH THIS LEASE, EACH OF LESSOR AND LESSEE REPRESENTS THAT IT HAS DISCUSSED SUCH WAIVER WITH ITS OWN INDEPENDENT COUNSEL AND HAS RELIED ON ADVICE OF ITS COUNSEL AND MAKES SUCH WAIVER KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY.

46. Arbitration of Disputes. An Addendum requiring the Arbitration of all disputes between the Parties and/or Brokers arising out of this Lease is not attached to this Lease.

47. Accessibility; Americans with Disabilities Act.

(a) The Premises have not undergone an inspection by a Certified Access Specialist (CASp). Note: A Certified Access Specialist (CASp) can inspect the subject premises and determine whether the subject premises comply with all of the applicable construction-related accessibility standards under state law. Although state law does not require a CASp inspection of the subject premises, the commercial property owner or lessor may not prohibit the lessee or tenant from obtaining a CASp inspection of the subject premises for the occupancy or potential occupancy of the lessee or tenant, if requested by the lessee or tenant. The parties shall mutually agree on the arrangements for the time and manner of the CASp inspection, the payment of the fee for the CASp inspection, and the cost of making any repairs necessary to correct violations of construction-related accessibility standards within the premises. Lessor hereby waives its right, if any, to require the Premises undergo a CASp inspection.

(b) Since compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and other state and local accessibility statutes are dependent upon Lessee's specific use of the Premises, Lessor makes no warranty or representation as to whether or not the Premises comply with ADA or any similar legislation. In the event that Lessee's use of the Premises requires modifications or additions to the Premises in order to be in compliance with ADA or other accessibility statutes, Lessee agrees to make any such necessary modifications and/or additions at Lessee's expense.

48. Rent Adjustments. The Base Rent shall be increased on each annual anniversary of the Commencement Date by an amount equal to three percent (3%).

49. Options to Extend. Lessor hereby grants to Lessee the option to extend the term of this Lease for two (2) additional five (5) year periods commencing when the prior term expires upon each and all of the following terms and conditions:

(i) In order to exercise an option to extend, Lessee must give written notice of such election to Lessor and Lessor must receive the same at least 6 but not more than 12 months prior to the date that the option period would commence, time being of the essence. If proper notification of the exercise of an option is not given and/or received, such option shall automatically expire. Options (if there are more than one) may only be exercised consecutively.

(ii) The provisions of Paragraph 37, including those relating to Lessee's Default set forth in Paragraph 37.4 of this Lease, are conditions of this option.

(iii) Except for the provisions of this Lease granting an option or options to extend the term, all of the terms and conditions of this Lease except where specifically modified by this option shall apply.

(iv) The monthly rent for each month of the option period shall be calculated as follows: Base Rent shall be increased on the first day of the option period (the "Option Commencement Date"), and shall increase on each annual anniversary of the Option Commencement Date by the greater of: (i) [] percent ([]%) or (ii) the increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor, US City Average (1982-84=100), for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U), Not Seasonally Adjusted.

50. Agreed Use. Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Lease to the contrary, Lessor acknowledges that Lessee's Agreed Use is, at the time of the execution of this Lease, a violation of United States Code and federal law, and Lessor agrees that this violation shall not, on that basis alone, cause Lessee to forfeit the Premises or otherwise be in default or breach of this Lease. In the event of any change in license, law or regulatory posture concerning the Agreed Use, Lessor shall cooperate in good faith with Lessee and shall approve any changes in Lessee's Agreed Use that may be required to comply with any such change in law or policy.

51. Filming. Lessor agrees that Lessee may authorize the use of the Premises for filming of motion pictures, television tapes or films, commercials, videos, documentaries, commentaries, and any and all other still, electronic and other image capture purposes (collectively, "Filming"). Lessor agrees that any Filming may be performed during, before or after normal business hours. Upon Lessee's written request, Lessor shall execute such documentation required in connection with such Filming, including, without limitation, executing releases required by third parties filming on the Premises. All such third parties Filming on the Premises shall provide a certificate of insurance naming both Lessor and Lessee as an additional insured.

52. Change in Laws. Lessee, at its sole expense, shall comply with all laws, rules, orders and regulations of federal, state, county, and municipal authorities, and with any direction of any public officers pursuant to law, which impose any duty upon Lessor or Lessee with respect to the Premises, including any laws, rules, orders, regulations, and directions as shall hereafter be promulgated, provided however that, except as provided in the last sentence of this Paragraph, Lessee shall not be required to comply with federal law regarding cannabis / marijuana. The parties also acknowledge that under federal law, the production, distribution and sale of cannabis remains a violation of the Controlled Substances Act and that, as between Lessor and Lessee, the risk of enforcement of such law is on Lessee, and that no such enforcement shall act to relieve the Lessee of its obligations under this Lease. Lessee shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Lessor and all managers and members of Lessor and any person or entity which has a direct or indirect interest in the Lessor and any agent of Lessor and any person or entity which has a direct or indirect interest in Lessor from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims and damages arising out of or resulting from the enforcement of such federal law.

53. Signage. Lessee shall have the right to install its standard signage on exterior of the front and, if possible, side of Premises. Said signage shall be at Lessee's sole cost and expense in accordance with city ordinances, and subject to Lessor's approval, the latter of which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

54. Invalidity of Particular Provisions. If any term or provision of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Lease shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

55. REIT/UBTI. The Lessor and the Lessee hereby agree that it is their intent that all Rent and charges payable to the Lessor under this Lease shall qualify as "rents from real property" within the meaning of Sections 512(b)(3) and 856(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the "Code") and the U.S. Department of the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Regulations"). In the event that (i) the Code or the Regulations, or interpretations thereof by the Internal Revenue Service contained in revenue rulings or other similar public pronouncements, shall be changed so that any Rent or charges no longer so qualifies as "rent from real property" for purposes of either said Section 512(b)(3) or Section 856(d) or (ii) the Lessor, in its sole discretion, determines that there is any risk that all or part of any Rent or charges shall not qualify as "rents from real property" for the purposes of either said Sections 512(b)(3) or 856(d), such Rent and charges shall be adjusted in such manner as the Lessor may reasonably require so that it will so qualify; provided, however, that any adjustments required pursuant to this Paragraph shall be made so as to produce the equivalent (in economic terms) Rent and charges as payable prior to such adjustment. The parties agree to execute such further commercially reasonable instrument as may reasonably be required by the Lessor in order to give effect to the foregoing provisions of this Paragraph 55.

Without limitation of the foregoing and notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, if a sublease, concession or license of all or any portion of the Premises is permitted under this Lease, the provisions of this Paragraph 55 shall continue to apply provided however that the foregoing shall not limit Lessee's right to assign or sublease pursuant to the terms of this Lease including but not limited to the right to make Permitted Transfers.

As an inducement to Lessor to enter into this Lease, Lessee hereby represents and warrants that: (i) Lessee is not, nor is it owned or controlled directly or indirectly by, any person, group, entity or nation named on any list issued by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the United States Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") pursuant to Executive Order 13224 or any similar list or any law, order, rule or regulation or any Executive Order of the President of the United States as a terrorist, "Specially Designated National and Blocked Person" or other banned or blocked person (any such person, group, entity or nation being hereinafter referred to as a "Prohibited Person"); (ii) Lessee is not (nor is it owned, controlled, directly or indirectly, by any person, group, entity or nation which is) acting directly or indirectly for or on behalf of any Prohibited Person; and (iii) from and after the effective date of the above-referenced Executive Order, Lessee (and any person, group, or entity which Lessee controls, directly or indirectly) has not conducted nor will conduct business nor has engaged nor will engage in any transaction or dealing with any Prohibited Person in violation of the U.S. Patriot Act or any OFAC rule or regulation, including without limitation any assignment of this Lease or any subletting of all or any portion of the Premises or the making or receiving of any contribution of funds, goods or services to or for the benefit of a Prohibited Person in violation of the U.S. Patriot Act or any OFAC rule or regulation. In connection with the foregoing, it is expressly understood and agreed that (x) any breach by Lessee of the foregoing representations and warranties shall be deemed a Breach by Lessee, and (y) the representations and warranties contained in this subsection shall be continuing in nature and shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease. At Lessor's request Lessee shall furnish to Lessor evidence confirming the representations in this Paragraph.

It is understood and agreed that the Lessor shall in no event be construed or held to be a partner or associate of the Lessee in the conduct of the Lessee's business, nor shall the Lessor be liable for any debts incurred by the Lessee in the conduct of the Lessee's business; but it is understood and agreed that the relationship is and at all times shall remain that of Lessor and Lessee.

56. No Brokers. Lessor and Lessee each represent and warrant to the other that no brokers were involved in the negotiation of this Lease and that no brokers are owed any commission in connection herewith.

57. Confidentiality. Lessor and Lessee agree that the final terms and conditions of this Lease and any financial information provided Lessee shall be kept confidential and shall not be disclosed to any other person or entity other than to Lessor's property managers or to Lessor's or Lessee's lenders, partners, attorneys, accountants or prospective buyers of the Premises or investors, provided the Lessor and Lessee shall be responsible for ensuring the parties to whom each makes disclosure shall maintain the confidentiality of the terms contained herein as if said parties were signatories to this Lease and in any litigation between Lessor and Lessee or then required by judicial or governmental order. The foregoing shall not prohibit the publicizing of the transaction contemplated by this Lease, provided that the material economic terms (for example, the monthly Base Rent and any economic incentives) are not disclosed.

58. Access. Subject to casualty, Lessee shall have access to the Premises twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week during the Lease term.

59. Lease Contingent on Lessor Purchase. For avoidance of doubt, the parties agree that notwithstanding Lessee's signature and delivery of this Lease, the Lease shall not be effective unless and until Lessor acquires ownership of the Premises pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement dated July ___, 2019, by and between Lessor, as Buyer, and HealthCentral Illinois Holdings, LLC, as Seller, as more fully set forth in Paragraph 1.3, and Base Rent shall be equitably pro-rated until such time as Lessor acquires ownership of the entire Premises.

60. Maintenance of and Compliance with License. Lessee shall at all times maintain in full force and effect and comply with all terms and conditions of all licenses and permits required to operate the Premises for the Agreed Use (collectively, the "License"). If Lessee at any time during the Lease term receives written notice of (i) termination of the License, (ii) noncompliance with a requirement of the License, (iii) a violation of the License, or (iv) any similar written notice from the authority having jurisdiction over the License (each, a "Threatened Action"), then Lessee shall immediately notify Lessor in writing and Lessee shall, within five (5) business days of receipt of written notice of a Threatened Action (or such sooner period as required by such written notice), cure any termination, noncompliance, or violation of the License, and take all other steps required to avoid the Threatened Action. If Lessee fails, in Lessor's reasonable judgment, to take all steps necessary to avoid the Threatened Action within said five (5) business day period (or sooner as set forth above), then such failure by Lessee shall be deemed a Default under the Lease and Lessor may, without limiting Lessor's other remedies pursuant to this Lease or otherwise available at law or in equity: (x) terminate this Lease upon thirty (30) days' written notice to Lessee (or such sooner period as may be required to avoid the Threatened Action), and/or (y) take all steps that Lessor deems reasonably required to preserve the License and to avoid the Threatened Action, including but not limited to requiring Lessee to transfer the Lease and/or the License to Lessor or a third party designated by Lessor.

61. Operating Costs.

(a) In addition to the Base Rent and other charges prescribed in this Lease, Lessee shall pay to Lessor, as Additional Rent required pursuant to this Lease, the cost of any kind which may be incurred by Lessor in its discretion in connection with the operation, cleaning, maintenance, ownership, management, repair and replacement of the Premises (collectively, the "Operating Costs"), including, without limitation, all costs of the following: lighting, painting, cleaning, policing, inspecting, repairing, replacing elements in the Premises; trash removal; insect and pest treatments and eradication; roof repairs and maintenance; environmental protection improvements or devices and health and safety improvements and devices which may be required by applicable laws (including the maintenance, repair and replacement of same); premiums and related expenses to obtain and maintain the policies of insurance required by this Lease; environmental monitoring programs and devices, wages and salaries of all employees, agents, consultants and others engaged in operation, cleaning, maintenance, repair, and replacement of the Premises; charges and assessments paid by Lessor pursuant to any owner's association, reciprocal easement, covenants or comparable document affecting the Premises, any fees which Lessor pays for the management or asset management of the Premises, an allowance for Lessor's administrative or overhead costs, in the amount of [] percent ([]%) of the total of all other Operating Costs; utilities, snow and ice removal; monthly amortization of capital improvements to the Premises (the monthly amortization of any given capital improvement shall be the sum of (a) the quotient obtained by dividing the cost of the capital improvement by Lessor's estimate of the number of months of useful life of such improvement plus (b) an amount equal to the cost of the capital improvement times the lesser of (y) a rate not to exceed []% per annum and (z) the maximum annual interest rate permitted by law); the cost of resurfacing and restriping parking areas and roadways; reasonable reserves for any of the foregoing or any other Operating Costs; any other item stated in this Lease to be an Operating Cost. In addition, Lessor and Lessee agree that all costs incurred by Lessor with respect to all sewer (including septic systems, if applicable) and water lines and other equipment (including maintenance, repair and replacement of same), fire-protection equipment and devices (including maintenance, repair and replacement of same), exterior painting and for roof and canopy maintenance, repair and replacement shall be included as Operating Costs pursuant to this Paragraph 61. With regard to capital expenditures, (i) the original investment in capital improvements, i.e., upon the initial construction of the Premises, shall not be included, and (ii) capital improvements made either before or during the Lease term shall be included to the extent of a reasonable depreciation or amortization (including interest accruals commensurate with Lessor's interest costs) beginning with the date on which payment for the improvement was made and continuing through the reasonable useful life of the improvement.

(b) Lessee shall make payment to Lessor for Operating Costs based upon the estimated annual cost of Operating Costs, payable in advance at the same time each month as Base Rent is payable, but subject to adjustment after the end of the year on the basis of the actual costs for such year as provided for under Paragraph 4. Alternatively, Lessee shall, at Lessor's option, make payments to Lessor for Operating Costs on demand at intervals not more frequently than monthly. In addition, if either before or during the Lease term Lessor in its discretion elects to amortize a non-capital expense instead of charging it in full during the year in which it is incurred by Lessor, then such expense shall be amortized (with interest accruals commensurate with Lessor's interest costs) beginning with the date on which payment for the expense was made and continuing through the amortization period. With regard to the charges contemplated in this Paragraph 61, Lessee further agrees that unless within thirty (30) days after Lessor's delivery to Lessee of an assessment and/or statement related to any such charges, Lessee delivers to Lessor a written assertion of one or more specific errors or a written request for further detail regarding a specific charge, then the assessment and/or statement shall be deemed correct in all respects. In addition, Lessee further agrees that if it so asserts error or requests further information within such thirty (30) day period, Lessee will nevertheless pay all amounts charged by Lessor pending a resolution thereof.

LESSOR AND LESSEE HAVE CAREFULLY READ AND REVIEWED THIS LEASE AND EACH TERM AND PROVISION CONTAINED HEREIN, AND BY THE EXECUTION OF THIS LEASE SHOW THEIR INFORMED AND VOLUNTARY CONSENT THERETO. THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE THAT, AT THE TIME THIS LEASE IS EXECUTED, THE TERMS OF THIS LEASE ARE COMMERCIALLY REASONABLE AND EFFECTUATE THE INTENT AND PURPOSE OF LESSOR AND LESSEE WITH RESPECT TO THE PREMISES.

2. RETAIN APPROPRIATE CONSULTANTS TO REVIEW AND INVESTIGATE THE CONDITION OF THE PREMISES. SAID INVESTIGATION SHOULD INCLUDE BUT NOT BE LIMITED TO: THE POSSIBLE PRESENCE OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES, THE ZONING OF THE PREMISES, THE

STRUCTURAL INTEGRITY, THE CONDITION OF THE ROOF AND OPERATING SYSTEMS, AND THE SUITABILITY OF THE PREMISES FOR LESSEE'S INTENDED USE.

GUARANTY OF LEASE

THIS GUARANTY OF LEASE ("Guaranty") is entered into as of July 5, 2019, by Ascend Wellness Holdings, LLC, an Illinois limited liability company ("Guarantor"), for the benefit of LCR 628 EAST ADAMS, LLC ("Lessor"), with reference to the following facts:

Lessor and HealthCentral, LLC ("Lessee"), have entered or will enter into a lease of even date herewith (the "Lease"). Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Lease.

By its covenants herein set forth, Guarantor has induced Lessor to enter into the Lease, which was made and entered into in consideration for Guarantor's said covenants.

Subject to the terms set forth herein, Guarantor unconditionally guarantees, without deduction by reason of setoff, defense or counterclaim, to Lessor and its successors and assigns the full and punctual payment (and not merely the collectability), performance and observance by Lessee, of all of the amounts, terms, covenants and conditions in the Lease contained on Lessee's part to be paid, kept, performed and observed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the scope of Guarantor's obligations exceed Lessee's obligations under the Lease except to the extent Lessee is relieved of any such obligation by reason of any bankruptcy or other like filing or order.

If Lessee shall at any time default in the punctual payment, performance and observance of any of the amounts, terms, covenants or conditions in the Lease contained on Lessee's part to be paid, kept, performed and observed (after applicable notice and cure period), Guarantor will pay, keep, perform and observe same, as the case may be, in the place and stead of Lessee. Guarantor shall also pay to Lessor all reasonable and necessary incidental damages and expenses incurred by Lessor as a direct and proximate result of Lessee's failure to perform, which expenses shall include reasonable attorneys' fees and interest on all sums due and owing Lessor by reason of Lessee's failure to pay same, at the maximum rate allowed by law.

Any act of Lessor, or its successors or assigns, consisting of a waiver of any of the terms or conditions of the Lease, the giving of any consent to any matter or thing relating to the Lease, or the granting of any indulgence or extension of time to Lessee may be done without notice to Guarantor and without releasing Guarantor from any of its obligations hereunder.

The obligations of Guarantor hereunder shall not be released by Lessor's receipt, application or release of any security given for the performance and observance of any covenant or condition in the Lease contained on Lessee's part to be performed or observed, nor by any modification of the Lease, regardless of whether Guarantor consents thereto or receives notice thereof.

The liability of Guarantor hereunder shall in no way be affected by: (a) the release or discharge of Lessee in any creditor's, receivership, bankruptcy or other proceeding; (b) the impairment, limitation or modification of the liability of Lessee or the estate of Lessee in bankruptcy, or of any remedy for the enforcement of Lessee's liability under the Lease resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the Federal Bankruptcy Code or other statutes or from the decision of any court; (c) the rejection or disaffirmance of the Lease in any such proceedings; (d) the assignment or transfer of the Lease by Lessee; (e) any disability or other defense of Lessee; (f) the cessation from any cause whatever of the liability of Lessee; (g) the exercise by Lessor of any of its rights or remedies reserved under the Lease or by law; or (h) any termination of the Lease.

If Lessee shall become insolvent or be adjudicated bankrupt, whether by voluntary or involuntary petition, if any bankruptcy action involving Lessee shall be commenced or filed, if a petition for reorganization, arrangement or similar relief shall be filed against Lessee, or if a receiver of any part of Lessee's property or assets shall be appointed by any court, Guarantor shall pay to Lessor the amount of all accrued, unpaid and accruing rent and other charges due under the Lease and all principal and interest and other charges under to the date when the debtor-in- possession, the trustee or administrator accepts the Lease and commences paying same. At the option of Lessor, Guarantor shall either: (a) pay Lessor an amount equal to the rent and other charges which would have been payable for the unexpired portion of the Lease term reduced to present-day value; or (b) execute and deliver to Lessor a new lease for the balance of the Lease term with the same terms and conditions as the Lease, but with Guarantor as Lessee thereunder. Any operation of any present or future debtor's relief act or similar act, or law or decision of any court, shall in no way affect the obligations of Guarantor or Lessee to perform any of the terms, covenants or conditions of the Lease or of this Guaranty.

Guarantor may be joined in any action against Lessee in connection with the obligations of Lessee under the Lease and recovery may be had against Guarantor in any such action. Lessor may enforce the obligations of Guarantor hereunder without first taking any action whatever against Lessee or its successors and assigns, or pursuing any other remedy or applying any security it may hold.

Until all of the covenants and conditions in the Lease on Lessee's part to be performed and observed are fully performed and observed, Guarantor: (a) shall have no right of subrogation against Lessee by reason of any payment or performance by Guarantor hereunder; and (b) subordinates any liability or indebtedness of Lessee now or hereafter held by Guarantor to the obligations of Lessee to Lessor under the Lease.

This Guaranty shall apply to the Lease, any extension, renewal, modification or amendment thereof, to any assignment, subletting or other tenancy thereunder and to any holdover term following the Lease term granted under the Lease, or any extension or renewal thereof. Notwithstanding anything in this Guaranty to the contrary, in the event Lessee assigns the Lease or subleases the Premises in accordance with the provisions of the Lease to a third party which is not an entity controlling or controlled by or under common control with Lessee or Guarantor (a "Third Party Assignee") then (a) the undersigned shall not be responsible for any incremental increase in Rent or other obligation under the Lease or for or during any extension of the Lease term resulting from an amendment to the Lease between Lessor and such Third Party Assignee which provides for an increase in Rent or other obligation due under the Lease or an extension of the Lease term or for any exercise of any option to extend the Lease term which may be exercised by said Third Party Assignee, unless Guarantor shall have consented in writing to such increase in Rent or other obligation or extension of Lease term; and (b) as a condition to the undersigned's liabilities under this Guaranty, Lessor shall be required to deliver written notice of any defaults by Lessee or the Third Party Assignee to Guarantor and Guarantor shall have the right to cure same within the time period provided in the Lease.

In the event of any litigation between Guarantor and Lessor with respect to the subject matter hereof, the unsuccessful party in such litigation shall pay to the successful party all fees, costs and expenses thereof, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses.

If there is more than one undersigned Guarantor, (a) the term "Guarantor", as used herein, shall include all of the undersigned; (b) each provision of this Guaranty shall be binding on each one of the undersigned, who shall be jointly and severally liable hereunder; and (c) Lessor shall have the right to join one or all of them in any proceeding or to proceed against them in any order.

Within fifteen (15) days after Lessor's written request (which requests may not be made more than once per calendar year), Guarantor shall furnish Lessor with financial statements or other reasonable financial information reflecting Guarantor's current financial condition, certified by Guarantor or its financial officer. If Guarantor is a publicly-traded corporation, delivery of Guarantor's last published financial information shall be satisfactory for purposes of this Paragraph.

This instrument constitutes the entire agreement between Lessor and Guarantor with respect to the subject matter hereof, superseding all prior oral and written agreements and understandings with respect thereto. It may not be changed, modified, discharged or terminated orally or in any manner other than by an agreement in writing signed by Guarantor and Lessor.

This Guaranty shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois.

Every notice, demand or request (collectively "Notice") required hereunder or by law to be given by either party to the other shall be in writing. Notices shall be given by personal service or by United States certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, or by telegram, mailgram or same-day or overnight private courier, addressed to the party to be served at the address indicated below or such other address as the party to be served may from time to time designate in a Notice to the other party.

Any action to declare or enforce any right or obligation under the Lease may be commenced by Lessor in the state courts of the State of Illinois. Guarantor hereby consents to the jurisdiction of such Court for such purposes. Any notice, complaint or legal process so delivered shall constitute adequate notice and service of process for all purposes and shall subject Guarantor to the jurisdiction of such Court for purposes of adjudicating any matter related to this Guaranty. Lessor and Guarantor hereby waive their respective rights to trial by jury of any cause of action, claim, counterclaim or cross-complaint in any action, proceeding and/or hearing brought by either Lessor against Guarantor or Guarantor against Lessor on any matter whatever arising out of, or in any way connected with, the Lease, or this Guaranty.

This Guaranty may be assigned in whole or part by Lessor upon written notice to Guarantor, but it may not be assigned by Guarantor without Lessor's prior written consent, which may be withheld in Lessor's sole and absolute discretion.

The Lease shall provide that the Building and Premises outlined herein may be occupied and operated as a Cannabis Establishment for sales of adult-use marijuana including any and all ancillary thereto including but not limited to storage, maintenance, packaging, counseling, Notwithstanding such Transfer, Tenant and Guarantors under the Lease shall remain liable to Landlord for the payment of all rent and for the full performance of the covenants and conditions of this Lease. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord and Tenant agree that Landlord may withhold its consent to any proposed Transfer to a transferee ("Transferee") who, or is not deemed by Landlord in its reasonable business judgment, to be an acceptable credit risk. In addition, if required in the Landlord's reasonable judgment, any Transferee shall, by valid written instrument, expressly assume for itself and its successors and assigns, and for the benefit of Landlord, all of the obligations of Tenant under this Lease.

Any request by Tenant for Landlord's consent to a Transfer shall include (i) the name of the proposed Transferee; (ii) the nature of its business and proposed use of the Premises; (iii) complete information as to the financial condition and standing of the proposed Transferee; and (iv) the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer. Tenant shall promptly supply such additional information about the proposed Transfer and Transferee as the Landlord reasonably requests. Landlord shall also have the right to meet and interview the proposed Transferee.

In the event such consent is withheld, Landlord shall specify the reasons therefore in detail.

Any transfer consented to herein shall not release Tenant or Guarantor from its obligations of the Lease.

Consent by Landlord, whether express or implied, to any Transfer shall not constitute a waiver of Landlord's right to prohibit any subsequent Transfer.

Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for its reasonable, out-of-pocket legal and other expenses in connection with any request for consent under this Paragraph 15.

16. SUBORDINATION; NOTICE TO MORTGAGEE

No act or failure to act on the part of Landlord which would entitle Tenant under the terms of this Lease, or by law, to be relieved of Tenant’s obligations hereunder or to terminate this Lease, shall result in a release or termination of such obligations or a termination of this Lease unless (i) Tenant shall have first given written notice of Landlord’s act or failure to act to Landlord’s mortgagees of record, if any, of whom Tenant has received written notice specifying the act or failure to act on the part of Landlord which could or would give basis to Tenant’s rights; and (ii) such mortgagees, after receipt of such notice, have failed or refused to correct or cure the condition complained of within a reasonable time thereafter (including a reasonable time to obtain possession of the mortgaged Premises if the mortgagee elects to do so); but nothing contained in this Paragraph 16 shall be deemed to impose any obligation on any such mortgagees to correct or cure any condition.

17. LANDLORD'S ACCESS

Landlord reserves the right from time to time, without unreasonable interference with Tenant’s permitted use of the Premises and upon, at least 24 hours prior notice: (i) to install, use, maintain, repair, replace and relocate for service to the Premises and other parts of the Building, or either, pipes, ducts, conduits, wires and appurtenant fixtures, wherever located in the Premises or Building, (ii) to alter or relocate any other common facility, or (iii) to examine the Premises to prospective purchasers, potential insurance adjusters, potential financing parties, and prospective tenants (in which case only during the last six (6) months of the term of the Lease).

So long as Landlord and its agents use reasonable efforts not to interfere with Tenant’s business operation in the Premises and except if caused by the negligence of the Landlord or its agents or employees, Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for any compensation or reduction of rent by reason of inconvenience or annoyance or for loss of business arising from the necessity of Landlord or its agents’ entering the Premises for any of the purposes in this Lease authorized, or for repairing the Premises or any portion of the Building however the necessity may occur.

18. INDEMNIFICATION AND LIABILITY

Tenant shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Landlord and its employees from and against any and all liability, claims, damages, losses, or expenses, arising out of (i) the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its employee's, agent's, contractor's, or invitee's in their operations, actions, conduct or omissions on or about the Premises, except to the extent caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, its agents, employees or contractors or (ii) Tenant's breach of this Lease. All of Tenant's goods, effects and property shall be upon the Premises at the sole risk and expense of Tenant and in no case shall Tenant make any claim against Landlord for any loss or damage thereto however caused.

Landlord shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Tenant and its employees from and against any and all liability, claims, damages, losses, or expenses, arising out of (i) the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, agents, contractors, or invitees in their operations, actions, conduct or omissions on or about the Premises, except to the extent caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant, its agents, employees or contractors or (ii) Landlord's breach of this Lease.

Tenant further agrees to maintain during the term and thereafter so long as Tenant is in occupancy of any part of the Premises, (i) business interruption insurance in an amount to cover costs, damages, lost income, expenses, Rent, and all other sums payable under this Lease for a period not less than twelve (12) months, (ii) lost rent insurance in favor of Landlord sufficient to reimburse Landlord for all Rent abated in accordance with Paragraph 20, and (iii) all risk property insurance including theft and sprinkler leakage coverage on all of Tenant's trade fixtures, furniture, inventory and other personal property in the Premises, and on any alterations, additions, or improvements made by Tenant upon the Premises all for the full replacement costs thereof. Tenant shall use the proceeds from such insurance for the replacement of trade fixtures, furniture, inventory and other personal property and for the restoration of Tenant's improvements, alterations, and additions to the Premises.

20. FIRE, CASUALTY AND EMINENT DOMAIN

A. Fire and Casualty. If, at any time during the term of the Lease and any extension thereto, the Premises shall be damaged in whole or in part by fire, the elements or other casualty, Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost, as speedily as circumstances permit, shall repair said damage and restore the Premises to the same condition which existed immediately prior to the occurrence of said casualty. The term shall be tolled by a period of time equal to the time between the date of the casualty and the date on which Tenant completes repair and restoration of the Premises. During the restoration, Tenant may operate its business out of a temporary structure such as a trailer, subject to compliance with municipal laws. In addition, Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Rent for the period during which the Premises is rendered incapable of use for the normal conduct of Tenant's business, including a reasonable period, not to exceed ninety (90) days, for Tenant to refixture and restock. Said abatement will be pro rated, based on the number of square feet of the Premises which are so rendered untenantable or incapable of such use. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such abatement of Rent shall be effective only for so long as and only to the extent that Landlord is reimbursed for all Rent abated through lost rent insurance provided by Tenant in accordance with Paragraph 19.

The foregoing notwithstanding, provided all insurance required to be carried by Tenant pursuant to the terms hereof is in effect and no action of Tenant would impair insurance recovery, if the Premises is partially or totally destroyed by fire or other casualty (i) between the Lease

Should a portion (greater than 50%) of the Building be destroyed by fire or other casualty during the last two (2) years of the initial term, or during the last two (2) years of any extension period, then Tenant may elect not to restore the Premises and terminate this Lease upon written notice to Landlord within forty-five (45) days of its intention to terminate after such event, and all obligations of Tenant shall terminate upon such termination of this Lease and Landlord shall be entitled to any insurance proceeds due to occurrence of said casualty.

If Tenant shall terminate this Lease pursuant to this Paragraph, then Tenant shall assign to Landlord all insurance proceeds relating to the Premises (and not to Tenant's personal property, computer and other equipment, fixtures and shelving or inventory) and shall reimburse Landlord for all applicable insurance deductibles.

B. Eminent Domain. Should a portion (greater than 50%) of the parking area, or a substantial portion (greater than 50%) of the Building, be taken by eminent domain, the Landlord may elect to terminate this Lease. The Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease if such taking occurs during the last two (2) years of the initial term, or during the last two (2) years of any extension period and Tenant gives written notice within forty-five (45) days of its intention to terminate after such taking.

When such taking renders all or a portion of the Premises substantially unsuitable for Tenant's intended use and the Tenant elects not to terminate the lease, a just and proportionate abatement of rent shall be made. The Landlord reserves, and the Tenant grants to the Landlord, all rights which the Tenant may have for damages or injury to this Premises for any taking by eminent domain, except for damage to the Tenant's fixtures, property, or equipment and relocation costs and business loss.

21. DEFAULT AND BANKRUPTCY

In the event that:

(a) Tenant shall default in the payment of any installment of Rent or any other sum herein specified if such default shall continue for five (5) days after receipt of notice from Landlord that said payment is due; or

(b) Tenant shall default in the observance or performance of any other of Tenant's covenants, agreements, or obligations hereunder and such default shall not be corrected within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof, or in the event such default shall require more than thirty (30) days to be cured, if Tenant shall not within such period commence to cure such default, and thereafter, with due diligence, prosecute the curing of such default to completion, but in no event shall such default continue for more than one hundred twenty (120) days in the aggregate; or

(c) Tenant or any guarantor of any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease admits in writing that it is not paying its debts as such debts become due, becomes insolvent, files or has filed against it (and in the case of an involuntary petition such is not dismissed within sixty (60) days after the filing) a petition under any chapter of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (or any similar petition under any insolvency law of any jurisdiction), proposes any dissolution, liquidation, composition, financial reorganization or recapitalization with creditors, makes an assignment or trust mortgage for the benefit of creditors, or if a receiver, trustee, custodian or similar agent is appointed or takes possession with respect to any property or business of Tenant or such guarantor which appointment remains unvacated or unstayed for a period of thirty (30) days, then Landlord shall have the right thereafter, to reenter and take complete possession of the Premises, to declare the term of this Lease ended, and remove the Tenant's effects, without prejudice to any remedies which might be otherwise used for arrears of rent or other default. The Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against all loss of rent and other payments, which Landlord may incur, by reason of such termination during the residue of the term. All Rent, utility charges, taxes, and all other charges (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees, other costs of collection, or costs incurred by Landlord arising from a default of Tenant's obligations under this Lease) shall constitute rent due and payable under this Lease. Landlord agrees to use reasonable efforts to relet the Premises. In the event of a Tenant default, if the Landlord makes any expenditures or incurs any obligations for the payment of money in connection therewith, including but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees in instituting, prosecuting or defending any action or proceeding, such sums paid or obligations incurred shall be paid to Landlord by Tenant as additional rent.

However, all conditions of this Lease to be performed by Tenant shall continue in force.

25. MUTUAL WAIVER OF SUBROGATION

So long as their insurers so permit, Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability or responsibility to the other or anyone claiming through or under them by way of subrogation or otherwise for any loss or damage to property caused by fire or any casualty to the extent such loss or damage is covered by insurance actually carried or would have been covered by insurance required to be carried hereunder (whether or not such required insurance is actually carried), even if such fire or other casualty shall have been caused by the fault or negligence of the other party, or anyone for whom such party may be responsible.

The Offer shall collectively include the proposed purchase price, an updated environmental report, and a proposed purchase and sale agreement ("Proposed PSA") upon which terms Landlord desires to sell the Premises. Tenant shall then have the right to purchase the Premises by executing the Proposed PSA within fourteen (14) days after Tenant's receipt of the Offer from Landlord and provide a nonrefundable deposit to Landlord equal to [] ([]%) percent of the proposed purchase price, the "Deposit". However, if the new Offer to Tenant is given not more than one hundred eighty (180) days after the previous Offer to Tenant, then Tenant's time to execute the Proposed PSA pursuant to such new Offer shall be reduced to five (5) days.

Should Landlord be free to sell the Premises to a third-party person or entity upon the terms and conditions set forth herein, and fail to convey the Premises to a third-party person or entity within twelve (12) months from the date the Offer expires, the Landlord shall be obligated to provide Tenant a new Offer if it wishes to sell the Premises thereafter.

53. FINANCIAL REPORTING

Tenant shall provide to Landlord within ten (10) days following written request copies of Tenant's and Guarantor's annual financial statements and such other information regarding Tenant's and Guarantor's financial condition as may be so reasonably requested, but not more than two (2) times per twelve (12) month period; provided such information shall, to the extent the same is not publicly available, be treated as confidential information of Tenant and / or Guarantor.

If Landlord desires to finance, refinance, or sell the Premises, or any part thereof, Tenant hereby agrees to deliver to any lender or purchaser designated by Landlord such financial statements of Tenant as may be reasonably required by such lender or purchaser.

54. FIRE PROTECTION EQUIPMENT

Tenant shall maintain and be responsible for the cost of the service agreement with American Alarm Company, for periodic tests and inspections of the fire/sprinkler alarm devices at the Premises. All other testing, maintenance, service and repair required of the fire protection equipment shall be the responsibility of Tenant to undertake. All annual reports regarding the inspections and testing shall be sent to Landlord in a timely fashion. The failure of any equipment installed or delivered by Landlord as of the Commencement Date shall be Tenant's responsibility.

55. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE

Landlord and Tenant hereby agree that time is of the essence with respect to performance of each of the parties' obligations under this Lease. Landlord and Tenant agree that, in the event that any date on which performance is to occur falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or state or national holiday, then the time for such performance shall be extended until the next business day thereafter occurring.

It is agreed that the failure of the Landlord to insist in any one or more instances upon a strict performance or observance of any of the terms, provisions or covenants of the foregoing Lease or to exercise any right there in contained shall not be construed or deemed to be a waiver or relinquishment for the future of such term, provision, covenant or right; but the same shall continue and remain in full force and effect. Receipt of the rent by the Landlord with knowledge of the breach of any provisions of the foregoing Lease shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach.

The Basic Lease Provisions are an integral part of this Lease and each reference in this Lease to any of the Basic Lease Provisions shall be construed to incorporate all of the terms provided under each such Basic Lease Provision. In the event of any conflict between any Basic Lease Provision and the balance of the Lease, the latter shall control. References to specific sections are for convenience and designate only certain of the sections where references to the particular Basic Lease provisions appear.

ARTICLE I

Premises

Section 1.01. Premises Defined. Landlord hereby leases to Tenant and Tenant hereby hires from Landlord those certain Premises defined in the Basic Lease Provisions more particularly described on Exhibit A and wherein the Premises are crosshatched, for the Term, at the rental, and upon all of the conditions and agreements set forth herein.

ARTICLE II

Term

Section 2.01. Length of Term and Rent Commencement Date. (A) The Tenant shall commence the payment of Basic Rent and Additional Rent on the Rent Commencement Date (as herein defined) and the Term of this Lease shall be for the period specified as the Term in the Basic Lease Provisions commencing on the Rent Commencement Date and expiring at the end of such Term (unless sooner terminated pursuant to the provisions hereof).

(B) If, for any reason whatsoever (without extension due to Force Majeure), receipt of all unappeallable municipal approvals necessary for the use of the premises and the New Jersey Department of Health's approval for the satellite dispensary does not occur on or prior to one hundred twenty (120) days from the execution of this Lease, ``either party may cancel this Lease upon notice to the other. In such event, this Lease and related documents, including the Limited Recourse Promissory Note and Mortgage, Security Agreement, Assignments of Leases and Rents and Fixture Filing entered into by the parties, shall be deemed cancelled, all sums deposited by Tenant with Landlord shall be returned (provided that Tenant shall not then be in default), and thereafter, neither party shall have any further rights or obligations hereunder. The right to terminate shall be absolute and may be exercised unilaterally by either party prior to the occurrence of the Rent Commencement Date, provided, however, in the event Landlord terminates this Lease, Tenant may elect within five (5) days of Landlord's termination notice to commence payment as provided herein, in which case this Lease shall remain in full force and effect.

(C) In the event that Landlord violates the exclusivity provisions set forth in Exhibit F of this Lease, Tenant shall have the unilateral right to terminate this Lease Agreement subject to the provisions of this Section 2.01(B). Tenant shall also have the right to exercise all available options at law or equity in addition to any rights set forth in this Lease Agreement and such rights shall be deemed cumulative and not sole and exclusive. The parties each agree to use commercially reasonable efforts to satisfy the respective subject conditions.

ARTICLE III

Rent

Section 3.01. Basic Rent. Tenant shall pay Landlord the Basic Rent for the Term as stated in the Basic Lease Provisions (with the Basic Rent payable in such amounts during each Lease Year as reflected in the Basic Lease Provisions). The Term Basic Rent shall be payable in monthly installments as set forth in the Basic Lease Provisions for each full calendar month during the Lease Term. Basic Rent shall be payable in advance upon the first day of each calendar month without any counterclaim, deduction or offset except as set forth herein. The Basic Rent and Additional Rent for any fractional part of a calendar month at the beginning or end of the Lease Term, as applicable, shall be paid as a proportionate part of the Basic Rent and Additional Rent for the corresponding full calendar month. All sums payable to Landlord other than Basic Rent shall be considered "Additional Rent", for the nonpayment of which Landlord shall have the same remedies as for nonpayment of Basic Rent. All payments of Rent and/or Additional Rent shall be made by wire transfer or ACH payment.

ARTICLE IV

Taxes

Section 4.01. Real Property Taxes. Commencing on the Rent Commencement Date and on the first day of each month during the Lease Term thereafter, Tenant shall pay to Landlord as Additional Rent, in advance, an amount obtained by dividing by twelve (12) Tenant's Proportionate Share of the Real Property Taxes. If, on the first day of the month in question, the amount of any tax payable during the then current calendar year shall not have been determined by the taxing authority, then the Real Property Taxes then payable by Tenant shall be based on the amount of the corresponding tax for the immediately preceding tax year subject to immediate adjustment when the amount of such tax shall be determined and billed by Landlord, in which event Tenant shall pay the amount required to be paid as a result of said adjustment within thirty (30) days following Tenant's receipt of a bill therefor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) as to any special assessments which may be paid in annual installments, only the amount of such annual installment (with appropriate proration for any partial year) shall be included within the computation of Tenant's Proportionate Share of the Real Property Taxes for any particular year, and if such assessment may not be paid in installments, Tenant shall only be responsible for Tenant's Proportionate Share of the amortized portion, based on the useful life of the improvement under New Jersey Law and the remaining term of the Lease, including any exercised renewal options; (ii) Tenant shall not be responsible for any future rent tax and (iii) Tenant shall not be responsible for any fines, penalties or late fees for the late payment of Real Estate Taxes by Landlord. **.

Section 4.02. Definitions. The term "Real Property Taxes" shall include all taxes, assessments, and governmental charges levied upon or with respect to the real property and improvements (or any future tax levied in lieu of or in addition to Real Property Taxes) on the Property, or any other tax, or such other actual and reasonable out-of-pocket costs and fees incurred by Landlord in contesting all taxes and/or negotiating with any public authorities with respect thereto; provided, however, that the term "Real Property Taxes" shall not include any franchise, estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, gift, transfer, rent, excise, unincorporated business, sales, utility, mortgage, estate, net income or excess profits taxes imposed upon Landlord, nor shall it include any assessment imposed as a result of the development and construction of the Property and/or the Premises or any special assessments levied against another tenant or occupant in the Property due to improvements made by such other tenant or occupant, or any penalties, late charges or interest incurred by reason of Landlord's failure to make timely payment of Real Property Taxes.

Section 4.03. Personal Property Taxes. Tenant shall pay before delinquency all personal taxes and assessments on the furniture, fixtures, equipment and other property of Tenant located in the Premises and on additions and improvements in the Premises belonging to Tenant.

Section 4.04. Reconciliation. Landlord shall, after the end of each calendar year, furnish to Tenant a statement (which statement shall include a copy of the relevant quarterly Real Estate Tax bill or bills) of the actual amount of Tenant's Proportionate Share for the preceding calendar year. If the amount paid by Tenant hereunder is less than the actual amount of Tenant's Proportionate Share for said calendar year, Tenant shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of Landlord's statement, pay to Landlord the deficiency. If the amount paid by Tenant hereunder exceeds the actual amount of Tenant's Proportionate Share for said calendar year, such excess shall be credited against the next monthly installment or installments of Tenant's Proportionate Share due from Tenant to Landlord hereunder, or shall be refunded to Tenant if such excess relates to the calendar year in which the Lease Term expires.

ARTICLE V

Conduct of Business by Tenant

Section 5.01. Use of Premises. Tenant shall use the Premises for the purpose stated in the Basic Lease Provisions and for no other purpose. In addition, Tenant further covenants and agrees that it will not use or suffer or permit any person or persons to use the Premises or any part thereof in violation of the laws, ordinances, regulations and requirements of the State, County and City where the Property is situated, or other lawful authorities. Tenant shall obtain all permits and/or approvals required for the purposes stated in the Basic Lease Provisions.

Section 5.02. Restrictions on Use. (A) Tenant shall not use or permit the Premises to be used for any purpose other than that set forth in Section 5.01, and shall comply promptly with all present and future applicable statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, orders and requirements regulating the use by Tenant of the Premises. Tenant shall not use or permit the use of the Premises in any manner that will create a nuisance or unreasonably disturb other tenants or occupants of the Property.

(B) Tenant shall comply at all times with the Rules and Regulations attached to this Lease as Exhibit B and such amendments and modifications thereof and additions thereto as Landlord may from time to time reasonably adopt for the safety, care and cleanliness of the Property or the preservation of good order therein; provided, however no modifications to the Rules and Regulations shall, to more than a de minimus extent, (i) increase Tenant's obligations or decrease Tenant's rights, or (ii) increase Landlord's rights or decrease Landlord's obligations. Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for the failure of any tenant or other person to comply with such Rules and Regulations. Rules and Regulations promulgated by Landlord shall be on reasonable notice to Tenant and enforced in a non-discriminatory manner. In the event of a conflict between the Rules and Regulations and this Lease, the provisions of this Lease shall control.

(C) Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord and its members and employees harmless from and against any and all costs, expenses, damages, fines, penalties and amercements of any and every kind whatsoever, suffered or incurred by any of them by reason of the conduct of the use permitted hereunder at the Premises, including, without limitation, any forfeiture.

ARTICLE VI

Maintenance, Repairs and Alterations

Section 6.01. Landlord's Obligations. (A) Subject to the provisions of Article VIII hereof, Landlord shall during the Term of this Lease keep in first-class order, condition and repair the foundations, exterior walls (excluding the interior surface of exterior walls and excluding all windows, doors, plate glass and showcases), downspouts, gutters and roof of the Premises, and other structural portions of the Premises, and Property plumbing, electrical, mechanical, and sprinkler systems (only to the point of connection to the Premises) except for reasonable wear and tear; provided, however, that Landlord shall have no obligation to repair until a reasonable time after the receipt by Landlord of notice of the need for repairs. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the actual out-of-pocket cost thereof within thirty (30) days following Tenant's receipt of an invoice for such work, said costs to be allocated as provided in Section 13.05. Tenant agrees that it will promptly notify Landlord of the need for any such repair after Tenant becomes aware of same. Tenant waives the provisions of any law permitting Tenant to make repairs at Landlord's expense. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, there is reserved to Landlord the use of the exterior walls and roof and the right to install, maintain, use, repair and replace pipes, ducts, conduits and wires through the Premises in locations which will not materially interfere with Tenant's use thereof, at Landlord's sole cost and expense. Landlord, at its sole cost and expense, shall repair all damage caused to the Premises as the result of the foregoing work performed by Landlord.

(B) Landlord shall also repair and maintain the Common Areas of the Property, including, but not limited to, the roof, the foundation, exterior walls, the structural portions of the Property and any load-bearing interior walls, the public portions of the Property interior and the Property's common plumbing (including water and waste lines), electrical, mechanical, elevator, sprinkler, security systems and monitoring, fire command, life safety and heating system. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Tenant's Proportionate Share of all costs and expenses paid or incurred by Landlord for the maintenance and repair of the Common Areas of the Property, in accordance with the provisions of Section 13.05 herein (unless the same is required as a result of Landlord's gross negligence or willful misconduct, in which case such costs shall be incurred solely by Landlord), except that if the repair or replacement so required is extraordinary or generally non-reoccurring and such repair is caused by Tenant's negligence or willful misconduct, then Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the cost thereof within thirty (30) days following an invoice for such work. Such costs shall exclude partial or complete restoration necessitated by casualty, but shall include Landlord's cost of insuring the Premises as provided in Section 7.03 hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Tenant shall not be responsible for reimbursing Landlord for any costs and expenses incurred by Landlord for the maintenance and repair of the Common Areas of the Property solely resulting from the negligence or misconduct of any other tenant or occupant of the Property. Except as amortized over the useful life thereof, Tenant shall not be responsible for capital repairs or improvements to the Property.

Section 6.02. Tenant's Obligations. (A) Subject to the provisions of Article VIII hereof and Section 6.01 of this Article VI, Tenant shall during the Term of this Lease keep in first-class order, condition and repair, and where necessary, replacement, the Premises and every part thereof, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing for replacement, all windows, doors, plumbing, heating, air conditioning, ventilating, electrical and lighting facilities and equipment within, in each case, from the point of connection to the Premises, fixtures, interior walls and interior surface of exterior walls, ceilings (but not the structural elements of the roof), plate glass, showcases, skylights, entrances and vestibules located within the Premises. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep in full force and effect a full service contract with Landlord's HVAC contractor to service such systems and shall provide Landlord with a copy thereof and all renewals.

(B) If Tenant fails to perform its obligations under this Section 6.02, Landlord may at its option, after thirty (30) days' notice to Tenant (except in an emergency when a shorter notice, or no notice, need be given), enter upon the Premises and put the same in good order, condition and repair and the cost thereof shall become due and payable as Additional Rent by Tenant to Landlord within thirty (30) days after written demand.

(C) On the last day of the Term hereof, or on any sooner termination, Tenant shall surrender the Premises to Landlord in the same condition as when received, ordinary wear and tear and damage by fire, the elements or any other cause beyond the control of Tenant excepted.

Section 6.03. Alterations and Additions. (A) Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, make any alterations, improvements or additions to either the interior or exterior of the Premises or to fixtures installed therein in accordance with approved fixture plans. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not require the consent of Landlord to undertake any alterations, improvements or additions, which do not affect the structure, the mechanical, plumbing or electrical systems, the total cost of which does not exceed [] ($[]) Dollars in the aggregate in any single twelve (12) month period. As used herein, structure shall mean the demising walls, the exterior walls, the load bearing walls, the slab, the roof and the foundation.

(B) All alterations, improvements, additions or fixtures other than trade fixtures not permanently affixed to the Premises, which may be made or installed in the Premises and which are attached to the floor, wall or ceiling of the Premises, shall be the property of Landlord and, at the expiration or termination of this Lease shall remain upon and be surrendered with the Premises. Any floor covering which is cemented or otherwise affixed to the floor of the Premises shall be the property of the Landlord.

Section 6.04. Landlord's Right of Access. Landlord and its agents shall have access to the Premises during reasonable business hours upon at least twenty-four (24) hours prior notice (which, notwithstanding the terms of the Basic Lease Provisions, may be given solely by telephone or electronic mail) to Tenant except in the case of emergencies, for the purpose of examining the same to ascertain if it is in good repair, making reasonable repairs which Landlord may be required or permitted to make hereunder and exhibiting the same to prospective purchasers or tenants (which exhibition shall only occur in the last six (6) months of the Term).

Section 6.05. Cleanliness; Waste and Nuisance. Tenant shall keep the Premises at all times in a neat, clean and sanitary condition, shall neither commit nor permit any waste or nuisance thereon, and shall keep the walks and corridors adjacent thereto free from Tenant's waste or debris.

ARTICLE VII

Insurance; Indemnity

Section 7.01. Liability Insurance – Premises. Tenant shall at all times during the Term hereof and at its sole cost and expense maintain in effect (a) Workers' Compensation in such amounts as required by applicable law and Employer's Liability Insurance for at least [] ($[]) Dollars (and Landlord acknowledges that Landlord will not be named as an additional insured in connection therewith); (b) Commercial General Liability Insurance (containing a contractual liability endorsement with respect to Tenant's indemnity pursuant to Section 7.06 hereof) naming Landlord and its fee mortgagee as additional insureds to include personal injury, bodily injury, property damage, products and completed operations liability, in a combined single limit of not less than [] ($[]) Dollars per occurrence and [] ($[]) Dollars general aggregate; and (c) owned and hired automobile liability insurance in the amount of [] ($[]) Dollars. Said insurance shall be primary insurance as respects Landlord and not participating with any other available insurance. In no event shall the limits of said policies be considered as limiting the liability of Tenant under this Lease. The minimum limits specified above are the minimum amounts required by Landlord and may be reasonably revised by Landlord from time to time to meet changed circumstances, including without limitation (w) changes in the purchasing power of the dollar, (x) changes indicated by the amount of plaintiffs' verdicts in personal injury actions in the State of New Jersey, (y) changes consistent with the insurance requirements contained in leases for space within the Property entered into by Landlord after the date of this Lease, or (z) changes consistent with the standards required by landlords of other similar properties located in the State of New Jersey with similar uses.

Section 7.02. Property Insurance – Fixtures and Equipment. (A) Tenant shall at all times during the Term hereof, and at its cost and expense, maintain in effect policies of special form causes of loss property insurance covering (i) its leasehold improvements, fixtures, windows, doors, equipment, inventory and other personal property located at the Premises, in an amount not less than full replacement cost (without regard to depreciation), together with insurance against sprinkler damage and differences in conditions, and (ii) all plate glass at the Premises.

(B) The proceeds of such insurance, so long as this Lease remains in effect, shall be used to repair or replace the fixtures, equipment and plate glass so insured. Landlord and its fee mortgagee shall be named insureds as their interests may appear and as co-loss payees with respect to the insurance required in this Section 7.02.

Section 7.03. Property Insurance – Premises. Landlord may during the Term hereof maintain in effect a policy or policies of special form causes of loss property insurance covering the Premises, inclusive of all improvements, together with insurance against sprinkler damage, differences in conditions, business income coverage (including lost Basic Rent and Additional Rent for a period of not less than twelve (12) months), flood, earthquake damage increased cost to rebuild and changes in ordinance. Such insurance shall be deemed a "Common Area Cost" and shall be paid for in accordance with Section 13.05 hereof.

Section 7.04. Insurance Policies. All insurance required to be carried by Tenant hereunder shall be with companies, on forms and with a loss payable endorsement reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and copies of policies of such insurance or certificates evidencing such insurance shall be delivered to Landlord by Tenant. No such policy shall be cancelable or modified except after ten (10) days' written notice to Landlord. All insurers shall have A.M. Best Key Ratings of at least A/IX and shall be licensed to write insurance in the State of New Jersey.

Section 7.05. Waiver. Landlord and Tenant each hereby waives any and all rights of recovery against the other or against the officers, members, managers, employees, agents, representatives, customers and business visitors of such other party, for loss of or damage to such waiving party or its property or the property of others under its control, arising from any cause insured against under the form of property insurance policy required to be carried hereunder with all permissible extension endorsements covering additional perils or under any other policy of insurance carried by such waiving party in lieu thereof. Each insurance policy carried by the Tenant (excluding Workers' Compensation) and insuring the Premises and its fixtures and contents against loss by fire, water and causes covered by the property insurance policy that Tenant is required to carry hereunder, shall be written in such a manner as to provide that the insurance company waives all right of recovery by way of subrogation against the parties enumerated in the first (1st) sentence of this Section 7.05 in connection with any loss or damage covered by such policies. Tenant shall obtain and furnish evidence to Landlord of the waiver of subrogation by Tenant's property insurance carrier and by Tenant's workers' compensation carrier of any right of subrogation against the parties enumerated in the first (1st) sentence of this Section 7.05.

Section 7.06. Indemnity. Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Landlord from and against any liability or expense including reasonable counsel fees and costs of litigation, for any damage or injury to persons or property in or about the Property which may result from the use or occupation of the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors, or invitees or any default by Tenant under this Lease under this Lease. Landlord shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tenant from and against any liability or expense including reasonable counsel fees and costs of litigation, for any damage or injury to persons or property in or about the Property which may result from the acts or omissions of Landlord, its agents, employees, contractors, or invitees or any default by Landlord under this Lease.

Landlord hereby indemnifies and agrees to defend and hold Tenant, its employees or agents, harmless from and against any and all claims, suits, proceedings, actions, causes of action, responsibility, liabilities, payments, demands and expenses (including attorney's fees) in connection with or arising from acts or omission with respect to the Common Areas, except to the extent caused by Tenant or its partners, shareholders, members, officers, directors, employees, agents, invitees or contractors.

Notwithstanding anything to contrary in any other section of this Lease, Landlord and Tenant hereby acknowledge and agree that (i) each party will, to the fullest extent possible, be required to make a claim under insurance carried or required to be carried by such party under this Lease before asserting a claim for indemnification against the other party under this Section 7.06 (it being acknowledged and agreed by Landlord and Tenant that claims for indemnification against the other party under this Section 7.06 shall be limited to claims not covered by insurance maintained by the party seeking to assert a claim for indemnification) and (ii) nothing herein shall in any way diminish or impair the mutual waiver of subrogation provisions set forth above, which shall be paramount and controlling.

Section 7.07. Exculpation of Landlord. Landlord shall not be liable for injury or damage which may be sustained by the person, goods, wares, merchandise or property of Tenant, its employees, invitees or customers or any other person in or about the Premises caused or resulting from any action or omission by third parties other than Landlord's employees, agents and contractors. Tenant covenants and agrees to make no claim against Landlord for any such loss, damage or injury resulting from the actions or omissions of third parties other than Landlord's employees, agents and contractors.

Section 7.08. Certificates of Insurance. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord, on or before the Commencement Date and at least ten (10) days prior to the expiration of any such policy, certificates of insurance (Acord 25 with respect to liability coverage and ACORD 28 with respect to property insurance, or their equivalent) including an endorsement, to the extent available, that such insurance may not be canceled or modified (as to any decrease in the level of insurance or coverage that Tenant is required to carry pursuant to the terms of this Lease), except on ten (10) days' prior written notice to Landlord and any designees of Landlord. In addition to the certificates of insurance, Tenant shall, on request, provide evidence reasonably acceptable to Landlord that Landlord and its fee mortgagee is an additional insured or an insured as its interest may appear and a co-loss payee under the insurance policies.

Section 7.09. Compliance. Tenant shall, at its own cost and expense, comply with all of the reasonable rules and regulations of Landlord's insurance company, as well as any fire insurance rating organization and other similar bodies having jurisdiction over the Premises. Tenant shall not do nor fail to do anything that will permit the issuer of any insurance policy required to be carried hereunder to disclaim liability or coverage under such policy.

ARTICLE VIII

Repairs and Restoration

Section 8.01. Insurance or Minor Damage. Subject to the provisions of Section 8.03, if at any time during the Term hereof the Premises is destroyed or damaged and either (a) such damage is not "substantial" as that term is hereinafter defined, or (b) such damage was caused by a casualty required to be insured against under Section 7.03, Landlord shall commence the repair of such damage within sixty (60) days following the receipt of insurance proceeds, subject to extension for reasons of Force Majeure, and shall proceed with due diligence to complete such repair, at Landlord's expense and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect. If the proceeds of insurance are not available in a sufficient amount, or if the damage was not required to be insured, then Landlord may elect to cancel the Term of this Lease.

Section 8.02. Major Damage. Subject to the provisions of Section 8.03, if at any time during the Term hereof the Premises is destroyed or damaged and if such damage is "substantial" as that term is hereinafter defined, and if such damage was caused by a casualty not required to be insured against under Section 7.03, then Landlord may at its option either (a) commence the repair of such damage within sixty (60) days following the receipt of insurance proceeds, subject to extension for reasons of Force Majeure, and shall proceed with due diligence to complete such repair, at Landlord's expense, in which event this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, or (b) cancel and terminate this Lease as of the date of the occurrence of such damage, by giving Tenant written notice of its election to do so within sixty (60) days after the date of occurrence of such damage; provided, however, that Landlord shall only terminate this Lease if all other leases at the property similarly damaged all also terminated by Landlord.

Section 8.03. Damage Near End of Term. If the Premises are destroyed during the last twelve (12) months of the Term of this Lease and the estimated cost of repair exceeds ten (10%) percent of the Basic Rent then remaining to be paid by Tenant for the balance of the Term, either party may, at their option, cancel and terminate this Lease as of the date of this occurrence of such damage by giving written notice to the other party of its election to do so within thirty (30) days after the date of occurrence of such damage. If neither party shall so elect to terminate this Lease, the repair of such damage shall be governed by Section 8.01 or Section 8.02, as the case may be.

Section 8.04. Abatement of Rent; Tenant's Remedies. (A) If the Premises is destroyed or damaged and this Lease is not terminated, Tenant shall continue the operation of its business in the Premises to the extent reasonably practicable in Tenant's reasonable judgement, and the Basic Rent and Additional Rent payable hereunder for the period during which such damage, repair or restoration continues shall be abated in proportion to the degree to which Tenant's use of the Premises is impaired. Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord for any damage suffered by Tenant by reason of any such damage, destruction, repair or restoration. For clarity, commencing on the date of a casualty until substantial completion of the restoration, the Basic Rent and Additional Rent shall be abated (or such portion thereof that Tenant cannot occupy).

(B) If Landlord shall be obligated to repair or restore the Premises under the provisions of this Article VIII and shall not commence such repair or restoration within sixty (60) days after such obligation shall accrue, subject to extension for reasons of Force Majeure, Tenant may at its option cancel and terminate this Lease, as its sole and exclusive remedy against Landlord, as of the date of occurrence of such damage by giving Landlord written notice of its election to do so at any time prior to the commencement of such repair or restoration.

Section 8.05. Reconstruction of Improvements. In the event of any reconstruction of the Premises under this Article VIII, Landlord shall reconstruct the Premises as the same existed at the Commencement Date and the Tenant will be responsible for reconstructing its Tenant installations. Notwithstanding that all reconstruction work shall be performed by Landlord's contractor unless Landlord shall otherwise agree in writing, Landlord's obligation to reconstruct the Premises shall be only to the extent of leasehold improvements as originally constructed as of the Commencement Date except for any connecting corridor or passage; Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall be responsible for the repair and restoration and the replacement of its stock in trade, trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Tenant shall commence the installation of fixtures, equipment and merchandise hereof promptly upon delivery to it of possession of the Premises and shall diligently prosecute such installation to completion.

Section 8.06. Definitions. (A) For the purpose of this Article, "substantial" damage to the Premises shall be deemed to be damage, the estimated cost of repair of which exceeds one- fifth (1/5) of the then estimated replacement cost of the Property of which the Premises is a part.

(B) The determination in good faith by a New Jersey licensed general contractor selected by Landlord of the estimated cost of repair of any damage and/or of the estimated replacement cost of the Property shall be conclusive for the purpose of this Article.

Section 8.07. Substantial Damage to Property. In the event of substantial damage to the Property at any time during the Term hereof, regardless of whether or not the Premises is affected thereby, then Landlord may, at its option, either (a) commence the repair of such damage within ninety (90) days following the receipt of insurance proceeds, subject to extension for reasons of Force Majeure, and proceed with due diligence to complete such repair, at Landlord's expense, in which event this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, or (b) cancel and terminate this Lease as of the date of the occurrence of such damage, by giving Tenant written notice of its election to do so within sixty (60) days after the date of occurrence of such damage. As used in this Section 8.07, substantial damage to the Property shall mean damage to the Property where the estimated cost of repair to said Property exceeds one-sixth (1/6) of the then estimated replacement cost of the Property.

ARTICLE IX

Assignment and Subletting

Section 9.01. Approval. Tenant shall not assign, mortgage, pledge or otherwise transfer this Lease, in whole or in part, nor sublet or permit occupancy by any party other than Tenant of all or any part of the Premises, without the prior written consent of Landlord in each instance pursuant to the terms herein. In the event Landlord consents to a proposed assignment or sublease, and notwithstanding the provisions of Section 9.02, Tenant shall submit to Landlord in writing (1) the name of the proposed assignee or sublessee, (2) such information as to its financial responsibility and standing as Landlord may reasonably require, (3) a resume outlining the proposed assignee's or sublessee's previous operating experience, and (4) all of the terms and conditions upon which the proposed assignment or subletting is to be made. This Lease may not be assigned by operation of law. Any purported assignment or subletting shall not constitute a waiver of the necessity for such consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting. Under no circumstances may Tenant sublet any portion of the Premises.

In no event shall the proposed assignee or sublessee change the Use of Premises defined in Section 5.01.

Section 9.02. Landlord Consent. (A) Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord in each instance, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, assign its rights or delegate its duties under this Lease (whether by operation of law, transfers of interests in Tenant or otherwise), mortgage or encumber its interest in this Lease, in whole or in part; sublet, or permit the subletting of the Premises or any part thereof, or permit the Premises or any part thereof to be occupied or used by any person other than Tenant. Any consent by Landlord to any such assignment, transfer, or subletting shall in no event be construed to relieve Tenant from obtaining the prior consent of Landlord to any other or further such assignment, transfer or subletting.

(B) Except as specifically set forth above, no portion of the Premises or of Tenant's interest in this Lease may be acquired by any other person or entity, whether by assignment, mortgage, sublease, transfer, operation of law or act of the Tenant, nor shall Tenant pledge its interest in this Lease or in any security deposit required hereunder.

Section 9.03. Bonus Rental. If Tenant receives rent or other consideration for any assignment or sublease in excess of the Basic Rent or, in the case of the sublease of a portion of the Premises, in excess of such Basic Rent that is fairly allocable to such portion, as determined by Landlord, after appropriate adjustments to assure that all other payments required hereunder are appropriately taken into account, Tenant shall pay an amount equal to [] percent ([]%) of such excess to Landlord promptly following receipt thereof by Tenant of the difference between each such payment of rent or other consideration and the Basic Rent required hereunder (but after first subtracting Tenant's reasonable brokerage fees and alteration costs in connection with such sublease or assignment).

Section 9.04. Scope. If (a) this Lease is assigned, (b) any part of the underlying beneficial interest of Tenant or any Guarantor is transferred or (c) the Premises or any part thereof is sublet or occupied by anyone other than Tenant, Landlord may collect Basic Rent and Additional Rent from the assignee, subtenant or occupant and apply the net amount collected to the Basic Rent and Additional Rent herein required and apportion any excess rent so collected in accordance with the terms of Section 9.03; provided that no such assignment, subletting, occupancy or collection shall be deemed a waiver of this covenant, or the acceptance of this assignee, subtenant or occupant as tenant, or a release of Tenant from the further performance by Tenant of covenants on the part of Tenant herein contained. No assignment or subletting shall affect the continuing liability of Tenant (which, following assignment, shall be joint and several with the assignee), and Tenant shall not be released from performing any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease.

Section 9.05. Costs and Fees. In connection with each requested assignment or sublease, Tenant shall pay to Landlord as reimbursement to Landlord for Landlord's out-of- pocket costs and expenses, an amount not to exceed [] ($[]) Dollars.

ARTICLE X

Eminent Domain

Section 10.01. Entire or Substantial Taking. If the entire Premises, or so much thereof as to make the balance not reasonably adequate for the conduct of Tenant's business notwithstanding restoration by Landlord as hereinafter provided, shall be taken under the power of eminent domain, this Lease shall automatically terminate as of the date on which the condemning authority takes possession. If a portion of the Property is taken under the power of eminent domain such that, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, the remainder cannot be economically operated, Landlord may cancel this Lease on notice to Tenant, regardless of whether or not said taking includes all or part of the Premises. If forty (40%) percent or more of the Property is taken under the power of eminent domain, Tenant may cancel this Lease on notice to Landlord, regardless of whether or not said taking includes all or part of the Premises.

Section 10.02. Partial Taking. In the event of any taking under the power of eminent domain which does not so result in a termination of this Lease, the Basic Rent and Additional Rent payable hereunder, as well as Tenant's Proportionate Share, shall be reduced, effective as of the date on which the condemning authority takes possession, in the same proportion which the Floor Area of the portion of the Premises taken bears to the Floor Area of the entire Premises prior to the taking. Landlord shall promptly at its expense, but only to the extent of so much of the award as is attributable to the Premises, restore the portion of the Premises not so taken to as near its former condition as is reasonably possible, and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect.

Section 10.03. Awards. Any award for any taking of all or any part of the Premises under the power of eminent domain shall be the property of Landlord, whether such award shall be made as compensation for diminution in value of the leasehold or for taking of the fee. Nothing contained herein, however, shall be deemed to preclude Tenant from obtaining, or to give Landlord any interest in, any award to Tenant for loss of or damage to Tenant's trade fixtures and removable personal property or for moving expenses or any other damages available to Tenant that do not limit Landlord's awards.

Section 10.04. Sale Under Threat of Condemnation. A sale by Landlord to any authority having the power of eminent domain, either under threat of condemnation or while condemnation proceedings are pending, shall be deemed a taking under the power of eminent domain for all purposes under this Article.

ARTICLE XI

Utility Services

Section 11.01. Utility Charges. Electricity and gas shall be separately metered and Tenant shall be solely responsible for the payment of the same. If any such charges are not paid when due, Landlord may pay the same, and any amount so paid by Landlord shall become due to Landlord from Tenant as Additional Rent within ten (10) days after Landlord provides Tenant with notice and evidence that such amount was paid by Landlord. Water and sewer are not separately metered and such charges shall be included in the common area costs.

Section 11.02. Furnishing of Services. If Landlord shall elect to furnish any utility services to the Premises, Tenant shall purchase its requirements thereof from Landlord so long as the rates charged therefor by Landlord do not exceed those which Tenant would be required to pay if such services were furnished it directly by a public utility.

Section 11.03. Interruption of Service. Landlord shall not be liable in damages or otherwise for any failure or interruption of any utility service being furnished the Premises, unless Landlord has failed to fully restore such service after a reasonable time after written notice from Tenant of the existence of such problems with utility service; provided, however, no such failure or interruption shall entitle Tenant to terminate this Lease, Tenant's remedies being limited to abatement or equitable reduction of Basic Rent hereunder.

Section 11.04. Electric Deregulation. If permitted by law, Landlord shall have the right at any time and from time to time during the Lease Term to either contract for service from a different company or companies providing electricity service (each such company shall hereinafter be referred to as an "Alternate Service Provider") or continue to contract for service from the current electric service provider.

Tenant shall reasonably cooperate with Landlord, the current electric service provider, and any Alternate Service Provider at all times and, as reasonably necessary, shall allow Landlord, the current electric service provider, and any Alternate Service Provider reasonable access to the Property's electric lines, feeders, risers, wiring, and any other machinery within the Premises upon at least twenty-four (24) hours prior notice (which, notwithstanding the terms of the Basic Lease Provisions, may be given solely by telephone or electronic mail) except in the case of emergencies.

ARTICLE XII

Defaults; Remedies

Section 12.01. Defaults. The occurrence of any one or more of the following events beyond all applicable notice and cure periods shall constitute a default hereunder by Tenant:

(A) Intentionally omitted.

(B) The failure by Tenant to make any payment of Basic Rent or Additional Rent required to be made by Tenant hereunder, as and when due.

(C) The failure by Tenant to observe or perform any of the express or implied covenants or provisions of this Lease to be observed or performed by Tenant, other than as specified in (A) or (B) above, where such failure shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Landlord to Tenant; provided, however, that any such notice shall be in lieu of, and not in addition to, any notice required under N.J.S.A. 2A:18-53 et seq.; provided further, that if the nature of Tenant's default is such that more than thirty (30) days are reasonably required for its cure, then Tenant shall not be deemed to be in default if Tenant shall commence such cure within said thirty (30) day period and diligently pursue the completion of such cure.

(D) (i) The making by Tenant or any Guarantor of any general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (ii) the filing by or against Tenant or any Guarantor of a petition to have Tenant or Guarantor adjudged a bankrupt for a petition for reorganization or arrangement under any law existing to bankruptcy (unless, in the case of a petition filed against Tenant or Guarantor, the same is dismissed within ninety (90) days); (iii) the appointment of a trustee or receiver to take possession of substantially all of Tenant's assets located at the Premises or of Tenant's interest in this Lease, where possession is not restored to Tenant within ninety (90) days; or (iv) the attachment, execution or other judicial seizure of substantially all of Tenant's assets located at the Premises or of Tenant's interest in this Lease, where such seizure is not discharged within ninety (90) days.

Section 12.02. Remedies. (A) If, during the Term, any one or more of the acts or occurrences enumerated in Section 12.01 (any one of such occurrences or acts existing beyond all applicable notice and cure periods being hereinafter called an Event of Default) shall happen, then, and in any such event, and during the continuance thereof, the Landlord may, at its option, then or thereafter while any such Event of Default shall continue and notwithstanding the fact that the Landlord may have any other remedy hereunder or at law or in equity, by notice to the Tenant, designate a date, not less than ten (10) days after the giving of such notice, on which this Lease shall terminate; and thereupon, on such date the Term of this Lease and the estate hereby granted shall expire and terminate upon the date specified in such notice with the same force and effect as if the date specified in such notice was the date hereinbefore fixed for the expiration of the Term of this Lease, and all rights of the Tenant hereunder shall expire and terminate, but the Tenant shall remain liable as hereinafter provided. Additionally, Tenant agrees to pay, as Additional Rent, all actual out-of-pocket attorney's fees and other expenses incurred by the Landlord in enforcing any of the obligations under this Lease, this covenant to survive the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease.

(B) If this Lease is terminated as provided above, or as permitted by law, the Tenant shall peaceably quit and surrender the Premises to the Landlord, and the Landlord may, without further notice, enter upon, re-enter, possess the same by summary proceedings, ejectment or other legal proceedings, and again have, repossess and enjoy the same as if this Lease had not been made, and in any such event neither the Tenant nor any person claiming through or under the Tenant by virtue of any law or an order of any court shall be entitled to possession or to remain in possession of the Premises. Nothing herein contained shall limit or prejudice the right of the Landlord, in any bankruptcy or reorganization or insolvency proceeding, to prove for and obtain as liquidated damages by reason of such termination an amount equal to the maximum allowed by any bankruptcy or reorganization or insolvency proceedings, or to prove for and obtain as liquidated damages by reason of such termination, an amount equal to the maximum allowed by any statute or rule of law whether such amount shall be greater or less than the excess referred to above.

(C) If the Landlord re-enters and obtains possession of the Premises, as provided in (B) above, following an Event of Default, the Landlord shall have the right, without notice, to repair or alter the Premises in such manner as the Landlord may deem necessary or advisable so as to put the Premises in good order and to make the same rentable, and shall have the right, at the Landlord's option, to relet the Premises or a part thereof, and the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord on demand all reasonable expenses incurred by the Landlord in obtaining possession, and in altering, repairing and putting the Premises in good order and condition and in reletting the same, including actual out-of-pocket reasonable fees of attorneys and architects, and all other actual out-of-pocket expenses or commissions, and the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord upon the rent payment dates following the date of such re-entry to and including the date for the expiration of the Term of this Lease in effect immediately prior to such re-entry the sums of money which would have been payable by the Tenant as rent hereunder on such rent payment dates if the Landlord had not re-entered and resumed possession of the Premises, deducting only the net amount of rent, if any, which the Landlord shall actually receive (after deducting from the gross receipts the actual out-of-pocket expenses, costs and payments of the Landlord which in accordance with the terms of this Lease would have been borne by the Tenant) in the meantime from and by any reletting of the Premises, and the Tenant shall remain liable for all sums otherwise due and payable by the Tenant under this Lease, including but not limited to the expenses of the Landlord aforesaid, as well as for any deficiency aforesaid, and the Landlord shall have the right from time to time to begin and maintain successive actions or other legal proceedings against the Tenant for the recovery of such deficiency, expenses or damages or for a sum equal to any Basic Rent payment and Additional Rent then due and owing. The obligation and liability of the Tenant to pay the Basic Rent and Additional Rent shall survive the commencement, prosecution and termination of any action to secure possession of the Premises. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require the Landlord to wait to begin such action or other legal proceedings until the date when this Lease would have expired had there not been an Event of Default.

(D) The Tenant hereby waives all right of redemption to which the Tenant or any person under it may be entitled by any law now or hereafter in force. The Landlord's remedies hereunder are in addition to any remedy allowed by law.

(E) In the event of any breach or threatened breach by Tenant of any of the agreements, terms, covenants or conditions contained in this Lease, Landlord shall be entitled to enjoin such breach or threatened breach and shall have the right to invoke any right or remedy allowed at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise as though re-entry, summary dispossess proceedings, and other remedies were not provided for in this Lease. During the pendency of any proceedings brought by Landlord to recover possession by reason of default, Tenant shall continue all money payments required to be made to Landlord, and Landlord may accept such payments for use and occupancy of the Premises. In such event, Tenant waives its right in such proceedings to claim as a defense that the receipt of such money payments by Landlord constitutes a waiver by Landlord of such default.

Section 12.03. Default by Landlord. Landlord shall not be deemed to be in default in the performance of any obligation required to be performed by it hereunder unless and until it has failed to perform such obligation within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice by Tenant to Landlord specifying wherein Landlord has failed to perform such obligation; provided, however, that if the nature of Landlord's obligation is such that more than thirty (30) days are required for its performance, then Landlord shall not be deemed to be in default if it shall commence such performance within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently prosecute the same to completion.

Section 12.04. Expense of Litigation. If either party incurs any expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees, in connection with any action or proceeding instituted by either party by reason of any default or alleged default of the other party hereunder, or pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, the party prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled to recover its said reasonable expense from the other party.

ARTICLE XIII

Common Areas

Section 13.01. Definition. All areas within the exterior boundaries of the Property which are not now or hereafter held for lease or occupation by Landlord or used by other persons entitled to occupy floor space on the Property, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, parking areas, driveways, truckways, delivery passages, loading docks, sidewalks, ramps, landscaped and planted areas, exterior stairways, bus stops, retaining walls, restrooms not located within the premises of any tenant and serving more than one (1) tenant, their respective employees and invitees, and other areas and improvements provided by Landlord for the common use of Landlord and tenants and their respective employees and invitees, shall be deemed "Common Areas." Landlord may make changes at any time and from time to time in the size, shape, location, number and extent of the Common Areas or any of them, to provide additional leasing area, and no such change shall entitle Tenant to any abatement of rent.

Section 13.02. Use. Tenant and its employees and invitees shall be entitled to use the Common Areas during the Lease Term, in common with Landlord and with other persons authorized by Landlord from time to time to use such areas, subject to such reasonable rules and regulations relating to such use as Landlord may from time to time establish.

Section 13.03. Control by Landlord. (A) Landlord shall operate, manage, equip, police, light, repair and maintain the Common Areas in such manner as Landlord may in its sole discretion determine to be appropriate and in compliance with the requirements of applicable Condominium Documents (as hereinafter defined). Landlord may temporarily close any Common Area for repairs or alterations, to prevent a dedication thereof or the accrual of prescriptive rights therein, or for any reason deemed reasonably necessary by Landlord.

(B) Landlord shall at all times during the Term of this Lease have the sole and exclusive control of the automobile parking areas, driveways, entrances and exits and the sidewalks and pedestrian passageways and other Common Areas, and may at any time and from time to time during the Term hereof restrain any use or occupancy thereof except as authorized by the rules and regulations for the use of such areas established by Landlord from time to time. The rights of Tenant in and to the Common Areas shall at all times be subject to the rights of Landlord and the other tenants of Landlord on the Property to use the same in common with Tenant, and Tenant shall keep said areas free and clear of any obstructions created or permitted by Tenant or resulting from Tenant's operation. If in the opinion of Landlord unauthorized persons are using any of said areas by reason of the presence of Tenant on the Property, Tenant, upon written demand of Landlord, shall undertake commercially reasonable efforts to restrain such unauthorized use by appropriate action. Nothing herein shall affect the right of Landlord at any time to remove any such unauthorized person from the Common Areas or to prohibit the use of any said areas by unauthorized persons.

(C) All of Tenant's employees shall be prohibited from parking their vehicles on Landlord's property during the term of this Lease and any extension hereof and Tenant shall all at all times provide off-site parking for its employees, and Tenant shall enforce such prohibition of its employees parking on Landlord's property. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant's manager(s) shall not be required to park offsite. The identity of the Tenant's manager(s) shall be submitted to Landlord for informational purposes.

(D) Tenant will employ a parking lot attendant that will be present at the Premises at all times that Tenant is open for business. In addition, Tenant shall have security personnel present at the Premises at all times that Tenant is open for business. Tenant shall also schedule deliveries for dates and times to minimize impact to other Tenants at the Property.

(E) In the event that Landlord has a good faith belief that there is congestion in Landlord's parking lot, which is directly attributable to Tenant, Landlord may provide written notice to Tenant of said congestion issues and Tenant shall endeavor to alleviate the congestion utilizing any means or methods that it deems appropriate. In the event that Landlord has a good faith belief that Tenant has failed to remedy the congestion in Landlord's parking lot after written notice, principals for Landlord and Tenant shall meet to attempt to reach an agreed upon resolution within thirty (30) days after request by either Tenant or Landlord.

Section 13.04. Common Area Costs. Tenant agrees to pay as provided below, as Additional Rent, Tenant's Proportionate Share of all actual costs and expenses of every kind and nature as may be paid or incurred by Landlord during the Term (including appropriate reserves) in operating, managing, insuring, equipping, lighting, repairing and maintaining the Common Areas and in providing such security protection and fire protection for the Property as Landlord deems necessary, as determined in accordance with prudent accounting principles and allocated to any particular Lease Year on the accrual method of accounting. Such costs and expenses shall include, but shall not be limited to: general maintenance and repairs, resurfacing, striping and cleaning of the parking and driveway areas; snow removal; cleaning and repair of sidewalks, curbs, elevated walkways, stairways; maintenance and repair of the landscaping and the irrigation systems; maintenance and repair of the Property signs and the directional signs; maintenance and repair of the lighting systems in the parking and walkway areas; janitorial services in Common Areas; maintenance and repair of the storm drainage and sanitary sewer systems; maintenance and repair of the foundation, the roof, the exterior walls, the demising walls (i.e. walls separating Property tenants), sprinklers, the steel structure and load bearing walls; trash disposal; maintenance and repair of utility systems; the cost of water service to the Property (exclusive of the individual premises leased to tenants of the Property); the cost of electricity for lighting in the public areas; the wages and related payroll costs of personnel employed by Landlord to implement such services; premiums for Landlord's public liability, property damage, fire and extended coverage insurance, and rental income insurance for the entire Property and any adjacent easement or license areas and all improvements therein; fees for required licenses and permits; supplies; and administrative costs equal to [] ([]%) percent of the Annual Basic Rent and common charges associated with the Condominium, if any. Landlord shall not be liable in damages or otherwise for any failure or interruption of any Common Area services being furnished the Property, and no such failure or interruption shall entitle Tenant to terminate this Lease. The slab, if any, within the Tenant's Premises shall not be deemed a Common Area and shall be repaired by Landlord at Tenant's sole cost and expense to be paid as provided in Section 6.01. Common Area Costs shall not include: (i) expenses for which the Landlord is reimbursed or indemnified (either by an insurer, condemnor, tenant or otherwise); (ii) expenses incurred in leasing or procuring tenants (including, without limitation, lease commissions, legal expenses, and expenses of renovating space for tenants); (iii) legal expenses arising out of disputes with tenants or the enforcement of the provisions of any lease of space in the Building; (iv) interest or amortization payments on any mortgage or mortgages, and rental under any ground or underlying lease or leases; (v) costs of any work or service performed for or facilities furnished to a tenant at the tenant's cost; (vi) costs of capital improvements, repairs or replacements in excess of the annual amortized cost thereof over its useful life, and depreciation; (vii) the amount of lease concessions and work letters given by Landlord to new tenants or occupants in the Building; all amounts paid to affiliates, subsidiaries or parent companies of Landlord to the extent that such amounts exceed those that would be payable to an unrelated party for similar services or materials; (viii) costs incurred in correcting any defects in construction of the Building or in connection with new construction in the Building (i.e., adding or deleting buildings); (ix) intentionally omitted; (x) to the extent any expense or cost is otherwise attributable to or which may be included in another property of Landlord; (xi) costs of refinancing any present or future mortgage; (xii) expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with furnishing services or providing other benefits which are not available to Tenant, but which are provided to other tenants or occupants in the Building; (xiii) costs incurred in connection with the transfer of Landlord's interest; (xiv) overtime costs incurred as a result of another tenant or occupant in the Building to the extent that Landlord is entitled to be reimbursed for the same; (xv) costs of performing surveys of other tenants' or occupants' electrical usage, even if Landlord is not reimbursed therefor by such other tenants or occupants; (xvi) expenses resulting from the negligence or act or omission of Landlord or any other tenant or occupant in the Building, or their respective agents, servants, employees, contractors, licensees or invitees; (xvii) any bad debt loss, rent loss, or reserves for bad debts or rent loss in excess of []%; (xviii) fines, penalties and interest, and any costs, fees and expenses attributable to a violation by Landlord or any other tenant or occupant in the Building, or their respective agents, servants, employees, contractors, licensees or invitees; (xix) any amounts for which Landlord is reimbursed by insurance (or should have been reimbursed by insurance), or directly from other tenants or occupants, or from any other source, or refunded or indemnified;(xx) costs separately billed to other tenants or occupants in the Building; (xxi) intentionally omitted; (xxii) excess insurance premiums covering the Common Areas and/or the Building occasioned by the extra hazardous use or activities of other tenants or occupants in the Building; (xxiii) damages recovered by a tenant or occupant in the Building due to violation by Landlord of any of the terms and conditions of any lease or other agreement in the Building; (xxiv) intentionally omitted; (xxv) lease takeover or termination costs incurred by Landlord in connection with any lease or other agreement in the Building; (xxvi) the costs of installing an observatory, broadcast facility, telecommunications facility, theater, auditorium, luncheon club, athletic or recreational club, child care facility, or cafeteria or dining facility; (xxvii) any compensation paid to clerks, attendants or other persons working in or managing commercial concessions operated by Landlord or any affiliate of Landlord; (xxviii) (intentionally omitted); (xxix) costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with any obligation of Landlord to indemnify another tenant or occupant of the Building pursuant to a lease or otherwise; (xxx) costs of tools and equipment used initially in the construction, operation, repair and maintenance of the Building; (xxxi) attorneys' fees and disbursements and other costs in connection with any judgment, settlement or arbitration resulting from any tort liability on the part of Landlord and the amount of such settlement or judgment; (xxxii) Landlord's general corporate overhead and general administrative expenses; (xxxiii) costs of sculpture, paintings, or other objects purporting to be art; (xxxiv) charitable and political contributions made by Landlord; (xxxv) costs of purchasing any air or development rights; sewer or water "tap-in" or connection fees payable in connection with the initial occupancy of any tenant or occupant; (xxxvi) intentionally omitted; (xxxvii) intentionally omitted; (xxxviii) intentionally omitted; (xxxix) any other costs or fees to the extent in excess of prevailing and commercially competitive and reasonable rates; and (xl) any other expenses which, under generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied, would not be treated as a normal and ordinary repair or maintenance. In the calculation of operating expenses and Common Area Costs, it is understood that no expense shall be charged more than once, including, without limitation, any service that is included in the charges for the common charges associated with the Condominium.

Once Landlord shall have finally determined said Common Area Costs at the expiration of a Lease Year and delivered a written notice or statement thereof, then Tenant shall only be entitled to dispute said charge as finally established for a period of six (6) months after such charge is finally established and written notice or statement thereof is provided to Tenant, and Tenant specifically waives any right to dispute any such charge at the expiration of said six month period. If it is determined that Landlord overcharged Tenant by more than [] percent ([]%) of the actual Common Area Costs, then Landlord shall reimburse Tenant's actual and reasonable out-of-pocket audit charges. In no event may Tenant use an auditor compensated by a contingent fee.

Section 13.05. Proportionate Payment. Prior to the commencement of each Lease Year, Landlord shall give Tenant a written estimate of Tenant's share of such Common Area Costs for the ensuing Lease Year. Tenant shall pay such estimated amount to Landlord in equal monthly installments, in advance. Within one hundred sixty (160) days after the end of each calendar quarter, Landlord shall furnish to Tenant a statement showing in reasonable detail the costs and expenses incurred by Landlord for the operation and maintenance of the Common Areas during such Lease Year, and the parties shall promptly make any payment or allowance necessary to adjust Tenant's estimated payment to Tenant's actual Proportionate Share of Common Area Costs as shown by such quarterly statement.

ARTICLE XIV

Signs and Lighting

Section 14.01. Exterior Sign. Tenant will be permitted to install an exterior sign on the Premises, with the location, size and materials to be used for such sign to be reasonably acceptable to Landlord and shall, in all events, comply with the specifications promulgated by the Landlord for the building in which the Premises are located. Tenant shall obtain, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, any and all permits and approvals required by any governmental authority for Tenant's signage, provided, however, that Landlord consents to the signage as set forth on Exhibit D attached hereto.

Section 14.02. Prohibited Activities. Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, do any of the following:

(A) Install or affix any exterior lighting or plumbing fixtures, shades, awnings, or exterior decorations (including exterior painting).

(B) Install or affix any exterior window or door signs, placards or the like.

(C) Obstruct any area outside the exterior walls of the Premises.

(D) Cause or permit to be used any advertising materials or methods at the Premises which are reasonably objectionable to Landlord or to other tenants of the Property, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, loudspeakers, mechanical or moving display devices, unusually bright or flashing lights and similar devices the effect of which may be seen or heard outside the Premises.

Section 14.03. Maintenance. Tenant shall at all times maintain its windows, doors and signs in a neat, clean and orderly condition. If, as to any exterior sign, Tenant shall fail to do so after five (5) days' written notice from Landlord, Landlord may repair, clean or maintain such exterior sign and the cost thereof shall be payable by Tenant to Landlord within ten (10) days after written demand as Additional Rent.

ARTICLE XV

Security Deposit

Section 15.01. Tenant has deposited with Landlord the sum stipulated in the Basic Lease Provisions, as security for the full and faithful performance of every provision of this Lease to be performed by Tenant. If Tenant defaults with respect to any provision of this Lease (after notice and the expiration of any applicable cure period), including but not limited to the provisions relating to the payment of Basic Rent and Additional Rent, Landlord may use, apply or retain all or any part of this security deposit for the payment of any Basic Rent or Additional Rent or other sum in default, or for the payment of any other amount which Landlord may spend or become obligated to spend by reason of Tenant's default, or to compensate Landlord for any other loss or damage which Landlord may suffer by reason of Tenant's default. If any portion of said deposit is so used or applied, Tenant shall within five (5) days after written demand therefor deposit cash with Landlord in amount sufficient to restore the security deposit to its original amount and Tenant's failure to do so shall be an Event of Default under this Lease. Landlord shall not be required to keep this security deposit separate from its funds, and Tenant shall not be entitled to interest on such deposit. If Tenant shall fully and faithfully perform every provision of this Lease to be performed by it, the security deposit or any balance thereof shall be returned to Tenant (or, at Landlord's option, to the last assignee of Tenant's interest hereunder) at the expiration of the Term.

In the event of the insolvency of Tenant or in the event of the entry of a judgment in bankruptcy in any court against Tenant which is not discharged within thirty (30) days after entry, or in the event a petition is filed by or against Tenant under any chapter of the bankruptcy laws of the State of New Jersey or the United States of America, then and in such event Landlord may require the Tenant to deposit additional security in an amount which in Landlord's sole judgment would be sufficient to adequately assure Tenant's performance of all of its obligations under this Lease, including all payments subsequently accruing. Failure of Tenant to deposit the security required by this Section within ten (10) days after Landlord's written demand shall constitute a material breach of this Lease by Tenant.

The security deposit is being made by means of an irrevocable "evergreen" letter of credit, which shall be in form and substance, and drawn on a bank which is a member of the New York clearinghouse, satisfactory to Landlord. It shall have a final expiry of not less than six (6) months after the Expiration Date.

In the event that the "Guarantor Loan" (hereinafter defined) shall be accepted by Landlord, then, provided that Tenant shall not be in default in the performance or observance of any of its obligations hereunder, not later than ninety (90) days after the Rent Commencement Date, the security deposit shall be reduced by an amount equal to two (2) months Basic Rent and a new letter of credit, in such reduced amount (but otherwise conforming to the provisions hereof) shall be substituted therefor.

As the Basic Rent increases throughout the Term, the amount of the security shall be increased accordingly, so that Landlord shall at all times have a security deposit letter of credit in an amount equal to ten (10) or twelve (12) months Basic Rent, as the case may be.

ARTICLE XVI

General Provisions

Section 16.01. Estoppel Statement. (A) Each party shall at any time and from time to time upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written notice from the other execute, acknowledge and deliver to the requesting party a statement in writing (i) certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if modified, stating the nature of such modification and certifying that this Lease, as so modified, is in full force and effect) and the dates to which the Basic Rent and other charges are paid in advance, if any, and (ii) acknowledging that there are not, to the certifying party's knowledge, any uncured defaults on the part of the other party hereunder, or specifying such defaults if any are claimed, and any other information regarding this Lease or the Premises, or the use thereof, which the requesting party shall reasonably require. Any such statement may be relied upon by a prospective purchaser or encumbrancer of the Premises or of all or any portion of the real property of which the Premises are a part.

Section 16.02. Transfer of Landlord's Interest. In the event of any transfer or transfers of Landlord's interest in the Premises or of all or any portion of the real property of which the Premises are a part, the transferor shall be automatically relieved of any and all obligations and liabilities on the part of the Landlord accruing from and after the date of transfer. All of the provisions of this Lease shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

Section 16.03. Floor Area. "Floor Area" as used in this Lease means, with respect to the Premises and with respect to each store or office that is separately leased, the aggregate of (a) the number of square feet of floor space on all floor levels, include mezzanines and office space, measured from the exterior of any wall abutting the Common Area or any portion thereof and from the center line of walls which are common walls for Floor Area on the Property which may be leased to tenants; and (b) all outside selling areas used for the sale of merchandise by tenants, if any. No deduction or exclusion from Floor Area shall be made by reason of columns, stairs, or other interior construction or equipment.

Section 16.04. Separability. Any provision of this Lease which shall prove to be invalid, void or illegal shall in no way affect, impair or invalidate any other provision hereof, and such remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 16.05. Delinquency Service Charge. Anything in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, at Landlord's option, Tenant shall pay a "Delinquency Late Charge" of [] ([]%) percent of any installment of Basic Rent or Additional Rent paid more than five (5) days after the due date thereof for each monthly period or portion thereof that the same remains unpaid, such Delinquency Late Charge to cover the extra expense involved in handling delinquent payments. Further, such Delinquency Late Charge shall be payable on the first day of the month next succeeding the month during which such Delinquency Late Charges become payable as additional rent, together with interest on the amounts overdue from the date on which they become due and payable computed at the rate of [] ([]%) percent per annum.

Section 16.06. Time of Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to the performance of every provision of this Lease in which time of performance is a factor.

Section 16.07. Headings. The Article and Section options contained in this Lease are for convenience only and shall not be considered in the construction or interpretation of any provision hereof.

Section 16.08. Incorporation of Prior Agreements; Amendments. This Lease contains all of the agreements of the parties hereto with respect to any matter covered or mentioned in this Lease, and no agreement or understanding or understanding pertaining to any such matter shall be effective for any purpose. No provision of this Lease may be amended or added to except by an agreement in writing signed by the parties hereto or their respective successors in interest.

Section 16.09. Brokers. The parties warrant that they have had no dealings with any real estate broker or agent in connection with the negotiation of this Lease other than the Real Estate Broker specified in the Basic Lease Provisions. The parties agree to indemnify and hold the other party and its mortgagees, if any, harmless from any and all claims of other brokers and expenses in connection therewith arising out of or in connection with the negotiation of or the entering into this Lease by Landlord and Tenant.

Section 16.10. Waivers. No waiver by Landlord of any provision of this Lease shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other provision hereof or of any subsequent breach by Tenant of the same or any other provision. Landlord's consent to or approval of any act by Tenant requiring Landlord's consent or approval shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of Landlord's consent to or approval of any subsequent act by Tenant, whether or not similar to the act so consented to or approved.

Section 16.11. Recording. Neither this Lease, nor any memorandum or "short form" thereof, may be recorded.

Section 16.12. Liens. Except as specifically set forth herein, Tenant shall not do any act, or make any contract, which may create or be the foundation for any lien or other encumbrance upon any interest of Landlord or any ground or underlying lessor in any portion of the Premises. If, because of any act or omission (or alleged act or omission) of Tenant, any construction lien claim or other lien (collectively "Lien"), charge, or order for the payment of money or other encumbrance shall be filed against Landlord and/or any ground or underlying lessor and/or any portion of the Premises (whether or not such Lien, charge, order, or encumbrance is valid or enforceable as such), Tenant shall, at its own cost and expense, cause same to be discharged of record or bonded within thirty (30) days after the filing thereof; and Tenant shall indemnify and save harmless Landlord and all ground and underlying lessor(s) against and from all costs, liabilities, suits, penalties, claims, and demands, including reasonable counsel fees, resulting therefrom. If Tenant fails to comply with the foregoing provisions, Landlord shall have the option of discharging or bonding any such Lien, charge, order or encumbrance, and Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord for all costs, expenses and other sums of money in connection therewith (as additional rental) with interest at the maximum rate permitted by law promptly upon demand. All materialmen, contractors, artisans, mechanics, laborers, and any other persons now or hereafter contracting with Tenant or any contractor or subcontractor of Tenant for the furnishing of any labor services, materials, supplies, or equipment with respect to any portion of the Premises, at any time from the date hereof until the end of the Lease Term, are hereby charged with notice that they look exclusively to Tenant to obtain payment from same.

Section 16.13. Subordination. This Lease shall be subordinate to any first mortgage or first deed of trust that may exist or hereafter be placed upon the Property or any part thereof and to any and all advances to be made thereunder and to the interest thereon and to all renewals, replacements and extensions thereof. Tenant shall, within ten (10) days after written demand by Landlord execute such instruments as may be required at any time and from time to time to subordinate the rights and interest to Tenant under this Lease to the lien of any such mortgage or deed of trust, or, if requested by Landlord, to subordinate any such mortgage or deed of trust to this Lease. Tenant shall, in the event any proceedings are brought for the foreclosure of any such mortgage or deed of trust, attorn to the purchaser upon foreclosure sale or sale under power of sale, and shall recognize such purchaser as Landlord under this Lease.

Section 16.14. Fixtures and Personal Property. Any trade fixtures, signs and other personal property of the Tenant not permanently affixed to the Premises shall remain the property of the Tenant and the Landlord agrees that the Tenant shall have the right, provided the Tenant be not in default under the terms of this Lease beyond all applicable notice and cure periods, at any time, and from time to time, prior to the expiration or termination of the Term of this Lease, to remove any and all of its trade fixtures, signs and other personal property which it may have stored or installed in the Premises, including but not limiting the same to counters, shelving, showcases, mirrors and other movable personal property. The Tenant at its expense shall immediately repair any damage occasioned to the Premises by reason of the removal of any such trade fixtures, signs, and other personal property, and upon the last day of the Term or a date of earlier termination of this Lease, shall leave the Premises in a neat and clean condition, free of debris.

All permanent improvements to the Premises by the Tenant, including but not limited to, lighting fixtures, floor covering and partitions, but excluding trade fixtures and signs, shall become the property of Landlord upon expiration or earlier termination of this Lease. Unless directed otherwise by Landlord solely with respect to Special Alterations (as hereinafter defined), Tenant shall have no obligation to remove any alterations in the Premises upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease. For purposes of this Lease, "Special Alterations" shall mean items such as kitchens, vaults, raised or reinforced flooring or other items which are unusually difficult or expensive to remove (but specifically excluding any private restrooms that Tenant may install in connection with Tenant's initial occupancy of the Premises). Landlord shall advise Tenant if any alteration is a Special Alteration at the time of Landlord's consent to such alteration.

Section 16.15. Quiet Enjoyment. The Landlord covenants that if, and so long as, the Tenant pays the Basic Rent and Additional Rent as herein provided, and performs the covenants hereof, the Landlord shall do nothing to affect the Tenant's right to peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Premises for the Term herein mentioned, subject to the provisions of this Lease, the Condominium Documents (hereinafter defined) and to any mortgage or deed of trust to which this Lease shall be subordinate.

Section 16.16. Intentionally omitted.

Section 16.17. Holding Over. If the Tenant shall remain in the Premises after the expiration of the Term without having executed and delivered a new lease or extension/renewal agreement with the Landlord, such holding over shall not constitute a renewal or extension of this Lease. The Landlord may, at its option, elect to treat the Tenant as one who has not removed at the end of its Term, and thereupon be entitled to all the remedies against the Tenant provided by law in that situation, or the Landlord may elect, at its option, to construe such holding over as a tenancy from month to month, subject to all the terms and conditions of this Lease, except as to duration thereof, and in that event the Tenant shall pay Monthly Basic Rent and Additional Rent in advance at the rate as provided for by law, but in no event less than the rate provided herein for the last month of the Term.

Section 16.18. Payments. No payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than the Basic Rent and Additional Rent herein stipulated shall be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Basic Rent and Additional Rent, nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check, any letter accompanying any check or payment as Basic Rent and Additional Rent be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Basic Rent and Additional Rent or pursue any other remedy in this Lease provided.

Section 16.19. No Partnership. It is agreed that nothing contained in this Lease shall be deemed or construed as creating a partnership, joint venture, or of any association between Landlord and Tenant, or cause Landlord to be responsible in any way for the debts or obligations of Tenant, and neither the method of computing Basic Rent and Additional Rent nor any other provision contained in this Lease nor any acts of the parties hereto shall be deemed to create any relationship between Landlord and Tenant other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant.

Section 16.20. No Option. The submission of this Lease or examination does not constitute a reservation of, or option for, the Premises, and this Lease becomes effective as a Lease only upon execution and delivery thereof by Landlord and Tenant.

Section 16.21. Personal Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided in this Lease, it is understood and agreed, such agreement being a primary consideration for the execution of this Lease by Landlord, that there shall be absolutely no personal liability on the part of Landlord, its successors, assigns or any mortgagee in possession (for the purposes of this Section, collectively referred to as "Landlord"), with respect to any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease, and that Tenant shall look solely to the equity of Landlord in the Property for the satisfaction of each and every remedy of Tenant in the event of any breach by Landlord of any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease to be performed by Landlord, such exculpation of liability to be absolute and without any exceptions whatsoever. A deficit capital account in Landlord shall not be deemed an asset or property of Landlord. The foregoing limitation of liability shall be noted in any judgment secured against Landlord and in the judgment index.

Section 16.22. Intentionally omitted.

Section 16.23. Corporate Authority. If Tenant is a corporation, the persons executing this Lease on behalf of Tenant hereby covenant and warrant that (i) they are duly authorized by appropriate resolution and/or the articles and by-laws of said corporation to execute this Lease and thereby bind Tenant to all the terms and conditions thereof, (ii) Tenant is a duly qualified corporation and all steps have been taken prior to the execution of this Lease to qualify Tenant to do business in the state where the Property is situated, (iii) all franchise and corporate taxes have been paid as of the date of execution, and (iv) all future forms, reports, fees and other documents necessary to comply with applicable laws will be filed when due.

Section 16.24. Complete Agreement. The parties hereby affirm that this Lease contains all of the terms and conditions of the agreements between Landlord and Tenant and that there are no warranties expressed or implied by Landlord or Tenant not set forth in writing herein. This Lease may be executed in several counterparts; but the counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 16.25. Sidewalk Obstructions. Tenant shall not obstruct vestibule areas outside of Tenant's doors, the sidewalks adjacent to the Premises or any portion of the Common Areas with any item, including without limitation, newspaper racks, freestanding sign holders, bicycle stands, vending machines, weighing machines, amusement rides, merchandise of any kind, and/or boxes, trash or other debris.

Section 16.26. Waiver of counterclaims. If Landlord commences any summary proceedings against Tenant, Tenant shall not, and hereby waives the right to, interpose any counterclaim in any such proceeding other than mandatory counterclaims.

Section 16.27. Prohibited Person. Each party represents and warrants that (i) neither such party nor any person, group or entity who owns any direct or indirect beneficial interest in such party or any of them, is listed on the list maintained by the Unites States Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control (commonly known as the OFAC List) or otherwise qualifies as a terrorist, Specially Designated National and Blocked Person or a person with whom business by a United States citizen or resident is prohibited (each a "Prohibited Person"); neither such party nor any person, group or entity who owns any direct or indirect beneficial interest in such party or any of them is in violation of any to anti-money laundering or anti- terrorism statute, including, without limitation, the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001, U.S. Public Law 107-56 (commonly known as the USA PATRIOT Act), and the related regulations issued thereunder, including temporary regulations, and Executive Orders (including, without limitation, Executive Order 13224) issued in connection therewith, all as amended from time to time; and (iii) neither such party nor any person, group or entity who owns any direct or indirect interest in such party is acting on behalf of a Prohibited Person. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from and against all claims, actual damages, actual losses, risks, liabilities and actual costs (including fines, penalties and legal costs) arising from any misrepresentation in this paragraph or the other party's reliance thereon. The parties' obligations under this paragraph shall survive the expiration or sooner termination of the term of this Lease.

Section 16.28. Force Majeure. Any time limits required to be met by either party hereunder, whether specifically made subject to Force Majeure or not, except those related to the payment of Basic Rent or Additional Rent, shall, unless specifically stated to the contrary elsewhere in this Lease, be automatically extended by the number of days by which any performance called for is delayed due to Force Majeure. Force Majeure shall mean and include those situations beyond Landlord's or Tenant's control, including by way of example and not by way of limitation, acts of God; accidents; repairs; strikes; shortages of labor, supplies or materials; inclement weather; or, where applicable, the passage of time while waiting for an adjustment of insurance proceeds.

Section 16.29. Waiver of Jury Trial. Landlord and Tenant waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either Landlord or Tenant against the other in any matters whatsoever arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, and/or any claim of injury or damage.

Section 16.30. Limitation on Damages. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Lease, in no event shall Landlord be liable for any special, consequential, incidental or punitive damages.

ARTICLE XVII

Condition of Premises

Section 17.01. Condition of Premises. Tenant hereby acknowledges to Landlord that the Premises is being delivered with Landlord's Work substantially complete and that otherwise Tenant is leasing the Premises during the Term in its "AS IS" condition and Landlord makes no representation with respect thereto. Landlord shall promptly after the date hereof perform the work described in Exhibit C which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof (" Landlord's Work") at Landlord's sole cost and expense.

ARTICLE XVIII

ISRA Compliance

Section 18.01. Tenant acknowledges the existence of environmental laws, rules and regulation, including but not limited to the provisions of ISRA, as hereinafter defined. Tenant shall comply with any and all such laws, rules and regulations as applicable to the Premises. Tenant represents to Landlord that Tenant's Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Number as designated in the Standard Industrial Classification Manual prepared by the Office of Management and Budget in the Executive Office of the President of the United States will not subject the Premises to ISRA applicability. Any change by Tenant to an operation with an SIC Number subject to ISRA shall require Landlord's written consent. Any such proposed change shall be sent in writing to Landlord sixty (60) days prior to the proposed change. Landlord, at its sole option, may deny consent.

Tenant agrees not to generate, store, manufacture, refine, transport, treat, dispose of, or otherwise permit to be present on or about the Premises, any Hazardous Substances. As used herein, Hazardous Substances shall be defined as any "hazardous chemical," "hazardous substance" or similar term as defined in the Comprehensive Environmental Responsibility Compensation and Liability Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 9601, et seq.), the New Jersey Industrial Site Recovery Act, as amended, N.J.S.A. 13:1K-6 et seq. and/or the Industrial Site Recovery Act ("ISRA"), the New Jersey Spill Compensation and Control Act, as amended, N.J.S.A. 58:10- 23.11b, et seq., any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder, or in any other applicable federal, state or local law, rule or regulation dealing with environmental protection. It is understood and agreed that the provisions contained in this Section shall be applicable notwithstanding the fact that any substance shall not be deemed to be a Hazardous Substance at the time of its use by the Tenant but shall thereafter be deemed to be a Hazardous Substance.

Tenant agrees to execute such documents as Landlord reasonably deems necessary and to make such applications as Landlord reasonably requires to assure compliance with ISRA. In addition, prior to the expiration of the Term, Tenant agrees to make such applications as are required to comply with ISRA in connection with closing, terminating or transferring operations or sale of the property or business entity of Landlord. Tenant shall bear all costs and expenses incurred by Landlord associated with any required ISRA compliance resulting from Tenant's use of the Premises including but not limited to state agency fees, engineering fees, clean-up costs, filing fees and suretyship expenses. As used in this Lease, ISRA compliance shall include applications for determinations of nonapplicability by the appropriate governmental authority. The foregoing undertaking shall survive the termination or sooner expiration of the Lease and surrender of the Premises and shall also survive sale, or lease or assignment of the Premises by Landlord. Tenant agrees to indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any violation of ISRA occasioned by Tenant's use of the Premises, including reasonable counsel fees and costs of litigation.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Tenant shall be permitted to keep small quantities of normal supplies which are used in connection with Tenant's business and normal cleaning supplies and copier supplies, even though they may be Hazardous Substances, provided the same are properly stored, handled and disposed of in full compliance with all environmental laws.

In the event Tenant fails to comply with ISRA as stated in this Section as of the termination or sooner expiration of the Lease and as a consequence thereof Landlord is unable to rent the Premises, then the Landlord shall treat the Tenant as one who has not removed at the end of its Term, and thereupon be entitled to all remedies against the Tenant provided by law in that situation, including Monthly Basic Rent of [] ([]%) percent of the Monthly Basic Rent for the last month of the Term or any renewal term, payable in advance on the first day of each month, until such time as Tenant provides Landlord with a no further action letter or confirmation that any required clean-up plan has been successfully completed.

Landlord shall deliver the Premises to Tenant free of all hazardous materials and in compliance with environmental laws. If Tenant discovers any hazardous materials in the Premises that are not brought into the Premises by Tenant (or its agents, contractors, employees or invitees), Landlord shall remediate such hazardous materials so that the same are in compliance with laws at Landlord's sole cost and expense (and not chargeable to Tenant as an operating expense). Additionally, if Tenant cannot occupy the Premises during any such remediate, the Basic Rent and Additional Rent shall be abated during such time period.

ARTICLE XIX

Landlord's Reserved Right

Section 19.01. Landlord reserves the right, during the Term of this Lease as the same may be extended, to modify, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, or construct, new store fronts, to include architectural variations on that which now exist pursuant to this Lease.

ARTICLE XX

Section 20.01. Tenant shall at Tenant's sole cost and expense apply for and obtain a Certificate of Compliance, Certificate of Occupancy or Certificate of Continued Occupancy, as appropriate, from the municipality of Rochelle Park. Tenant shall provide Landlord with a copy of all such applications and further shall furnish Landlord with a copy of such certificate when issued.

ARTICLE XXI

Guarantor's Loan

Section 21.01. The Landlord may, at its option, require Tenant's Guarantor or its affiliate to pay off Landlord's existing mortgage on the Property, or otherwise to make a $4,500,000.00 non-recourse loan (the "Guarantor's Loan") to Landlord subject to the terms and conditions agreed upon in the Limited Recourse Promissory Note and Mortgage, Security Agreement, Assignments of Leases and Rents and Fixture Filing entered into by the parties. In such event, the grantor of such loan shall have a first priority lien on the Property. The documents evidencing the Guarantor's Loan, completed other than dates and signatures, are annexed hereto as Exhibit E, and the closing on such loan may occur in accordance with the terms of the Loan documents, but not later than 60 days after the Rent Commencement Date. Payments under the loan shall be offset against payments of Basic Rent and Additional Rent hereunder, with any deficiency in favor of Landlord paid monthly on the date due. In the event that the closing of Guarantor's Loan shall fail timely to occur, Landlord shall, in addition to all other rights and remedies, have the right to terminate this Lease upon notice to Tenant.

ARTICLE XXII

Option Period

Section 22.01. It is agreed that, during the period when Tenant is attempting to obtain its approval from the New Jersey Department of Health, as discussed hereinabove, neither party will enter into negotiations to lease premises in Rochelle Park to any third party for use as a medical marijuana facility as long as Tenant is pursuing such approval diligently and in good faith. In consideration for such forbearance by Landlord, Tenant shall cause its Guarantor to pay to Landlord the sum of [] ($[]) Dollars, in advance, on the first day of each calendar month until the first to occur of (i) the cancellation of this Lease as contemplated in Section 2.01(B), or (ii) the date on which Tenant obtains its approval from the New Jersey Department of Health.

Section 23.03. Landlord agrees that only such Operating Expenses shall be passed through to Tenant as set forth herein and no reimbursement shall be made on account of Landlord’s payment for a separate payment for Condominium common charges.

INDUSTRIOUS
MEMBERSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These Membership Terms and Conditions are incorporated into and made part of the Membership Agreement ("Agreement") entered into by and between the Industrious entity or entities ("Industrious") and the member ("Member") set forth on the Agreement signature page. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them on the Agreement signature page.

Section 1. Office Space and Services

(a) Office Space. Subject to these terms and conditions and payment of all applicable fees, Industrious will permit Member to access and use the number and configuration of furnished workspaces and workstations specified on the Agreement signature page (the "Office Space"), located at the property, building, or space owned, leased, or otherwise controlled by Industrious indicated on the Agreement signature page (the "Premises").

(b) Start Date. Industrious will use commercially reasonable efforts to make the Office Space available to Member as of the date specified on the Agreement signature page as the License Start Date, provided that if Industrious is unable to make the Office Space available on the date specified, the term "License Start Date" will mean the date Member actually receives access to the Office Space. Member's payment obligations will begin on the License Start Date.

(c) Services. The Premises will include power from standard power outlets, internet connection, printers/scanners, common area restrooms and a common area kitchen. For common use within the Premises, Industrious will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide certain additional services as may be described in the Member handbook provided to Member (all of the foregoing collectively, the "Services"). Any or all of the Services may be provided by Industrious, an affiliate of Industrious, or any third party service provider designated by Industrious from time to time in its sole discretion. All Services, other than power, shared internet connection and printers/scanners, that may be provided by or on behalf of Industrious may be added, deleted, or changed at any time at the sole discretion of Industrious, with or without prior notice to Member.

(d) Business Hours. Business hours for the Premises may vary by location—the hours of operation in effect will be posted at the Premises or otherwise made available to Member. Industrious reserves the right to close the Premises on national holidays and on days with inclement weather at the discretion of Industrious. Certain Services may be available only during regular business hours, excluding holidays. The Premises may be accessible outside of business hours using the key card assigned to Member, in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Member handbook or other policy documents applicable to the particular Industrious location.

(e) Software. In order to receive certain Services (including but not limited to access to the network, shared printing, etc.), Member may be required to install on Member's computer device certain drivers or software tools (collectively, "Software"). Member acknowledges and agrees that Software may be owned, controlled, or provided by third parties, and that the installation or use of any Software may be subject to separate licenses, terms, conditions, or restrictions. Industrious provides no warranties with respect to the Software (even if provided by or through Industrious), and as a condition of use of the Software, Member, on behalf of itself and its employees, agents, and invitees, waives any claim against Industrious, its affiliates, and any person acting on behalf of Industrious or its affiliates arising from or in conjunction with the installation or use of such Software.

(f) Specific Services. Industrious will accept mail on behalf of Members. However, Industrious will not be responsible for any items received on behalf of Member. If Member expects a special delivery or package, Member must provide Industrious with reasonable notice and instructions, if necessary, in order for Industrious to accept such delivery. Phone service is not included with the Office Space and, if offered by Industrious, will be subject to a separate fee. If Member's membership package includes a monthly allowance of conference room hours, such monthly allowance will not be rolled over from one month to the next.

(g) Maintenance. Industrious will use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the Premises in good functional condition; provided that Member is and will remain responsible for, and will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Industrious and its affiliates for, any and all damage to the Office Space, Premises and/or the building in which the Premises is located, exceeding normal wear and tear, caused by Member or its agents, employees and invitees, and for the acts and omissions of Member and its employees, agents, or invitees.

(h) Industrious Access. Member acknowledges that Industrious and its designees will at all times have access to the Office Space, upon at least 24 hours' notice to Member (except in case of an emergency, which shall be determined in Industrious's sole discretion, and for routine janitorial or similar access), for purposes including but not limited to the maintenance and safety of the same and any emergency situations. Industrious may temporarily move and/or replace parts and components of the Office Space in Industrious's sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except in the case of emergency, Industrious will use commercially reasonable efforts not to disrupt Member's business in or use of the Office Space.

(i) License Only. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Agreement is a revocable license to access the Office Space and receive certain Services, upon the terms and conditions set forth herein. The relationship between Industrious and Member is that of a licensor and licensee only, and not a landlord-tenant or lessor-lessee relationship. This Agreement will not be construed to grant Member any right, title, interest, easement, or lien in or to Industrious's business, the Office Space, the Premises, or anything contained therein, nor will this Agreement be interpreted or construed as a lease. Member acknowledges that this Agreement creates no tenancy interest, leasehold estate, or other real property interest in Member's favor and Member hereby waives any and all claims and/or defenses based upon any such interest.

Section 2. Term and Termination of Agreement

(a) Term. The Term of this Agreement is set forth on the Agreement signature page.

(b) Termination for Breach. Industrious may terminate this Agreement in its sole discretion, effective immediately if Member or any of its agents, employees, or invitees breaches any provision in this Agreement or violates any Industrious rules, policies, or codes of conduct. Provided that, if Member fails to pay any fee when due, if it is Member's first delinquency in any twelve (12)-month period, Industrious will send Member written notice of the delinquency, and Member will have five (5) days from the date of such notice to cure the delinquency by paying all amounts owed (including late fees and finance charges, as applicable). Member is only entitled to one notice and cure period per twelve (12)-month period, and for any subsequent delinquency Industrious may terminate Member's license and membership immediately, in Industrious's sole discretion.

(c) Termination for Convenience. Industrious may terminate this Agreement (i) immediately in the event that Industrious's rights in the Premises terminate or expire for any reason; or (ii) upon sixty (60) days' written notice to Member in Industrious's sole and absolute discretion.

(d) Removal of Property upon Termination. On or prior to the termination or expiration of this Agreement, Member will remove all of its property from the Office Space and Premises, it being understood and agreed that member has no right to continue to use and/or access the Office Space or any Services after the expiration or termination of this Agreement. In addition to any other rights and remedies Industrious has hereunder, Industrious will be entitled to remove and dispose of any of such property remaining in or at the Office Space or the Premises after the termination of this Agreement, without notice to Member (whether belonging to Member or its employees, agents, or invitees), and Member waives any claims or demands regarding such property.

(e) Effect of Termination. Following the termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason, Member will remain liable for all amounts due or owing as of the effective date of such termination or expiration. Without limiting the foregoing, if this Agreement is terminated for breach pursuant to Section 2(b) above, Member will remain liable for all License Fees owed through the remainder of the Term, and such License Fees will be due and payable immediately upon such termination. In the event this Agreement is terminated for convenience pursuant to Section 2(c) above, Industrious will within a reasonable time following the effective date of the termination return to Member any pre-paid License Fees or other fees applicable to the post-termination period. This Section 2 and Sections 4 through 7 of this Agreement will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason, as will all other provisions of this Agreement that may be reasonably expected to survive such termination or expiration.

Section 3. Fees

(a) License Fees. Beginning on the License Start Date, and continuing during the Term of this Agreement, Member will pay, in advance, the monthly license fee specified on the Agreement signature page ("License Fee"). The License Fee is due on or before the 1st of each month during the Term, provided that if the License Start Date falls on a date that is not the 1st day of the month, then on the License Start Date Member will pay the pro rata portion of the monthly License Fee for the remainder of that month. All License Fees must be paid in U.S. dollars. All amounts paid under this Agreement are nonrefundable and noncancellable, except as expressly provided herein. When Industrious receives funds from Member, such funds will be applied first to any past-due balances, oldest to newest, then second to the then current monthly fees due and owing.

(b) Other Fees. Credit card transactions are subject to a []% surcharge to cover Industrious's cost to accept and process credit card transactions. A [] percent ([]%) late fee will be charged on any outstanding balance existing on the 5th day of any month. Additionally, Member may be subject to additional fees or penalties for late payments, returned checks, or other declined payments due to insufficient funds, as set forth in fee schedules published or posted by Industrious from time to time. Member acknowledges that all fees are subject to change from time to time at the discretion of Industrious. Any late fees, charges and penalties are in addition to any other rights and remedies Industrious may have for Member's breach of this Agreement.

(c) Security Deposit. A security deposit ("Security Deposit") must be paid by Member upon execution of this Agreement in the amount set forth on the Agreement signature page. The Security Deposit will be refunded to Member within forty-five (45) days after termination of this Agreement, subject to the complete satisfaction of Member's obligations under this Agreement, as determined by Industrious in its sole discretion. The Security Deposit will be held by Industrious, without liability for interest, as security for the performance by Member of Member's covenants and obligations under this Agreement. Member acknowledges and agrees that the Security Deposit will not be considered an advance payment of the License Fee or a measure of Member's liability for damages in case of default by Member. Industrious may, from time to time and without prejudice to any other remedy, use the Security Deposit to the extent necessary to make good any arrearages of the License Fee or to satisfy any other covenant or obligation of Member hereunder. Following any such application of the Security Deposit, Member will pay to Industrious on demand the amount so applied in order to restore the Security Deposit to its original amount. To the extent of any unapplied Security Deposit after the termination of this Agreement, Industrious will only refund the same to Member, unless an authorized representative of Member directs Industrious in writing to send the refund to another person or location. If during the Term of this Agreement, Member changes the Office Space to one(s) carrying higher License Fees, Member will deliver to Industrious the incremental increase in the Security Deposit as required by Industrious.

(d) Suspension of Services. Industrious may withhold or suspend any Services and/or access to the Office Space and the Premises while there are any outstanding amounts due or Member is otherwise in breach of this Agreement, in addition to any other rights and remedies Industrious may have.

Section 4. Member Obligations

(a) Background Checks. Industrious reserves the right to conduct a basic criminal and OFAC background check on any or all of Member's owners, officers, employees and agents who will be granted access to the Premises (particularly if Member desires after-hours access for such persons), and Member agrees to use good faith efforts to assist Industrious with the same, at no cost of Member. After-hours access may only be granted to those persons who pass such background check to Industrious's sole and absolute satisfaction. Member represents and warrants that neither Member, nor any of its owners, officers, employees or agents has been or will be: (a) designated as a "blocked person" as such term is described in Executive Order 13224, issued September 23, 2001 by George W. Bush, President of the United States; or (b) a person or entity described either as a Specially Designated Global Terrorist or a Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons by the Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") of the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

The continued accuracy throughout the Term of this Agreement of the foregoing representation and warranty is an ongoing material condition to this Agreement and, accordingly, Member has the obligation during the Term to immediately notify Industrious by written notice if the foregoing representation and warranty should ever become false. Any breach of the representation and warranty or failure on the part of Member to so update Industrious constitutes a breach of this Agreement.

(b) Security. Member acknowledges that all keys, key cards, key fobs, and other such items used to gain physical access to the building, Premises and/or the Office Space remain the property of Industrious, or its landlord or the owner of the Premises (as applicable, "Landlord"). Member will not attempt to (or allow others to) gain unauthorized access to any computer systems located at or serving the Premises or any content or data of Industrious, other members, or any other person. Neither Member nor any of its agents, employees or invitees are permitted to enter any other office space in the Premises. Member will use its best efforts to safeguard the Premises and Industrious's property and will be liable for all costs and expenses should any such property be lost or damaged as a result of Member's and/or its employees, agents or invitees acts or omissions. Member is solely responsible for maintaining all necessary security and control of any and all user names, passwords, or any other credentials issued to or used by Member or its employees, agents or invitees, for use with Industrious's computer systems, networks, or other Services provided under this Agreement. Member will not allow (and will instruct its employees and agents to not allow) a party unknown to them to enter the Office Space or the Premises and acknowledges that such action may result in the termination of this Agreement. Member is and will remain responsible for the actions or omissions of all persons that Member or its employees, agents or invitees allow or invite to enter the Office Space or the Premises.

(c) Complaints. Member agrees that all issues and complaints relating to the Office Space or other members will be directed solely to Industrious. Member will have no direct access to or communication with the Landlord (if other than Industrious), and Member agrees not to send any complaints or demands to the Landlord directly.

(d) Privacy Policy. Member agrees that the use of Industrious's online portal and website are subject to Industrious's Portal Terms of Use and Privacy Policy, which are available at www.industriousoffice.com/portalterms/ and www.industriousoffice.com/privacypolicy/, respectively, and which are subject to change from time to time in Industrious's sole discretion.

(e) Rules and Policies. Additional rules may be set forth in the Member handbook or other policy documents applicable to each Industrious location, which are subject to change from time to time in Industrious's sole discretion. Member agrees to abide by all rules and policies as determined by Industrious from time to time, whether communicated to Member verbally, by email, other written notice or public posting. Without limiting the foregoing, Industrious may require Member and each of its owners, officers, employees, agents and invitees who will be granted access to the Premises to agree to and sign Industrious's Anti-Harassment Policy prior to using the Office Space or Services.

(f) Prohibited Conduct. In addition to any other applicable rules and policies issued by Industrious, Member agrees to the following terms and conditions:

(i) No Assignment or Sublicense. Member may not sell, lease, license, distribute or grant any interest in the Office Space or any of the Services to any third party. Further, Member may not assign this Agreement in whole or in part, or otherwise transfer, sublicense or otherwise delegate any of Member's rights or obligations under this Agreement, to any third party.

(ii) No Alterations. Member may not alter the Office Space or Premises in any manner or attach or affix any items to the walls, floors or windows, without the prior written consent of Industrious.

(iii) No Unapproved Items. Member may not store any of its property or materials in any area of the Premises, except the Office Space. Member may not bring any additional furniture, furnishings or decorations into the Premises or Office Space or install any satellite or microwave antennas, dishes, cabling or telecommunications lines in the Premises or Office Space without the prior written consent of Industrious in its sole discretion. Member acknowledges that carts, dollies and other freight items may not be used in the passenger elevator except by appointment made with Industrious, at Industrious's sole discretion.

(iv) No Retail Use. Member will use the Office Space solely as general office space in the conduct of Member's business and for no other use whatsoever. Use of the Office Space for retail, medical or other type of business involving frequent visits by members of the public is not permitted. Regular use of the Office Space is limited to those persons subject to background checks as set forth in this Agreement.

(v) No Illegal Activities. Member may not use the Premises, any Services, or any Industrious computer systems or networks to conduct or pursue any illegal activities, including but not limited to, downloading, distributing or viewing any illegal content, engaging in any activity in violation of OFAC regulations, and/or illegally downloading any copyrighted content, or any other activity that violates any intellectual property rights, and any such conduct using the Premises or Industrious's systems or networks may result in immediate termination of this Agreement.

(vi) No Offensive Behavior. Member may not conduct any activity that is generally regarded as offensive to other people, including but not limited to, involvement in hate groups or activities involving pornographic or sexually explicit materials or obscenities, whether written, oral, or in any form or medium. Member will refrain from any activities that may be disruptive, including but not limited to, acts of disorderly nature or excessive noise. Member may not conduct any activity which may be hazardous to other persons in the building. Industrious may determine at its sole discretion what activities may be deemed offensive, disruptive or hazardous.

(vii) No Malware, Spamming. Member may not upload any files that Member knows or suspects to contain or may contain viruses, Trojan Horses, worms, time bombs, candlebots, corrupted files, or any other malicious code, whether known or unknown that may damage or disrupt Industrious's or any other person's computer systems or networks. Member will take precautions to prevent the spread of viruses, including but not limited to, using up-to-date anti-virus software, enacting policies to avoid opening suspicious emails, and avoiding suspicious websites. Spamming other members or any other persons is strictly prohibited, and any such conduct using the Premises or Industrious's systems or networks may result in immediate termination of this Agreement.

Section 5. Intellectual Property and Confidentiality

(a) Trademarks. Member may not use Industrious's name, logo, trademarks, service marks or domain names (collectively, "Industrious Marks") in any way in connection with Member's business, without the express written consent of Industrious, in its sole discretion. Member will comply with all standards established by Industrious from time to time with respect to the Industrious Marks. Member hereby acknowledges and agrees that all right, title, and interest in and to the Industrious Marks belong to Industrious, and that all usage and goodwill of the Industrious Marks will inure only to the benefit of Industrious. Member will not use, register, or attempt to register any trademarks or domain names that are confusingly similar to the Industrious Marks, nor use the Industrious Marks in any manner that would indicate that Member has any rights thereto. If consent to use the Industrious Marks is granted as set forth above, Industrious reserves the right to revoke Member's rights to use the Industrious Marks at any time in Industrious's sole discretion.

(b) Publicity. Member may use the address of the Office Space as its business address, but only during the Term of this Agreement. Member may not use photos or illustrations of the Premises, or any Industrious Marks, in any of Member's marketing materials or in any other manner without the express written consent of Industrious. Further, no press release, advertising, sales literature or other publicity statements relating to the existence or substance of this Agreement or the relationship of the parties may be made by Member without the prior written approval of Industrious. Member grants Industrious and its affiliates the right to use Member's trade name(s), logos and/or trademarks in Industrious's materials prepared for its shareholders or members, or prospective shareholders or members.

(c) Member Directory. Industrious may place Member's name and contact information in a directory of Industrious members; provided that Member will be given the opportunity to "opt-out" of such listing which it may do at any time.

(d) Photo and Video Shoots. Member acknowledges that promotional photography and/or video recording (a "Shoot") may occur in the Premises (but not within the Office Space) from time to time. Industrious will provide Member with reasonable advance notice of any such Shoot, and at such time Member may request that Industrious endeavor to avoid capturing Member's name, likeness, image, voice and/or appearance in the background any such recordings. Industrious will use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with Member's request. Subject to the foregoing, by entering that portion of the Premises in which a Shoot is taking place, Member and Member's employees, agents, and invitees consent to such photography and/or video recording and the release, publication, exhibition or reproduction of such recordings in which they may appear for promotional purposes by Industrious and its affiliates and representatives. Subject to the foregoing, Member and its employees, agents, and invitees each hereby releases and discharges Industrious and its agents, representatives, and assignees from any and all claims and demands arising out of or in connection with the use of the name, likeness, image, voice, or appearance of Member or any of its employees, agents, or invitees, including any and all claims for invasion of privacy, right of publicity, misappropriation, misuse, and defamation. Member represents and warrants to Industrious that its employees, agents, and invitees will have been informed of and agreed to this consent, waiver of liability, and release before they enter that portion of the Premises in which a Shoot is taking place.

(e) Confidential Information. Member may receive or learn certain confidential information about Industrious or Industrious's other members, including without limitation, information regarding its or their business operations, business and marketing plans, pricing, technology, finances and methods (collectively, "Confidential Information"). Member agrees to hold all Confidential Information, whether belonging to Industrious or its other members, in strict confidence and to take all reasonable precautions to protect such Confidential Information. Member acknowledges that any disclosure or unauthorized use of Industrious's Confidential Information will constitute a material breach of this Agreement and cause substantial harm to Industrious for which damages would not be a fully adequate remedy. In the event of any such breach, Industrious will have, in addition to any other available rights and remedies, the right to injunctive relief (without being required to post any bond or security). If an employee or agent of Industrious becomes aware of any Confidential Information of Member, Industrious agrees to cause such employee or agent to hold such Confidential Information in strict confidence and to take all reasonable precautions to protect such Confidential Information, except any disclosure required by law, court order or in connection with a breach of this Agreement by Member.

Section 6. Liability

(a) Waiver of Claims. Member will be solely responsible for maintaining the insurance coverage required hereunder and Member will look solely to such insurance for any and all claims, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities and rights it may have, except to the extent arising or resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of an Industrious Party (defined hereunder). To the maximum extent permitted by law, Member, on its own behalf and on behalf of its owners, officers, employees, agents and invitees, hereby Waives (as defined hereunder) any and all claims, actions, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities and rights against Industrious, its affiliates, and each of its and their past, present and future principals, members, assignees, managers, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assigns (each an "Industrious Party" and collectively, "Industrious Parties") arising or resulting from (i) any injury or damage to, or destruction, theft, or loss of, any tangible or intangible property located in or about the Office Space, the Premises or the building in which the Premises is located, (ii) any personal injury, bodily injury or property damage (as such terms are defined by insurance regulations) occurring in or at the Office Space, the Premises or the building in which the Premises is located, or (iii) any interruption or stoppage of any Service, except to the extent arising or resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of an Industrious Party. For purposes of this Agreement, "affiliates" of Industrious include any person or entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with Industrious, including without limitation, any subsidiaries or parent companies; and the term "Waives" means that Member, and its owners, officers, employees, agents and invitees waive and knowingly and voluntarily assume the risk of.

(b) Disclaimer of Warranties. Industrious expressly disclaims and excludes all warranties, whether express, implied or statutory, with respect to the Office Space, the Premises and the Services provided by or on behalf of Industrious, including but not limited to, any warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non- infringement, habitability, or quiet enjoyment, or any warranties that may have arisen or may arise from course of performance, course of dealing or usage of trade. Industrious makes no representations or warranties regarding the quality, reliability, timeliness or security of the Office Space or any Services provided by or on behalf of Industrious, or that any Services will be uninterrupted or operate error free. The Office Space, Premises and Services provided by Industrious are provided "as is" and "with all faults".

(c) Limitation of Liability. The aggregate monetary liability of the Industrious Parties to Member, its owners, officers, employees, agents and invitees for any reason and for all causes of action, whether in contract, in tort, or otherwise, not otherwise waived as set forth above, will not exceed the total fees paid by Member to Industrious under this Agreement during the two (2)-month period before the cause of action accrued. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event will any Industrious Party be liable for any claim or cause of action, whether in contract, in tort, or otherwise for any indirect, special, consequential, or punitive damages, including but not limited to, loss of profits or business interruption, even if Industrious has been advised of such damages. Member acknowledges that Industrious's obligations under this Agreement are consideration for the foregoing limitations of liability. The limitations, waivers, disclaimers and exclusions in this Agreement apply to the maximum extent allowed by law, even if a remedy fails its essential purpose.

(d) Limitation of Actions. To the extent not otherwise waived as set forth above, Member must commence any action, suit or proceeding against any Industrious Parties, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, within one (1) year of the cause of action's accrual, and Member, on its own behalf and on behalf of its owners, officers, employees, agents and invitees, hereby Waives any claims not brought within such time period.

(e) Indemnification. Member will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of the Industrious Parties from, and against any and all actual claims, actions, proceedings, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses of every kind, whether known or unknown, including but not limited to reasonable attorney fees (collectively, "Claim(s)"), to the extent resulting from or arising out of (i) any breach of this Agreement by Member or Member's owners, officers, employees, agents, or invitees; or (ii) any actions, errors, omissions, negligence, willful misconduct or fraud of Member or Member's owners, officers, employees, agents or invitees. If any such Claim is brought against any of the Industrious Parties, Member will defend the Claim at Member's expense, upon written notice from Industrious, using counsel approved by Industrious in writing, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld. The Industrious Parties' refusal to consent to a settlement shall not be deemed unreasonable when the proposed settlement requires or results in the Industrious Parties, or any one of them, admitting to any wrongdoing or liability.

(f) Insurance Requirements. Member, at its expense, will maintain at all times during the Term of this Agreement, (i) personal property insurance covering any and all personal property of Member and its owners, officers, employees, agents and invitees from time to time, within the Office Space, the Premises and/or the building in which the Premises is located, (ii) commercial general liability insurance covering personal injury, bodily injury and property damage, (iii) business interruption insurance, and (iv) if applicable, worker's compensation insurance as required by law, all of which insurance coverage will be in the form and amount reasonably acceptable to Industrious. All insurance policy(ies) required to be carried by Member must (1) name, as additional insureds, Industrious and its Landlord(s) (including any master landlord and their respective lender(s)), or other persons with responsibility for the Premises whom Industrious may designate in writing to Member, and (2) be endorsed to waive all rights of subrogation against Industrious and its Landlord(s). Upon request from Industrious, Member will promptly provide proof of insurance required to be carried above, and in the form required above, including without limitation, the inclusion of the required additional insureds and waivers of subrogation. Further, Member, on its own behalf and on behalf of its employees, agents and invitees, hereby waives all rights of recovery against the Industrious Parties by way of subrogation or otherwise. If Member fails to maintain any insurance required hereunder, Industrious's failure to take any action regarding such breach, including but not limited to, requesting or requiring proof of the existence of any such insurance at any time, and/or providing notice to Member of any such non-compliance, will not be considered or construed in any manner as a waiver of any rights of Industrious for such breach, nor will such failure of Member to carry any such insurance or such failure of Industrious to take any action with regard to such breach impose any obligation or liability on Industrious in any manner. Industrious reserves the right, but will not be obligated, to purchase any required insurance on behalf of Member, at Member's expense. If Member fails to carry any required insurance and a Claim occurs that would otherwise be covered by Member's insurance, Industrious, without imposing any liability on Industrious or waiving any rights Industrious has with regard to Member's breach, may, but will not be obligated to, make a claim under any insurance policy carried by Industrious to cover such Claim, in which event Member will be liable to Industrious for all costs and expenses of Industrious to cover such Claim, including, but not limited to, the applicable deductible and a reasonable portion of the premium as determined by Industrious. Industrious, at its expense, will maintain during the Term insurance in such amounts as required under Industrious's lease with its Landlord for the Premises (the "Lease").

(g) Non-Solicitation. Member will not, during the Term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year thereafter, solicit the employment of any officer, employee, contractor, subcontractor or service provider of Industrious, which causes such person, directly or indirectly, to decrease or terminate its employment or business with Industrious. If Member hires any employee, contractor or subcontractor of Industrious during the period described, Member will pay to Industrious an amount equal to such person's annual salary with or fees from Industrious. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this paragraph shall restrict or preclude Member from hiring any person who responds to a general solicitation of employment through an advertisement not targeted specifically at Industrious or its employees.

Section 7. General

(a) Breach of Agreement. In the event of a breach of this Agreement by Member, Industrious will have any and all rights and remedies available to Industrious as set forth in the Agreement, at law and/or in equity, including without limitation, recovery of all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Industrious in pursuing such remedies, whether suit is filed or not, all of which rights and remedies are cumulative and not exclusive of each other.

(b) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including all schedules and attachments incorporated by reference, sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to its subject matter, and all other understandings, written or oral, are superseded. This Agreement will also be deemed to include all policies, procedures, and requirements published by Industrious from time to time, with which Member hereby agrees to comply. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, this Agreement may not be amended except in a writing executed by both parties.

(c) Subordination. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Agreement is at all times subject and subordinate to the Lease with Landlord and to any other agreements to which the Lease is subject or subordinate. Member acknowledges that Member has no rights under the Lease.

(d) Governing Law; Venue; Waiver of Jury Trial. This Agreement is governed by the laws of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law principle that would result in the laws of any other jurisdiction governing this Agreement. Any action, suit, or proceeding arising out of the subject matter of this Agreement will be litigated in courts located in New York County, New York. Member consents and submits to the jurisdiction of any local, state, or federal court in New York County, New York. EACH PARTY, BY ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT, HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AGREES TO WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT.

(e) Waivers. Neither party will be deemed by any act or omission to have waived any of its rights or remedies hereunder unless such waiver is in writing and signed by the waiving party, and then only to the extent specifically set forth in writing. Further, one or more waivers of any covenant or condition by either party will not be construed as a waiver of a subsequent breach of the same covenant or condition, and the consent or approval by either party to or of any act requiring such consent or approval will not be deemed to render unnecessary future consent or approval to or of any subsequent similar act.

(f) Relationship of the Parties. The parties to this Agreement are independent contractors and will not be considered agents, employees, servants, joint venturers, or partners of one another. Neither party has the authority to bind the other party except as explicitly set forth in this Agreement, and neither party will make any representation or warranty otherwise. Industrious will have no responsibility for any fee or expense incurred by Member in connection with either party's performance this Agreement, or provision or use of the Services.

(g) Successors and Assigns. Neither the Investor, nor any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, stockholders or partners has either directly or indirectly, including, through a broker or finder (a) engaged in any general solicitation, or (b) published any advertisement in connection with the offer and sale of the Shares.

Section 4.5. Legal Proceedings. There are no Actions pending or, to Investor's knowledge, threatened against or by Investor or any Affiliate of Investor that challenge or seek to prevent, enjoin or otherwise delay the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. No event has occurred or circumstances exist that may give rise or serve as a basis for any such Action.

Section 4.6. Disclosure of Information; Investment Experience. Investor has had an opportunity to discuss the Company's business, management, financial affairs and the terms and conditions of the offering of the Shares with the Company's management and has had an opportunity to review the Company's facilities. The foregoing, however, does not limit or modify the representations and warranties of the Company in Article III of this Agreement or the right of Investor to rely thereon. Investor has substantial experience in evaluating and investing in companies in the Company's industry, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters so that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in the Company and protecting its own interests. Investor understands and acknowledges that its investment in the Company is highly speculative and involves substantial risks and Investor can bear the economic risk of its investment hereunder and is able, without impairing its financial condition, to hold the Shares for an indefinite period of time and to suffer a complete loss of its investment.

Section 4.7. No Bad Actors. (i) Investor has exercised reasonable care to determine whether any Disqualification Event is applicable to Investor or Investor's Rule 506(d) Related Parties, except, if applicable, for a Disqualification Event as to which Rule 506(d)(2)(ii) or (iii) or (d)(3) is applicable and (ii) no Disqualification Event is applicable to the Investor, or any of Investor's Rule 506(d) Related Parties, except, if applicable, for a Disqualification Event as to which Rule 506(d)(2)(ii) or (iii) or (d)(3) is applicable.

ARTICLE V.
COVENANTS

Section 5.1. Conduct of Business Prior to the Closing.

(a) From the date hereof until the Initial Closing, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, in the Management Agreement or consented to in writing by Investor (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned), the Company Parties shall, (1) conduct the Business of the Company in the Ordinary Course of Business; and (2) use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain and preserve intact the current organization, Business and franchise of the Company and to preserve the rights, franchises, goodwill and relationships of its employees, customers, lenders, suppliers, regulators and others having business relationships with the Company. Without limiting the foregoing, from the date hereof until the MSA Effective Date, the Company Parties shall, and subsequent to the MSA Effective Date until the Initial Closing the Company Parties shall, in accordance with the Management Agreement, use commercially reasonable efforts to assist Investor or Investor's Affiliate to:

(i) cause the Company to preserve, maintain and perform in compliance with all of its Permits;

(ii) cause the Company to pay its debts, Taxes and other obligations when due;

(iii) cause the Company to maintain the properties and assets owned, operated or used by the Company in substantially the same condition as they were on the Agreement Date, subject to reasonable wear and tear;

(iv) cause the Company to continue in full force and effect without modification all Insurance Policies, except as required by applicable Law;

(v) cause the Company to defend and protect its properties and assets from infringement or usurpation;

(vi) cause the Company to perform all of its obligations under all Material Contracts;

(vii) cause the Company to maintain its books and records in accordance with past practice;

(viii) cause the Company to comply in all material respects with all applicable Laws;

(ix) except as required by any applicable Law, cause the Company to continue to operate all retail locations currently open and to use commercially reasonable efforts to timely open any additional retail locations scheduled to be opened within the next 12 months; and

(x) except as required by any applicable Law, cause the Company to continue all growing, processing and manufacturing activities currently being undertaken by the Company.

(b) From the Agreement Date until the Closing, the Company Parties shall cause the Company not to take or permit any of the following actions without Investor's prior written consent, unless such actions are otherwise permitted and in accordance with the Management Agreement:

(i) declare, set aside, or pay any dividend or make any distribution with respect to the equity of the Company or redeem, purchase, or otherwise acquire any of the equity of the Company;

(ii) authorize for issuance, issue, sell, pledge, grant, encumber or deliver or agree or commit to issue, sell, pledge, grant, encumber or deliver any Equity Equivalents of the Company;

(iii) amend or change any of the Company's organizational documents;

(iv) incur any material obligation or liability (individually or in the aggregate) other than for Transaction Expenses or incur any indebtedness for borrowed money, make any loans or advances, or assume, guarantee or endorse or otherwise become responsible for the obligations of any other Person;

(v) (i) enter into any significant new line of business, or incur or commit to incur any capital expenditures or Liabilities in connection therewith or (ii) abandon or discontinue any significant existing lines of business;

(vi) except as required by any applicable Law, apply for any new Permits pursuant to State and Local Cannabis Laws or abandon any pending applications for Permits applied for under State and Local Cannabis Laws;

(vii) acquire any business whether by merger or consolidation, purchase of assets or equity securities or any other manner;

(viii) any action that would cause any of the changes, events or conditions described in Section 3.6 to occur; or

(ix) commit to do any of the foregoing referred to in clauses (i)–(viii).

Section 5.2. Access to Information. From the date hereof until the MSA Effective Date, the Company Parties shall (a) afford Investor and its Representatives access to and the right to inspect all of the Real Property, properties, assets, premises, books and records, Contracts and other documents and data related to the Company at mutually acceptable times and without undue disruption to the Ordinary Course of Business of the Company or interference with the Company's contractual relationships; (b) furnish Investor and its Representatives with such legal, financial, operating and other data and information related to the Company as Investor or any of its Representatives may reasonably request; and (c) cooperate with Investor in its investigation of the Company; provided, however that any such investigation shall be conducted during normal business hours upon reasonable advance notice to Company Parent, under the supervision of Company Parent's designated Representatives and in such a manner as not to interfere with the conduct of the Business or any other businesses of the Company or Company Parent. All requests by Investor for access pursuant to this Section 5.2 shall be submitted or directed exclusively to [] or such other individuals as Company Parent may designate in writing from time to time. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no Company Party shall be required to disclose any information to Investor if such disclosure would, in Company Parent's reasonable discretion: (w) cause significant competitive harm to a Company Party and its businesses, including the Business, if the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are not consummated; (x) jeopardize any attorney-client privilege; (y) contravene any applicable Law, fiduciary duty or material binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement; or (z) reveal bids received from third parties in connection with transactions similar to those contemplated by this Agreement and any written analysis (including financial analysis) relating to such bids. Prior to the MSA Effective Date, without the prior written consent of a Company Party and unless in the presence of a designated Representative of Company Parent, Investor shall not contact or otherwise communicate with any employee of a Company Party or any third party contracting with the Company and Investor shall have no right to perform invasive or subsurface investigations of the Real Property. Investor shall, and shall cause its Representatives to, abide by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement with respect to any access or information provided pursuant to this Section 5.2. For avoidance of doubt, on and after the MSA Effective Date, the Investor shall have full access to and shall manage the Company in accordance with the terms of the Management Agreement.

Section 5.3. No Solicitation of Other Bids.

(a) From the Agreement Date until the termination of this Agreement, Company Parent shall not, and shall not authorize or permit any of its Affiliates (including the Company) or any of its or their Representatives to, directly or indirectly, (i) encourage, solicit, initiate, facilitate or continue inquiries regarding an Acquisition Proposal (as defined below); (ii) enter into discussions or negotiations with, or provide any information to, any Person concerning a possible Acquisition Proposal; or (iii) enter into any agreements or other instruments (whether or not binding) regarding an Acquisition Proposal. Company Parent shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated, and shall cause its Affiliates (including the Company) and all of their respective Representatives to immediately cease and cause to be terminated, all existing discussions or negotiations with any Persons conducted heretofore with respect to an Acquisition Proposal. For purposes hereof, "Acquisition Proposal" shall mean any proposal or offer from any Person (other than Investor or any of its Affiliates) concerning (A) a merger, consolidation, liquidation, recapitalization, share exchange or other business combination transaction involving the Company; (B) the issuance or acquisition of shares of capital stock or other equity securities of the Company; or (C) the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of any significant portion of the Company's properties or assets.

(b) In addition to the other obligations under this Section 5.3, the Company and/or Company Parent shall promptly (and in any event within three Business Days after receipt thereof by the Company, Company Parent or their Representatives) advise Investor orally and in writing of any Acquisition Proposal or any request for information with respect to any Acquisition Proposal received subsequent to the Agreement Date, the material terms and conditions of such request or Acquisition Proposal, and the identity of the Person making the same.

(c) Company Parent agrees that the rights and remedies for noncompliance with this Section 5.3 shall include having such provision specifically enforced by any court having equity jurisdiction, it being acknowledged and agreed that any such breach or threatened breach may cause irreparable injury to Investor and that money damages would not provide an adequate remedy to Investor.

Section 5.4. Notice of Certain Events.

(a) From the date hereof until the final Closing, the Company Parties shall promptly notify Investor in writing of:

(i) any fact, circumstance, event or action occurring on or prior to the Initial Closing that becomes the Knowledge of the Company Parties, the existence, occurrence or taking of which (A) has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect, (B) has resulted in, or would reasonably be expected to result in, any representation or warranty made by the Company or Company Parent hereunder not being true and correct as of the MSA Effective Date (or, with respect to the Fundamental Representations, as of the Initial Closing), (C) has resulted in, or would reasonably be expected to result in, a breach by the Company or Company Parent of any covenant set forth in this Agreement, or (D) has resulted in, or would reasonably be expected to result in, the failure of any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.2 to be satisfied;

(ii) any notice or other communication received by a Company Party from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;

(iii) any notice or other communication, written or oral, to or from a Company Party or any of its Representatives and any Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

(iv) any Actions commenced or, to Company's Knowledge, threatened against, relating to or involving or otherwise affecting the Company or Company Parent that, if pending on the Agreement Date, would have been required to have been disclosed pursuant to Section 3.11 of the Disclosure Schedules [Omitted pursuant to Item 601(a)(5) of Regulation S-K], or that relates to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Other than any supplements to the Company Disclosure Schedules provided by a Company Party in accordance with Section 5.4(c) below, Investor's receipt of information pursuant to this Section 5.4 shall not modify the date upon which the representations in this Agreement are made, nor operate as a waiver or otherwise affect any representation, warranty or agreement given or made by the Company or Company Parent in this Agreement (including Section 8.2 and Section 9.1(b)) and shall not be deemed to amend or supplement the Disclosure Schedules.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, from the Agreement Date until the Initial Closing, the Company may provide to Investor supplements to the Company Disclosure Schedules solely to reflect events or circumstances occurring after the Agreement Date. Any such supplement shall not cure any prior breach and shall not limit the rights of the parties under ARTICLE VIII and ARTICLE IX.

Section 5.5. Resignations. The Company shall deliver to Investor written resignations and releases, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Investor and effective as of the Initial Closing Date (or at such later date as mutually agreed upon by the parties), of the officers and directors of the Company set forth on Section 5.5 of the Disclosure Schedules [Omitted pursuant to Item 601(a)(5) of Regulation S-K].

Section 5.6. Confidentiality; Seller Intellectual Property.

(a) From and after the Closing, the Company Parties shall, and shall cause their Affiliates to, hold, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause its or their respective Representatives to hold, in confidence any and all information, whether written or oral, concerning the Company, except to the extent that the Company Parties can show that such information (i) is generally available to and known by the public through no fault of any Company Party or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives; or (ii) is lawfully acquired by the Company Parties or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives from and after the Closing from sources which are not prohibited from disclosing such information by a legal, contractual or fiduciary obligation. If the Company Parties or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives are compelled to disclose any information by judicial or administrative process or by other requirements of Law, to the extent permitted, the Company Parties shall promptly notify Investor in writing and shall disclose only that portion of such information which the Company Parties are advised by counsel to be disclosed, provided that the Company Parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain an appropriate protective order or other reasonable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded such information. Prior to the Closing, the parties' respective rights and obligations related to all nonpublic information of the other party shall be governed by and subject to the Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement between Investor and an Affiliate of Company Parent dated August 27, 2020 (the "NDA").

(b) From and after the later of (i) the Initial Closing and (ii) the date upon which the parties receive approval of a change of name or "doing business as" registration of the Company from the State of New York's Department of Health (the "Name Change Approval"), but in no event later than 180 days after the Initial Closing (such date, the "Name Change Approval Date"), any and all licenses or grant of rights previously made by Company Parent or its Affiliates in and to the Company Parent Intellectual Property in favor of the Company, shall be terminated in their entirety. From and after the Name Change Approval Date, the Company, Investor and its Affiliates shall not, and shall not permit the Company to, use any Company Parent Intellectual Property unless Company Parent expressly grants a license, in writing, to the Company, Investor or its Affiliates to use any such Company Parent Intellectual Property. Company Parent reserves all rights in and to the Company Parent Intellectual Property and nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as a license or grant of right of any kind by Company Parent with respect to the Company Parent Intellectual Property. On the Name Change Approval Date, Investor shall cause the Company to immediately remove all references to "MedMen" or other Company Parent Intellectual Property in the signage used by the Company at any locations where the Company conducts its business, including, without limitation, any references to "MedMen" or other Company Parent Intellectual Property on the websites of the Company, and shall not otherwise in any way indicate any affiliation with Company Parent or its Affiliates unless pursuant to a written agreement between Company Parent, on the one hand, or Investor, the Company and their respective Affiliates, on the other hand. To the extent that there is no such license granted in writing, from the Agreement Date through the Name Change Approval Date, the Company Parent hereby grants a limited license to the Company to use the name "MedMen" in connection with the operation of the Business in the ordinary course. If the parties do not receive the Name Change Approval on or prior to the date that is 180 days after the Initial Closing, the parties agree to negotiate in good faith a license agreement for the Company's continued use of the name "MedMen."

Section 5.7. Non-solicitation.

(a) For a period of [] years commencing on the Initial Closing Date (the "Restricted Period"), Company Parent shall not, and shall not permit any of its Affiliates to, directly or indirectly, solicit any employee of the Company or encourage any such employee to leave such employment except pursuant to a general solicitation which is not directed specifically to any such employees; for clarity, nothing in this Section 5.7(a) shall prevent Company Parent or any of its Affiliates from hiring any employee whose employment has been terminated by the Company or Investor.

(b) From the Agreement Date and continuing during the Restricted Period, Investor and Investor Parent shall not, and shall not permit any of their Affiliates to, directly or indirectly, solicit any employee of Company Parent or its Affiliates (other than the Company) or encourage any such employee to leave such employment except pursuant to a general solicitation which is not directed specifically to any such employee employees; for clarity, nothing in this Section 5.7(b) shall prevent Investor or Investor Parent or any of their Affiliates from hiring any employee whose employment has been terminated by the Company Parent.

(c) Company Parent acknowledges that a breach or threatened breach of Section 5.3, Section 5.6 or this Section 5.7 may give rise to irreparable harm to Investor, for which monetary damages may not be an adequate remedy, and hereby agrees that in the event of a breach or a threatened breach by Company Parent of any such obligations, Investor shall, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies that may be available to it in respect of such breach, be entitled to equitable relief, including a temporary restraining order, an injunction, specific performance and any other relief that may be available from a court of competent jurisdiction (without any requirement to post bond).

(d) Company Parent acknowledges that the restrictions contained in this Section 5.7 are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of Investor and constitute a material inducement to Investor to enter into this Agreement and consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event that any covenant contained in this Section 5.7 should ever be adjudicated to exceed the time, geographic, product or service, or other limitations permitted by applicable Law in any jurisdiction, then any court is expressly empowered to reform such covenant, and such covenant shall be deemed reformed, in such jurisdiction to the maximum time, geographic, product or service, or other limitations permitted by applicable Law. The covenants contained in this Section 5.7 and each provision hereof are severable and distinct covenants and provisions. The invalidity or unenforceability of any such covenant or provision as written shall not invalidate or render unenforceable the remaining covenants or provisions hereof, and any such invalidity or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such covenant or provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 5.8. Governmental Approvals and Consents.

(a) The parties shall, no later than the close of business on March 8, 2021, submit a request to the DOH for approval of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, each party hereto shall, as promptly as possible (i) make, or cause or be made, all filings and submissions required under any Law applicable to such party or any of its Affiliates; and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain, or cause to be obtained, all Permits, consents, authorizations, orders and approvals from all Governmental Authorities that may be or become necessary for its execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance of its obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. Each party shall cooperate fully with the other party and its Affiliates in promptly seeking to obtain all such consents, authorizations, orders and approvals. The parties hereto shall not willfully take any action that will have the effect of delaying, impairing or impeding the receipt of any required Permits, consents, authorizations, orders and approvals, and shall provide complete and accurate information to all Governmental Authorities upon request. Investor shall not request any change or modification to any Permit or Governmental Order applicable to the Company without the written consent of the Company. The Company shall not be obligated to consent to any such requested change or modification to any Permit or authorization from any Governmental Authority that would be applicable to the Company if a Closing does not occur.

(b) The Company, Company Parent and Investor shall use commercially reasonable efforts to give all notices to, and obtain all consents from, all third parties that are described in Section 3.3 of the Disclosure Schedules [Omitted pursuant to Item 601(a)(5) of Regulation S-K].

(c) Without limiting the generality of the parties' undertakings pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) above, each of the parties hereto shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to:

(i) respond to any inquiries by any Governmental Authority regarding any matters with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any Transaction Document;

(ii) avoid the imposition of any Order or the taking of any action that would restrain, alter or enjoin the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any Transaction Document; and

(iii) in the event any Governmental Order adversely affecting the ability of the parties to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any Transaction Document has been issued, to use commercially reasonable efforts to have such Governmental Order vacated or lifted.

(d) If any consent, approval or authorization necessary to preserve any right or benefit under any Contract to which the Company is a party is not obtained prior to the Closing, Company Parent shall, subsequent to the Closing, cooperate with Investor and the Company in attempting to obtain such consent, approval or authorization as promptly thereafter as reasonably practicable and at the expense of Investor. If such consent, approval or authorization cannot be obtained, Company Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the Company with the rights and benefits of the affected Contract for the term thereof at Investor's cost and expense, and, if Company Parent provides such rights and benefits, the Company shall assume all obligations and burdens thereunder.

(e) All analyses, appearances, meetings, discussions, presentations, memoranda, briefs, filings, arguments, proposals and other communications made by or on behalf of either party before any Governmental Authority or the staff or regulators of any Governmental Authority, in connection with the transactions contemplated hereunder shall be disclosed to the other party hereunder in advance of any filing, submission or attendance, it being the intent that the parties will consult and cooperate with one another, and consider in good faith the views of one another, in connection with any such analyses, appearances, meetings, discussions, presentations, memoranda, briefs, filings, arguments, proposals or other communications. Each party shall give prior notice to the other party with respect to any meeting, discussion, appearance or contact with any Governmental Authority or the staff or regulators of any Governmental Authority, with such notice being sufficient to provide the other party with the opportunity to attend and participate in such meeting, discussion, appearance or contact.

Section 5.9. Books and Records.

(a) In order to facilitate the resolution of any claims made against or incurred by the Company prior to the Closing, or for any other reasonable purpose, for a period of [] years after the Closing or such later period as may be mandated by applicable Law, Investor shall:

(i) retain the books and records (including personnel files) of the Company relating to periods prior to the Closing in a manner reasonably consistent with the prior practices of the Company; and

(ii) upon reasonable notice, afford Company Parent reasonable access (including the right to make, at Company Parent's expense, photocopies), during normal business hours, to such books and records; provided, however, that any books and records related to Tax matters shall be retained pursuant to the periods set forth in Article VI.

(b) In order to facilitate the resolution of any claims made by or against or incurred by Investor or the Company after the Closing, or for any other reasonable purpose, for a period of six years following the Closing or such later period as may be mandated by applicable Law, Company Parent shall:

(i) retain the books and records (including personnel files) of the Company which relate to the Company and its operations for periods prior to the Closing; and

(ii) upon reasonable notice, afford the Representatives of Investor or the Company reasonable access (including the right to make, at Investor's expense, photocopies), during normal business hours, to such books and records; provided, however, that any books and records related to Tax matters shall be retained pursuant to the periods set forth in Article VI.

(c) Neither Investor nor any Company Party shall be obligated to provide the other party with access to any books or records (including personnel files) pursuant to this Section 5.9 where such access would violate any Law or any applicable attorney-client privilege.

Section 5.10. Operating Costs. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall be responsible for all Operating Costs arising on or prior to the Agreement Date, whether or not such obligations are satisfied as of the Agreement Date. To the extent any such obligations are not satisfied as of the Agreement Date such obligations shall be included as a Current Liability in the calculation of Net Working Capital as of the Agreement Date. From time to time following the Agreement Date, Investor shall advance (the "Working Capital Advance") to the Company sufficient funds to fund all Operating Costs arising after the Agreement Date, pursuant to the terms of an advance agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C (the "Advance Agreement"). At the Initial Closing, the Working Capital Advance shall convert into shares of Common Stock in full satisfaction of all obligations owing thereunder.

Section 5.11. Closing Conditions. From the date hereof until the Closing, each party hereto shall use commercially reasonable efforts to take such actions as are necessary to expeditiously satisfy the closing conditions set forth in Article VII hereof.

Section 5.12. Public Announcements. Unless otherwise contemplated in Section 5.8 hereof, or required by applicable Law or stock exchange requirements (based upon the reasonable advice of counsel and upon reasonable notice and collaboration with the other party), no party to this Agreement shall make any public announcements in respect of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or otherwise communicate with any news media without the prior written consent of the other party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned), and the parties shall cooperate as to the timing and contents of any such announcement.

Section 5.13. Further Assurances. Following the Closing, each of the parties hereto shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates to, execute and deliver such additional documents, instruments, conveyances and assurances and take such further actions as may be reasonably required to carry out the provisions hereof and give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI.
TAX MATTERS

Section 6.1. Tax Covenants.

(a) Without the prior written consent of Investor, Company Parent (and, prior to the MSA Effective Date, the Company, its Affiliates and their respective Representatives) shall not, to the extent it may affect, or relate to, the Company, make, change or rescind any Tax election, deduct any expenses in violation of Section 280E of the Code, amend any Tax Return or take any position on any Tax Return, take any action, omit to take any action or enter into any other transaction that would reasonably be considered to have the effect of increasing the Tax liability or reducing any Tax asset of Investor or the Company in respect of any Pre-Closing Tax Period. Company Parent and the Company agree that Investor is to have no liability for any Tax resulting from any pre-Agreement Date action of the Company, its Affiliates or any of their respective Representatives, and agree to indemnify and hold harmless Investor (and, after the Initial Closing Date, the Company) against any such Tax or reduction of any Tax asset. It is understood and agreed that no officers and Employees of the Company prior to the Initial Closing shall be "Responsible Persons" for purposes of New York Tax Law Section 1133 for any Pre-Closing Tax Periods.

(b) All transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration, value added and other such Taxes and fees (including any penalties and interest) incurred in connection with the Investor's purchase of Shares pursuant to this Agreement (including any real property transfer Tax and any other similar Tax) shall be borne and paid by Investor when due. Investor shall, at its own expense, timely file any Tax Return or other document with respect to such Taxes or fees (subject to prior review and approval of Investor if such filing is prior to the Initial Closing).

(c) Investor shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, all Tax Returns required to be filed by the Company after the Initial Closing Date with respect to a Pre-Agreement Tax Period. Any such Tax Return shall be prepared in a manner consistent with the memorandum provided in Section 6.1(c) of the Disclosure Schedules [Omitted pursuant to Item 601(a)(5) of Regulation S-K] and otherwise consistent with past practice (unless otherwise required by Law) and without a change of any election or any accounting method and shall be submitted by Investor to Company Parent (together with schedules, statements and, to the extent requested by Company Parent, supporting documentation) for Company Parent's approval at least 45 days prior to the due date (including extensions) of such Tax Return or, if the due date is sooner than 45 days, as soon as practical prior to such due date. If Company Parent objects to any item on any such Tax Return, Company Parent shall, within ten days after delivery of such Tax Return, notify Investor in writing of such objection, specifying with particularity any such item and stating the specific factual or legal basis for any such objection. If a notice of objection shall be duly delivered, Investor and Company Parent shall negotiate in good faith and use their commercially reasonable efforts to resolve such items. If Investor and Company Parent are unable to reach such agreement within ten days after receipt by Investor of such notice, the disputed items shall be resolved by the Independent Accountant, and any determination by the Independent Accountant shall be final. The Independent Accountant shall resolve any disputed items within twenty days of having the item referred to it pursuant to such procedures as it may require. If the Independent Accountant is unable to resolve any disputed items before the due date for such Tax Return, the Tax Return shall be filed as prepared by Investor and then amended to reflect the Independent Accountant's resolution. The costs, fees and expenses of the Independent Accountant shall be borne equally by Investor and Company Parent. Subsequent to the Initial Closing, the preparation and filing of any Tax Return of the Company with respect to the Post-Agreement Tax Period shall be exclusively within the control and responsibility of Investor.

Section 6.2. Termination of Existing Tax Sharing Agreements. Any and all existing Tax sharing agreements (whether written or not) binding upon the Company shall be terminated as of the Initial Closing Date. After such date none of the Company, Company Parent or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives shall have any further rights or liabilities thereunder.

Section 6.3. Tax Indemnification. Company Parent shall indemnify Investor, and each Investor Indemnitee and hold them harmless from and against (a) any Loss attributable to any breach of or inaccuracy in any representation or warranty made in Section 3.8; (b) any Loss attributable to any breach or violation of, or failure to fully perform, any covenant, agreement, undertaking or obligation in this Article VI; (c) all Taxes of the Company or relating to the Business of the Company for all Pre-Agreement Tax Periods; (d) all Taxes of any member of an affiliated, consolidated, combined or unitary group of which the Company (or any predecessor of the Company) is or was a member on or prior to the Initial Closing Date by reason of a liability under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-6 or any comparable provisions of foreign, state or local Law; and (e) any and all Taxes of any person imposed on the Company arising under the principles of transferee or successor liability or by contract, relating to an event or transaction occurring before the Agreement Date. In each of the above cases, together with any documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including reasonable third-party attorneys' and accountants' fees) incurred in connection therewith. Investor shall indemnify Company Parent, and each Company Parent Indemnitee and hold them harmless from and against (i) any Loss attributable to any breach or violation of, or failure to fully perform, any covenant, agreement, undertaking or obligation in this Article VI; (ii) all Taxes of the Company or relating to the Business of the Company for all Post-Agreement Tax Periods; (iii) all Taxes of any member of an affiliated, consolidated, combined or unitary group of which the Investor (or any predecessor of the Investor) is or was a member on or prior to the Initial Closing Date by reason of a liability under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-6 or any comparable provisions of foreign, state or local Law; and (iv) any and all Taxes of any person imposed on the Company arising under the principles of transferee or successor liability or by contract, relating to an event or transaction occurring after the Agreement Date. In each of the above cases, together with any documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including reasonable third-party attorneys' and accountants' fees) incurred in connection therewith.

Section 6.4. Straddle Period. In the case of Taxes that are payable with respect to a taxable period that begins before and ends after the Agreement Date (each such period, a "Straddle Period"), the portion of any such Taxes that are treated as Pre-Agreement Taxes for purposes of this Agreement shall be:

(a) in the case of Taxes (i) based upon, or related to, income, receipts, profits, wages, capital or net worth, (ii) imposed in connection with the sale, transfer or assignment of property, or (iii) required to be withheld, deemed equal to the amount which would be payable if the taxable year ended with the Agreement Date; and

(b) in the case of other Taxes, deemed to be the amount of such Taxes for the entire period multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of days in the period ending on the Agreement Date and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire period.

Section 6.5. Contests. Investor agrees to give written notice to Company Parent of the receipt of any written notice by the Company, Investor or any of Investor's Affiliates which involves the assertion of any claim, or the commencement of any Action, in respect of which an indemnity may be sought by Investor pursuant to this Article VI (a "Tax Claim"); provided, that failure to comply with this provision shall not affect Investor's right to indemnification hereunder, except to the extent Company Parent is prejudiced by Investor's failure to provide the requisite notice. Company Parent shall have the right, at its own expense, to elect in writing, within twenty days of receiving notice of any Tax Claim with respect to any material Pre-Agreement Taxes to control the contest or resolution of any such Tax Claim; provided, however, that for any such Tax Claim that could result in any Loss to Investor or the Company for any Post-Agreement Tax Period: (a) Company Parent shall keep Investor fully and timely informed of the progress of such Tax Claim; (b) Company Parent shall permit Investor to review and comment on all written submissions made to any administrative or judicial body in connection with such Tax Claim and attend all administrative and judicial proceedings relating to each such Tax Claim; and (c) Company Parent shall not be permitted to settle or compromise such Tax Claim without the prior written consent of Investor (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). If Company Parent fails within the twenty day period described in this Section 6.5 to respond to any notice of a Tax Claim, or fails to participate in any contest of a Tax Claim, in either case which Company Parent has the right to control pursuant to this Section 6.5, then Investor shall control the contest or resolution of any Tax Claim; provided, however, that Investor shall obtain the prior written consent of Company Parent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) before entering into any settlement of any such Tax Claim or ceasing to defend such Tax Claim; and, provided further, that Company Parent shall have the continuing right to participate in the contest of such Tax Claim and Investor shall take in good faith all comments reasonably made by Company Parent into consideration. In any contest of a Tax Claim, each party shall bear its own costs and expenses related to such contest; provided, that Company Parent shall bear all such costs and expenses that are indemnifiable by Company Parent pursuant to Section 6.3 hereof.

Section 6.6. Cooperation and Exchange of Information. Company Parent and Investor shall provide each other with such cooperation and information as either of them reasonably may request of the other in filing any Tax Return pursuant to this Article VI or in connection with any audit or other proceeding in respect of Taxes of the Company. Such cooperation and information shall include providing copies of relevant Tax Returns or portions thereof, together with accompanying schedules, related work papers and documents relating to rulings or other determinations by tax authorities. Each of Company Parent and Investor shall retain all Tax Returns, schedules and work papers, records and other documents in its possession relating to Tax matters of the Company for any taxable period beginning before the Initial Closing Date until the expiration of the statute of limitations of the taxable periods to which such Tax Returns and other documents relate, without regard to extensions except to the extent notified by the other party in writing of such extensions for the respective Tax periods. Prior to transferring, destroying or discarding any Tax Returns, schedules and work papers, records and other documents in its possession relating to Tax matters of the Company for any taxable period beginning before the Initial Closing Date, Company Parent or Investor (as the case may be) shall provide the other party with reasonable written notice and offer the other party the opportunity to take custody of such materials.

Section 6.7. Tax Treatment of Indemnification Payments. Any indemnification payments pursuant to this ARTICLE VI shall be treated as an adjustment to the Base Cash Purchase Price by the parties for Tax purposes, unless otherwise required by Law.

Section 6.8. Survival. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of Section 3.8 and this ARTICLE VI shall survive for the full period of all applicable statutes of limitations (giving effect to any waiver, mitigation or extension thereof) plus 60 days.

Section 6.9. Overlap. To the extent that any obligation or responsibility pursuant to ARTICLE VIII may overlap with an obligation or responsibility pursuant to this ARTICLE VI, the provisions of this ARTICLE VI shall govern.

ARTICLE VIII.
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 8.1. Survival. Subject to the limitations and other provisions of this Agreement, the representations and warranties contained herein (other than any representations or warranties contained in Section 3.8 which are subject to ARTICLE VI, and referred to herein as the "Tax Representations") shall survive the Closing and shall remain in full force and effect until the date that is [] from the Agreement Date (unless the Initial Closing does not occur on or prior to the date that is [] following the Agreement Date, in which case the representations and warranties contained herein shall survive until the date that is [] following the Initial Closing); provided, that the representations and warranties in Section 3.1, Section 3.2, Section 3.3, Section 3.19, with respect to the Company Section 4.1, Section 4.2, Section 4.3, Section 4.4 and Section 4.7 with respect to Investor (the "Fundamental Representations") shall survive for the full period of all applicable statutes of limitations (giving effect to any waiver, mitigation or extension thereof) plus 60 days. All covenants and agreements of the parties contained herein (other than any covenants or agreements contained in ARTICLE VI which are subject to ARTICLE VI) shall survive the Closing until fulfilled or for the period explicitly specified therein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any claims asserted in good faith with reasonable specificity (to the extent known at such time) and in writing by notice from the non-breaching party to the breaching party prior to the expiration date of the applicable survival period shall not thereafter be barred by the expiration of the relevant representation or warranty and such claims shall survive until finally resolved.

Section 8.2. Indemnification by Company Parent. Subject to the other terms and conditions of this ARTICLE VIII, Company Parent, subject to the limitations set forth herein, shall indemnify and defend each of Investor and its Affiliates (including the Company) and their respective Representatives (collectively, the "Investor Indemnitees") against, and shall hold each of them harmless from and against, and shall pay and reimburse each of them for, any and all Losses incurred or sustained by, or imposed upon, the Investor Indemnitees based upon, arising out of, with respect to or by reason of:

(a) any inaccuracy in or breach of any of the representations or warranties of the Company Parties contained in this Agreement or in any certificate or instrument delivered by or on behalf of any Company Party pursuant to this Agreement (other than in respect of Section 3.8, it being understood that the sole remedy for any such inaccuracy in or breach thereof shall be pursuant to Article VI), as of the date such representation or warranty was made (except for representations and warranties that expressly relate to a specified date, the inaccuracy in or breach of which will be determined with reference to such specified date);

(b) any breach or non-fulfillment of any covenant, agreement or obligation to be performed by a Company Party pursuant to this Agreement (other than any breach or violation of, or failure to fully perform, any covenant, agreement, undertaking or obligation in Article VI, it being understood that the sole remedy for any such breach, violation or failure shall be pursuant to Article VI);

(c) any Company Debt Payoff Amounts, Transaction Expenses, Change in Control Payments, Excess Operating Costs or Operating Costs arising out of the operation of the Business prior to the Agreement Date, in each case to the extent not included in the Adjusted Cash Purchase Price as finally determined in accordance with Section 2.4;

(d) any fraud or intentional breach of this Agreement by any Company Party;

(e) any claims brought against the Company for failure to properly classify, on or prior to the Agreement Date, any employee or Contingent Worker in accordance with applicable Laws; and

(f) the matters set forth on Schedule 8.2(f).

Section 8.3. Indemnification by Investor. Subject to the other terms and conditions of this Article VIII, Investor shall indemnify and defend Company Parent and its Affiliates and Representatives (collectively, the "Company Parent Indemnitees") against, and shall hold each of them harmless from and against, and shall pay and reimburse each of them for, any and all Losses incurred or sustained by, or imposed upon, the Company Parent Indemnitees based upon, arising out of, with respect to or by reason of:

(a) any material inaccuracy in or breach of any of the representations or warranties of Investor contained in this Agreement or in any certificate or instrument delivered by or on behalf of Investor pursuant to this Agreement, as of the date such representation or warranty was made or as if such representation or warranty was made on and as of the Initial Closing Date (except for representations and warranties that expressly relate to a specified date, the inaccuracy in or breach of which will be determined with reference to such specified date);

(b) any breach or non-fulfillment of any covenant, agreement or obligation expressly required to be performed by Investor pursuant to this Agreement (other than ARTICLE VI, it being understood that the sole remedy for any such breach thereof shall be pursuant to ARTICLE VI);

(c) the Company's operation of the Business and continued use of the name "MedMen" following the Initial Closing; and

(d) any fraud or intentional breach of this Agreement by Investor.

Section 8.4. Certain Limitations. The indemnification provided for in Section 8.2 and Section 8.3 shall be subject to the following limitations:

(a) Company Parent shall not be liable to the Investor Indemnitees for indemnification under Section 8.2(a) until the aggregate amount of all Losses in respect of indemnification under Section 8.2(a) exceeds $[] (the "Deductible"), in which event Company Parent shall be required to pay or be liable for all such Losses that exceed the Deductible. The aggregate amount of all Losses for which Company Parent shall be liable pursuant to Section 8.2(a) or Section 8.2(e) shall not exceed $[] (the "Cap").

(b) Investor shall not be liable to the Company Parent Indemnitees for indemnification under Section 8.3(a) until the aggregate amount of all Losses in respect of indemnification under Section 8.3(a) exceeds the Deductible, in which event Investor shall be required to pay or be liable for all such Losses from the first dollar. The aggregate amount of all Losses for which Investor shall be liable pursuant to Section 8.3(a) shall not exceed the Cap.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the limitations set forth in Section 8.4(a) and Section 8.4(b) shall not apply to Losses based upon, arising out of, or resulting from (i) a party's breach of the Fundamental Representations or Tax Representations, or (ii) a party's criminal activity (except with respect to Federal Cannabis Laws), intentional misconduct or fraud.

(d) The obligation to provide indemnity by an Indemnifying Party pursuant to Section 8.2(a) and Section 8.3(a) in respect of any Losses shall be limited to the amount of any liability or damage that remains after deducting therefrom any insurance proceeds and any indemnity, contribution or other similar payment actually received by the Indemnified Party (including the Company) in respect of such claim.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary herein or in the Certificate of Incorporation or by-laws of the Company, Company Parent shall not be entitled to indemnification from the Company for any Losses for which Company Parent shall be liable pursuant to this ARTICLE VIII.

Section 8.5. Indemnification Procedures. The party making a claim under this ARTICLE VIII is referred to as the "Indemnified Party", and the party against whom such claims are asserted under this ARTICLE VIII is referred to as the "Indemnifying Party".

(a) Third Party Claims. If any Indemnified Party receives notice of the assertion or commencement of any Action made or brought by any Person who is not a party to this Agreement or an Affiliate of a party to this Agreement or a Representative of the foregoing (a "Third Party Claim") against such Indemnified Party with respect to which the Indemnifying Party is obligated to provide indemnification under this Agreement, the Indemnified Party shall give the Indemnifying Party reasonably prompt written notice thereof, but in any event not later than 30 calendar days after receipt of such notice of such Third Party Claim. The failure to give such prompt written notice shall not, however, relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligations, except and only to the extent that the Indemnifying Party forfeits rights or defenses or is otherwise prejudiced by reason of such failure. Such notice by the Indemnified Party shall describe the Third Party Claim in reasonable detail, shall include copies of all material written evidence thereof and shall indicate the estimated amount, if reasonably practicable, of the Loss that has been or may be sustained by the Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Party shall have the right to participate in, or by giving written notice to the Indemnified Party, to assume the defense of any Third Party Claim at the Indemnifying Party's sole cost and expense and by the Indemnifying Party's own counsel (subject to approval by the Indemnified Party which such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), and the Indemnified Party shall cooperate in good faith in such defense. In the event that the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of any Third Party Claim, subject to Section 8.5(b), it shall have the right to take such action as it deems necessary to avoid, dispute, defend, appeal or make counterclaims pertaining to any such Third Party Claim in the name and on behalf of the Indemnified Party. The Indemnified Party shall have the right to participate in the defense of any Third Party Claim with counsel selected by it subject to the Indemnifying Party's right to control the defense thereof. The fees and disbursements of such counsel shall be at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnifying Party elects not to compromise or defend such Third Party Claim, fails to promptly notify the Indemnified Party in writing of its election to defend as provided in this Agreement, or fails to diligently prosecute the defense of such Third Party Claim, the Indemnified Party may, subject to Section 8.5(b), pay, compromise, defend such Third Party Claim and seek indemnification for any and all Losses based upon, arising from or relating to such Third Party Claim. Company Parent and Investor shall cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects in connection with the defense of any Third Party Claim, including making available (subject to the provisions of Section 5.6) records relating to such Third Party Claim and furnishing, without expense (other than reimbursement of actual out-of-pocket expenses) to the defending party, management employees of the non-defending party as may be reasonably necessary for the preparation of the defense of such Third Party Claim.

(b) Settlement of Third Party Claims. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Indemnifying Party shall not enter into settlement of any Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, except as provided in this Section 8.5(b), which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. If a firm offer is made to settle a Third Party Claim without leading to liability, admission of guilt or the creation of a financial or other obligation on the part of the Indemnified Party and provides, in customary form, for the unconditional release of each Indemnified Party from all liabilities and obligations in connection with such Third Party Claim and the Indemnifying Party desires to accept and agree to such offer, the Indemnifying Party shall give written notice to that effect to the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnified Party fails to consent to such firm offer within ten days after its receipt of such notice, the Indemnified Party may continue to contest or defend such Third Party Claim and in such event, the maximum liability of the Indemnifying Party as to such Third Party Claim shall not exceed the amount of such settlement offer. If the Indemnified Party fails to consent to such firm offer and also fails to assume defense of such Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party may settle the Third Party Claim upon the terms set forth in such firm offer to settle such Third Party Claim. If the Indemnified Party has assumed the defense pursuant to Section 8.5(a), it shall not agree to any settlement without the written consent of the Indemnifying Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

(c) Direct Claims. Any Action by an Indemnified Party on account of a Loss which does not result from a Third Party Claim (a "Direct Claim") shall be asserted by the Indemnified Party giving the Indemnifying Party reasonably prompt written notice thereof, but in any event not later than 30 days after the Indemnified Party becomes aware of such Direct Claim. The failure to give such prompt written notice shall not, however, relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligations, except and only to the extent that the Indemnifying Party forfeits rights or defenses or is otherwise prejudiced by reason of such failure. Such notice by the Indemnified Party shall describe the Direct Claim in reasonable detail, shall include copies of all material written evidence thereof and shall indicate the estimated amount, if reasonably practicable, of the Loss that has been or may be sustained by the Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Party shall have 30 days after its receipt of such notice to respond in writing to such Direct Claim. The Indemnified Party shall allow the Indemnifying Party and its professional advisors to investigate the matter or circumstance alleged to give rise to the Direct Claim, and whether and to what extent any amount is payable in respect of the Direct Claim and the Indemnified Party shall assist the Indemnifying Party's investigation by giving such information and assistance (including access to the Company's premises and personnel and the right to examine and copy any accounts, documents or records) as the Indemnifying Party or any of its professional advisors may reasonably request. If the Indemnifying Party does not so respond within such 30 day period, the Indemnifying Party shall be deemed to have rejected such claim, in which case the Indemnified Party shall be free to pursue such remedies as may be available to the Indemnified Party on the terms and subject to the provisions of this Agreement.

(d) Tax Claims. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the control of any claim, assertion, event or proceeding in respect of Taxes of the Company (including, but not limited to, any such claim in respect of a breach of the representations and warranties in Section 3.8 hereof or any breach or violation of or failure to fully perform any covenant, agreement, undertaking or obligation in Article VI) shall be governed exclusively by Article VI hereof.

Section 8.6. Payments. Once a Loss is agreed to by the Indemnifying Party or finally adjudicated to be payable pursuant to this Article VIII, the Indemnifying Party shall satisfy its obligations as follows:

(a) In the event that the Indemnifying Party is Company Parent, Company Parent shall pay the amount of such Loss by wire transfer of immediately available funds within 20 Business Days of the agreement or final adjudication of the applicable Loss.

(b) In the event that the Indemnifying Party is Investor, Investor shall pay the amount of such Loss to Company Parent by wire transfer of immediately available funds within 20 Business Days of the agreement or final adjudication of the applicable Loss.

Section 8.7. Tax Treatment of Indemnification Payments. All indemnification payments made under this Agreement shall be treated by the parties as an adjustment to the purchase price for Tax purposes, unless otherwise required by Law.

Section 8.8. Effect of Investigation. The representations, warranties and covenants of the Indemnifying Party, and the Indemnified Party's right to indemnification with respect thereto, shall not be affected or deemed waived by reason of any investigation made by or on behalf of the Indemnified Party (including by any of its Representatives) subsequent to the Agreement Date or by reason of the fact that, subsequent to the Agreement Date the Indemnified Party or any of its Representatives knew or should have known that any such representation or warranty is, was or might be inaccurate or by reason of the Indemnified Party's waiver of any condition set forth in Section 7.2 or Section 7.3, as the case may be.

Section 8.9. Exclusive Remedies. Subject to Section 5.7 and Section 11.11, the parties acknowledge and agree that their sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any and all claims (other than claims arising from fraud or criminal activity (except with respect to Federal Cannabis Laws), on the part of a party hereto in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) for any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or obligation set forth herein or otherwise relating to the subject matter of this Agreement, shall be pursuant to the indemnification provisions set forth in ARTICLE VI and this ARTICLE VIII. In furtherance of the foregoing, each party hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted under Law, any and all rights, claims and causes of action for any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or obligation set forth herein or otherwise relating to the subject matter of this Agreement it may have against the other parties hereto and their Affiliates and each of their respective Representatives arising under or based upon any Law, except pursuant to the indemnification provisions set forth in ARTICLE VI and this ARTICLE VIII. Nothing in this Section 8.9 shall limit any Person's right to seek and obtain any equitable relief to which any Person shall be entitled or to seek any remedy on account of any party's fraudulent, criminal or intentional misconduct.

ARTICLE IX.
TERMINATION

Section 9.1. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing:

(a) by the mutual written consent of the Company Parties and Investor;

(b) by Investor by written notice to the Company Parties if the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 have been satisfied and:

(i) Investor is not then in material breach of any provision of this Agreement and there has been a breach, inaccuracy in or failure to perform any Fundamental Representation, covenant or agreement made by a Company Party pursuant to this Agreement that would give rise to the failure of any of the conditions specified in ARTICLE VII and such breach, inaccuracy or failure has not been cured by such Company Party within ten days of such Company Party's receipt of written notice of such breach from Investor, provided, if such breach, inaccuracy or failure is not capable of being cured within such ten day period, then the Company Party shall have an additional twenty days to cure such breach, inaccuracy or failure; or

(ii) Investor is not then in material breach of any provision of this Agreement and any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.2 shall not have been, or if it becomes apparent that any of such conditions will not be, fulfilled by December 31, 2021 (or such later date as Investor and the Company may mutually agree to in writing, the "Outside Date"), unless such failure shall be due to an Action against Investor or the failure of Investor to perform or comply with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions hereof to be performed or complied with by it prior to the Closing;

(c) by the Company Parties by written notice to Investor if the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 have been satisfied and:

(i) No Company Party is then in material breach of any provision of this Agreement and there has been a material breach, inaccuracy in or failure to perform any Fundamental Representation, covenant or agreement made by Investor pursuant to this Agreement that would give rise to the failure of any of the conditions specified in ARTICLE VII and such breach, inaccuracy or failure has not been cured by Investor within ten days of Investor's receipt of written notice of such breach from the Company, provided, if such breach, inaccuracy or failure is not capable of being cured within such ten day period, then the Investor shall have an additional twenty days to cure such breach, inaccuracy or failure; or

(ii) No Company Party is then in material breach of any provision of this Agreement and any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.3 shall not have been fulfilled by the Outside Date, unless such failure shall be due to an Action against any Company Party or the failure of any Company Party to perform or comply with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions hereof to be performed or complied with by it prior to the Closing;

(d) by Investor or the Company Parties in the event that (i) the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 shall not have been fulfilled by the Outside Date (unless such failure shall be due to an Action against such party or the failure of such party to perform or comply with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions hereof to be performed or complied with by it prior to the Outside Date), (ii) there shall be any Law that makes consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement illegal or otherwise prohibited or (iii) any Governmental Authority shall have issued a Governmental Order prohibiting, restraining, limiting or enjoining the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and such Governmental Order shall have become final and non-appealable.

Section 9.2. Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement in accordance with this Article, this Agreement and the Management Agreement shall forthwith become void and there shall be no liability herein or therein on the part of any party hereto or thereto except:

(a) as set forth in this ARTICLE IX and Section 5.6 and ARTICLE XI hereof, or in any provisions expressly surviving the termination of the Management Agreement as set forth therein;

(b) if this Agreement is terminated by Investor in accordance with Section 9.1(b), the Company shall be liable, and shall within three Business Days following such termination reimburse Investor, for the Deposit and the Working Capital Advance; provided that such payment shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of Investor for any such termination and breach;

(c) if this Agreement is terminated by the Company Parties in accordance with Section 9.1(c), the Company shall retain the Deposit and the Working Capital Advance (which shall be deemed forgiven and the Advance Agreement terminated) and Investor shall, within three (3) Business Days following the Outside Date or such termination, pay to the Company the Break Fee by wire transfer of readily available funds; provided, that in the event that Investor fails to timely pay the Break Fee to the Company, the Company shall be entitled to collect from Investor the Break Fee, plus any costs of collection (including attorneys' fees) incurred by the Company as a result of such failure to pay the Break Fee together with interest accrued thereon at []% per annum compounded monthly; and provided further that such payments and forgiveness shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Company Parties for any such termination and breach;

(d) if this Agreement is terminated by either party in accordance with Section 9.1(d), and the Investor has not failed to perform or comply in any material respect with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions hereof to be performed or complied with by it prior to the Closing, the Company shall be liable for the Working Capital Advance in accordance with the terms of the Advance Agreement, and shall within ten Business Days following such termination reimburse Investor for the Deposit; and

(e) that nothing in this Section 9.2 shall relieve any party hereto from liability for any willful or intentional breach of any provision hereof.

Section 2.01 Term Loans.

(a) Initial Term Loan Commitments. Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, each Lender severally agrees to make, on the Closing Date, an Initial Term Loan to the Borrowers in an amount equal to such Lender's Initial Term Loan Commitment. The Borrowers may make only one borrowing under the Initial Term Loan Commitment which shall be on the Closing Date. Any amount borrowed under this Section 2.01(a) and subsequently repaid or prepaid may not be reborrowed. All amounts owed hereunder with respect to the Initial Term Loans shall be paid in accordance with the payment terms set forth herein (including, without limitation, payment terms with respect to interest payments set forth in Section 2.06 and mandatory prepayments, if any, set forth in Section 2.11) and, in any event, the Initial Term Loan shall be paid in full no later than the Term Loan Maturity Date. Each Lender's Initial Term Loan Commitment shall terminate immediately and without further action on the Closing Date after giving effect to the funding of such Lender's Initial Term Loan Commitment on such date.

(b) Borrowing Mechanics for Term Loans.

(i) The Borrowers shall deliver to the Administrative Agent a fully executed Borrowing Notice not later than 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) one (1) Business Day prior to the Closing Date. Promptly upon receipt by the Administrative Agent of such Borrowing Notice, the Administrative Agent shall notify each Lender with an Initial Term Loan Commitment of the proposed borrowing.

(ii) Each Lender with an Initial Term Loan Commitment shall make its Initial Term Loan available to the Administrative Agent not later than 12:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Closing Date, by wire transfer of same day funds in Dollars, at the Principal Office designated by the Administrative Agent. Upon satisfaction or waiver of the conditions precedent specified herein, the Administrative Agent shall make the proceeds of the Initial Term Loans available to the Borrowers on the Closing Date by causing an amount of same day funds in Dollars equal to the proceeds of all such Loans received by the Administrative Agent from Lenders to be wired to the account of the Borrowers or such other Person as may be designated in writing to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower Representative.

Section 2.02 Delayed Draw Term Loans.

(a) Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments. During the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitment Period, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, each Lender severally agrees to make Delayed Draw Term Loans to the Borrowers in an aggregate amount up to but not exceeding such Lender's Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitment; provided, that after giving effect to the making of any Delayed Draw Term Loan, in no event shall the Total Utilization of Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments exceed the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments then in effect. Any amount borrowed under this Section 2.02(a) and subsequently repaid or prepaid may not be reborrowed. Each Lender's applicable Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitment shall expire on the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitment Termination Date and all Delayed Draw Term Loans and all other amounts owed hereunder with respect to the Delayed Draw Term Loans and the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments shall be paid in full no later than the Term Loan Maturity Date.

(b) Borrowing Mechanics for the Delayed Draw Term Loans.

(i) Delayed Draw Term Loans shall be in an aggregate minimum amount of $[] and integral multiples of $[] in excess of that amount (or, if the then aggregate unused portion of the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments are less than $[], such lesser amount).

(ii) Whenever the Borrowers desire that Lenders make a Delayed Draw Term Loan, the Borrowers shall deliver to the Administrative Agent a fully executed and delivered Borrowing Notice no later than 2:00 pm (New York City time) ten (10) Business Days in advance of the proposed Credit Date. Except as provided herein, a Borrowing Notice for the Delayed Draw Term Loan shall be irrevocable, and the Borrowers shall be bound to make the borrowing in accordance therewith.

(iii) Notice of receipt of the Borrowing Notice in respect of the Delayed Draw Term Loan, together with the amount of each Lender's Pro Rata Share thereof, if any, shall be provided by the Administrative Agent to each applicable Lender with reasonable promptness on the same day as the Administrative Agent's receipt of such Borrowing Notice from the Borrowers (if received in a timely manner).

(iv) Each Lender shall make the amount of its Delayed Draw Term Loan available to the Administrative Agent not later than 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the applicable Credit Date by wire transfer of same day funds in Dollars, at the Principal Office designated by the Administrative Agent. Except as provided herein, upon satisfaction or waiver of the conditions precedent specified herein, the Administrative Agent shall make the proceeds of such Delayed Draw Term Loan available to the Borrowers on applicable Credit Date by causing an amount of same day funds in Dollars equal to the proceeds of all such Delayed Draw Term Loans received by the Administrative Agent from Lenders to be wired to the account of the Borrowers or such other Person as may be designated in writing to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower Representative.

Section 2.03 Pro Rata Shares; Availability of Funds.

(a) Pro Rata Shares. All Loans shall be made by Lenders simultaneously and proportionately to their respective Pro Rata Shares, it being understood that no Lender shall be responsible for any default by any other Lender in such other Lender's obligation to make a Loan requested hereunder nor shall any Term Loan Commitment or any Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitment of any Lender be increased or decreased as a result of a default by any other Lender in such other Lender's obligation to make a Loan requested hereunder.

(b) Availability of Funds. Unless the Administrative Agent shall have been notified by any Lender prior to the applicable Credit Date that such Lender does not intend to make available to the Administrative Agent the amount of such Lender's Loan requested on such Credit Date, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such amount available to the Administrative Agent on such Credit Date and the Administrative Agent may, in its sole discretion, but shall not be obligated to, make available to the Borrowers a corresponding amount on such Credit Date. If such corresponding amount is not in fact made available to the Administrative Agent by such Lender, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to recover such corresponding amount on demand from such Lender together with interest thereon, for each day from such Credit Date until the date such amount is paid to the Administrative Agent, at the customary rate set by the Administrative Agent for the correction of errors among banks for three (3) Business Days. If such Lender does not pay such corresponding amount forthwith upon the Administrative Agent's demand therefor, the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify Borrower Representative and Borrowers shall immediately pay such corresponding amount to the Administrative Agent together with interest thereon, for each day from such Credit Date until the date such amount is paid to the Administrative Agent. Nothing in this Section 2.03(b) shall be deemed to relieve any Lender from its obligation to fulfill its Term Loan Commitment hereunder or to prejudice any rights that the Borrowers may have against any Lender as a result of any default by such Lender hereunder.

Section 2.04 Use of Proceeds

The proceeds of (a) the Initial Term Loans on the Closing Date shall be used to (i) [] (ii) [] (iii) pay the Transaction Costs, (iv) for working capital and other general corporate purposes of the Borrowers and their Restricted Subsidiaries, (v) fund [] (including repayment of any Indebtedness in connection therewith) and pay fees and expenses in connection therewith, (vi) Capital Expenditures and for working capital and other general corporate purposes, and (vii) to fund Permitted Acquisitions. The Delayed Draw Term Loans shall be used after the Closing Date to fund the acquisition of up to 4 additional dispensaries that constitute Permitted Acquisitions (including repayment of any Indebtedness in connection therewith) and pay fees and expenses in connection therewith. The Incremental Term Loans shall be used after the Closing Date to fund Permitted Acquisitions or Capital Expenditures and for working capital and other general corporate purposes. No portion of the proceeds of any Credit Extension shall be used in any manner that causes such Credit Extension or the application of such proceeds to violate Regulation T, Regulation U or Regulation X or any other regulation of the Board of Governors or to violate the Exchange Act.

Section 2.05 Evidence of Debt; Register; Notes.

(a) Lenders' Evidence of Debt. Each Lender shall maintain on its internal records an account or accounts evidencing the Obligations of the Borrowers to such Lender, including the amounts of the Loans made by it and each repayment and prepayment in respect thereof. Any such recordation shall be conclusive and binding on the Borrowers, absent manifest error; provided, that the failure to make any such recordation, or any error in such recordation, shall not affect any Lender's Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitment or the Borrowers' Obligations in respect of any Loans; provided, further, that in the event of any inconsistency between the Register and any Lender's records, the recordations in the Register shall govern. In the event that a Note is ever lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated, upon the receipt of an affidavit of an officer of any Lender as to such loss, theft, destruction or mutilation, together with customary indemnifications from such Lender as reasonably required by the Borrowers, the Borrowers shall issue, in lieu thereof, a replacement Note in the same principal amount thereof and otherwise of like tenor.

(b) Register. The Administrative Agent (or its agent or sub-agent appointed by it) shall, solely in this capacity as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, maintain at one of its offices located in the United States a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of Lenders (including any assignments and assumptions) and Loans of, and principal amounts (and stated interest) of and owing to, each Lender from time to time (the "Register"). The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrowers or any Lender (with respect to any entry relating to such Lender's Loans) at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior written notice. The Administrative Agent shall record, or shall cause to be recorded, in the Register the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments and the Loans in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.06(b), and each repayment or prepayment in respect of the principal amount of the Loans, and any such recordation shall be conclusive and binding on the Borrowers and each Lender, absent manifest error; provided, that failure to make any such recordation, or any error in such recordation, shall not affect any Lender's Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitment or the Borrowers' Obligations in respect of any Loan. The Borrowers hereby designate the Administrative Agent to serve as the Borrower's non-fiduciary agent solely for purposes of maintaining the Register as provided in this Section 2.05, and the Borrowers hereby agree that, to the extent the Administrative Agent serves in such capacity, the Administrative Agent and its officers, directors, employees, agents, sub-agents and affiliates shall constitute "Indemnitees."

(c) Notes. If so requested by any Lender, the Borrowers shall execute and deliver to such Lender (and/or, if applicable and if so specified in such notice, to any Person who is an assignee of such Lender pursuant to Section 10.06(c)) on the Closing Date (or, if requested by the Lender after the Closing Date, promptly after the Borrower Representative's receipt of written notice of such request to the Borrowers (with a copy to the Administrative Agent)), a Note or Notes to evidence such Lender's Initial Term Loan, the Delayed Draw Term Loan or any Incremental Term Loan, as the case may be.

Section 2.06 Interest on Loans.

(a) Except as otherwise set forth herein, each Loan shall bear interest on the unpaid principal amount thereof from the date made to final repayment (whether by acceleration or otherwise) thereof at the following rates: [].

(b) Interest payable pursuant to this Section 2.06 shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year, in each case for the actual number of days elapsed in the period during which it accrues. In computing interest, the date of the making of such Loan shall be included, and the date of payment of such Loan, shall be excluded; provided, that if a Loan is repaid on the same day on which it is made, one day's interest shall be paid on that Loan.

(c) Except as otherwise set forth herein, interest on each Loan (i) shall accrue on a daily basis; (ii) shall be payable in arrears on the last Business Day of each March, June, September, and December; (iii) shall be payable in arrears upon any prepayment of such Loan, whether voluntary or mandatory, to the extent accrued on the amount being prepaid; and (iv) shall be payable in arrears at maturity of such Loan, including final maturity of such Loan.

Section 2.07 Default Interest

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, subject to Section 10.18, the principal amount of all Loans outstanding and, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, any accrued and unpaid interest on the Loans, and any fees or other amounts outstanding, shall bear interest (including post-petition interest in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable bankruptcy laws) payable on demand at an interest rate of []% (the "Default Rate"). Payment or acceptance of the increased rates of interest provided for in this Section 2.07 is not a permitted alternative to timely payment and shall not constitute a waiver of any Event of Default or otherwise prejudice or limit any rights or remedies of the Administrative Agent or any Lender. The Borrowers expressly agree that with respect to the possible payment of interest at the Default Rate hereunder: (i) the Default Rate is reasonable and is the product of an arm's length transaction between sophisticated business parties, ably represented by counsel; (ii) the Default Rate shall be payable notwithstanding the then prevailing market rates at the time payment is made; (iii) there has been a course of conduct between the Administrative Agent and Lenders and the Loan Parties giving specific consideration in this transaction for such agreement to pay interest at the Default Rate; and (iv) the Loan Parties shall be estopped hereafter from claiming differently than as agreed to in this paragraph. The Borrowers expressly acknowledge that its agreement to pay interest at the Default Rate as herein described is a material inducement to the Administrative Agent and Lenders to provide the Commitments and make the Loans.

Section 2.08 Fees.

(a) The Borrowers shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the Administrative Agent's own account or for the account of the Lenders, as applicable, fees in the amounts and at the times set forth in the Fee Letter and except as may be otherwise agreed in writing between the parties to the Fee Letter, such fees shall be in all respects fully earned when due and payable pursuant to the terms of the Fee Letter and non-refundable and non-creditable thereafter.

(b) If Borrowers shall fail to pay any principal or interest on any Loan or any fees or other amounts due hereunder, in all cases as and when due, and such failure to pay continues for a period of five (5) days, the Borrowers shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the Administrative Agent's own account or for the account of the Lenders, as applicable, in addition to the payment of principal, interest fees or other amounts otherwise due and payable, a late charge fee equal to [] percent ([]%) of such payment.

(c) In addition to any of the foregoing fees, Borrowers agree to pay to Agents such other fees and in the amounts and at the times separately agreed upon between the Agents and Borrowers in writing.

Section 2.09 Principal Payments

Borrowers jointly, severally and unconditionally promise to pay in full to the Administrative Agent, for the account of each Lender, on the Term Loan Maturity Date, the then unpaid principal amount of the Term Loans.

Section 2.10 Voluntary Prepayments/Commitment Reductions.

(a) Voluntary Prepayments. Subject to the terms of the Fee Letter, any time and from time to time, the Borrowers may prepay any Term Loans on any Business Day, in whole or in part, in an aggregate minimum amount of $[] and integral multiples of $[] in excess of that amount. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, each prepayment of Term Loans made pursuant to this Section 2.10(a) shall be accompanied by the payment of accrued interest to the date of such payment on the amount prepaid. All such prepayments shall be made upon not less than three (3) Business Days' prior written notice given to the Administrative Agent by 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the date required (and the Administrative Agent shall promptly transmit such notice by email to each Lender); provided, that, if the Borrowers wish to prepay the Term Loans in full and terminate any outstanding Commitments in whole, the Borrowers may do so only after having delivered prior written notice to the Administrative Agent at least five (5) Business Days' (by 2:00 p.m. (New York City time)) prior to the effective date of such prepayment and termination (and the Administrative Agent shall promptly transmit such notice by email to each Lender). Upon the giving of any such notice, the principal amount of the Loans specified in such notice shall become due and payable on the prepayment date specified therein. Any such voluntary prepayment shall be applied as specified in Section 2.12(a).

(b) Reductions in Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments. The Borrowers may, upon not less than five (5) Business Days' prior written notice to the Administrative Agent (and the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender of such reduction by email), at any time and from time to time terminate in whole or permanently reduce in part the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments in an amount not to exceed the then-remaining aggregate Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments; provided, that any such partial reduction of the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments shall be in an aggregate minimum amount of $[] (or, if less, the remaining Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments) and integral multiples of $[] in excess of that amount. The Borrowers notice to the Administrative Agent shall designate the date (which shall be a Business Day) of such termination or reduction and the amount of any partial reduction, and such termination or reduction of the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments shall be effective on the date specified in the Borrowers' notice and shall reduce the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitment of each Lender proportionately to its Pro Rata Share thereof.

Section 2.11 Mandatory Prepayments.

(a) Asset Sales. No later than the third (3rd) Business Day following the date of receipt by Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Net Cash Proceeds (it being understood that such Net Cash Proceeds shall be promptly deposited into an Approved Deposit Account) in respect of any Asset Sale permitted by Section 6.08 (other than Sale and Leaseback Transactions permitted by Section 6.10), the Borrowers shall prepay the Loans as set forth in Section 2.12(b) in an aggregate amount equal to []% of such Net Cash Proceeds; provided, that, so long as no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of the delivery of the written notice described in this clause (a) or at the proposed time of the investment of such Net Cash Proceeds as described in this clause (a), the Borrowers shall have the option, upon written notice to the Administrative Agent, directly or through one or more of its Restricted Subsidiaries that is a Loan Party, to reinvest (or commit to reinvest) such Net Cash Proceeds within one hundred eighty (180) days of receipt thereof in productive assets of the general type used or useful in the business of Holdings and its Restricted Subsidiaries; provided, further that to the extent any such Net Cash Proceeds therefrom have not been so applied by the end of such one hundred eighty (180) days day period, then, at such time, a prepayment shall be required in an amount equal to such Net Cash Proceeds that have not been so applied.

(b) Insurance/Condemnation Proceeds. No later than the third (3rd) Business Day following the date of receipt by Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of any Net Cash Proceeds (it being understood that such Net Cash Proceeds shall be promptly deposited into an Approved Deposit Account) of the type described in clause (b) of the definition thereof (and immediately upon the direct receipt by an Agent as lender loss payee, of any Net Cash Proceeds of the type described in clause (b) of the definition thereof; provided, that if no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time the Administrative Agent receives such Net Cash Proceeds, the Administrative Agent shall promptly deposit such amounts into the Approved Deposit Account to be otherwise applied in accordance with this Section 2.11(b)), the Borrower shall prepay the Loans (or, alternatively, the Borrower shall be deemed to have prepaid the Loans, in the case of direct receipt of the Net Cash Proceeds by an Agent as lender loss payee subject to the immediately preceding proviso), as set forth in Section 2.12(b) in an aggregate amount equal to []% of such Net Cash Proceeds; provided, that so long as no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of the delivery of the written notice described below through the time of the investment of such Net Cash Proceeds, the Borrowers shall have the option, upon written notice to the Administrative Agent, directly or through one or more of its Restricted Subsidiaries that is a Loan Party, to reinvest such Net Cash Proceeds within one hundred eighty (180) days of receipt thereof in productive assets of the general type used or useful in the business of the Holdings and its Restricted Subsidiaries, which investment may include the repair, restoration or replacement of the applicable assets thereof; provided, further that, to the extent any such Net Cash Proceeds therefrom have not been so applied by the end of such one hundred eighty (180) days day period, then, at such time, a prepayment shall be required in an amount equal to such Net Cash Proceeds that have not been so applied.

(c) Issuance or Incurrence of Debt. No later than the third (3rd) Business Day following the date of receipt by Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of any Net Cash Proceeds (it being understood that such Net Cash Proceeds shall be promptly deposited into an Approved Deposit Account) from the issuance or incurrence of any Indebtedness of any Loan Party or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries (other than with respect to any Indebtedness permitted to be issued or incurred pursuant to Section 6.01), the Borrowers shall prepay the Loans as set forth in Section 2.12(b) in an aggregate amount equal to []% of such Net Cash Proceeds.

(d) Extraordinary Receipts. No later than the third (3rd) Business Day following the date of receipt by Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of any Net Cash Proceeds in respect of any Extraordinary Receipt in excess of $[] (it being understood that such Net Cash Proceeds shall be promptly deposited into an Approved Deposit Account), the Borrowers shall prepay the Loans as set forth in Section 2.12(b) in an aggregate amount equal to []% of such Net Cash Proceeds.

(e) Other Investments. On the day of consummation of any Investment permitted by clauses (i) and (ii) of Section 6.06(o), the Borrowers shall prepay the Loans as set forth in Section 2.12(b) in an aggregate amount equal to [] percent ([]%) of such Investment.

(f) Prepayment Certificate. Three (3) Business Days (or such shorter period as may be agreed by the Administrative Agent) prior to any prepayment of the Loans pursuant to Sections 2.11(a) through 2.11(e), the Borrower Representative shall deliver to the Administrative Agent a certificate of an Authorized Officer demonstrating the calculation of the amount of the applicable Net Cash Proceeds. In the event that the Borrowers shall subsequently determine that the actual amount received exceeded the amount set forth in such certificate, the Borrowers shall promptly make an additional prepayment of the Loans in an amount equal to such excess, and the Borrower Representative shall concurrently therewith deliver to the Administrative Agent a certificate of an Authorized Officer demonstrating the derivation of such excess.

(g) Prepayments Generally. Nothing contained in this Section 2.11 shall permit Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to take any action that is otherwise prohibited by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Section 2.12 Application of Prepayments/Reductions.

(a) Application of Voluntary Prepayments. Subject to Section 2.13(f), any prepayment of any Loan pursuant to Section 2.10 shall be applied on a pro rata basis across all Classes of Term Loans (in accordance with the respective outstanding principal balances thereof).

(b) Application of Mandatory Prepayments. Subject to Section 2.12(c) and Section 2.13(f), any amount required to be paid pursuant to Sections 2.11(a) through 2.11(e) shall be applied to prepay the Term Loans (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Delayed Draw Term Loan) on a pro rata basis across all Classes of Term Loans (in accordance with the respective outstanding principal amounts thereof).

(c) Declined Proceeds. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any mandatory prepayment paid pursuant to Sections 2.11(a) through 2.11(e) may be declined by any Lender without prejudice to such Lender's rights hereunder to accept or decline any future payments in respect of mandatory prepayments. If a Lender chooses not to accept payment in respect of a mandatory prepayment, in whole or in part, it shall provide the Administrative Agent written notice of such rejection no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) two (2) Business Days prior to the proposed prepayment date. To the extent any Lender fails to provide the notice within the time frame set forth above, it shall be deemed to have accepted the prepayment.

Section 2.13 General Provisions Regarding Payments.

(a) All payments by the Borrowers of principal, interest, fees and other Obligations shall be made in Dollars in same day funds, without defense (other than payment in full), setoff or counterclaim, free of any restriction or condition, and delivered to the Administrative Agent not later than 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the date due at the Principal Office designated by the Administrative Agent for the account of Lenders. For purposes of computing interest and fees, funds received by the Administrative Agent after that time on such due date may, in Administrative Agent's discretion, be deemed to have been paid by the Borrowers on the next succeeding Business Day.

(b) All payments in respect of the principal amount of any Loan shall be accompanied by payment of accrued interest on the principal amount being repaid or prepaid, and all such payments (and, in any event, any payments in respect of any Loan on a date when interest is due and payable with respect to such Loan) shall be applied to the payment of interest then due and payable before application to principal.

(c) The Administrative Agent (or its agent or sub-agent appointed by it) shall promptly distribute to each Lender at such address as such Lender shall indicate in writing, such Lender's applicable Pro Rata Share of all payments and prepayments of principal and interest due hereunder, together with all other amounts due with respect thereto, including all fees payable with respect thereto, to the extent received by the Administrative Agent.

(d) Whenever any payment to be made hereunder with respect to any Loan shall be stated to be due on a day that is not a Business Day, such payment shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day and such extension of time shall be included in the computation of the payment of interest hereunder.

(e) The Administrative Agent may, in its discretion, deem any payment by or on behalf of the Borrowers hereunder that is not made in same day funds prior to 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) to be a non-conforming payment. Any such payment may not be deemed to have been received by the Administrative Agent until the later of (i) the time such funds become available funds, and (ii) the applicable next Business Day. The Administrative Agent shall give prompt notice to the Borrower Representative and each applicable Lender (in writing, which may be by email) if any payment is non-conforming. Any non-conforming payment may constitute or become a Default or Event of Default in accordance with the terms of Section 8.01(a). Interest shall continue to accrue on any principal as to which a non-conforming payment is made until such funds become available funds (but in no event less than the period from the date of such payment to the next succeeding applicable Business Day) at the Default Rate at the election of the Administrative Agent (or at the written request of the Required Lenders) from the date such amount was due and payable until the date such amount is paid in full.

(f) If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing and shall not have otherwise been waived, and the maturity of the Obligations shall have been accelerated pursuant to Section 8.01, all payments or proceeds received by Agents hereunder in respect of any of the Obligations, shall be applied as follows:

(i) first, to pay any reasonable documented out-of-pocket costs or expenses (including reasonable documented out-of-pocket cost or expense reimbursements) or indemnitees then due to any Agent under the Loan Documents until paid in full,

(ii) second, to pay any fees or premiums then due to any Agent under the Loan Documents until paid in full,

(iii) third, ratably, to pay any reasonable documented out-of-pocket costs or expenses (including reasonable documented out-of-pocket cost or expense reimbursements) or indemnitees then due to any of the Lenders under the Loan Documents until paid in full,

(iv) fourth, ratably, to pay any fees or premiums then due to any of the Lenders under the Loan Documents until paid in full,

(v) fifth, ratably, to pay interest accrued in respect of the Obligations until paid in full,

(vi) sixth, ratably, to pay the outstanding principal balance of the Term Loans (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Delayed Draw Term Loan) on a pro rata basis (in accordance with the respective outstanding principal amounts thereof) across all Classes of Term Loans until the Term Loans are paid in full;

(vii) seventh, to pay any other Obligations until paid in full, and (viii) eighth, to the Borrowers or such other Person entitled thereto under applicable Law.

Section 2.14 Ratable Sharing

Lenders hereby agree among themselves, that if any of them shall, whether by voluntary payment (other than a voluntary prepayment of Loans made and applied in accordance with the terms hereof), through the exercise of any right of set-off or banker's lien, by counterclaim or cross action or by the enforcement of any right under the Loan Documents or otherwise, or as adequate protection of a deposit treated as cash collateral under the Bankruptcy Code, receive payment or reduction of a proportion of the aggregate amount of principal, interest, fees and other amounts then due and owing to such Lender hereunder or under the other Loan Documents (collectively, the "Aggregate Amounts Due" to such Lender) which is greater than the proportion received by any other Lender in respect of the Aggregate Amounts Due to such other Lender, then the Lender receiving such proportionately greater payment shall (a) notify the Administrative Agent and each other Lender of the receipt of such payment and (b) apply a portion of such payment to purchase participations (which it shall be deemed to have purchased from each seller of a participation simultaneously upon the receipt by such seller of its portion of such payment) in the Aggregate Amounts Due to the other Lenders so that all such recoveries of Aggregate Amounts Due shall be shared by all Lenders in proportion to the Aggregate Amounts Due to them; provided, that if all or part of such proportionately greater payment received by such purchasing Lender is thereafter recovered from such Lender upon the bankruptcy or reorganization of the Borrowers or otherwise, those purchases shall be rescinded and the purchase prices paid for such participations shall be returned to such purchasing Lender ratably to the extent of such recovery, but without interest. The Borrowers expressly consent to the foregoing arrangement and agree that any holder of a participation so purchased may exercise any and all rights of banker's lien, set-off or counterclaim with respect to any and all monies owing by the Borrowers to that holder with respect thereto as fully as if that holder were owed the amount of the participation held by that holder. The provisions of this Section 2.14 shall not be construed to apply to (a) any payment made by the Borrowers pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or (b) any payment obtained by any Lender as consideration for the assignment or sale of a participation in any of its Loans or other Obligations owed to it in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement.

Section 2.15 Increased Costs; Capital Adequacy.

(a) Compensation for Increased Costs and Taxes. In the event that any Lender or the Administrative Agent, as the case may be, shall determine (which determination shall, absent manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding upon all parties hereto) that any law, treaty or governmental rule, regulation or order, or any change therein or in the interpretation, administration or application thereof (including the introduction of any new law, treaty or governmental rule, regulation or order), or any determination of a court or Governmental Authority, in each case that becomes effective after the date hereof, or compliance by such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as the case may be, with any guideline, request or directive issued or made after the date hereof by any central bank or other governmental or quasi-governmental authority: (i) subjects such Lender (or its applicable lending office) to any additional Tax (other than any Excluded Taxes or Indemnified Taxes) with respect to this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents or any of its obligations hereunder or thereunder or any payments to such Lender

(or its applicable lending office) of principal, interest, fees or any other amount payable hereunder; (ii) imposes, modifies or holds applicable any reserve (including any marginal, emergency, supplemental, special or other reserve), special deposit, compulsory loan, FDIC insurance or similar requirement against assets held by, or deposits or other liabilities in or for the account of, or advances or loans by, or other credit extended by, or any other acquisition of funds by, any office of such Lender; or (iii) imposes any other condition on or affecting such Lender (or its applicable lending office) or its obligations hereunder or the London interbank market; and the result of any of the foregoing is to increase the cost to the Administrative Agent or such Lender of agreeing to make, making or maintaining Loans hereunder or to reduce any amount received or receivable by the Administrative Agent or such Lender (or its applicable lending office) with respect thereto; then, in any such case, the Borrowers shall promptly, but in any event within ten (10) Business Days, pay to the Administrative Agent or such Lender, upon receipt of the statement referred to in the next sentence, such additional amount or amounts (in the form of an increased rate of, or a different method of calculating, interest or otherwise as such Lender in its sole discretion shall determine) as may be necessary to compensate the Administrative Agent or such Lender for any such increased cost or reduction in amounts received or receivable hereunder. The Administrative Agent or such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower Representative (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) a written statement, setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for calculating the additional amounts owed to the Administrative Agent or such Lender under this Section 2.15(a), which statement shall be conclusive and binding upon all parties hereto absent manifest error.

(b) Capital Adequacy Adjustment. In the event that any Lender shall have determined that the adoption, effectiveness, phase-in or applicability after the Closing Date of any law, rule or regulation (or any provision thereof) regarding capital adequacy, or any change therein or in the interpretation or administration thereof by any Governmental Authority, central bank or comparable agency charged with the interpretation or administration thereof, or compliance by any Lender (or its applicable lending office) with any guideline, request or directive regarding capital adequacy of any such Governmental Authority, central bank or comparable agency, has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on the capital of such Lender or any such Lender's holding company as a consequence of, or with reference to, such Lender's Loans or other obligations hereunder with respect to the Loans, to a level below that which such Lender or such holding company could have achieved but for such adoption, effectiveness, phase-in, applicability, change or compliance (taking into consideration the policies of such Lender or such holding company with regard to capital adequacy), then from time to time, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt by the Borrower Representative from such Lender of the statement referred to in the next sentence, the Borrowers shall pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as shall compensate such Lender or such controlling corporation for such reduction. Such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower Representative (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) a written statement, setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for calculating the additional amounts owed to Lender under this Section 2.15(b), which statement shall be conclusive and binding upon all parties hereto absent manifest error. (c) Payment Requests. Promptly after any Lender has determined that it will make a request for payment pursuant to this Section 2.15, such Lender shall notify the Borrower Representative thereof. Failure or delay on the part of any Lender to demand payment pursuant to this Section 2.15 shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's right to demand such payment; provided that the Borrowers shall not be required to compensate a Lender pursuant to Section 2.15(a) or Section 2.15(b) for any amounts incurred more than one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the date that such Lender notifies the Borrower

(a) Withholding of Taxes.

(i) Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of any Loan Party under any Loan Document shall be made without deduction or withholding for any Taxes, except as required by applicable Law. If any applicable Law (as determined in the good faith discretion of an applicable Withholding Agent) requires the deduction or withholding of any Tax from any such payment by a Withholding Agent, then the applicable Withholding Agent shall be entitled to make such deduction or withholding and shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable Law and, if such Tax is an Indemnified Tax, then the sum payable by the applicable Loan Party shall be increased as necessary so that after such deduction or withholding has been made (including such deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 2.16) the applicable Lender or Administrative Agent or other recipient receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been made. Further, the Loan Parties shall timely pay to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable Law, or at the option of the Administrative Agent timely reimburse it for the payment of, any Other Taxes.

(ii) Each Lender shall severally indemnify the Administrative Agent, within 10 days after demand therefor, for (i) any Indemnified Taxes attributable to such Lender (but only to the extent that a Loan Party has not already indemnified the Administrative Agent for such Indemnified Taxes and without limiting the obligation of the Loan Parties to do so), (ii) any Taxes attributable to such Lender's failure to comply with the provisions of Section 10.06(g) relating to the maintenance of a Participant Register and (iii) any Excluded Taxes attributable to such Lender, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent in connection with any Loan Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under any Loan Document or otherwise payable by the Administrative Agent to the Lender from any other source against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this paragraph (a)(ii).

(iii) As soon as practicable after any payment of Taxes by any Loan Party to a Governmental Authority pursuant to this Section 2.16, such Loan Party shall deliver to the Administrative Agent the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

Each Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to payment made under any Loan Document shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative, on or prior to the Closing Date (in the case of each Lender listed on the signature pages hereof on the Closing Date) or on or prior to the date of the Assignment Agreement pursuant to which it becomes a Lender (in the case of all other Lenders), and at such other times as may be necessary in the determination of the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent (each in the reasonable exercise of its discretion) such properly completed and executed documentation reasonably requested by the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate.

(c) The Borrowers and the other Loan Parties shall jointly and severally indemnify the Administrative Agent and any Lender, within 10 days after demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes for which additional amounts are required to be paid pursuant to Section 2.16 arising in connection with payments made under this Agreement or any other Loan Document (including any such Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 2.16) paid by the Administrative Agent or Lender or any of their respective Affiliates and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to such Loan Party shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

"Fair Share Contribution Amount" means, with respect to a Contributing Guarantor as of any date of determination, the maximum aggregate amount of the obligations of such Contributing Guarantor under this Guaranty that would not render its obligations hereunder or thereunder subject to avoidance as a fraudulent transfer or conveyance under Section 548 of Title 11 of the United States Code or any comparable applicable provisions of state law; provided, that solely for purposes of calculating the Fair Share Contribution Amount with respect to any Contributing Guarantor for purposes of this Section 7.02, any assets or liabilities of such Contributing Guarantor arising by virtue of any rights to subrogation, reimbursement or indemnification or any rights to or obligations of contribution hereunder shall not be considered as assets or liabilities of such Contributing Guarantor. "Aggregate Payments" means, with respect to a Contributing Guarantor as of any date of determination, an amount equal to (1) the aggregate amount of all payments and distributions made on or before such date by such Contributing Guarantor in respect of this Guaranty (including in respect of this Section 7.02), minus (2) the aggregate amount of all payments received on or before such date by such Contributing Guarantor from the other Contributing Guarantors as contributions under this Section 7.02. The amounts payable as contributions hereunder shall be determined as of the date on which the related payment or distribution is made by the applicable Funding Guarantor. The allocation among Contributing Guarantors of their obligations as set forth in this Section 7.02 shall not be construed in any way to limit the liability of any Contributing Guarantor hereunder. Each Guarantor is a third party beneficiary to the contribution agreement set forth in this Section 7.02.

Section 7.03 Payment by Guarantors

Subject to Section 7.02, Guarantors hereby jointly and severally agree, in furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right which any Beneficiary may have at law or in equity against any Guarantor by virtue hereof, that upon the failure of the Borrowers to pay any of the Guaranteed Obligations when and as the same shall become due, whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, acceleration, demand or otherwise (including amounts that would become due but for the operation of the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)), Guarantors shall upon demand pay, or cause to be paid, in Cash in Dollars, to the Administrative Agent for the ratable benefit of Beneficiaries, an amount equal to the unpaid principal amount of all Guaranteed Obligations then due as aforesaid, including accrued and unpaid interest on such Guaranteed Obligations (including interest which, but for any Borrower's becoming the subject of a case under the Bankruptcy Code, would have accrued on such Guaranteed Obligations, whether or not a claim is allowed against such Borrower for such interest in the related bankruptcy case).

Section 7.04 Liability of Guarantors Absolute

Each Guarantor agrees that its obligations hereunder are irrevocable, absolute, independent and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance which constitutes a legal or equitable discharge of a guarantor or surety other than payment in full of the Guaranteed Obligations. In furtherance of the foregoing and without limiting the generality thereof, each Guarantor agrees as follows:

(a) this Guaranty is a guaranty of payment when due and not of collectability. This Guaranty is a primary obligation of each Guarantor and not merely a contract of surety;

(b) the Administrative Agent may enforce this Guaranty upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default notwithstanding the existence of any dispute between the Borrowers and any Beneficiary with respect to the existence of such Event of Default;

(c) the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder are independent of the obligations of Borrowers and the obligations of any other guarantor (including any other Guarantor) of the obligations of the Borrowers, and a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against such Guarantor whether or not any action is brought against any Borrower or any of such other guarantors and whether or not any Borrower is joined in any such action or actions;

(d) payment by any Guarantor of a portion, but not all, of the Guaranteed Obligations shall in no way limit, affect, modify or abridge any Guarantor's liability for any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations which are then due and payable but which has not been paid. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if the Administrative Agent is awarded a judgment in any suit brought to enforce any Guarantor's covenant to pay a portion of the Guaranteed Obligations, such judgment shall not be deemed to release such Guarantor from its covenant to pay the portion of the Guaranteed Obligations that is not the subject of such suit, and such judgment shall not, except to the extent satisfied by such Guarantor, limit, affect, modify or abridge any other Guarantor's liability hereunder in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations;

(e) any Beneficiary, upon such terms as it deems appropriate and in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, without notice to any creditor or demand and without affecting the validity or enforceability hereof or giving rise to any reduction, limitation, impairment, discharge or termination of any Guarantor's liability hereunder, from time to time may (i) renew, extend, accelerate (in accordance with Article VIII of this Agreement), increase the rate of interest on, or otherwise change the time, place, manner or terms of payment of the Guaranteed Obligations; (ii) settle, compromise, release or discharge, or accept or refuse any offer of performance with respect to, or substitutions for, the Guaranteed Obligations or any agreement relating thereto and/or subordinate the payment of the same to the payment of any other obligations; (iii) request and accept other guaranties of the Guaranteed Obligations and take and hold security for the payment hereof or the Guaranteed Obligations; (iv) release, surrender, exchange, substitute, compromise, settle, rescind, waive, alter, subordinate or modify, with or without consideration, any security for payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, any other guaranties of the Guaranteed Obligations, or any other obligation of any Person (including any other Guarantor) with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations; (v) enforce and apply any security now or hereafter held by or for the benefit of such Beneficiary in respect hereof or the Guaranteed Obligations and direct the order or manner of sale thereof, or exercise any other right or remedy that such Beneficiary may have against any such security, in each case as such Beneficiary in its discretion may determine consistent herewith and any applicable security agreement and applicable Law, including foreclosure on any such security pursuant to one or more judicial or nonjudicial sales, whether or not every aspect of any such sale is commercially reasonable, and even though such action operates to impair or extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of any Guarantor against any Borrower or any security for the Guaranteed Obligations; and (vi) exercise any other rights available to it under the Loan Documents; and

(f) this Guaranty and the obligations of Guarantors hereunder shall be valid and enforceable and shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment, discharge or termination for any reason (other than payment in full of the Guaranteed Obligations), including the occurrence of any of the following, whether or not any Guarantor shall have had notice or knowledge of any of them: (i) any failure or omission to assert or enforce or agreement or election not to assert or enforce, or the stay or enjoining, by order of court, by operation of Law or otherwise, of the exercise or enforcement of, any claim or demand or any right, power or remedy (whether arising under the Loan Documents, at law, in equity or otherwise) with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations or any agreement relating thereto, or with respect to any other guaranty of or security for the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations; (ii) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of, or any consent to departure from, any of the terms or provisions (including provisions relating to events of default) hereof, any of the other Loan Documents, or any agreement or instrument executed pursuant thereto, or of any other guaranty or security for the Guaranteed Obligations, in each case whether or not in accordance with the terms hereof or such Loan Document, or any agreement relating to such other guaranty or security; (iii) the Guaranteed Obligations, or any agreement relating thereto, at any time being found to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect; (iv) the application of payments received from any source (other than payments received pursuant to the other Loan Documents or from the proceeds of any security for the Guaranteed Obligations, except to the extent such security also serves as collateral for indebtedness other than the Guaranteed Obligations) to the payment of indebtedness other than the Guaranteed Obligations, even though any Beneficiary might have elected to apply such payment to any part or all of the Guaranteed Obligations; (v) any Beneficiary's consent to the change, reorganization or termination of the corporate structure or existence of any Borrower or any of their Subsidiaries and to any corresponding restructuring of the Guaranteed Obligations; (vi) any failure to perfect or continue perfection of a security interest in any collateral which secures any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (vii) any defenses (other than a defense of payment or performance), set-offs or counterclaims which any Borrower may allege or assert against any Beneficiary in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations, including failure of consideration, breach of warranty, payment, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, accord and satisfaction and usury; and (viii) any other act or thing or omission, or delay to do any other act or thing, which may or might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of any Guarantor as an obligor in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations.

Section 7.05 Waivers by Guarantors

Each Guarantor hereby waives, for the benefit of Beneficiaries: (a) any right to require any Beneficiary, as a condition of payment or performance by such Guarantor, to (i) proceed against any Borrower, any other guarantor (including any other Guarantor) of the Guaranteed Obligations or any other Person, (ii) proceed against or exhaust any security held from any Borrower, any such other guarantor or any other Person, (iii) proceed against or have resort to any balance of any Deposit Account or credit on the books of any Beneficiary in favor of any Borrower or any other Person, or (iv) pursue any other remedy in the power of any Beneficiary whatsoever; (b) any defense arising by reason of the incapacity, lack of authority or any disability or other defense of any Borrower or any other Guarantor including any defense based on or arising out of the lack of validity or the unenforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations or any agreement or instrument relating thereto or by reason of the cessation of the liability of any Borrower or any other Guarantor from any cause other than payment in full of the Guaranteed Obligations; (c) any defense based upon any statute or rule of law which provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal; (d) any defense based upon any Beneficiary's errors or omissions in the administration of the Guaranteed Obligations, except behavior which amounts to willful misconduct or gross negligence; (e) (i) any principles or provisions of law, statutory or otherwise, which are or might be in conflict with the terms hereof and any legal or equitable discharge of such Guarantor's obligations hereunder, (ii) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting such Guarantor's liability hereunder or the enforcement hereof, (iii) any rights to set-offs, recoupments and counterclaims, and (iv) promptness, diligence and any requirement that any Beneficiary protect, secure, perfect or insure any security interest or lien or any property subject thereto; (f) notices, demands, presentments, protests, notices of protest, notices of dishonor and notices of any action or inaction, including acceptance hereof, notices of default hereunder, or any agreement or instrument related thereto, notices of any renewal, extension or modification of the Guaranteed Obligations or any agreement related thereto, notices of any extension of credit to the Borrowers and notices of any of the matters referred to in Section 7.04 and any right to consent to any thereof; and (g) any defenses (other than a defense of payment or performance) or benefits that may be derived from or afforded by law which limit the liability of or exonerate guarantors or sureties, or which may conflict with the terms hereof.

Section 7.06 Guarantors' Rights of Subrogation, Contribution, Etc

Until the Guaranteed Obligations shall have been paid in full, each Guarantor hereby waives any claim, right or remedy, direct or indirect, that such Guarantor now has or may hereafter have against any Borrower or any other Guarantor or any of its assets in connection with this Guaranty or the performance by such Guarantor of its obligations hereunder, in each case whether such claim, right or remedy arises in equity, under contract, by statute, under common law or otherwise and including (a) any right of subrogation, reimbursement or indemnification that such Guarantor now has or may hereafter have against any Borrower with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations, (b) any right to enforce, or to participate in, any claim, right or remedy that any Beneficiary now has or may hereafter have against any Borrower, and (c) any benefit of, and any right to participate in, any collateral or security now or hereafter held by any Beneficiary. In addition, until the Guaranteed Obligations shall have been paid in full, each Guarantor shall withhold exercise of any right of contribution such Guarantor may have against any other guarantor (including any other Guarantor) of the Guaranteed Obligations, including any such right of contribution as contemplated by Section 7.02. Each Guarantor further agrees that, to the extent the waiver or agreement to withhold the exercise of its rights of subrogation, reimbursement, indemnification and contribution as set forth herein is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be void or voidable for any reason, any rights of subrogation, reimbursement or indemnification such Guarantor may have against any Borrower or against any collateral or security, and any rights of contribution such Guarantor may have against any such other guarantor, shall be junior and subordinate to any rights any Beneficiary may have against any Borrower, to all right, title and interest any Beneficiary may have in any such collateral or security, and to any right any Beneficiary may have against such other guarantor. If any amount shall be paid to any Guarantor on account of any such subrogation, reimbursement, indemnification or contribution rights at any time when all Guaranteed Obligations shall not have been finally and paid in full, such amount shall be held in trust for the Administrative Agent on behalf of Beneficiaries and shall forthwith be paid over to the Administrative Agent for the benefit of Beneficiaries to be credited and applied against the Guaranteed Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms hereof.

Section 7.07 Subordination of Other Obligations

Any Indebtedness of any Borrower or any Guarantor now or hereafter held by any Guarantor (the "Obligee Guarantor") is hereby subordinated in right of payment to the Guaranteed Obligations, and any such Indebtedness collected or received by the Obligee Guarantor after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default shall be held in trust for the Administrative Agent on behalf of Beneficiaries and shall forthwith be paid over to the Administrative Agent for the benefit of Beneficiaries to be credited and applied against the Guaranteed Obligations but without affecting, impairing or limiting in any manner the liability of the Obligee Guarantor under any other provision hereof.

Section 7.08 Continuing Guaranty

This Guaranty is a continuing guaranty and shall remain in effect until all Guaranteed Obligations have been irrevocably paid in full. Each Guarantor hereby irrevocably waives any right to revoke this Guaranty as to future transactions giving rise to any Guaranteed Obligations.

Section 7.09 Authority of Guarantors or the Borrowers

It is not necessary for any Beneficiary to inquire into the capacity or powers of any Guarantor or any Borrower or the officers, directors or any agents acting or purporting to act on behalf of any of them.

Section 7.10 Financial Condition of the Borrowers

Any Credit Extension may be made to the Borrowers or continued from time to time, without notice to or authorization from any Guarantor regardless of the financial or other condition of the Borrowers at the time of any such grant or continuation, as the case may be. No Beneficiary shall have any obligation to disclose or discuss with any Guarantor its assessment, or any Guarantor's assessment, of the financial condition of the Borrowers. Each Guarantor has adequate means to obtain information from the Borrowers on a continuing basis concerning the financial condition of the Borrowers and its ability to perform its obligations under the Loan Documents, and each Guarantor assumes the responsibility for being and keeping informed of the financial condition of the Borrowers and of all circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Guaranteed Obligations. Each Guarantor hereby waives and relinquishes any duty on the part of any Beneficiary to disclose any matter, fact or thing relating to the business, operations or conditions (financial or otherwise) of the Borrowers now known or hereafter known by any Beneficiary.

Section 7.11 Bankruptcy, Etc.

(a) So long as any Guaranteed Obligations remain outstanding, no Guarantor shall, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent acting pursuant to the instructions of Required Lenders, commence or join with any other Person in commencing any bankruptcy, reorganization or insolvency case or proceeding of or against any Borrower or any other Guarantor. The obligations of Guarantors hereunder shall not be reduced, limited, impaired, discharged, deferred, suspended or terminated by any case or proceeding, voluntary or involuntary, involving the bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, reorganization, liquidation or arrangement of any Borrower or any other Guarantor or by any defense which any Borrower or any other Guarantor may have by reason of the order, decree or decision of any court or administrative body resulting from any such proceeding.

(b) Each Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that any interest on any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations which accrues after the commencement of any case or proceeding referred to in clause (a) above (or, if interest on any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations ceases to accrue by operation of Law by reason of the commencement of such case or proceeding, such interest as would have accrued on such portion of the Guaranteed Obligations if such case or proceeding had not been commenced) shall be included in the Guaranteed Obligations because it is the intention of Guarantors and Beneficiaries that the Guaranteed Obligations which are guaranteed by Guarantors pursuant hereto should be determined without regard to any rule of law or order which may relieve the Borrowers of any portion of such Guaranteed Obligations. Guarantors shall permit any trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, debtor in possession, assignee for the benefit of creditors or similar Person to pay the Administrative Agent, or allow the claim of the Administrative Agent in respect of, any such interest accruing after the date on which such case or proceeding is commenced.

(c) In the event that all or any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations are paid by the Borrowers, the obligations of Guarantors hereunder shall continue and remain in full force and effect or be reinstated, as the case may be, in the event that all or any part of such payment(s) are rescinded or recovered directly or indirectly from any Beneficiary as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise, and any such payments which are so rescinded or recovered shall constitute Guaranteed Obligations for all purposes hereunder.

Section 7.12 Discharge of Guaranty Upon Sale of Guarantor

If all of the Equity Interests of any Guarantor shall be sold or otherwise disposed of (including by merger or consolidation) in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Guaranty of such Guarantor hereunder shall be automatically discharged and released without any further action by any Beneficiary or any other Person effective as of the time of such Asset Sale.

ARTICLE IX
AGENTS

Section 9.01 Appointment of Agents

SAI is hereby appointed the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents and each Lender hereby authorizes SAI to act as the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms hereof and the other Loan Documents. Each Agent hereby agrees to act in its capacity as such upon the express conditions contained herein and the other Loan Documents, as applicable. The provisions of this Article IX (other than as expressly provided herein) are solely for the benefit of the Agents and the Lenders and no Loan Party shall have any rights as a third party beneficiary of any of the provisions of this Article IX (other than as expressly provided herein). In performing its functions and duties hereunder, each Agent shall act solely as an agent of the Lenders and does not assume and shall not be deemed to have assumed any obligation, solely in its capacity as an Agent and not as a Lender, towards or relationship of agency or trust with or for Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries.

Section 9.02 Powers and Duties

Each Lender irrevocably authorizes each Agent to take such action on such Lender's behalf and to exercise such powers, rights and remedies hereunder and under the other Loan Documents as are specifically delegated or granted to such Agent by the terms hereof and thereof, together with such powers, rights and remedies as are reasonably incidental thereto. In the event that any obligations (other than the Obligations) are permitted to be incurred hereunder and secured by Liens permitted to be incurred hereunder on all or a portion of the Collateral, each Lender authorizes the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent, as applicable, to enter into intercreditor agreements, subordination agreements and amendments to the Security Documents to reflect such arrangements on terms acceptable to the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent, as applicable. Each Agent shall have only those duties and responsibilities that are expressly specified herein and the other Loan Documents. Each Agent may exercise such powers, rights and remedies and perform such duties by or through its agents or employees. No Agent shall have, by reason hereof or any of the other Loan Documents, a fiduciary relationship or other implied duties in respect of any Lender; and nothing herein or any of the other Loan Documents, expressed or implied, is intended to or shall be so construed as to impose upon any Agent any obligations in respect hereof or any of the other Loan Documents except as expressly set forth herein or therein. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, the use of the term "agent" in this Agreement and in the other Loan Documents with reference to any Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under the agency doctrine of any applicable Law. Instead, such term is used merely as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between independent contracting parties.

Section 9.03 General Immunity.

(a) No Responsibility for Certain Matters. No Agent shall be responsible to any Lender for the execution, effectiveness, genuineness, validity, enforceability, collectability or sufficiency hereof or any other Loan Document, or for the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien, or for any representations, warranties, recitals or statements made herein or therein or made in any written or oral statements or in any financial or other statements, instruments, reports or certificates or any other documents furnished or made by any Agent to the Lenders or by or on behalf of any Loan Party or to any Agent or Lender in connection with the Loan Documents and the transactions contemplated thereby or for the financial condition or business affairs of any Loan Party or any other Person liable for the payment of any Obligations, nor shall any Agent be required to ascertain or inquire as to the performance or observance of any of the terms, conditions, provisions, covenants or agreements contained in any of the Loan Documents or as to the use of the proceeds of the Loans or as to the existence or possible existence of any Event of Default or Default or as to the value or sufficiency of any Collateral or as to the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article III or elsewhere herein (other than confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to such Agent) or to inspect the properties, books or records of Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries or to make any disclosures with respect to the foregoing. Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Administrative Agent shall not have any liability arising from confirmations of the amount of outstanding Loans or the component amounts thereof.

(b) Exculpatory Provisions. No Agent nor any of its officers, partners, directors, employees or agents shall be liable to the Lenders (i) for any action taken or omitted by any Agent (A) under or in connection with any of the Loan Documents or (B) with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or, if so specified by this Agreement, all Lenders or any other instructing group of Lenders specified by this Agreement) except to the extent caused by such Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct, as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or (ii) for any failure of any Loan Party to perform its obligations under this Agreement or any other Loan Document. No Agent shall, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents, have any duty to disclose or be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to Holdings or any of its Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by such Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity. Each Agent shall be entitled to refrain from any act or the taking of any action (including the failure to take an action) in connection herewith or any of the other Loan Documents or from the exercise of any power, discretion or authority vested in it hereunder or thereunder unless and until such Agent shall have received instructions in respect thereof from Required Lenders (or such other Lenders as may be required to give such instructions under Section 10.05) and, upon receipt of such instructions from Required Lenders (or such other Lenders, as the case may be), such Agent shall be entitled to act or (where so instructed) refrain from acting, or to exercise such power, discretion or authority, in accordance with such instructions and shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose such Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable Law. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, (i) each Agent shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any communication, instrument or document believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed or sent by the proper Person or Persons, and shall be entitled to rely and shall be protected in relying on opinions and judgments of attorneys (who may be attorneys for Holdings and its Restricted Subsidiaries), accountants, experts and other professional advisors selected by it; and (ii) no Lender shall have any right of action whatsoever against any Agent as a result of such Agent acting or (where so instructed) refraining from acting hereunder or any of the other Loan Documents in accordance with the instructions of Required Lenders (or such other Lenders as may be required to give such instructions under Section 10.05).

(c) Delegation of Duties. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers under this Agreement or under any other Loan Document by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by it; provided that (i) no such appointment shall relieve any Agent of its obligations under this Agreement, each of which shall remain unchanged and (ii) each such Agent shall remain solely responsible for the performance of its respective obligations. Each of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Affiliates. The exculpatory, indemnification and other provisions of this Section 9.03 and of Section 9.06 shall apply to any of the Affiliates of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable.

(d) Notice of Default or Event of Default. No Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default unless and until written notice describing such Default or Event of Default is given to such Agent by a Loan Party or a Lender. In the event that the Administrative Agent shall receive such a notice, the Administrative Agent shall give notice thereof to the Lenders, provided that failure to give such notice shall not result in any liability on the part of the Administrative Agent.

Section 9.04 Agents Entitled to Act as Lender

The agency hereby created shall in no way impair or affect any of the rights and powers of, or impose any duties or obligations upon, any Agent in its individual capacity as a Lender hereunder. With respect to its participation in the Loans, each Agent shall have the same rights and powers hereunder in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as if it were not performing the duties and functions delegated to it hereunder, and the term “Lender” shall, unless the context clearly otherwise indicates, include each Agent in its individual capacity. Any Agent and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, own securities of, and generally engage in any kind of banking, trust, financial advisory or other business with Holdings or any of its Affiliates as if it were not performing the duties specified herein, and may accept fees and other consideration from Holdings for services in connection herewith and otherwise without having to account for the same to Lenders. The Lenders acknowledge that pursuant to such activities, the Agents or their Affiliates may receive information regarding any Loan Party or any Affiliate of any Loan Party (including information that may be subject to confidentiality obligations in favor of such Loan Party or such Affiliate) and acknowledge that the Agents and their Affiliates shall be under no obligation to provide such information to them.

Section 9.05 Lenders' Representations, Warranties and Acknowledgment.

(a) Each Lender represents and warrants that it has made its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs of Holdings and its Restricted Subsidiaries in connection with Credit Extensions hereunder and that it has made and shall continue to make its own appraisal of the creditworthiness of Holdings and its Restricted Subsidiaries. No Agent shall have any duty or responsibility, either initially or on a continuing basis, to make any such investigation or any such appraisal on behalf of Lenders or to provide any Lender with any credit or other information with respect thereto, whether coming into its possession before the making of the Loans or at any time or times thereafter, and no Agent shall have any responsibility with respect to the accuracy of or the completeness of any information provided to Lenders.

(b) Each Lender, by delivering its signature page to this Agreement, an Assignment Agreement and funding its Initial Term Loan on the Closing Date or by the funding of the Delayed Draw Term Loan, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have acknowledged receipt of, and consented to and approved, each Loan Document and each other document required to be approved by any Agent, Required Lenders or Lenders, as applicable on the Closing Date or as of the date of funding of the Delayed Draw Term Loan.

Section 9.06 Right to Indemnity

Each Lender, in proportion to its Pro Rata Share, severally agrees to indemnify each Agent to the extent that such Agent shall not have been reimbursed by any Loan Party (and without limiting its obligation to do so), for and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses (including counsel fees and disbursements) or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against such Agent in exercising its powers, rights and remedies or performing its duties hereunder or under the other Loan Documents or otherwise in its capacity as such Agent in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents; provided, that no Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from such Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct, as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. If any indemnity furnished to any Agent for any purpose shall, in the opinion of such Agent, as applicable, be insufficient or become impaired, such Agent, as applicable, may call for additional indemnity and cease, or not commence, to do the acts indemnified against until such additional indemnity is furnished; provided, that in no event shall this sentence require any Lender to indemnify any Agent against any liability, obligation, loss, damage, penalty, action, judgment, suit, cost, expense or disbursement in excess of such Lender's Pro Rata Share thereof; and provided, further, that this sentence shall not be deemed to require any Lender to indemnify any Agent against any liability, obligation, loss, damage, penalty, action, judgment, suit, cost, expense or disbursement described in the proviso in the immediately preceding sentence.

Section 9.07 Successor Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent.

(a) The Administrative Agent shall have the right to resign at any time by giving prior written notice thereof to the Lenders and the Borrower Representative. The Administrative Agent shall have the right to appoint a financial institution to act as the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent hereunder, and the Administrative Agent's resignation shall become effective on the tenth (10^{th}) day after such notice of resignation. Upon any such notice of resignation, if a successor Administrative Agent has not already been appointed by the retiring Administrative Agent, Required Lenders shall have the right (with the Borrowers' prior written consent (so long as no Event of Default is then continuing and which consent shall not be unreasonably conditioned, delayed or withheld)), upon five (5) Business Days' notice, to appoint a successor Administrative Agent. If neither the Required Lenders nor the Administrative Agent have appointed a successor Administrative Agent, then the Required Lenders shall be deemed to have succeeded to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Administrative Agent; provided, that until a successor Administrative Agent is so appointed by Required Lenders or the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent, by notice to the Borrower Representative and Required Lenders, may retain its role as the Collateral Agent under any Security Document. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as the Administrative Agent hereunder by a successor Administrative Agent, that successor Administrative Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Administrative Agent and the retiring Administrative Agent shall promptly (i) transfer to such successor Administrative Agent all sums, Equity Interests, and other items of Collateral held under the Security Documents, together with all records and other documents necessary or appropriate in connection with the performance of the duties of the successor Administrative Agent under the Loan Documents, and (ii) execute and deliver to such successor Administrative Agent such amendments to financing statements, and take such other actions, as may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the assignment to such successor Administrative Agent of the security interests created under the Security Documents, whereupon such retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder. Except as provided above, any resignation of SAI or its successor as the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 9.07(a) shall also constitute the resignation of SAI or its successor as the Collateral Agent. After any retiring Administrative Agent's resignation hereunder as the Administrative Agent, the provisions of this Article IX shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was the Administrative Agent hereunder. Any successor Administrative Agent appointed pursuant to this Section 9.07(a) shall, upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Collateral Agent for all purposes hereunder.

(b) In addition to the foregoing, the Collateral Agent may resign at any time by giving thirty (30) days' prior written notice thereof to Lenders and the Borrower Representative. The Administrative Agent shall have the right to appoint a financial institution as the Collateral Agent hereunder, and the Collateral Agent's resignation shall become effective on the tenth (10^{th}) day after such notice of resignation. Upon any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right (with the Borrowers' prior written consent (so long as no Event of Default is then continuing and which consent shall not be unreasonably conditioned, delayed or withheld)), upon five (5) Business Days' notice to the Administrative Agent, to appoint a successor Collateral Agent. If neither the Required Lenders nor the Collateral Agent have appointed a successor Collateral Agent, then the Required Lenders shall be deemed to have succeeded to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Collateral Agent. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as the Collateral Agent hereunder by a successor Collateral Agent, that the successor Collateral Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Collateral Agent under this Agreement and the Security Documents, and the retiring Collateral Agent under this Agreement shall promptly (i) transfer to such successor Collateral Agent all sums, Equity Interests, and other items of Collateral held hereunder or under the Security Documents, together with all records and other documents necessary or appropriate in connection with the performance of the duties of the successor Collateral Agent under this Agreement and the Security Documents, and (ii) execute and deliver to such successor Collateral Agent or otherwise authorize the filing of such amendments to financing statements, and take such other actions, as may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the assignment to such successor Collateral Agent of the security interests created under the Security Documents, whereupon such retiring Collateral Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations under this Agreement and the Security Documents. After any retiring Collateral Agent's resignation hereunder as the Collateral Agent, the provisions of this Agreement and the Security Documents shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it under this Agreement or the Security Documents while it was the Collateral Agent hereunder.

Section 9.08 Security Documents and Guaranty.

(a) Agents under Security Documents and Guaranty. Each Secured Party hereby further authorizes the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, on behalf of and for the benefit of Secured Parties, to be the agent for and representative of Secured Parties with respect to the Guaranty, the Collateral and the Security Documents; provided, that, except as expressly set forth herein, neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall owe any fiduciary duty, duty of loyalty, duty of care, duty of disclosure or any other obligation whatsoever to any holder of Obligations. Subject to Section 10.05, without further written consent or authorization from any Secured Party, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable may execute any documents or instruments necessary to (i) in connection with a sale or disposition of assets permitted by this Agreement, release any Lien encumbering any item of Collateral that is the subject of such sale or other disposition of assets or to which Required Lenders (or such other Lenders as may be required to give such consent under Section 10.05) have otherwise consented or (ii) release any Guarantor from the Guaranty with respect to which Required Lenders (or such other Lenders as may be required to give such consent under Section 10.05) have otherwise consented.

(b) Right to Realize on Collateral and Enforce Guaranty. Anything contained in any of the Loan Documents to the contrary notwithstanding, the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and each Secured Party hereby agree that (i) no Secured Party shall have any right individually to realize upon any of the Collateral or to enforce the Guaranty, it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies hereunder may be exercised solely by the Administrative Agent, on behalf of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms hereof and all powers, rights and remedies under the Security Documents may be exercised solely by the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties and (ii) in the event of a foreclosure by the Collateral Agent on any of the Collateral pursuant to a public or private sale or other disposition, the Collateral Agent, the Administrative Agent or any Lender may be the purchaser or licensor of any or all of such Collateral at any such sale or other disposition and the Collateral Agent, as agent for and representative of Secured Parties (but not any Lender or Lenders in its or their respective individual capacities unless Required Lenders shall otherwise agree in writing) shall be entitled, for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Collateral sold at any such public sale, to use and apply any of the Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price for any collateral payable by the Collateral Agent at such sale or other disposition.

(c) Release of Collateral and Guarantees, Termination of Loan Documents. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or any other Loan Document, when either (i) all Obligations have been paid in full or (ii) in connection with any disposition, merger, consolidation or other similar action expressly permitted under this Agreement, upon request of the Borrower Representative, the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall (without notice to, or vote or consent of, any Lender) take such actions as shall be required to release its security interest in all (or, in the case of clause (ii), the relevant portion) of the Collateral and, if applicable, to release all guarantee obligations provided for in any Loan Document, to the extent that, after giving effect to any transaction described in clause (ii) above, the security interest in such Collateral and such guaranty would not be required pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Any such release of guarantee obligations shall be deemed subject to the provision that such guarantee obligations shall be reinstated if after such release any portion of any payment in respect of the Obligations guaranteed thereby shall be rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of any Borrower or any Guarantor, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, any Borrower or any Guarantor or any substantial part of its property, or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

Section 9.09 Withholding Taxes

To the extent required by any applicable Law, the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. If the Internal Revenue Service or any other Governmental Authority asserts a claim that the Administrative Agent did not properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender because the appropriate form was not delivered or was not properly executed or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance which rendered the exemption from, or reduction of, withholding Tax ineffective or for any other reason, such Lender shall indemnify the Administrative Agent fully for all amounts paid, directly or indirectly, by the Administrative Agent as Tax or otherwise, including any penalties or interest and together with all expenses (including legal expenses, allocated internal costs and out-of-pocket expenses) incurred.

Section 9.10 Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim

In case of the pendency of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Borrower, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrowers) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise (a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in the determination of the Administrative Agent in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the other Secured Parties (including fees, disbursements and other expenses of counsel) allowed in such judicial proceeding and (b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same. Any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender and other Secured Party to make such payments to the Administrative Agent. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender or other Secured Party any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or other Secured Party to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of such Person or in any such proceeding.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.01 Notices.

(a) Notices Generally. Any notice or other communication herein required or permitted to be given to a Loan Party, the Collateral Agent, and/or the Administrative Agent, shall be sent to such Person's address as set forth on Schedule 1.01(c) or in the other relevant Loan Document, and in the case of any Lender, the address as indicated on Schedule 1.01(c) or otherwise indicated to the Administrative Agent in writing. Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (b) below, each notice hereunder shall be in writing and may be personally served or sent by United States mail or overnight courier service or hand delivery or sent by telecopier and shall be deemed to have been given when (i) delivered in person or by courier service and signed for against receipt thereof or (ii) three (3) Business Days after depositing it in the United States mail with postage prepaid and properly addressed or (iii) when sent if by telecopier (except that if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, then when the recipient is open for business hours on the next Business Day); provided, that any such notice or other communication shall at the reasonable request of the Administrative Agent be provided to any sub-agent appointed pursuant to Section 9.03(c) hereto as designated by the Administrative Agent from time to time.

(b) Electronic Communications.

(i) Notices and other communications to Lenders hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communication (including e-mail and Internet or intranet websites, including the Platform) pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent; provided, that the foregoing shall not apply to notices to any Lender pursuant to Article II if such Lender, as applicable, has notified the Administrative Agent that it is incapable of receiving notices under such Section by electronic communication. The Administrative Agent or the Borrowers may, in their discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it; provided, further, that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications. Unless the Administrative Agent otherwise prescribes, (A) notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement); provided, that if such notice or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient and (B) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (A) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor.

(ii) Each Loan Party understands that the distribution of material through an electronic medium is not necessarily secure and that there are confidentiality and other risks associated with such distribution and agrees and assumes the risks associated with such electronic distribution.

(iii) The Platform and any Approved Electronic Communications are provided "as is" and "as available". None of the Agents nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, advisors or representatives (the "Agent Affiliates") warrant the accuracy, adequacy, or completeness of the Approved Electronic Communications or the Platform and each expressly disclaims liability for errors or omissions in the Platform and the Approved Electronic Communications. No warranty of any kind, express, implied or statutory, including any warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement of third party rights or freedom from viruses or other code defects is made by the Agent Affiliates in connection with the Platform or the Approved Electronic Communications. Each party hereto agrees that no Agent has any responsibility for maintaining or providing any equipment, software, services or any testing required in connection with any Approved Electronic Communication or otherwise required for the Platform. In no event shall any Agent nor any of the Agent Affiliates have any liability to any Loan Party, any Lender or any other Person for (a) indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages, losses or expenses (whether in tort, contract, strict liability or otherwise) arising out of any Loan Party's or any Agent's transmission of communications through the Internet, and (b) direct damages of any kind, whether or not based on strict liability and including damages, losses or expenses (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of any Loan Party's or any Agent's transmission of communications through the Internet, except to the extent the liability of any such Person, with regard to this clause (b), is found in a final ruling by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from such Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(iv) Each Loan Party, each Lender, and each Agent agrees that the Administrative Agent may, but shall not be obligated to, store any Approved Electronic Communications on the Platform in accordance with the Administrative Agent's customary document retention procedures and policies.

(v) All uses of the Platform shall be governed by and subject to, in addition to this Section 10.01, separate terms and conditions posted or referenced in such Platform and related agreements executed by the Lenders and their Affiliates in connection with the use of such Platform.

(vi) Any notice of Default or Event of Default may be provided by telephonic notice if confirmed promptly thereafter by delivery of written notice thereof.

(c) Change of Address. Any party hereto may changes its address or telecopy number for notices and other communications hereunder by written notice to the other parties hereto.

Section 10.02 Expenses

The Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay promptly: (a) all the costs and expenses incurred by the Agents and Lenders in connection with the diligence of the Loan Parties and the negotiation, preparation and execution of the Loan Documents and any consents, amendments, supplements, waivers or other modifications thereto, regardless of whether the same become effective; (b) all the costs of furnishing all opinions by counsel for Borrowers and the other Loan Parties; (c) the reasonable out-of-pocket fees, expenses and disbursements of counsel to Agents in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution and administration of the Loan Documents and any consents, amendments, supplements, waivers or other modifications thereto and any other documents or matters requested by the Borrowers; (d) all the actual out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by the Agents in creating, perfecting, recording, maintaining and preserving Liens in favor of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of Secured Parties, including filing and recording fees, expenses, stamp or documentary Taxes, search fees, and reasonable fees, expenses and disbursements of counsel to each Agent; (e) all of the actual out-of-pocket costs, fees, expenses and disbursements of any Agent's auditors, accountants, consultants or appraisers; (f) all the actual out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Agents (including the reasonable documented out-of-pocket fees, expenses and disbursements of any appraisers, consultants, advisors and agents employed or retained by the Collateral Agent and its counsel) in connection with the custody or preservation of any of the Collateral; (g) all other actual out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by each Agent in connection with Loans and Commitments and the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents and any consents, amendments, supplements, waivers or other modifications thereto; and (h) all out-of-pocket costs and expenses, including reasonable and documented out-of-pocket attorneys' fees and costs of settlement, incurred by any Agent or Lenders in enforcing any Obligations of or in collecting any payments due from any Loan Party hereunder or under the other Loan Documents (including in connection with the sale, lease or license of, collection from, or other realization upon any of the Collateral or the enforcement of the Guaranty) or in connection with any refinancing or restructuring of the credit arrangements provided hereunder in the nature of a "work-out" or pursuant to any insolvency or bankruptcy cases or proceedings. All amounts due under this Section 10.02 shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days after demand therefor with reasonable additional supporting detail to be made available as may be reasonably requested by the Borrower Representative in a scope mutually agreeable as between Borrowers and the Administrative Agent.

Section 10.03 Indemnity.

(a) In addition to the payment of expenses pursuant to Section 10.02, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, each Loan Party agrees to defend (subject to Indemnitees' rights to selection of counsel), indemnify, pay and hold harmless, each Agent, and each Lender and the officers, partners, members, directors, trustees, shareholders, advisors, employees, representatives, attorneys, controlling persons, agents, sub-agents and Affiliates of each Agent, and each Lender, as well as the respective heirs, successors and assigns of the foregoing (each, an "Indemnitee"), from and against any and all Indemnified Liabilities; provided, that no Loan Party shall have any obligation to any Indemnitee hereunder with respect to any Indemnified Liabilities to the extent such Indemnified Liabilities arise from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of any Indemnitee, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment. Without limiting the foregoing, and to the extent permitted by applicable Law, each Loan Party agrees not to assert and hereby waives all rights for contribution or any other rights of recovery with respect to all Indemnified Liabilities relating to or arising out of any Environmental Claim or any Hazardous Materials activity. To the extent that the undertakings to defend, indemnify, pay and hold harmless set forth in this Section 10.03 may be unenforceable in whole or in part because they are violative of any law or public policy, the applicable Loan Party shall contribute the maximum portion that it is permitted to pay and satisfy under applicable Law to the payment and satisfaction of all Indemnified Liabilities incurred by Indemnitees or any of them.

(b) To the extent permitted by applicable Law, no Loan Party shall assert, and each Loan Party hereby waives, any claim against each Agent, and each Lender and their respective Affiliates, officers, partners, members, directors, trustees, shareholders, advisors, employees, representatives, attorneys, controlling persons, agents and sub-agents on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) (whether or not the claim therefor is based on contract, tort or duty imposed by any applicable legal requirement) arising out of, in connection with, as a result of or in any way related to this Agreement or any Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby or referred to herein or therein, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the transmission of information through the Internet, any Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof or any act or omission or event occurring in connection therewith, and each Loan Party hereby waives, releases and agrees not to sue upon or assert any such claim or any such damages, whether or not accrued and whether or not known or suspected to exist in its favor.

(c) All amounts due under this Section 10.03 shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days after demand therefor with reasonable additional supporting detail to be made available as may be reasonably requested by the Borrower in a scope mutually agreeable as between Borrowers and the Administrative Agent.

(d) This Section 10.03 shall not apply to Taxes other than any Taxes that represent Indemnified Liabilities arising from any non-Tax claim.

Section 10.04 Set-Off

In addition to any rights now or hereafter granted under applicable Law and not by way of limitation of any such rights, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of any Event of Default, each Lender is hereby authorized by each Loan Party at any time or from time to time subject to the consent of the Administrative Agent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), without notice to any Loan Party or to any other Person (other than the Administrative Agent), any such notice being hereby expressly waived to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, to set off and to appropriate and to apply any and all deposits (time or demand, provisional or final, general or special, including Indebtedness evidenced by certificates of deposit, whether matured or unmatured, but not including trust accounts) and any other Indebtedness at any time held or owing by such Lender to or for the credit or the account of any Loan Party against and on account of the obligations and liabilities of any Loan Party to such Lender hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, including all claims of any nature or description arising out of or connected hereto or with any other Loan Document, irrespective of whether or not (a) such Lender shall have made any demand hereunder or (b) the principal of or the interest on the Loans or any other amounts due hereunder shall have become due and payable pursuant to Article II and although such obligations and liabilities, or any of them, may be contingent or unmatured.

Section 10.05 Amendments and Waivers.

(a) Administrative Agent's and Required Lenders' Consent. Subject to the additional requirements of Sections 10.05(b) and 10.05(c), no amendment, supplement, modification, termination or waiver of any provision of the Loan Documents, or consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom, shall in any event be effective without the written concurrence of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent and the Loan Parties affected thereby (delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to the applicable amendment, supplement, modification, termination or waiver by facsimile or other electronic transmission will be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart thereof).

(b) Affected Lenders' Consent. Without the written consent of each Lender that would be directly and adversely affected thereby, no amendment, supplement, modification, termination, or consent shall be effective if the effect thereof would:

(i) extend the scheduled final maturity of such Lender's Loan or Note;

(ii) waive, reduce or postpone any scheduled repayment (but not prepayment) of principal due to such Lender;

(iii) reduce the rate of interest on any Loan or any fee or any premium payable hereunder and due to such Lender; provided, that only the consent of the Required Lenders shall be necessary to waive the imposition of the Default Rate in Section 2.07;

(iv) waive or extend the time for payment of any interest, fees or premiums due to such Lender;

(v) reduce or forgive the principal amount of any Loan due to such Lender;

(vi) change or have the effect of changing the priority or pro rata treatment of any payments (including voluntary and mandatory prepayments), Liens, or proceeds of Collateral (including as a result in whole or in part of allowing the issuance or incurrence, pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, of new loans or other Indebtedness permitted hereunder having any priority over any of the Obligations in respect of payments, Liens, Collateral or proceeds of Collateral, in exchange for any Obligations or otherwise) or otherwise amend, modify, terminate or waive any provision of Section 2.13(f), 2.14, 4.18, 4.25, 6.15, 10.05 or 10.06 (as it relates to assignments to other Lenders and Affiliates) or any other provision of this Agreement that expressly provides that the consent of all Lenders is required;

(vii) amend the definition of "Eligible Assignee" or amend the definition of "Required Lenders" or the definition of "Pro Rata Share"; provided that with the consent of Required Lenders, additional extensions of credit pursuant hereto may be included in the determination of "Required Lenders" or "Pro Rata Share" on substantially the same basis as the Term Loan Commitments, the Term Loans, the Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments and the Delayed Draw Term Loan are included on the Closing Date;

(viii) (a) release all or substantially all of the Collateral or all or substantially all of the Guarantors from the Guaranty or (b) subordinate the Lien of the Collateral Agent on all or substantially all the Collateral or subordinate any Guaranty of the Guarantors, except in each case as expressly provided in the Loan Documents; or

(ix) consent to the assignment or transfer by any Loan Party of any of its rights and obligations under any Loan Document except as expressly provided in any Loan Document; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, all Lenders shall be deemed directly and adversely affected thereby with respect to any amendment described in clauses (vi), (vii), (viii) and (ix).

(c) Other Consents. No amendment, modification, termination or waiver of any provision of the Loan Documents, or consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom, shall:

(i) increase any Commitment of any Lender over the amount thereof then in effect without the consent of such Lender; provided that no amendment, modification or waiver of any condition precedent, covenant, Default or Event of Default shall be deemed to constitute an increase in any Commitment of any Lender;

(ii) alter the required application of any repayments or prepayments as among Classes pursuant to Section 2.12 or 2.13 without the consent of Lenders holding more than [] percent ([]%) of the aggregate Initial Term Loan Exposure of all Lenders or Delayed Draw Term Loan Exposure of all Lenders, as applicable, of each Class which is being allocated a lesser repayment or prepayment as a result thereof; provided, that Required Lenders may waive, in whole or in part, any prepayment so long as the application, as among Classes, of any portion of such prepayment which is still required to be made is not altered;

(iii) amend, modify or waive this Agreement or the Pledge and Security Agreement so as to alter the treatment of Obligations arising under the Loan Documents or the definition of "Obligations," or "Secured Obligations" (as defined in any applicable Security Document) in each case in a manner adverse to any Lender with Obligations then outstanding without the written consent of any such Lender or release all or substantially all of the Collateral or all or substantially all of the Guarantors from the Guaranty except as expressly provided in the Loan Documents without the written consent of each Lender with Obligations then outstanding; or

(iv) amend, modify, terminate or waive any provision of Article IX as the same applies to any Agent, or any other provision hereof as the same applies to the rights or obligations of any Agent, in each case without the consent of such Agent.

(d) Execution of Amendments, Etc. The Administrative Agent may, but shall have no obligation to, with the concurrence of any Lender, execute amendments, supplements, modifications, waivers or consents on behalf of such Lender. Any waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it was given. In the case of any waiver, the parties hereto shall be restored to their former position and rights hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, and any Default or Event of Default waived shall be deemed to be cured and not continuing, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or Event of Default, or impair any right consequent thereon. No notice to or demand on any Loan Party in any case shall entitle any Loan Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances. Any amendment, modification, termination, waiver or consent effected in accordance with this Section 10.05 shall be binding upon each Lender at the time outstanding, each future Lender and, if signed by a Loan Party, on such Loan Party.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Administrative Agent is authorized by the Lenders to enter into amendments to this Agreement or any other Loan Document, with the prior written consent of the Borrowers only, for the purpose of curing any typographical error, incorrect cross-reference, defect in form, inconsistency, omission or ambiguity in this Agreement or any other Loan Document to which it is a party (without any consent or approval by the Lenders).

Section 10.06 Successors and Assigns; Participations.

(a) Generally. This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and the successors and permitted assigns of Lenders (and any purported assignment or delegation without such consent shall be null and void). No Loan Party's rights or obligations hereunder nor any interest therein may be assigned or delegated by any Loan Party without the prior written consent of all Lenders (and any purported assignment or delegation without such consent shall be null and void).

(b) Register. The Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and Lenders shall deem and treat the Persons listed as Lenders in the Register as the holders and owners of the corresponding Commitments and Loans listed therein for all purposes hereof, and no assignment or transfer of any such Commitment or Loan shall be effective, in each case, unless and until recorded in the Register following receipt of a fully executed Assignment Agreement effecting the assignment or transfer thereof, together with the required forms and certificates regarding Tax matters and any fees payable in connection with such assignment, in each case, as provided in Section 10.06(d). Each assignment shall be recorded in the Register promptly following receipt by the Administrative Agent of the fully executed Assignment Agreement and all other necessary documents and approvals, prompt notice thereof shall be provided to the Borrowers and a copy of such Assignment Agreement shall be maintained, as applicable. The date of such recordation of a transfer shall be referred to herein as the "Assignment Effective Date". Any request, authority or consent of any Person who, at the time of making such request or giving such authority or consent, is listed in the Register as a Lender shall be conclusive and binding on any subsequent holder, assignee or transferee of the corresponding Commitments or Loans.

(c) Right to Assign. Each Lender shall have the right at any time to sell, assign or transfer all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement, including all or a portion of its Commitment or Loans owing to it or other Obligations to any Person meeting the criteria of the term of "Eligible Assignee".

(d) Mechanics. Assignments and assumptions of Loans and Commitments by Lenders shall be effected by manual execution and delivery to the Administrative Agent of an Assignment Agreement. Assignments made pursuant to the foregoing provision shall be effective as of the Assignment Effective Date. In connection with all assignments there shall be delivered to the Administrative Agent such forms, certificates or other evidence, if any, with respect to United States federal Income Tax withholding matters as the assignee under such Assignment Agreement may be required to deliver pursuant to Section 2.16(b) including all documentation and other information required by regulatory authorities under applicable "know-your-customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including, without limitation, the USA PATRIOT Act, together with Organizational Documents and payment to the Administrative Agent of a registration and processing fee of $3,500 (except that no such registration and processing fee shall be payable (y) in connection with an assignment by or to SAI or any Affiliate thereof or (z) in the case of an Eligible Assignee which is already a Lender or is an Affiliate or Related Fund of a Lender or a Person under common management with a Lender).

(e) Representations and Warranties of Assignee. Each Lender, upon execution and delivery hereof or upon succeeding to an interest in the Commitments and Loans, as the case may be, represents and warrants as of the Closing Date or as of the Assignment Effective Date that (i) it is an Eligible Assignee; (ii) it has experience and expertise in the making of or investing in commitments or loans such as the applicable Commitments or Loans, as the case may be; and (iii) it shall make or invest in, as the case may be, its Commitments or Loans for its own account in the ordinary course and without a view to distribution of such Commitments or Loans within the meaning of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act or other federal securities laws (it being understood that, subject to the provisions of this Section 10.06, the disposition of such Commitments or Loans or any interests therein shall at all times remain within its exclusive control).

(f) Effect of Assignment. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 10.06, as of the Assignment Effective Date (i) the assignee thereunder shall have the rights and obligations of a "Lender" hereunder to the extent of its interest in the Loans and Commitments as reflected in the Register and shall thereafter be a party hereto and a "Lender" for all purposes hereof; (ii) the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent that rights and obligations hereunder have been assigned to the assignee, relinquish its rights (other than any rights which survive the termination hereof, including under Section 10.08) and be released from its obligations hereunder (and, in the case of an assignment covering all or the remaining portion of an assigning Lender's rights and obligations hereunder, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto on the Assignment Effective Date; provided, that anything contained in any of the Loan Documents to the contrary notwithstanding, such assigning Lender shall continue to be entitled to the benefit of all indemnities hereunder as specified herein with respect to matters arising out of the prior involvement of such assigning Lender as a Lender hereunder); (iii) the Commitments shall be modified to reflect any Commitment of such assignee and any Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitment of such assigning Lender, if any; and (iv) if any such assignment occurs after the issuance of any Note hereunder, the assigning Lender shall, upon the effectiveness of such assignment or as promptly thereafter as practicable, surrender its applicable Notes to the Administrative Agent for cancellation, and thereupon the Borrowers shall issue and deliver new Notes, if so requested by the assignee and/or assigning Lender, to such assignee and/or to such assigning Lender, with appropriate insertions, to reflect the new Delayed Draw Term Loan Commitments and/or outstanding Loans of the assignee and/or the assigning Lender. Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply the requirements of this Section 10.06 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with Section 10.06(g). Any assignment by a Lender pursuant to this Section 10.06 shall not in any way constitute or be deemed to constitute a novation, discharge, rescission, extinguishment or substitution of the Indebtedness hereunder, and any Indebtedness so assigned shall continue to be the same obligation and not a new obligation.

(g) Participations.

(i) Each Lender shall have the right at any time to sell one or more participations to any Person (other than Holdings, any of its Subsidiaries or any of its Affiliates) in all or any part of its Commitments, Loans or in any other Obligation; provided that (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (iii) Holdings, the Administrative Agent, and the Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement.

(ii) Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the holder of such participation, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver that would (A) extend the final scheduled maturity of any Loan or Note in which such participant is participating, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest or fees thereon (except in connection with a waiver of applicability of any post-default increase in interest rates) or reduce the principal amount thereof, or increase the amount of the participant's participation over the amount thereof then in effect (it being understood that a waiver of any Default or Event of Default or of a mandatory reduction in the Commitment shall not constitute a change in the terms of such participation, and that an increase in any Commitment or Loan shall be permitted without the consent of any participant if the participant's participation is not increased as a result thereof), (B) consent to the assignment or transfer by any Loan Party of any of its rights and obligations under this Agreement, (C) amend the definition of "Required Lenders" (or amend Section 10.05(a) in a manner that has the same effect as an amendment to such definition) or the definition of "Pro Rata Share" or (D) release all or substantially all of the Guarantors or the Collateral under the Security Documents (except as expressly provided in the Loan Documents) supporting the Loans hereunder in which such participant is participating.

(iii) The Borrowers agree that each participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.15 and 2.16 to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to paragraph (c) of this Section; provided, that (x) a participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.15 or 2.16 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such participant, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a change in Law that occurs after the participant acquired the applicable participation or unless the sale of the participation is made with the Borrowers' prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and (y) a participant that would be a non-United States. lender if it were a Lender shall not be entitled to the benefits of Section 2.16 unless the Borrowers are notified of the participation sold to such participant and such participant agrees, for the benefit of the Borrowers, to comply with Sections 2.16 as though it were a Lender; provided, further, that, except as specifically set forth in clauses (x) and (y) of this sentence, nothing herein shall require any notice to the Borrowers or any other Person in connection with the sale of any participation. To the extent permitted by law, each participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 10.04 as though it were a Lender; provided, that such participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.14 as though it were a Lender.

(iv) Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each participant's interest in the Commitments, Loans and other Obligations held by it (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any participant or any information relating to a participant's interest in any Commitments, Loans and other Obligations) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such commitment, loan, letter of credit or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such Commitments, Loans and other Obligations as the owner thereof for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. Any such Participant Register shall be available for inspection by any Agent at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice. For the avoidance of doubt, neither Agent (in its capacity as an Agent) shall have any responsibility for maintaining a Participant Register.

(h) Certain Other Assignments and Participations. In addition to any other assignment or participation permitted pursuant to this Section 10.06 any Lender may assign and/or pledge (without the consent of the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent) all or any portion of its Loans, the other Obligations owed by or to such Lender, and its Notes, if any, to secure obligations of such Lender to any Person, including any Federal Reserve Bank, as collateral security pursuant to Regulation A of the Board of Governors and any offering circular issued by such Federal Reserve Bank or otherwise; provided, that no Lender, as between any Borrower and such Lender, shall be relieved of any of its obligations hereunder as a result of any such assignment and pledge; provided, further, that in no event shall the applicable Federal Reserve Bank, pledgee or trustee, be considered to be a "Lender" or be entitled to require the assigning Lender to take or omit to take any action hereunder.

Section 10.07 Independence of Covenants, Etc

All covenants, conditions and other terms hereunder and under the other Loan Documents shall be given independent effect so that if a particular action or condition is not permitted by any of such covenants, conditions or other terms, the fact that it would be permitted by an exception to, or would otherwise be within the limitations of, another covenant, condition or other term shall not avoid the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default if such action is taken or condition exists.

Section 10.08 Survival of Representations, Warranties and Agreements

All representations, warranties and agreements made herein shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and the making of any Credit Extension, but shall be limited in application to the date made (or deemed made). Notwithstanding anything herein or implied by law to the contrary, the agreements of each Loan Party set forth in Sections 2.15, 2.16, 10.02, 10.03, 10.04 and 10.10 and the agreements of Lenders set forth in Sections 2.14, 9.03(b) and 9.06 shall survive the payment of the Loans and the termination hereof.

Section 10.09 No Waiver; Remedies Cumulative

No failure or delay or course of dealing on the part of any Agent or any Lender in the exercise of any power, right or privilege hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall impair such power, right or privilege or be construed to be a waiver of any default or acquiescence therein, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such power, right or privilege preclude other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right or privilege. The rights, powers and remedies given to each Agent and each Lender hereby are cumulative and shall be in addition to and independent of all rights, powers and remedies existing by virtue of any statute or rule of law or in any of the other Loan Documents. Any forbearance or failure to exercise, and any delay in exercising, any right, power or remedy hereunder shall not impair any such right, power or remedy or be construed to be a waiver thereof, nor shall it preclude the further exercise of any such right, power or remedy. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the making of any Credit Extension shall not be construed as a waiver of any Default or Event of Default, regardless of whether any Agent or Lender may have had notice or knowledge of such Default or Event of Default at the time of the making of any such Credit Extension.

Section 10.10 Marshalling; Payments Set Aside

Neither any Agent nor any Lender shall be under any obligation to marshal any assets in favor of any Loan Party or any other Person or against or in payment of any or all of the Obligations. To the extent that any Loan Party makes a payment or payments to the Administrative Agent or Lenders (or to the Administrative Agent, on behalf of Lenders), or any Agent or Lenders enforce any security interests or exercise their rights of setoff, and such payment or payments or the proceeds of such enforcement or setoff or any part thereof are subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside and/or required to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party under any bankruptcy law, any other state or federal law, common law or any equitable cause, then, to the extent of such recovery, the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied, and all Liens, rights and remedies therefor or related thereto, shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment or payments had not been made or such enforcement or setoff had not occurred.

Section 10.11 Severability

In case any provision in or obligation hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions or obligations, or of such provision or obligation in any other jurisdiction, shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby (it being understood that the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not in and of itself affect the validity, legality or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction). The parties hereto shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace any invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid, legal and enforceable provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as reasonably possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

Section 10.12 Obligations Several; Independent Nature of Lenders' Rights

The obligations of Lenders hereunder are several and no Lender shall be responsible for the obligations or Commitment of any other Lender hereunder. Nothing contained herein or in any other Loan Document, and no action taken by Lenders pursuant hereto or thereto, shall be deemed to constitute Lenders as a partnership, an association, a joint venture or any other kind of entity.

Section 10.13 Table of Contents and Headings

The Table of Contents hereof and Article and Section headings herein are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part hereof for any other purpose, modify or amend the terms or conditions hereof, be used in connection with the interpretation of any term or condition hereof or be given any substantive effect.

Section 10.14 APPLICABLE LAW

THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICT OF LAW PRINCIPLES THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF ANY LAW OTHER THAN THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

Section 10.15 CONSENT TO JURISDICTION

SUBJECT TO CLAUSE (E) OF THE FOLLOWING SENTENCE, ALL JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS BROUGHT AGAINST ANY PARTY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING HERETO OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT, OR ANY OF THE OBLIGATIONS, SHALL BE BROUGHT IN ANY STATE OR FEDERAL COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION IN THE STATE, COUNTY AND CITY OF NEW YORK. BY EXECUTING AND DELIVERING THIS AGREEMENT, EACH LOAN PARTY, FOR ITSELF AND IN CONNECTION WITH ITS PROPERTIES, HEREBY EXPRESSLY AND IRREVOCABLY (A) ACCEPTS GENERALLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION AND VENUE OF SUCH COURTS (OTHER THAN WITH RESPECT TO ACTIONS BY ANY AGENT IN RESPECT OF RIGHTS UNDER ANY SECURITY AGREEMENT GOVERNED BY A LAWS OTHER THAN THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR WITH RESPECT TO ANY COLLATERAL SUBJECT THERETO); (B) WAIVES (I) JURISDICTION AND VENUE OF COURTS IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION IN WHICH IT MAY BE ENTITLED TO BRING SUIT BY REASON OF ITS PRESENT OR FUTURE DOMICILE OR OTHERWISE AND (II) ANY DEFENSE OF FORUM NON CONVENIENS; (C) AGREES THAT SERVICE OF ALL PROCESS IN ANY SUCH PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT MAY BE MADE BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL, RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED, TO THE APPLICABLE LOAN PARTY AT ITS ADDRESS PROVIDED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 10.01; (D) AGREES THAT SERVICE AS PROVIDED IN CLAUSE (C) ABOVE IS SUFFICIENT TO CONFER PERSONAL JURISDICTION OVER THE APPLICABLE LOAN PARTY IN ANY SUCH PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT, AND OTHERWISE CONSTITUTES EFFECTIVE AND BINDING SERVICE IN EVERY RESPECT; AND (E) AGREES THAT THE AGENTS AND THE LENDERS RETAIN THE RIGHT TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR TO BRING PROCEEDINGS AGAINST ANY LOAN PARTY IN THE COURTS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION IN CONNECTION WITH THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS UNDER ANY SECURITY DOCUMENT OR THE ENFORCEMENT OF ANY JUDGMENT.

Section 10.16 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL, FEDERAL ILLEGALITY DEFENSE.

EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY AGREES TO WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ITS RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO A JURY TRIAL OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING HEREUNDER OR UNDER ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS OR ANY DEALINGS BETWEEN THEM RELATING TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS LOAN TRANSACTION OR THE LENDER/BORROWER RELATIONSHIP THAT IS BEING ESTABLISHED. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE ALL-ENCOMPASSING OF ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY BE FILED IN ANY COURT AND THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS TRANSACTION, INCLUDING CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS, BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THIS WAIVER IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT TO ENTER INTO A BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP, THAT EACH HAS ALREADY RELIED ON THIS WAIVER IN ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT, AND THAT EACH WILL CONTINUE TO RELY ON THIS WAIVER IN ITS RELATED FUTURE DEALINGS. EACH PARTY HERETO FURTHER WARRANTS AND REPRESENTS THAT IT HAS REVIEWED THIS WAIVER WITH ITS LEGAL COUNSEL AND THAT IT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES ITS JURY TRIAL RIGHTS FOLLOWING CONSULTATION WITH LEGAL COUNSEL. THIS WAIVER IS IRREVOCABLE, MEANING THAT IT MAY NOT BE MODIFIED EITHER ORALLY OR IN WRITING (OTHER THAN BY A MUTUAL WRITTEN WAIVER SPECIFICALLY REFERRING TO THIS SECTION 10.16 AND EXECUTED BY EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO), AND THIS WAIVER WILL APPLY TO ANY SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENTS, RENEWALS, SUPPLEMENTS OR MODIFICATIONS HERETO OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS OR TO ANY OTHER DOCUMENTS OR AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE LOANS MADE HEREUNDER. IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, THIS AGREEMENT MAY BE FILED AS A WRITTEN CONSENT TO A TRIAL BY THE COURT.

THE CULTIVATION, PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION OF MARIJUANA IS ILLEGAL UNDER FEDERAL LAW. EACH PARTY AGREES THAT THE INVALIDITY FOR PUBLIC POLICY REASONS AND/OR THE VIOLATION OF FEDERAL MARIJUANA LAWS OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IS NOT A VALID DEFENSE TO ANY DISPUTE OR CLAIM ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN

DOCUMENT. EACH PARTY EXPRESSLY WAIVES THE RIGHT TO PRESENT ANY DEFENSE RELATED TO

THE FEDERAL ILLEGALITY OF MARIJUANA AND AGREES THAT SUCH DEFENSE SHALL NOT BE ASSERTED, AND WILL NOT APPLY, IN ANY DISPUTE OR CLAIM ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT.

Section 10.17 Confidentiality

Each Agent and each Lender shall hold all Information (as defined below) in accordance with such Agent's and such Lender's customary procedures for handling confidential information of such nature, it being understood and agreed by the Borrowers that, in any event, the Administrative Agent and each Lender may disclose such information to the Lenders and each Agent, and each Lender may make (i) disclosures of such information to Affiliates or Related Funds of such Lender or Agent and to their respective officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents, auditors and advisors (and to other Persons authorized by a Lender or Agent to organize, present or disseminate such information in connection with disclosures otherwise made in accordance with this Section 10.17), (ii) disclosures of such information reasonably required by (A) any pledgee referred to in Section 10.06(h), (B) any bona fide or potential assignee, transferee or participant in connection with the contemplated assignment, transfer or participation of any Loans or any participations therein who is not a Disqualified Institution (unless an Event of Default has occurred or is continuing), or (C) any direct or indirect investor or prospective investor in a Related Fund who is not Disqualified Institution (unless an Event of Default has occurred or is continuing); provided, that such pledgees, assignees, transferees, participants, counterparties, advisors and investors are advised of and, except in the case of advisors, agree to be bound by either the provisions of this Section 10.17 or other provisions at least as restrictive as this Section 10.17, (iii) disclosures in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or under any other Loan Document and (iv) disclosures required or requested by any governmental agency or representative thereof or by the NAIC or pursuant to legal or judicial process; provided, that unless specifically prohibited by applicable Law or court order, each Lender and each Agent shall make reasonable efforts to notify the Borrowers of any request by any governmental agency or representative thereof (other than any such request in connection with any examination of the financial condition or other routine examination of such Lender by such governmental agency) for disclosure of any such Non-Public Information prior to disclosure of such Information. "Information" as used herein means any confidential information provided to any Agent, any Lender or any of their respective Affiliates or Related Funds by any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, advisors, agents or representatives pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, but excludes any such information that presently is or hereafter becomes (1) publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section 10.17 or (2) available to or in the possession of any Lender, Agent or any of their respective Affiliates or Related Funds, as the case may be, from a source (other than any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, advisors, agents or representatives) not known by them to be subject to disclosure restrictions. In addition, each Agent, and each Lender may disclose the existence of this Agreement to market data collectors, similar services providers to the lending industry, and service providers to the Agents, and the Lenders in connection with the administration and management of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, as well as in any tombstone or other advertising or marketing materials or, to the extent necessary or customary, for inclusion in league table rankings, in each case, without disclosing any financial or economic information. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, each party (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all persons without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all materials of any kind (including opinions and other tax analyses) that are provided to any such party relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. However, any information relating to the tax treatment or tax structure shall remain subject to the confidentiality provisions hereof (and the foregoing sentence shall not apply) to the extent reasonably necessary to enable the parties hereto, their respective Affiliates, and their and their respective Affiliates' directors and employees to comply with applicable securities laws. For this purpose, "tax structure" means any facts relevant to the federal Income Tax treatment of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement but does not include information relating to the identity of any of the parties hereto or any of their respective Affiliates.

Section 10.18 Usury Savings Clause

Notwithstanding any other provision herein, the aggregate interest rate charged with respect to any of the Obligations, including all charges or fees in connection therewith deemed in the nature of interest under applicable Law, shall not exceed the Highest Lawful Rate. If the rate of interest (determined without regard to the preceding sentence) under this Agreement at any time exceeds the Highest Lawful Rate, the outstanding amount of the Loans made hereunder shall bear interest at the Highest Lawful Rate until the total amount of interest due hereunder equals the amount of interest which would have been due hereunder if the stated rates of interest set forth in this Agreement had at all times been in effect. In addition, if when the Loans made hereunder are repaid in full the total interest due hereunder (taking into account the increase provided for above) is less than the total amount of interest which would have been due hereunder if the stated rates of interest set forth in this Agreement had at all times been in effect, then to the extent permitted by law, the Borrowers shall pay to the Administrative Agent an amount equal to the difference between the amount of interest paid and the amount of interest which would have been paid if the Highest Lawful Rate had at all times been in effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is the intention of Lenders and the Borrowers to conform strictly to any applicable usury laws. Accordingly, if any Lender contracts for, charges, or receives any consideration which constitutes interest in excess of the Highest Lawful Rate, then any such excess shall be cancelled automatically and, if previously paid, shall at such Lender's option be applied to the outstanding amount of the Loans made hereunder or be refunded to the Borrowers.

Section 10.19 Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission will be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart thereof.

Section 10.20 Effectiveness; Entire Agreement; No Third Party Beneficiaries

This Agreement shall become effective upon the execution of a counterpart hereof by each of the parties hereto and receipt by Borrowers and the Administrative Agent of written notification of such execution and authorization of delivery thereof. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents represent the entire agreement of Holdings and its Restricted Subsidiaries, the Agents, and the Lenders with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and there are no promises, undertakings, representations or warranties by any Agent or Lender relative to the subject matter hereof or thereof not expressly set forth or referred to herein or in the other Loan Documents. Nothing in this Agreement or in the other Loan Documents, express or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto and thereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereunder and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, Affiliates of each of the Agents and Lenders, holders of participations in all or any part of a Lender's Commitments, Loans or in any other Obligations, and the Indemnitees) any rights, remedies, obligations, claims or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and those of any other Loan Document, the provisions of this Agreement shall control; provided that the inclusion of supplemental rights or remedies in favor of any Agent or any Lender in any other Loan Document shall not be deemed a conflict with this Agreement.

Section 10.21 PATRIOT Act

Each Lender and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies each Loan Party that pursuant to the requirements of the PATRIOT Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each Loan Party, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that shall allow such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to identify such Loan Party in accordance with the PATRIOT Act.

Section 10.22 Electronic Execution of Assignments

The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in any Assignment Agreement shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable Law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

Section 10.23 No Fiduciary Duty

Each Agent, each Lender, and their respective Affiliates (collectively, solely for purposes of this paragraph, the "Lenders"), may have economic interests that conflict with those of the Borrowers, their stockholders and/or their Affiliates. The Borrowers agree that nothing in the Loan Documents or otherwise will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship or fiduciary or other implied duty between any Lender, on the one hand, and the Borrowers, their stockholders or their Affiliates, on the other. The Loan Parties acknowledge and agree that (i) the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents (including the exercise of rights and remedies hereunder and thereunder) are arm's-length commercial transactions between the Lenders, on the one hand, and the Borrowers, on the other, and (ii) in connection therewith and with the process leading thereto, (x) no Lender has assumed an advisory or fiduciary responsibility in favor of the Borrowers, their stockholders or their Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby (or the exercise of rights or remedies with respect thereto) or the process leading thereto (irrespective of whether any Lender has advised, is currently advising or will advise the Borrowers, their stockholders or their Affiliates on other matters) or any other obligation to the Borrowers except the obligations expressly set forth in the Loan Documents and (y) each Lender is acting solely as principal and not as the agent or fiduciary of the Borrowers, their management, stockholders, creditors or any other Person. The Borrowers acknowledge and agree that such Borrower has consulted its own legal and financial advisors to the extent it deemed appropriate and that it is responsible for making its own independent judgment with respect to such transactions and the process leading thereto. The Borrowers agree that it will not claim that any Lender has rendered advisory services of any nature or respect, or owes a fiduciary or similar duty to such Borrower, in connection with such transaction or the process leading thereto.

Section 10.24 Borrower Representative

Each Borrower hereby irrevocably appoints Ascend ILH as the borrowing agent and attorney-in-fact for all Borrowers (the "Borrower Representative"), which appointment shall remain in full force and effect unless and until the Administrative Agent shall have received prior written notice signed by each Borrower that such appointment has been revoked and that another Borrower has been appointed the Borrower Representative. Each Borrower hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Borrower Representative (i) to provide the Administrative Agent with all notices with respect to the Loans obtained for the benefit of any Borrower and all other notices and instructions under this Agreement and (ii) to take such action as the Borrower Representative deems appropriate on its behalf to obtain the Loans and to exercise such other powers as are incidental thereto to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

(d) each of the representations and warranties set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents shall be (x) true and correct in all material respects on and as of the date hereof to the same extent as though made on and as of that date, except to the extent such representations and warranties specifically relate to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall have been true and correct in all material respects on and as of such earlier date; provided, that to the extent any such representation or warranty is already qualified by materiality or material adverse effect, such representation or warranty shall be true and correct in all respects or (y) would not be true and correct due solely to the existence of the Designated Events of Default;

(e) this Amendment has been duly executed and delivered by each Loan Party that is a party thereto and is the legally valid and binding obligation of such Loan Party, enforceable against such Loan Party in accordance with its respective terms, except as may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally or by equitable principles relating to enforceability; and

(b) Each Notice of Borrowing pursuant to this Section 2.02 shall be irrevocable and the Borrower shall be bound to make a borrowing in accordance therewith.

Section 2.03 Repayment of Loans; Evidence of Debt; Late Payment Charge. (a) The outstanding principal of all Term Loans shall be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date or, if earlier, on the date on which they are declared due and payable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

(e) The entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to Section 2.03(c) or Section 2.03(d) shall be prima facie evidence of the existence and amounts of the obligations recorded therein; provided that (i) the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligation of the Borrower to repay the Loans in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and (ii) in the event of any conflict between the entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to Section 2.03(c) and the accounts maintained pursuant to Section 2.03(d), the accounts maintained pursuant to Section 2.03(d) shall govern and control.

(f) Any Lender may request that Loans made by it be evidenced by a promissory note. In such event, the Borrower shall execute and deliver to such Lender a promissory note payable to such Lender (or, if requested by such Lender, to such Lender and its registered assigns) in a form furnished by the Collateral Agent and reasonably acceptable to the Borrower. Thereafter, the Loans evidenced by such promissory note and interest thereon shall at all times (including after assignment pursuant to Section 12.07) be represented by one or more promissory notes in such form payable to the payee named therein (or, if such promissory note is a registered note, to such payee and its registered assigns).

To the extent permitted by law and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section, upon notice from the Administrative Agent after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the principal of, and all accrued and overdue interest on, all Loans, and overdue fees, indemnities or any other Obligations of the Loan Parties under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, shall bear interest, from the date of such notice (or from the date such Event of Default occurred, if elected by the Administrative Agent) until the date such Event of Default is cured or waived in writing in accordance herewith, at a rate per annum equal at all times to the Post-Default Rate.

(c) Interest Payment. Interest on each Loan shall be payable quarterly, in arrears, on the first day of each Fiscal Quarter, commencing with the first day of the Fiscal Quarter following the Fiscal Quarter in which such Loan is made, and at maturity (whether upon demand, by acceleration or otherwise. Interest at the Post-Default Rate shall be payable on demand. The Borrower hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to, and the Administrative Agent may, from time to time, charge the Loan Account pursuant to Section 4.01 with the amount of any interest payment due hereunder.

(d) General. All interest shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days for the actual number of days, including the first day but excluding the last day, elapsed.

Section 2.05 Reduction of Commitment; Prepayment of Loans.

(a) Reduction of Commitments. The Term Loan Commitment shall terminate at 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Effective Date.

(b) Optional Prepayment.

(i) [Reserved].

(ii) Term Loan. The Borrower may, at any time after the first anniversary of the Effective Date and from time to time thereafter, upon at least five (5) Business Days prior written notice to the Administrative Agent, prepay the principal of the Term Loan, in whole or in part. No optional prepayment may be made pursuant to this Section 2.05(b)(ii) prior to the first anniversary of the Effective Date; provided that in the event any such optional prepayment is made with the consent of the Administrative Agent, such prepayment shall be accompanied by the payment of (A) accrued interest to the date of such payment on the amount prepaid and (B) the Applicable Premium payable in connection with such prepayment of the Term Loan. Each such prepayment shall be applied against the remaining installments of principal due on the Term Loan in the inverse order of maturity.

(iii) Termination of Agreement. The Borrower may, upon at least 10 (ten) Business Days' prior written notice to the Administrative Agent, terminate this Agreement by paying to the Administrative Agent, in cash, the Obligations in full, plus the Applicable Premium payable in connection with such termination of this Agreement. If the Borrower has sent a notice of termination pursuant to this Section 2.05(b)(iii), then the Borrower shall be obligated to repay the Obligations, in full, plus the Applicable Premium payable in connection with such termination of this Agreement on the date set forth as the date of termination of this Agreement in such notice.

(c) Mandatory Prepayment.

(i) On the third Business Day after the delivery to the Agents and the Lenders of audited annual financial statements pursuant to Section 7.01(a)(iii), commencing with the delivery to the Agents and the Lenders of the financial statements for the Fiscal Year ended December 31, 2022 or, if such financial statements are not delivered to the Agents and the Lenders on the date such statements are required to be delivered pursuant to Section 7.01(a)(iii), on the third Business Day after the date such statements are required to be delivered to the Agents and the Lenders pursuant to Section 7.01(a)(iii), the Borrower shall prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Loans in accordance with Section 2.05(d) in an amount equal to the excess of []% of the Excess Cash Flow of the Parent and its Subsidiaries for such Fiscal Year over voluntary prepayments of the Term Loan made since the date the audited annual financial statements were required to be delivered pursuant to Section 7.01(a)(iii) for the previous Fiscal Year.

(ii) Within three Business Days after any Disposition (excluding Dispositions which qualify as Permitted Dispositions under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) or (g) of the definition of Permitted Disposition) by any Loan Party or its Subsidiaries, the Borrower shall prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Loans in accordance with Section 2.05(d) in an amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds received by such Person in connection with such Disposition to the extent that the aggregate amount of Net Cash Proceeds received by all Loan Parties and their Subsidiaries (and not paid to the Administrative Agent as a prepayment of the Loans) shall exceed for all such Dispositions $[] in any Fiscal Year. Nothing contained in this Section 2.05(c)(ii) shall permit any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries to make a Disposition of any property other than in accordance with Section 7.02(c)(ii)

(iii) Upon the issuance or incurrence by any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries of any Indebtedness (other than Permitted Indebtedness), the Borrower shall prepay the outstanding amount of the Loans in accordance with Section 2.05(d) in an amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds received by such Person in connection therewith. The provisions of this Section 2.05(c)(iii) shall not be deemed to be implied consent to any such issuance, incurrence or sale otherwise prohibited by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(iv) Within three Business Days after the receipt by any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries of any Extraordinary Receipts, the Borrower shall prepay the outstanding principal of the Loans in accordance with Section 2.05(d) in an amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds received by such Person in connection therewith.

(v) [Reserved].

(vi) Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to Net Cash Proceeds received by any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with a Disposition or the receipt of Extraordinary Receipts consisting of insurance proceeds or condemnation awards that are required to be used to prepay the Obligations pursuant to Section 2.05(c)(ii) or Section 2.05(c)(iv), as the case may be, the Net Cash Proceeds from all such Dispositions and Extraordinary Receipts shall not be required to be so used to prepay the Obligations to the extent that such Net Cash Proceeds are used to replace, repair or restore properties or assets (other than current assets) used in such Person's business, provided that, (A) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the date such Person receives such Net Cash Proceeds, (B) the Borrower delivers a certificate to the Administrative Agent within 5 days after such Disposition or loss, destruction or taking, as the case may be, stating that such Net Cash Proceeds shall be used to replace, repair or restore properties or assets used in such Person's business within a period specified in such certificate not to exceed 365 days after the date of receipt of such Net Cash Proceeds (which certificate shall set forth estimates of the Net Cash Proceeds to be so expended), (C) such Net Cash Proceeds are deposited in an account subject to a Control Agreement, and (D) upon the earlier of (1) the expiration of the period specified in the relevant certificate furnished to the Administrative Agent pursuant to clause (B) above or (2) the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default, such Net Cash Proceeds, if not theretofore so used, shall be used to prepay the Obligations in accordance with Section 2.05(c)(ii) or Section 2.05(c)(iv) as applicable.

(d) Application of Payments. Each prepayment pursuant to subsections (c)(i), (c)(ii), (c)(iii), and (c)(iv) above shall be applied to the Term Loan, until paid in full. Notwithstanding the foregoing, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, if the Administrative Agent has elected, or has been directed by the Collateral Agent or the Required Lenders, to apply payments in respect of any Obligations in accordance with Section 4.03(b), prepayments required under Section 2.05(c) shall be applied in the manner set forth in Section 4.03(b).

(e) Interest and Fees. Any prepayment made pursuant to this Section 2.05 shall be accompanied by (i) accrued interest on the principal amount being prepaid to the date of prepayment, (ii) any Funding Losses payable pursuant to Section 2.08 and (iii) the Applicable Premium payable in connection with such prepayment of the Loans to the extent required under Section 2.06(a).

(f) Cumulative Prepayments. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Section 2.05, payments with respect to any subsection of this Section 2.05 are in addition to payments made or required to be made under any other subsection of this Section 2.05.

(g) Waivable Mandatory Prepayments. Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that the Borrower is required to make any mandatory prepayment (a "Waivable Mandatory Prepayment") of the Loans pursuant to Section 2.05(c), not less than 2 Business Days prior to the date on which the Borrower is required to make such Waivable Mandatory Prepayment (the "Required Prepayment Date"), the Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of the amount of such prepayment, and the Administrative Agent will promptly thereafter notify each Lender of the amount of such Lender's Pro Rata Share of such Waivable Mandatory Prepayment and such Lender's option to refuse such amount. Each such Lender may exercise such option by giving written notice to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent of its election to do so on or before 12:00 noon (New York City time) one Business Day prior to the Required Prepayment Date (it being understood that any Lender that does not notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent of its election to exercise such option on or before 12:00 noon (New York City time) one Business Day prior to the Required Prepayment Date shall be deemed to have elected, as of such date, not to exercise such option). On the Required Prepayment Date, the Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent the amount of the Waivable Mandatory Prepayment, which amount shall be applied (i) in an amount equal to that portion of the Waivable Mandatory Prepayment payable to those Lenders that have elected not to exercise such option, to prepay the Loans of such Lenders (which prepayment shall be applied to prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Obligations in accordance with Section 2.05(d)) and (ii) to the extent of any excess, to the Borrower for working capital and general corporate purposes.

Section 2.06 Fees.

(a) Applicable Premium.

(i) Upon the occurrence of an Applicable Premium Trigger Event, the Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Lenders in accordance with their Pro Rata Shares, the Applicable Premium.

(ii) Any Applicable Premium payable in accordance with this Section 2.06(a) shall be presumed to be equal to the liquidated damages sustained by the Lenders as the result of the occurrence of the Applicable Premium Trigger Event and the Loan Parties agree that it is reasonable under the circumstances currently existing. THE LOAN PARTIES EXPRESSLY WAIVE THE PROVISIONS OF ANY PRESENT OR FUTURE STATUTE OR LAW THAT PROHIBITS OR MAY PROHIBIT THE COLLECTION OF THE FOREGOING APPLICABLE PREMIUM IN CONNECTION WITH ANY ACCELERATION.

(iii) The Loan Parties expressly agree that: (A) the Applicable Premium is reasonable and is the product of an arm's length transaction between sophisticated business people, ably represented by counsel; (B) the Applicable Premium shall be payable notwithstanding the then prevailing market rates at the time payment is made; (C) there has been a course of conduct between the Lenders and the Loan Parties giving specific consideration in this transaction for such agreement to pay the Applicable Premium; (D) the Loan Parties shall be estopped hereafter from claiming differently than as agreed to in this paragraph; (E) their agreement to pay the Applicable Premium is a material inducement to Lenders to provide the Commitments and make the Loans, and (F) the Applicable Premium represents a good faith, reasonable estimate and calculation of the lost profits or damages of the Agents and the Lenders and that it would be impractical and extremely difficult to ascertain the actual amount of damages to the Agents and the Lenders or profits lost by the Agents and the Lenders as a result of such Applicable Premium Trigger Event.

(iv) Nothing contained in this Section 2.06(a) shall permit any prepayment of the Loans or reduction of the Commitments not otherwise permitted by the terms of this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

Section 2.07 [Reserved].

Section 2.08 Funding Losses.

(a) The Borrower agrees to compensate the Lenders for any loss, cost or expense incurred by it, including, without limitation, any breakage fee or any cost or expense incurred by the Lenders by reason of the liquidation or reemployment of deposits or other funds acquired to maintain the Term Loan, as a result of a default by the Borrower in making any prepayment after the Borrower has given a notice thereof in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement (collectively, "Funding Losses").

(b) The Administrative Agent will furnish to the Borrower a certificate setting forth the basis (in reasonable detail) and amount of each request by any Lender for compensation under this Section 2.08. The amount of such loss, cost or expense set forth on such certificate shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

Section 2.09 Taxes. (a) Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of any Loan Party hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall be made free and clear of and without deduction or withholding for any and all Taxes, except as required by applicable law. If any applicable law (as determined in the good faith discretion of any Withholding Agent) requires the deduction or withholding of any Taxes from or in respect of any such payment, (i) the applicable Withholding Agent shall make such deduction or withholding, (ii) the applicable Withholding Agent shall pay the full amount deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law and (iii) if such Tax is an Indemnified Tax, then the sum payable by the applicable Loan Party shall be increased by the amount necessary such that after making all required deductions and withholdings (including deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 2.09) the applicable Recipient receives the amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been made.

(b) In addition, each Loan Party shall pay to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law any Other Taxes, or at the option of the Administrative Agent timely reimburse it for the payment of any Other Taxes by any Secured Party. Each Loan Party shall deliver to each Secured Party official receipts in respect of any Taxes or Other Taxes payable hereunder promptly after payment of such Taxes or Other Taxes.

(c) The Loan Parties hereby jointly and severally indemnify and agree to hold each Secured Party harmless from and against Indemnified Taxes and Other Taxes (including, without limitation, Indemnified Taxes and Other Taxes imposed on any amounts payable under this Section 2.09) paid or payable by such Secured Party or required to be withheld or deducted from a payment to such Secured Party and any expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally asserted. Such indemnification shall be paid within 10 Business Days from the date on which any such Person makes written demand therefore specifying in reasonable detail the nature and amount of such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Borrower by a Secured Party (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of another Secured Party shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) (i) Any Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to payments made under any Loan Document shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate of withholding. In addition, any Lender, if reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by applicable law or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as will enable the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine whether or not such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding two sentences, the completion, execution and submission of such documentation (other than such documentation set forth in Section 2.09(d)(ii)(A), (ii)(B) and (ii)(D) below) shall not be required if in the Lender's reasonable judgment such completion, execution or submission would subject such Lender to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Lender.

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

(A) any Lender that is a U.S. Person shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

(B) any Lender that is not a U.S. Person (a "Foreign Lender") shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be reasonably requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Foreign Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent), whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party (x) with respect to payments of interest under any Loan Document, executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "interest" article of such tax treaty and (y) with respect to any other applicable payments under any Loan Document, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "business profits" or "other income" article of such tax treaty;

(2) executed copies of IRS Form W-8ECI;

(3) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, (x) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit 2.09(d)-1 hereto to the effect that such Foreign Lender is not a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, a "10 percent shareholder" of the Borrower within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, or a "controlled foreign corporation" described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code (a "U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate") and (y) executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E; or

(4) to the extent a Foreign Lender is not the beneficial owner, executed copies of IRS Form W-8IMY, accompanied by IRS Form W-8ECI, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit 2.09(d)-2 or Exhibit 2.09(d)-3, IRS Form W-9, or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that if the Foreign Lender is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Foreign Lender are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Foreign Lender may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit 2.09(d)-4 on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner;

(C) any Foreign Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be reasonably requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Foreign Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of any other form prescribed by applicable law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in U.S. federal withholding Tax, duly completed, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable law to permit the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made; and

(D) if a payment made to a Lender under any Loan Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Borrower and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this clause (D), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

Each Lender agrees that if any form or certification it previously delivered expires or becomes obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, it shall update such form or certification or promptly notify the Administrative Agent in writing of its legal inability to do so.

(e) Each Lender shall severally indemnify the Administrative Agent, within 10 days after demand therefor, for (i) any Indemnified Taxes attributable to such Lender (but only to the extent that any Loan Party has not already indemnified the Administrative Agent for such Indemnified Taxes and without limiting the obligation of the Loan Parties to do so), (ii) any Taxes attributable to such Lender's failure to comply with the provisions of Section 12.07(i) relating to the maintenance of a Participant Register and (iii) any Excluded Taxes attributable to such Lender, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent in connection with any Loan Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under any Loan Document or otherwise payable by the Administrative Agent to the Lender from any other source against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this paragraph (e).

(f) If any party determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified pursuant to this Section 2.09 (including by the payment of additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.09), it shall pay to the indemnifying party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made under this Section 2.09 with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including Taxes) of such indemnified party and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund). Such indemnifying party, upon the request of such indemnified party, shall repay to such indemnified party the amount paid over pursuant to this paragraph (f) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) in the event that such indemnified party is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (f), in no event will the indemnified party be required to pay any amount to an indemnifying party pursuant to this paragraph (f) the payment of which would place the indemnified party in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the indemnified party would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This paragraph shall not be construed to require any indemnified party to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to the indemnifying party or any other Person.

(g) The obligations of the Loan Parties under this Section 2.09 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the payment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

Section 2.10 Increased Costs and Reduced Return. (a) If any Secured Party shall have reasonably determined that any Change in Law shall (i) subject such Secured Party, or any Person controlling such Secured Party to any tax, duty or other charge with respect to this Agreement or any Loan made by such Agent or such Lender, or change the basis of taxation of payments to such Secured Party or any Person controlling such Secured Party of any amounts payable hereunder (except for taxes on the overall net income of such Secured Party or any Person controlling such Secured Party), (ii) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit or similar requirement against any Loan, or against assets of or held by, or deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, such Secured Party or any Person controlling such Secured Party or (iii) impose on such Secured Party or any Person controlling such Secured Party any other condition regarding this Agreement or any Loan, and the result of any event referred to in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) above shall be to increase the cost to such Secured Party of making any Loan, or agreeing to make any Loan, or to reduce any amount received or receivable by such Secured Party hereunder, then, within 10 Business Days after demand by such Secured Party, the Borrower shall pay to such Secured Party such additional amounts as will compensate such Secured Party for such increased costs or reductions in amount.

(b) If any Secured Party shall have reasonably determined that any Change in Law either (i) affects or would affect the amount of capital required or expected to be maintained by such Secured Party or any Person controlling such Secured Party, and such Secured Party reasonably determines that the amount of such capital is increased as a direct or indirect consequence of any Loans made or maintained, such Secured Party's or such other controlling Person's other obligations hereunder, or (ii) has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Secured Party's or such other controlling Person's capital to a level below that which such Secured Party or such controlling Person could have achieved but for such circumstances as a consequence of any Loans made or maintained, or any agreement to make Loans, or such Secured Party's or such other controlling Person's other obligations hereunder (in each case, taking into consideration, such Secured Party's or such other controlling Person's policies with respect to capital adequacy), then, within 10 Business Days after demand by such Secured Party, the Borrower shall pay to such Secured Party from time to time such additional amounts as will compensate such Secured Party for such cost of maintaining such increased capital or such reduction in the rate of return on such Secured Party's or such other controlling Person's capital.

(c) All amounts payable under this Section 2.10 shall bear interest from the date that is 10 Business Days after the date of demand by any Secured Party until payment in full to such Secured Party at the rate of interest applicable to the Loans as in effect from time to time pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. A certificate of such Secured Party claiming compensation under this Section 2.10, specifying the event herein above described and the nature of such event shall be submitted by such Secured Party to the Borrower, setting forth the additional amount due and an explanation of the calculation thereof, and such Secured Party's reasons for invoking the provisions of this Section 2.10, and shall be final and conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Failure or delay on the part of any Lender to demand compensation pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.10 shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrower shall not be required to compensate a Lender pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.10 for any increased costs incurred or reductions suffered more than nine months prior to the date that such Lender notifies the Borrower of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Lender's intention to claim compensation therefor (except that, if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the nine-month period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof).

(e) The obligations of the Loan Parties under this Section 2.10 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the payment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

Section 2.11 [Reserved].

Section 2.12 Uncommitted Incremental Facility.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Lenders agree that the Borrower may, on any Business Day from time to time until June 30, 2024, deliver a written notice to the Administrative Agent requesting to add additional term loans or increase the principal amount of existing Term Loan (such additional term loan or increase, the "Incremental Term Loans"; and the credit facility for making any Incremental Term Loans is hereinafter referred to as the "Incremental Term Facility") in minimum principal amounts of $5,000,000; provided that (i) the Administrative Agent shall have received a written request for such Incremental Term Loan not later than 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the date which is 10 Business Days prior to the date of the proposed Incremental Term Loan, (ii) all conditions set forth in Section 5.02 shall have been satisfied and the Borrower shall have delivered to the Collateral Agent a certificate from an Authorized Officer certifying as to matters set forth in Section 5.02(a), (iii) the LTV Ratio shall not exceed 65% on a pro forma basis, and the Borrower shall have delivered a certificate of the chief financial officer of the Borrower certifying as to such matters, (iv) the Borrower shall have delivered or cause to be delivered any legal opinions, resolutions and other customary closing documents and certificates reasonably requested by any Agent in connection with such transaction and (v) any closing fee or other amounts payable to the Agents and the Lenders pursuant to the applicable Incremental Facility Amendment shall have been paid.

(b) The aggregate principal amount of all Incremental Term Loans shall not exceed $15,000,000 (or such greater amount as the Collateral Agent and the Required Lenders may approve from time to time).

(c) Any existing Lender may, but shall not be obligated to, participate in any Incremental Term Facility on a pro rata basis. If the existing Lenders do not agree to make the amount of the Incremental Term Loan requested by the Borrower, the Borrower may, with the consent of the Collateral Agent and the Required Lenders, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld, seek one or more Persons reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent to be added as Lenders for purposes of participating in such remaining portion.

( ) Each Incremental Term Facility shall be evidenced by an amendment (an "Incremental Facility Amendment") to this Agreement, executed by the Borrower, the Collateral Agent and each Lender (including any new Lender, if any) providing a portion of the Incremental Term Facility. Each Incremental Term Facility shall also require such amendments to the other Loan Documents, and such other new Loan Documents, as the Collateral Agent deems necessary to effect the modifications permitted by this Section 2.12. The Borrower agrees to pay the reasonable expenses of the Agents relating to any Incremental Facility Amendment and the transactions contemplated thereby in accordance with Section 12.04. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 12.02, neither the Incremental Facility Amendment, nor any such amendments to the other Loan Documents or such other new Loan Documents, shall be required to be executed or approved by any Person, other than the Loan Parties, the Lenders providing a portion of the Incremental Term Facility and the Collateral Agent, in order to be effective.

(d) The proceeds of the Incremental Term Loans shall be used solely to fund (i) capital expenditures related to the expansion of the Borrower's cultivation facilities and to expand the Borrower's satellite locations in New Jersey, and (ii) pay fees and expenses incurred in connection therewith.

(e) Unless otherwise specifically provided herein, all references in this Agreement and any other Loan Document to the Term Loans shall be deemed, unless the context otherwise requires, to include the Incremental Term Loans made pursuant to this Section 2.12.

(f) The Incremental Term Loans (and all interest, fees and other amounts payable thereon) (i) shall be Term Loans under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (ii) shall be on the same terms and conditions as the initial Term Loans funded on the Effective Date (including, without limitation, the interest rate, Applicable Premium and Final Maturity Date applicable to such initial Term Loans); provided, however, that the interest rate on the Incremental Term Loan may exceed the interest rate on the Initial Term Loan by not more than 50 basis points and (iii) shall share ratably in the right of repayment and prepayment with the initial Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.03 and Section 2.05.

[INTENTIONALLY OMITTED]

APPLICATION OF PAYMENTS

Section 4.01 Payments; Computations and Statements. (a) The Borrower will make each payment under this Agreement not later than 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the day when due, in lawful money of the United States of America and in immediately available funds, to the Administrative Agent's Account. All payments received by the Administrative Agent after 12:00 noon (New York City time) on any Business Day will be credited to the Loan Account on the next succeeding Business Day. All payments shall be made by the Borrower without set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, deduction or other defense to the Agents and the Lenders. Except as provided in Section 2.02, after receipt, the Administrative Agent will promptly thereafter cause to be distributed like funds relating to the payment of principal ratably to the Lenders in accordance with their Pro Rata Shares and like funds relating to the payment of any other amount payable to any Lender to such Lender, in each case to be applied in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The Lenders and the Borrower hereby authorize the Administrative Agent to, and the Administrative Agent may, from time to time, charge the Loan Account of the Borrower with any amount due and payable by the Borrower under any Loan Document. Any amount charged to the Loan Account of the Borrower shall be deemed Obligations. Whenever any payment to be made under any such Loan Document shall be stated to be due on a day other than a Business Day, such payment shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day and such extension of time shall in such case be included in the computation of interest or fees, as the case may be. All computations of fees shall be made by the Administrative Agent on the basis of a year of 360 days for the actual number of days. Each determination by the Administrative Agent of an interest rate or fees hereunder shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes in the absence of manifest error.

(b) The Administrative Agent shall provide the Borrower, promptly after the end of each calendar month, a summary statement (in the form from time to time used by the Administrative Agent) of the opening and closing daily balances in the Loan Account of the Borrower during such month, the amounts and dates of all Loans made to the Borrower during such month, the amounts and dates of all payments on account of the Loans to the Borrower during such month and the Loans to which such payments were applied, the amount of interest accrued on the Loans to the Borrower during such month, and the amount and nature of any charges to the Loan Account made during such month on account of fees, commissions, expenses and other Obligations. All entries on any such statement shall be presumed to be correct and, 30 days after the same is sent, shall be final and conclusive absent manifest error.

Section 4.02 Sharing of Payments. Except as provided in Section 2.02 hereof, if any Lender shall obtain any payment (whether voluntary, involuntary, through the exercise of any right of setoff, or otherwise) on account of any Obligation in excess of its ratable share of payments on account of similar obligations obtained by all the Lenders, such Lender shall forthwith purchase from the other Lenders such participations in such similar obligations held by them as shall be necessary to cause such purchasing Lender to share the excess payment ratably with each of them; provided, however, that (a) if all or any portion of such excess payment is thereafter recovered from such purchasing Lender, such purchase from each Lender shall be rescinded and each Lender shall repay to the purchasing Lender the purchase price to the extent of such recovery together with an amount equal to such Lender's ratable share (according to the proportion of (i) the amount of such Lender's required repayment to (ii) the total amount so recovered from the purchasing Lender) of any interest or other amount paid by the purchasing Lender in respect of the total amount so recovered and (b) the provisions of this Section shall not be construed to apply to (i) any payment made by the Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement (including the application of any payment of an amendment, consent or waiver fee to consenting Lenders pursuant to an effective amendment, consent or waiver with respect to this Agreement), or (ii) any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans, other than to any Loan Party or any Subsidiary thereof (as to which the provisions of this Section shall apply). The Borrower agrees that any Lender so purchasing a participation from another Lender pursuant to this Section may, to the fullest extent permitted by law, exercise all of its rights (including the Lender's right of set-off) with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were the direct creditor of the Borrower in the amount of such participation.

(d) In the event of a direct conflict between the priority provisions of this Section 4.03 and other provisions contained in any other Loan Document, it is the intention of the parties hereto that both such priority provisions in such documents shall be read together and construed, to the fullest extent possible, to be in concert with each other. In the event of any actual, irreconcilable conflict that cannot be resolved as aforesaid, the terms and provisions of Section 4.03 shall control and govern.

AGENTS

Section 10.01 Appointment. Each Lender (and each subsequent maker of any Loan by its making thereof) hereby irrevocably appoints, authorizes and empowers the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent to perform the duties of each such Agent as set forth in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto, including: (i) to receive on behalf of each Lender any payment of principal of or interest on the Loans outstanding hereunder and all other amounts accrued hereunder for the account of the Lenders and paid to such Agent, and, subject to Section 2.02 of this Agreement, to distribute promptly to each Lender its Pro Rata Share of all payments so received; (ii) to distribute to each Lender copies of all material notices and agreements received by such Agent and not required to be delivered to each Lender pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, provided that the Agents shall not have any liability to the Lenders for any Agent's inadvertent failure to distribute any such notices or agreements to the Lenders; (iii) to maintain, in accordance with its customary business practices, ledgers and records reflecting the status of the Obligations, the Loans, and related matters and to maintain, in accordance with its customary business practices, ledgers and records reflecting the status of the Collateral and related matters; (iv) to execute or file any and all financing or similar statements or notices, amendments, renewals, supplements, documents, instruments, proofs of claim, notices and other written agreements with respect to this Agreement or any other Loan Document; (v) to make the Loans and Collateral Agent Advances, for such Agent or on behalf of the applicable Lenders as provided in this Agreement or any other Loan Document; (vi) to perform, exercise, and enforce any and all other rights and remedies of the Lenders with respect to the Loan Parties, the Obligations, or otherwise related to any of same to the extent reasonably incidental to the exercise by such Agent of the rights and remedies specifically authorized to be exercised by such Agent by the terms of this Agreement or any other Loan Document; (vii) to incur and pay such fees necessary or appropriate for the performance and fulfillment of its functions and powers pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document; (viii) subject to Section 10.03, to take such action as such Agent deems appropriate on its behalf to administer the Loans and the Loan Documents and to exercise such other powers delegated to such Agent by the terms hereof or the other Loan Documents (including, without limitation, the power to give or to refuse to give notices, waivers, consents, approvals and instructions and the power to make or to refuse to make determinations and calculations); and (ix) to act with respect to all Collateral under the Loan Documents, including for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any of the Loan Parties to secure any of the Obligations. As to any matters not expressly provided for by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (including, without limitation, enforcement or collection of the Loans), the Agents shall not be required to exercise any discretion or take any action, but shall be required to act or to refrain from acting (and shall be fully protected in so acting or refraining from acting) upon the instructions of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents), and such instructions of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents) shall be binding upon all Lenders and all makers of Loans; provided, however, that the Agents shall not be required to take any action which, in the reasonable opinion of any Agent, exposes such Agent to liability or which is contrary to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or applicable law.

Section 10.02 Nature of Duties; Delegation. (a) The Agents shall have no duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth in this Agreement or in the other Loan Documents. The duties of the Agents shall be mechanical and administrative in nature. The Agents shall not have by reason of this Agreement or any other Loan Document a fiduciary relationship in respect of any Lender. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document, express or implied, is intended to or shall be construed to impose upon the Agents any obligations in respect of this Agreement or any other Loan Document except as expressly set forth herein or therein. Each Lender shall make its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs of the Loan Parties in connection with the making and the continuance of the Loans hereunder and shall make its own appraisal of the creditworthiness of the Loan Parties and the value of the Collateral without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties, and neither the Agents nor any of their Related Parties shall have any duty or responsibility, either initially or on a continuing basis, to provide any Lender with any credit or other information with respect thereto, whether coming into their possession before the initial Loan hereunder or at any time or times thereafter, provided that, upon the reasonable request of a Lender, each Agent shall provide to such Lender any documents or reports delivered to such Agent by the Loan Parties pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other Loan Document. If any Agent seeks the consent or approval of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents) to the taking or refraining from taking any action hereunder, such Agent shall send notice thereof to each Lender. Each Agent shall promptly notify each Lender any time that the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents) have instructed such Agent to act or refrain from acting pursuant hereto.

(b) Each Agent may, upon any term or condition it specifies, delegate or exercise any of its rights, powers and remedies under, and delegate or perform any of its duties or any other action with respect to, any Loan Document by or through any of its Related Parties or any other trustee, co-agent or other Person (including any Lender). Any such Related Party, trustee, co-agent or other Person shall benefit from this Article X to the extent provided by the applicable Agent.

Section 10.03 Rights, Exculpation, Etc. The Agents and their Related Parties shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken by them under or in connection with this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, except for their own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Agents (i) may treat the payee of any Loan as the owner thereof until the Collateral Agent receives written notice of the assignment or transfer thereof, pursuant to Section 12.07 hereof, signed by such payee and in form satisfactory to the Collateral Agent; (ii) may consult with legal counsel (including, without limitation, counsel to any Agent or counsel to the Loan Parties), independent public accountants, and other experts selected by any of them and shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken in good faith by any of them in accordance with the advice of such counsel or experts; (iii) make no warranty or representation to any Lender and shall not be responsible to any Lender for any statements, certificates, warranties or representations made in or in connection with this Agreement or the other Loan Documents; (iv) shall not have any duty to ascertain or to inquire as to the performance or observance of any of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents on the part of any Person, the existence or possible existence of any Default or Event of Default, or to inspect the Collateral or other property (including, without limitation, the books and records) of any Person; (v) shall not be responsible to any Lender for the due execution, legality, validity, enforceability, genuineness, sufficiency or value of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto or thereto; and (vi) shall not be deemed to have made any representation or warranty regarding the existence, value or collectibility of the Collateral, the existence, priority or perfection of the Collateral Agent's Lien thereon, or any certificate prepared by any Loan Party in connection therewith, nor shall the Agents be responsible or liable to the Lenders for any failure to monitor or maintain any portion of the Collateral. The Agents shall not be liable for any apportionment or distribution of payments made in good faith pursuant to Section 4.03, and if any such apportionment or distribution is subsequently determined to have been made in error, and the sole recourse of any Lender to whom payment was due but not made shall be to recover from other Lenders any payment in excess of the amount which they are determined to be entitled. The Agents may at any time request instructions from the Lenders with respect to any actions or approvals which by the terms of this Agreement or of any of the other Loan Documents the Agents are permitted or required to take or to grant, and if such instructions are promptly requested, the Agents shall be absolutely entitled to refrain from taking any action or to withhold any approval under any of the Loan Documents until they shall have received such instructions from the Required Lenders. Without limiting the foregoing, no Lender shall have any right of action whatsoever against any Agent as a result of such Agent acting or refraining from acting under this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents in accordance with the instructions of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents).

Section 10.04 Reliance. Each Agent shall be entitled to rely upon any written notices, statements, certificates, orders or other documents or any telephone message believed by it in good faith to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by the proper Person, and with respect to all matters pertaining to this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents and its duties hereunder or thereunder, upon advice of counsel selected by it.

Section 10.05 Indemnification. To the extent that any Agent or any Related Party of the foregoing is not reimbursed and indemnified by any Loan Party, and whether or not such Agent has made demand on any Loan Party for the same, the Lenders will, within five days of written demand by such Agent, reimburse such Agent and such Related Parties for and indemnify such Agent and such Related Parties from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses (including, without limitation, client charges and expenses of counsel or any other advisor to such Agent and such Related Parties), advances or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against such Agent and the Related Parties in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents or any action taken or omitted by such Agent and such Related Parties under this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, in proportion to each Lender's Pro Rata Share, including, without limitation, advances and disbursements made pursuant to Section 10.08; provided, however, that no Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses, advances or disbursements for which there has been a final non-appealable judicial determination that such liability resulted from such Agent's or such Related Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct. The obligations of the Lenders under this Section 10.05 shall survive the payment in full of the Loans and the termination of this Agreement.

Section 10.06 Agents Individually. With respect to its Pro Rata Share of the Total Term Loan Commitment hereunder and the Loans made by it, each Agent shall have and may exercise the same rights and powers hereunder and is subject to the same obligations and liabilities as and to the extent set forth herein for any other Lender or maker of a Loan. The terms "Lenders" or "Required Lenders" or any similar terms shall, unless the context clearly otherwise indicates, include each Agent in its individual capacity as a Lender or one of the Required Lenders. Each Agent and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, and generally engage in any kind of banking, trust or other business with the Borrower as if it were not acting as an Agent pursuant hereto without any duty to account to the other Lenders.

Section 10.07 Successor Agent. (a) Any Agent may at any time give at least 30 days prior written notice of its resignation to the Lenders and the Borrower. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right to appoint a successor Agent reasonably satisfactory to the Borrower. If no such successor Agent shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Agent gives notice of its resignation (or such earlier day as shall be agreed by the Required Lenders) (the "Resignation Effective Date"), then the retiring Agent may (but shall not be obligated to), on behalf of the Lenders, appoint a successor Agent. Whether or not a successor Agent has been appointed, such resignation shall become effective in accordance with such notice on the Resignation Effective Date.

(b) With effect from the Resignation Effective Date, (i) the retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents (except that in the case of any Collateral held by such Agent on behalf of the Lenders under any of the Loan Documents, the retiring Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security until such time as a successor Agent is appointed) and (ii) all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through such retiring Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender directly, until such time, if any, as a successor Agent shall have been appointed as provided for above. Upon the acceptance of a successor's Agent's appointment as Agent hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Agent, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Loan Documents. After the retiring Agent's resignation hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, the provisions of this Article, Section 12.04 and Section 12.15 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while the retiring Agent was acting as Agent.

Section 10.08 Collateral Matters.

(a) The Collateral Agent may from time to time make such disbursements and advances ("Collateral Agent Advances") which the Collateral Agent, in its sole discretion, deems necessary or desirable to preserve, protect, prepare for sale or lease or dispose of the Collateral or any portion thereof, to enhance the likelihood or maximize the amount of repayment by the Borrower of the Loans and other Obligations or to pay any other amount chargeable to the Borrower pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, costs, fees and expenses as described in Section 12.04. The Collateral Agent Advances shall be repayable on demand and be secured by the Collateral and shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the rate of interest applicable to the Loans as in effect from time to time pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. The Collateral Agent Advances shall constitute Obligations hereunder which may be charged to the Loan Account in accordance with Section 4.01. The Collateral Agent shall notify each Lender and the Borrower in writing of each such Collateral Agent Advance, which notice shall include a description of the purpose of such Collateral Agent Advance. Without limitation to its obligations pursuant to Section 10.05, each Lender agrees that it shall make available to the Collateral Agent, upon the Collateral Agent's demand, in Dollars in immediately available funds, the amount equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Share of each such Collateral Agent Advance. If such funds are not made available to the Collateral Agent by such Lender, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to recover such funds on demand from such Lender, together with interest thereon for each day from the date such payment was due until the date such amount is paid to the Collateral Agent, at the rate of interest applicable to the Loans as in effect from time to time pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The Lenders hereby irrevocably authorize the Collateral Agent, at its option and in its discretion, to release any Lien granted to or held by the Collateral Agent upon any Collateral upon payment and satisfaction of all Loans, and all other Obligations (other than Contingent Indemnity Obligations) in accordance with the terms hereof; or constituting property being sold or disposed of in the ordinary course of any Loan Party's business or otherwise in compliance with the terms of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents; or constituting property in which the Loan Parties owned no interest at the time the Lien was granted or at any time thereafter; or if approved, authorized or ratified in writing by the Lenders in accordance with Section 12.02. Upon request by the Collateral Agent at any time, the Lenders will confirm in writing the Collateral Agent's authority to release particular types or items of Collateral pursuant to this Section 10.08(b).

(c) Without in any manner limiting the Collateral Agent's authority to act without any specific or further authorization or consent by the Lenders (as set forth in Section 10.08(b)), each Lender agrees to confirm in writing, upon request by the Collateral Agent, the authority to release Collateral conferred upon the Collateral Agent under Section 10.08(b). Upon receipt by the Collateral Agent of confirmation from the Lenders of its authority to release any particular item or types of Collateral, and upon prior written request by any Loan Party, the Collateral Agent shall (and is hereby irrevocably authorized by the Lenders to) execute such documents as may be necessary to evidence the release of the Liens granted to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Agents and the Lenders upon such Collateral; provided, however, that (i) the Collateral Agent shall not be required to execute any such document on terms which, in the Collateral Agent's opinion, would expose the Collateral Agent to liability or create any obligations or entail any consequence other than the release of such Liens without recourse or warranty, and (ii) such release shall not in any manner discharge, affect or impair the Obligations or any Lien upon (or obligations of any Loan Party in respect of) all interests in the Collateral retained by any Loan Party.

(d) Anything contained in any of the Loan Documents to the contrary notwithstanding, the Loan Parties, each Agent and each Lender hereby agree that (i) no Lender shall have any right individually to realize upon any of the Collateral under any Loan Document or to enforce any Guaranty, it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies under the Loan Documents may be exercised solely by the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Lenders in accordance with the terms thereof, (ii) in the event of a foreclosure by the Collateral Agent on any of the Collateral pursuant to a public or private sale, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender may be the purchaser of any or all of such Collateral at any such sale and (iii) the Collateral Agent, as agent for and representative of the Agents and the Lenders (but not any other Agent or any Lender or Lenders in its or their respective individual capacities unless the Required Lenders shall otherwise agree in writing) shall be entitled (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Collateral to be sold (A) at any public or private sale, (B) at any sale conducted by the Collateral Agent under the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code (including pursuant to Sections 9-610 or 9-620 of the Uniform Commercial Code), (C) at any sale or foreclosure conducted by the Collateral Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with applicable law or (D) any sale conducted pursuant to the provisions of any Debtor Relief Law (including Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code), to use and apply all or any of the Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price for any Collateral payable by the Collateral Agent at such sale.

(e) The Collateral Agent shall have no obligation whatsoever to any Lender to assure that the Collateral exists or is owned by the Loan Parties or is cared for, protected or insured or has been encumbered or that the Lien granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document has been properly or sufficiently or lawfully created, perfected, protected or enforced or is entitled to any particular priority, or to exercise at all or in any particular manner or under any duty of care, disclosure or fidelity, or to continue exercising, any of the rights, authorities and powers granted or available to the Collateral Agent in this Section 10.08 or in any other Loan Document, it being understood and agreed that in respect of the Collateral, or any act, omission or event related thereto, the Collateral Agent may act in any manner it may deem appropriate, in its sole discretion, given the Collateral Agent's own interest in the Collateral as one of the Lenders and that the Collateral Agent shall have no duty or liability whatsoever to any other Lender, except as otherwise provided herein.

Section 10.09 Agency for Perfection. Each Agent and each Lender hereby appoints each other Agent and each other Lender as agent and bailee for the purpose of perfecting the security interests in and liens upon the Collateral in assets which, in accordance with Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code, can be perfected only by possession or control (or where the security interest of a secured party with possession or control has priority over the security interest of another secured party) and each Agent and each Lender hereby acknowledges that it holds possession of or otherwise controls any such Collateral for the benefit of the Agents and the Lenders as secured party. Should the Administrative Agent or any Lender obtain possession or control of any such Collateral, the Administrative Agent or such Lender shall notify the Collateral Agent thereof, and, promptly upon the Collateral Agent's request therefor shall deliver such Collateral to the Collateral Agent or in accordance with the Collateral Agent's instructions. In addition, the Collateral Agent shall also have the power and authority hereunder to appoint such other sub-agents as may be necessary or required under applicable state law or otherwise to perform its duties and enforce its rights with respect to the Collateral and under the Loan Documents. Each Loan Party by its execution and delivery of this Agreement hereby consents to the foregoing.

Section 10.10 No Reliance on any Agent's Customer Identification Program. Each Lender acknowledges and agrees that neither such Lender, nor any of its Affiliates, participants or assignees, may rely on any Agent to carry out such Lender's, Affiliate's, participant's or assignee's customer identification program, or other requirements imposed by the USA PATRIOT Act or the regulations issued thereunder, including the regulations set forth in 31 C.F.R. §§ 1010.100(yy), (iii), 1020.100, and 1020.220 (formerly 31 C.F.R. § 103.121), as hereafter amended or replaced ("CIP Regulations"), or any other Anti-Money Laundering Laws, including any programs involving any of the following items relating to or in connection with any of the Loan Parties, their Affiliates or their agents, the Loan Documents or the transactions hereunder or contemplated hereby: (1) any identity verification procedures, (2) any recordkeeping, (3) comparisons with government lists, (4) customer notices or (5) other procedures required under the CIP Regulations or other regulations issued under the USA PATRIOT Act. Each Lender, Affiliate, participant or assignee subject to Section 326 of the USA PATRIOT Act will perform the measures necessary to satisfy its own responsibilities under the CIP Regulations.

Section 10.11 No Third Party Beneficiaries. The provisions of this Article are solely for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and no Loan Party shall have rights as a third-party beneficiary of any of such provisions.

Section 10.12 No Fiduciary Relationship. It is understood and agreed that the use of the term "agent" herein or in any other Loan Document (or any other similar term) with reference to any Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law. Instead such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties.

Section 10.13 Reports; Confidentiality; Disclaimers. By becoming a party to this Agreement, each Lender:

(a) is deemed to have requested that each Agent furnish such Lender, promptly after it becomes available, a copy of each field audit or examination report with respect to the Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (each, a "Report") prepared by or at the request of such Agent, and each Agent shall so furnish each Lender with each such Report,

(b) expressly agrees and acknowledges that the Agents (i) do not make any representation or warranty as to the accuracy of any Reports, and (ii) shall not be liable for any information contained in any Reports,

(c) expressly agrees and acknowledges that the Reports are not comprehensive audits or examinations, that any Agent or other party performing any audit or examination will inspect only specific information regarding the Parent and its Subsidiaries and will rely significantly upon the Parent's and its Subsidiaries' books and records, as well as on representations of their personnel,

(d) agrees to keep all Reports and other material, non-public information regarding the Parent and its Subsidiaries and their operations, assets, and existing and contemplated business plans in a confidential manner in accordance with Section 12.19, and

(e) without limiting the generality of any other indemnification provision contained in this Agreement, agrees: (i) to hold any Agent and any other Lender preparing a Report harmless from any action the indemnifying Lender may take or fail to take or any conclusion the indemnifying Lender may reach or draw from any Report in connection with any loans or other credit accommodations that the indemnifying Lender has made or may make to the Borrower, or the indemnifying Lender's participation in, or the indemnifying Lender's purchase of, a loan or loans of the Borrower, and (ii) to pay and protect, and indemnify, defend and hold any Agent and any other Lender costs, expenses, and other amounts (including, attorneys' fees and costs) incurred by any such Agent and any such other Lender preparing a Report as the direct or indirect result of any third parties who might obtain all or part of any Report through the indemnifying Lender.

Section 10.14 Collateral Custodian. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Default or Event of Default, the Collateral Agent or its designee may at any time and from time to time employ and maintain on the premises of any Loan Party a custodian selected by the Collateral Agent or its designee who shall have full authority to do all acts necessary to protect the Agents' and the Lenders' interests. Each Loan Party hereby agrees to, and to cause its Subsidiaries to, cooperate with any such custodian and to do whatever the Collateral Agent or its designee may reasonably request to preserve the Collateral. All costs and expenses incurred by the Collateral Agent or its designee by reason of the employment of the custodian shall be the responsibility of the Borrower and charged to the Loan Account.

Section 10.15 Collateral Agent May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Loan Party, the Collateral Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether any Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered (but not obligated) by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Secured Parties (including any claim for the compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Secured Parties and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Secured Parties hereunder and under the other Loan Documents) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Secured Party to make such payments to the Collateral Agent and, in the event that the Collateral Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Secured Parties, to pay to the Collateral Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Collateral Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Collateral Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents.

GUARANTY

Section 11.01 Guaranty. Each Guarantor hereby jointly and severally and unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the punctual payment when due, whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, of all Obligations of the Borrower now or hereafter existing under any Loan Document, whether for principal, interest (including, without limitation, all interest that accrues after the commencement of any Insolvency Proceeding of the Borrower, whether or not a claim for post-filing interest is allowed in such Insolvency Proceeding), fees, commissions, expense reimbursements, indemnifications or otherwise (such obligations, to the extent not paid by the Borrower, being the "Guaranteed Obligations"), and agrees to pay any and all expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and expenses) incurred by the Secured Parties in enforcing any rights under the guaranty set forth in this Article XI. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Guarantor's liability shall extend to all amounts that constitute part of the Guaranteed Obligations and would be owed by the Borrower to the Secured Parties under any Loan Document but for the fact that they are unenforceable or not allowable due to the existence of an Insolvency Proceeding involving the Borrower.

Section 11.02 Guaranty Absolute. Each Guarantor jointly and severally guarantees that the Guaranteed Obligations will be paid strictly in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents, regardless of any law, regulation or order now or hereafter in effect in any jurisdiction affecting any of such terms or the rights of the Secured Parties with respect thereto. Each Guarantor agrees that this Article XI constitutes a guaranty of payment when due and not of collection and waives any right to require that any resort be made by any Agent or any Lender to any Collateral. The obligations of each Guarantor under this Article XI are independent of the Guaranteed Obligations, and a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against each Guarantor to enforce such obligations, irrespective of whether any action is brought against any Loan Party or whether any Loan Party is joined in any such action or actions. The liability of each Guarantor under this Article XI shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional irrespective of, and each Guarantor hereby irrevocably waives any defenses it may now or hereafter have in any way relating to, any or all of the following:

(a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Loan Document or any agreement or instrument relating thereto;

(b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any of the Guaranteed Obligations, or any other amendment or waiver of or any consent to departure from any Loan Document, including, without limitation, any increase in the Guaranteed Obligations resulting from the extension of additional credit to any Loan Party or otherwise;

(c) any taking, exchange, release or non-perfection of any Collateral, or any taking, release or amendment or waiver of or consent to departure from any other guaranty, for all or any of the Guaranteed Obligations;

(d) the existence of any claim, set-off, defense or other right that any Guarantor may have at any time against any Person, including, without limitation, any Secured Party;

(e) any change, restructuring or termination of the corporate, limited liability company or partnership structure or existence of any Loan Party; or

(f) any other circumstance (including, without limitation, any statute of limitations) or any existence of or reliance on any representation by the Secured Parties that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, any Loan Party or any other guarantor or surety.

This Article XI shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time any payment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Secured Parties or any other Person upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of the Borrower or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

Section 11.03 Waiver. Each Guarantor hereby waives (i) promptness and diligence, (ii) notice of acceptance and any other notice with respect to any of the Guaranteed Obligations and this Article XI and any requirement that the Secured Parties exhaust any right or take any action against any Loan Party or any other Person or any Collateral, (iii) any right to compel or direct any Secured Party to seek payment or recovery of any amounts owed under this Article XI from any one particular fund or source or to exhaust any right or take any action against any other Loan Party, any other Person or any Collateral, (iv) any requirement that any Secured Party protect, secure, perfect or insure any security interest or Lien on any property subject thereto or exhaust any right to take any action against any Loan Party, any other Person or any Collateral, and (v) any other defense available to any Guarantor. Each Guarantor agrees that the Secured Parties shall have no obligation to marshal any assets in favor of any Guarantor or against, or in payment of, any or all of the Obligations. Each Guarantor acknowledges that it will receive direct and indirect benefits from the financing arrangements contemplated herein and that the waiver set forth in this Section 11.03 is knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits. Each Guarantor hereby waives any right to revoke this Article XI, and acknowledges that this Article XI is continuing in nature and applies to all Guaranteed Obligations, whether existing now or in the future.

Section 11.04 Continuing Guaranty; Assignments. This Article XI is a continuing guaranty and shall (a) remain in full force and effect until the later of the cash payment in full of the Guaranteed Obligations (other than Contingent Indemnity Obligations) and all other amounts payable under this Article XI and the Final Maturity Date, (b) be binding upon each Guarantor, its successors and assigns and (c) inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Secured Parties and their successors, pledgees, transferees and assigns. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing clause (c), any Lender may pledge, assign or otherwise transfer all or any portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, all or any portion of its Commitments or its Loans owing to it) to any other Person, and such other Person shall thereupon become vested with all the benefits in respect thereof granted such Lender herein or otherwise, in each case as provided in Section 12.07.

Section 11.05 Subrogation. No Guarantor will exercise any rights that it may now or hereafter acquire against any Loan Party or any other guarantor that arise from the existence, payment, performance or enforcement of such Guarantor's obligations under this Article XI, including, without limitation, any right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, contribution or indemnification and any right to participate in any claim or remedy of the Secured Parties against any Loan Party or any other guarantor or any Collateral, whether or not such claim, remedy or right arises in equity or under contract, statute or common law, including, without limitation, the right to take or receive from any Loan Party or any other guarantor, directly or indirectly, in cash or other property or by set-off or in any other manner, payment or security solely on account of such claim, remedy or right, unless and until all of the Guaranteed

Obligations (other than Contingent Indemnity Obligations) and all other amounts payable under this Article XI shall have been paid in full in cash and the Final Maturity Date shall have occurred. If any amount shall be paid to any Guarantor in violation of the immediately preceding sentence at any time prior to the later of the payment in full in cash of the Guaranteed Obligations (other than Contingent Indemnity Obligations) and all other amounts payable under this Article XI and the Final Maturity Date, such amount shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties and shall forthwith be paid to the Secured Parties to be credited and applied to the Guaranteed Obligations and all other amounts payable under this Article XI, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, or to be held as Collateral for any Guaranteed Obligations or other amounts payable under this Article XI thereafter arising. If (i) any Guarantor shall make payment to the Secured Parties of all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations, (ii) all of the Guaranteed Obligations and all other amounts payable under this Article XI shall be paid in full in cash and (iii) the Final Maturity Date shall have occurred, the Secured Parties will, at such Guarantor's request and expense, execute and deliver to such Guarantor appropriate documents, without recourse and without representation or warranty, necessary to evidence the transfer by subrogation to such Guarantor of an interest in the Guaranteed Obligations resulting from such payment by such Guarantor.

Section 11.06 Contribution. All Guarantors desire to allocate among themselves, in a fair and equitable manner, their obligations arising under this Guaranty. Accordingly, in the event any payment or distribution is made on any date by a Guarantor under this Guaranty such that its Aggregate Payments exceeds its Fair Share as of such date, such Guarantor shall be entitled to a contribution from each of the other Guarantors in an amount sufficient to cause each Guarantor's Aggregate Payments to equal its Fair Share as of such date. "Fair Share" means, with respect to any Guarantor as of any date of determination, an amount equal to (a) the ratio of (i) the Fair Share Contribution Amount with respect to such Guarantor, to (ii) the aggregate of the Fair Share Contribution Amounts with respect to all Guarantors multiplied by, (b) the aggregate amount paid or distributed on or before such date by all Guarantors under this Guaranty in respect of the obligations Guaranteed. "Fair Share Contribution Amount" means, with respect to any Guarantor as of any date of determination, the maximum aggregate amount of the obligations of such Guarantor under this Guaranty that would not render its obligations hereunder subject to avoidance as a fraudulent transfer or conveyance under Section 548 of Title 11 of the United States Code or any comparable applicable provisions of state law; provided, solely for purposes of calculating the "Fair Share Contribution Amount" with respect to any Guarantor for purposes of this Section 11.06, any assets or liabilities of such Guarantor arising by virtue of any rights to subrogation, reimbursement or indemnification or any rights to or obligations of contribution hereunder shall not be considered as assets or liabilities of such Guarantor. "Aggregate Payments" means, with respect to any Guarantor as of any date of determination, an amount equal to (A) the aggregate amount of all payments and distributions made on or before such date by such Guarantor in respect of this Guaranty (including, without limitation, in respect of this Section 11.06), minus (B) the aggregate amount of all payments received on or before such date by such Guarantor from the other Guarantors as contributions under this Section 11.06. The amounts payable as contributions hereunder shall be determined as of the date on which the related payment or distribution is made by the applicable Guarantor. The allocation among Guarantors of their obligations as set forth in this Section 11.06 shall not be construed in any way to limit the liability of any Guarantor hereunder. Each Guarantor is a third party beneficiary to the contribution agreement set forth in this Section 11.06.

(i) Each Agent and the Borrower may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it; provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications. Notices and other communications to the Lenders hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communication (including e mail and Internet or intranet websites) pursuant to procedures approved by the Agents, provided that the foregoing shall not apply to notices to any Lender pursuant to Article II if such Lender has notified the Agents that it is incapable of receiving notices under such Article by electronic communication.

Section 12.02 Amendments, Etc. (a) No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, and no consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed (x) in the case of an amendment, consent or waiver to cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency or granting a new Lien for the benefit of the Agents and the Lenders or extending an existing Lien over additional property, by the Agents and the Borrower, (y) in the case of any other waiver or consent, by the Required Lenders (or by the Collateral Agent with the consent of the Required Lenders) and (z) in the case of any other amendment, by the Required Lenders (or by the Collateral Agent with the consent of the Required Lenders) and the Borrower, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given; provided, however, that no amendment, waiver or consent shall:

(i) increase the Commitment of any Lender, reduce the principal of, or interest on, the Loans payable to any Lender, reduce the amount of any fee payable for the account of any Lender, or postpone or extend any scheduled date fixed for any payment of principal of, or interest or fees on, the Loans payable to any Lender, in each case, without the written consent of such Lender;

(ii) [reserved];

(iii) change the percentage of the Commitments or of the aggregate unpaid principal amount of the Loans that is required for the Lenders or any of them to take any action hereunder without the written consent of each Lender;

(iv) amend the definition of "Required Lenders" or "Pro Rata Share" without the written consent of each Lender;

(v) release all or a substantial portion of the Collateral (except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents), subordinate any Lien granted in favor of the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Agents and the Lenders, or release the Borrower or any Guarantor (except in connection with a Disposition of the Equity Interests thereof permitted by Section 7.02(c)(ii)), in each case, without the written consent of each Lender; or

(vi) amend, modify or waive Section 4.02, Section 4.03 or this Section 12.02 of this Agreement without the written consent of each Lender.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 12.02(a):

(i) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by an Agent, affect the rights or duties of such Agent (but not in its capacity as a Lender) under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents;

(ii) any amendment, waiver or consent to any provision of this Agreement (including Sections 4.01 and 4.02) that permits any Loan Party, any Permitted Holder (or other equity holder of the Parent) or any of their respective Affiliates to purchase Loans on a non-pro rata basis, become an eligible assignee pursuant to Section 12.07 and/or make offers to make optional prepayments on a non-pro rata basis shall require the prior written consent of the Required Lenders rather than the prior written consent of each Lender directly affected thereby;

(iii) any Control Agreement, Guaranty, Mortgage, Security Agreement, collateral access agreement, landlord waiver or other agreement or document purporting to create or perfect a security interest in any of the Collateral (a "Collateral Document") may be amended, waived or otherwise modified with the consent of the applicable Agent and the applicable Loan Party without the need to obtain the consent of any Lender or any other Person if such amendment, modification, supplement or waiver is delivered in order (A) to comply with local Requirements of Law (including foreign law or regulatory requirements) or advice of local counsel, (B) to cure any ambiguity, inconsistency, omission, mistake or defect or (C) to cause such Collateral Document to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, and if the Administrative Agent and the Borrower shall have jointly identified an ambiguity, inconsistency, omission, mistake or defect, in each case, in any provision of any Loan Document (other than a Collateral Document), then the Administrative Agent and the Borrower shall be permitted to amend such provision; any amendment, waiver or modification pursuant to this paragraph shall become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to any Loan Document if the same is not objected to in writing by the Required Lenders within five (5) Business Days following receipt of notice thereof;

(iv) no consent of any Loan Party shall be required to change any order of priority set forth in Section 4.03; and

(v) no Loan Party, Permitted Holder (or other equity holder of the Parent) or any of their respective Affiliates that is a Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent under the Loan Documents and any Loans held by such Person for purposes hereof shall be automatically deemed to be voted pro rata according to the Loans of all other Lenders in the aggregate (other than such Loan Party, Permitted Holder (or other equity holder of the Parent) or Affiliate);

(vi) (x) no Specified Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent under the Loan Documents and (y) for purposes of determining whether the Required Lenders, all Lenders or affected Lenders (or any other requisite number of Lenders) have consented to any amendment, waiver, consent or modification of any Loan Document or otherwise acted on any matter related to any Loan Document, the aggregate amount of Loans owed to the Specified Lenders shall be automatically deemed to be voted pro rata according to the Loans of all other Lenders in the aggregate (other than such Specified Lenders); provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, no amendment, waiver or consent under the Loan Documents shall by its terms treat any Specified Lender in a manner that has a disproportionate effect on such Specified Lender without the written consent of such Specified Lender.

Section 12.03 No Waiver; Remedies, Etc. No failure on the part of any Agent or any Lender to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right under any Loan Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right. The rights and remedies of the Agents and the Lenders provided herein and in the other Loan Documents are cumulative and are in addition to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies provided by law. The rights of the Agents and the Lenders under any Loan Document against any party thereto are not conditional or contingent on any attempt by the Agents and the Lenders to exercise any of their rights under any other Loan Document against such party or against any other Person.

Section 12.04 Expenses; Taxes; Attorneys' Fees. The Borrower will pay on demand, all costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of each Agent (and, in the case of clauses (b) through (m) below, each Lender), regardless of whether the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, including, without limitation, reasonable fees, costs, client charges and expenses of counsel for each Agent (and, in the case of clauses (b) through (m) below, each Lender) (but limited in the case of such legal fees, costs, client charges and expenses to one primary legal counsel to the Agents (plus any reasonably necessary or advisable local counsel) and one additional counsel for the other Lenders in the aggregate (plus, in the case of any actual or bona fide perceived conflict of interest, additional counsel in each relevant jurisdiction to the similarly situated affected Agents or Lenders), accounting, due diligence, investigations, searches and filings, monitoring of assets, the rating of the Loans, Real Estate Deliverables and reviewing environmental assessments, miscellaneous disbursements, examination, travel, lodging and meals, arising from or relating to: (a) the negotiation, preparation, execution, delivery, performance and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (including, without limitation, the preparation of any additional Loan Documents pursuant to Section 7.01(b) or the review of any of the agreements, instruments and documents referred to in Section 7.01(f)), (b) any requested amendments, waivers or consents to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents whether or not such documents become effective or are given, (c) the preservation and protection of the Agents' or any of the Lenders' rights under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, (d) the defense of any claim or action asserted or brought against any Agent or any Lender by any Person that arises from or relates to this Agreement, any other Loan Document, the Agents' or the Lenders' claims against any Loan Party, or any and all matters in connection therewith, (e) the commencement or defense of, or intervention in, any court proceeding arising from or related to this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (f) the filing of any petition, complaint, answer, motion or other pleading by any Agent or any Lender, or the taking of any action in respect of the Collateral or other security, in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (g) the protection, collection, lease, sale, taking possession of or liquidation of, any Collateral or other security in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (h) any attempt to enforce any Lien or security interest in any Collateral or other security in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (i) any attempt to collect from any Loan Party, (j) any Environmental Claim, Environmental Liability or Remedial Action arising from or in connection with the past, present or future operations of, or any property currently, formerly or in the future owned, leased or operated by, any Loan Party, any of its Subsidiaries or any predecessor in interest, (k) any Environmental Lien, (l) the rating of the Loans by one or more rating agencies in connection with any Lender's Securitization, or (m) the receipt by any Agent or any Lender of any advice from professionals with respect to any of the foregoing. Without limitation of the foregoing or any other provision of any Loan Document: (x) the Borrower agrees to pay all broker fees that may become due in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and (y) if the Borrower fails to perform any covenant or agreement contained herein or in any other Loan Document, any Agent may itself perform or cause performance of such covenant or agreement, and the expenses of such Agent incurred in connection therewith shall be reimbursed on demand by the Borrower. The obligations of the Borrower under this Section 12.04 shall survive the repayment of the Obligations and discharge of any Liens granted under the Loan Documents.

Section 12.05 Right of Set-off. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, any Agent or any Lender may, and is hereby authorized to, at any time and from time to time, without notice to any Loan Party (any such notice being expressly waived by the Loan Parties) and to the fullest extent permitted by law, set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other Indebtedness at any time owing by such Agent or such Lender or any of their respective Affiliates to or for the credit or the account of any Loan Party against any and all obligations of the Loan Parties either now or hereafter existing under any Loan Document, irrespective of whether or not such Agent or such Lender shall have made any demand hereunder or thereunder and although such obligations may be contingent or unmatured. Each Agent and each Lender agrees to notify such Loan Party promptly after any such set-off and application made by such Agent or such Lender or any of their respective Affiliates; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application. The rights of the Agents and the Lenders under this Section 12.05 are in addition to the other rights and remedies (including other rights of set-off) which the Agents and the Lenders may have under this Agreement or any other Loan Documents of law or otherwise.

Section 12.06 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining portions hereof or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 12.07 Assignments and Participations.

(a) This Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each Loan Party and each Agent and each Lender and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, that none of the Loan Parties may assign or transfer any of its rights hereunder or under the other Loan Documents without the prior written consent of each Lender and any such assignment without the Lenders' prior written consent shall be null and void.

(b) Subject to the conditions set forth in clause (c) below, each Lender may assign to one or more other lenders or other entities (other than any Disqualified Entity, unless an Event of Default under subsection (f) or (g) of Section 9.01 has occurred and is continuing),all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to all or a portion of its Term Loan Commitment and any Term Loan made by it with the written consent of the Collateral Agent; provided, however, that no written consent of the Collateral Agent shall be required (A) in connection with any assignment by a Lender to a Lender, an Affiliate of such Lender or a Related Fund of such Lender or (B) if such assignment is in connection with any merger, consolidation, sale, transfer, or other disposition of all or any substantial portion of the business or loan portfolio of such Lender.

(c) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(i) Each such assignment shall be in an amount which is at least $5,000,000 or a multiple of $1,000,000 in excess thereof (or the remainder of such Lender's Commitment) (except such minimum amount shall not apply to an assignment by a Lender to (A) a Lender, an Affiliate of such Lender or a Related Fund of such Lender or (B) a group of new Lenders, each of whom is an Affiliate or Related Fund of each other to the extent the aggregate amount to be assigned to all such new Lenders is at least $5,000,000 or a multiple of $1,000,000 in excess thereof);

(ii) The parties to each such assignment shall execute and deliver to the Collateral Agent (and the Administrative Agent, if applicable), for its acceptance, an Assignment and Acceptance, together with any promissory note subject to such assignment and such parties shall deliver to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Collateral Agent, a processing and recordation fee of $[] (except the payment of such fee shall not be required in connection with an assignment by a Lender to a Lender, an Affiliate of such Lender or a Related Fund of such Lender); and

(iii) No such assignment shall be made to any Loan Party, any Permitted Holder (or other equity holder of Holdings) or any of their respective Affiliates.

(d) Upon such execution, delivery and acceptance, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance and recordation on the Register, which effective date shall be at least 3 Business Days after the delivery thereof to the Collateral Agent (or such shorter period as shall be agreed to by the Collateral Agent and the parties to such assignment), (A) the assignee thereunder shall become a "Lender" hereunder and, in addition to the rights and obligations hereunder held by it immediately prior to such effective date, have the rights and obligations hereunder that have been assigned to it pursuant to such Assignment and Acceptance and (B) the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent that rights and obligations hereunder have been assigned by it pursuant to such Assignment and Acceptance, relinquish its rights and be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all or the remaining portion of an assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto).

(e) By executing and delivering an Assignment and Acceptance, the assigning Lender and the assignee thereunder confirm to and agree with each other and the other parties hereto as follows: (i) other than as provided in such Assignment and Acceptance, the assigning Lender makes no representation or warranty and assumes no responsibility with respect to any statements, warranties or representations made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the execution, legality, validity, enforceability, genuineness, sufficiency or value of this Agreement or any other Loan Document furnished pursuant hereto; (ii) the assigning Lender makes no representation or warranty and assumes no responsibility with respect to the financial condition of any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries or the performance or observance by any Loan Party of any of its obligations under this Agreement or any other Loan Document furnished pursuant hereto; (iii) such assignee confirms that it has received a copy of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, together with such other documents and information it has deemed appropriate to make its own credit analysis and decision to enter into such Assignment and Acceptance; (iv) such assignee will, independently and without reliance upon the assigning Lender, any Agent or any Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents; (v) such assignee appoints and authorizes the Agents to take such action as agents on its behalf and to exercise such powers under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as are delegated to the Agents by the terms hereof and thereof, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental hereto and thereto; and (vi) such assignee agrees that it will perform in accordance with their terms all of the obligations which by the terms of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents are required to be performed by it as a Lender.

(f) The Administrative Agent shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, maintain, or cause to be maintained at the Payment Office, a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to and accepted by it and a register (the "Register") for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders and the Commitments of, and the principal amount of the Loans (and stated interest thereon) (the "Registered Loans") owing to each Lender from time to time. The entries in the Register shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Agents and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower and any Lender at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(g) Upon receipt by the Administrative Agent of a completed Assignment and Acceptance, and subject to any consent required from the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent pursuant to Section 12.07(b) (which consent of the applicable Agent must be evidenced by such Agent's execution of an acceptance to such Assignment and Acceptance), the Administrative Agent shall accept such assignment, record the information contained therein in the Register (as adjusted to reflect any principal payments on or amounts capitalized and added to the principal balance of the Loans and/or Commitment reductions made subsequent to the effective date of the applicable assignment, as confirmed in writing by the corresponding assignor and assignee in conjunction with delivery of the assignment to the Administrative Agent) and provide to the Collateral Agent a copy of the fully executed Assignment and Acceptance.

(h) A Registered Loan (and the registered note, if any, evidencing the same) may be assigned or sold in whole or in part only by registration of such assignment or sale on the Register (and each registered note shall expressly so provide). Any assignment or sale of all or part of such Registered Loan (and the registered note, if any, evidencing the same) may be effected only by registration of such assignment or sale on the Register, together with the surrender of the registered note, if any, evidencing the same duly endorsed by (or accompanied by a written instrument of assignment or sale duly executed by) the holder of such registered note, whereupon, at the request of the designated assignee(s) or transferee(s), one or more new registered notes in the same aggregate principal amount shall be issued to the designated assignee(s) or transferee(s).

(i) If any Lender sells participations in a Registered Loan, such Lender shall, acting for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent on behalf of the Borrower, maintain, or cause to be maintained, a register, on which it enters the name of all participants in the Registered Loans held by it and the principal amount (and stated interest thereon) of the portion of the Registered Loan that is the subject of the participation (the "Participant Register"). A Registered Loan (and the registered note, if any, evidencing the same) may be participated in whole or in part only by registration of such participation on the Participant Register (and each registered note shall expressly so provide). Any participation of such Registered Loan (and the registered note, if any, evidencing the same) may be effected only by the registration of such participation on the Participant Register. The Participant Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower and any Lender at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(j) Any Non-U.S. Lender who purchases or is assigned or participates in any portion of such Registered Loan shall comply with Section 2.09(d).

(k) Each Lender may sell participations to one or more banks or other entities in or to all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (including, without limitation, all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans made by it; provided, that (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement (including without limitation, its Commitments hereunder) and the other Loan Documents shall remain unchanged; (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations, and the Borrower, the Agents and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents; and (iii) a participant shall not be entitled to require such Lender to take or omit to take any action hereunder except (A) action directly effecting an extension of the maturity dates or decrease in the principal amount of the Loans, (B) action directly effecting an extension of the due dates or a decrease in the rate of interest payable on the Loans or the fees payable under this Agreement, or (C) actions directly effecting a release of all or a substantial portion of the Collateral or any Loan Party (except as set forth in Section 10.08 of this Agreement or any other Loan Document). The Loan Parties agree that each participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 2.09 and Section 2.10 of this Agreement with respect to its participation in any portion of the Commitments and the Loans as if it was a Lender but not in an amount in excess of any amounts under such Sections that would have been payable to the Lender granting such participation.

(l) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank or loans made to, or other indebtedness issued by, such Lender pursuant to a securitization transaction (including any structured warehouse credit facility, collateralized loan obligation transaction or similar facility or transaction, and including any further securitization of the indebtedness or equity issued under such a transaction) (a "Securitization"); provided that no such pledge or assignment shall release such Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto. The Loan Parties shall cooperate with such Lender and its Affiliates to effect a Securitization, including, without limitation, by providing such information as may be reasonably requested by such Lender in connection with the rating of its Loans or any Securitization.

Section 12.08 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement by telecopier or electronic mail shall be equally as effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart of this Agreement. Any party delivering an executed counterpart of this Agreement by telecopier or electronic mail also shall deliver an original executed counterpart of this Agreement but the failure to deliver an original executed counterpart shall not affect the validity, enforceability, and binding effect of this Agreement. The foregoing shall apply to each other Loan Document mutatis mutandis.

Section 12.09 GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (UNLESS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED TO THE CONTRARY IN ANOTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IN RESPECT OF SUCH OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT) SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK APPLICABLE TO CONTRACTS MADE AND TO BE PERFORMED IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

Section 12.10 CONSENT TO JURISDICTION; SERVICE OF PROCESS AND VENUE.

(a) ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING WITH RESPECT TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT MAY BE BROUGHT IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK IN THE COUNTY OF NEW YORK OR OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, AND, BY EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT, EACH LOAN PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY ACCEPTS IN RESPECT OF ITS PROPERTY, GENERALLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY, THE JURISDICTION OF THE AFORESAID COURTS. EACH LOAN PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO THE SERVICE OF PROCESS OUT OF ANY OF THE AFOREMENTIONED COURTS AND IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY ANY MEANS PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, BY THE MAILING OF COPIES THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, TO THE BORROWER AT ITS ADDRESS FOR NOTICES AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 12.01, SUCH SERVICE TO BECOME EFFECTIVE 10 DAYS AFTER SUCH MAILING. THE LOAN PARTIES AGREE THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW. NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF THE AGENTS AND THE LENDERS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR TO COMMENCE LEGAL PROCEEDINGS OR OTHERWISE PROCEED AGAINST ANY LOAN PARTY IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION. EACH LOAN PARTY HEREBY EXPRESSLY AND IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE JURISDICTION OR LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY SUCH LITIGATION BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT REFERRED TO ABOVE AND ANY CLAIM THAT ANY SUCH LITIGATION HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM. TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY LOAN PARTY HAS OR HEREAFTER MAY ACQUIRE ANY IMMUNITY FROM JURISDICTION OF ANY COURT OR FROM ANY LEGAL PROCESS (WHETHER THROUGH SERVICE OR NOTICE, ATTACHMENT PRIOR TO JUDGMENT, ATTACHMENT IN AID OF EXECUTION OR OTHERWISE) WITH RESPECT TO ITSELF OR ITS PROPERTY, EACH LOAN PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES SUCH IMMUNITY IN RESPECT OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS.

(b) Each Loan Party irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that it will not commence any action or proceeding of any kind or description, whether in law or equity, whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, against any Agent, any Lender or any Related Party of the foregoing in any way relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the transactions relating hereto or thereto, in any forum other than the courts of the State of New York sitting in New York County, and of the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York, and any appellate court from any thereof.

Section 12.11 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL, ETC. EACH LOAN PARTY, EACH AGENT AND EACH LENDER HEREBY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM CONCERNING ANY RIGHTS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, OR UNDER ANY AMENDMENT, WAIVER, CONSENT, INSTRUMENT, DOCUMENT OR OTHER AGREEMENT DELIVERED OR WHICH IN THE FUTURE MAY BE DELIVERED IN CONNECTION THEREWITH, OR ARISING FROM ANY FINANCING RELATIONSHIP EXISTING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, AND AGREES THAT ANY SUCH ACTION, PROCEEDINGS OR COUNTERCLAIM SHALL BE TRIED BEFORE A COURT AND NOT BEFORE A JURY. EACH LOAN PARTY CERTIFIES THAT NO OFFICER, REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY AGENT OR ANY LENDER HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT ANY AGENT OR ANY LENDER WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVERS. EACH LOAN PARTY HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES

THAT THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE AGENTS AND THE LENDERS ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 12.12 Consent by the Agents and Lenders. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein to the contrary or in any other Loan Document, if the consent, approval, satisfaction, determination, judgment, acceptance or similar action (an "Action") of any Agent or any Lender shall be permitted or required pursuant to any provision hereof or any provision of any other agreement to which any Loan Party is a party and to which any Agent or any Lender has succeeded thereto, such Action shall be required to be in writing and may be withheld or denied by such Agent or such Lender, in its sole discretion, with or without any reason, and without being subject to question or challenge on the grounds that such Action was not taken in good faith.

Section 12.13 No Party Deemed Drafter. Each of the parties hereto agrees that no party hereto shall be deemed to be the drafter of this Agreement.

Section 12.14 Reinstatement; Certain Payments. If any claim is ever made upon any Secured Party for repayment or recovery of any amount or amounts received by such Secured Party in payment or on account of any of the Obligations, such Secured Party shall give prompt notice of such claim to each other Agent and Lender and the Borrower, and if such Secured Party repays all or part of such amount by reason of (i) any judgment, decree or order of any court or administrative body having jurisdiction over such Secured Party or any of its property, or (ii) any good faith settlement or compromise of any such claim effected by such Secured Party with any such claimant, then and in such event each Loan Party agrees that (A) any such judgment, decree, order, settlement or compromise shall be binding upon it notwithstanding the cancellation of any Indebtedness hereunder or under the other Loan Documents or the termination of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, and (B) it shall be and remain liable to such Secured Party hereunder for the amount so repaid or recovered to the same extent as if such amount had never originally been received by such Secured Party.

Section 12.15 Indemnification; Limitation of Liability for Certain Damages.

(a) In addition to each Loan Party's other Obligations under this Agreement, each Loan Party agrees to, jointly and severally, defend, protect, indemnify and hold harmless each Secured Party and all of their respective Related Parties (collectively called the "Indemnitees") from and against any and all losses, damages, liabilities, obligations, penalties, fees, reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses) incurred by such Indemnitees, whether prior to or from and after the Effective Date, whether direct, indirect or consequential, as a result of or arising from or relating to or in connection with any of the following: (i) the negotiation, preparation, execution or performance or enforcement of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or of any other document executed in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) any Agent's or any Lender's furnishing of funds to the Borrower under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, including, without limitation, the management of any such Loans or the Borrower's use of the proceeds thereof, (iii) the Agents and the Lenders relying on any instructions of the Borrower or the handling of the Loan Account and Collateral of the Borrower as herein provided, (iv) any matter relating to the financing transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or by any document executed in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, (v) any direct or indirect violation of any Requirements of Law relating in any way to Cannabis Activities or Marijuana, including but not limited to any civil or financial liability for claims such as conspiracy, aiding and abetting, violation of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act or the Money Laundering Control Act of 1986 in respect thereof or (vi) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto (collectively, the "Indemnified Matters"); provided, however, that the Loan Parties shall not have any obligation to any Indemnitee under this subsection (a) for any Indemnified Matter caused by (i) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee, as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or (ii) material breach by any Lender or Agent of its obligations hereunder with respect to funding the Term Loan or confidentiality undertakings set forth in Section 12.19, as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) The indemnification for all of the foregoing losses, damages, fees, costs and expenses of the Indemnitees set forth in this Section 12.15 are chargeable against the Loan Account. To the extent that the undertaking to indemnify, pay and hold harmless set forth in this Section 12.15 may be unenforceable because it is violative of any law or public policy, each Loan Party shall, jointly and severally, contribute the maximum portion which it is permitted to pay and satisfy under applicable law, to the payment and satisfaction of all Indemnified Matters incurred by the Indemnitees.

(c) No Loan Party shall assert, and each Loan Party hereby waives, any claim against the Indemnitees, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) (whether or not the claim therefor is based on contract, tort or duty imposed by any applicable legal requirement) arising out of, in connection with, as a result of, or in any way related to, this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby or referred to herein or therein, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, any Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof or any act or omission or event occurring in connection therewith, and each Loan Party hereby waives, releases and agrees not to sue upon any such claim or seek any such damages, whether or not accrued and whether or not known or suspected to exist in its favor.

(d) The indemnities and waivers set forth in this Section 12.15 shall survive the repayment of the Obligations and discharge of any Liens granted under the Loan Documents.

Section 12.16 Records. The unpaid principal of and interest on the Loans, the interest rate or rates applicable to such unpaid principal and interest, the duration of such applicability, the Commitments, and the accrued and unpaid fees payable pursuant to Section 2.06 hereof, shall at all times be ascertained from the records of the Agents, which shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error.

Section 12.17 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by each Loan Party, each Agent and each Lender and when the conditions precedent set forth in Section 5.01 hereof have been satisfied or waived in writing by the Agents, and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each Loan Party, each Agent and each Lender, and their respective successors and assigns, except that the Loan Parties shall not have the right to assign their rights hereunder or any interest herein without the prior written consent of each Agent and each Lender, and any assignment by any Lender shall be governed by Section 12.07 hereof.

Section 12.18 Highest Lawful Rate. It is the intention of the parties hereto that each Agent and each Lender shall conform strictly to usury laws applicable to it. Accordingly, if the transactions contemplated hereby or by any other Loan Document would be usurious as to any Agent or any Lender under laws applicable to it (including the laws of the United States of America and the State of New York or any other jurisdiction whose laws may be mandatorily applicable to such Agent or such Lender notwithstanding the other provisions of this Agreement), then, in that event, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any agreement entered into in connection with or as security for the Obligations, it is agreed as follows: (i) the aggregate of all consideration which constitutes interest under law applicable to any Agent or any Lender that is contracted for, taken, reserved, charged or received by such Agent or such Lender under this Agreement or any other Loan Document or agreements or otherwise in connection with the Obligations shall under no circumstances exceed the maximum amount allowed by such applicable law, any excess shall be canceled automatically and if theretofore paid shall be credited by such Agent or such Lender on the principal amount of the Obligations (or, to the extent that the principal amount of the Obligations shall have been or would thereby be paid in full, refunded by such Agent or such Lender, as applicable, to the Borrower); and (ii) in the event that the maturity of the Obligations is accelerated by reason of any Event of Default under this Agreement or otherwise, or in the event of any required or permitted prepayment, then such consideration that constitutes interest under law applicable to any Agent or any Lender may never include more than the maximum amount allowed by such applicable law, and excess interest, if any, provided for in this Agreement or otherwise shall, subject to the last sentence of this Section 12.18, be canceled automatically by such Agent or such Lender, as applicable, as of the date of such acceleration or prepayment and, if theretofore paid, shall be credited by such Agent or such Lender, as applicable, on the principal amount of the Obligations (or, to the extent that the principal amount of the Obligations shall have been or would thereby be paid in full, refunded by such Agent or such Lender to the Borrower). All sums paid or agreed to be paid to any Agent or any Lender for the use, forbearance or detention of sums due hereunder shall, to the extent permitted by law applicable to such Agent or such Lender, be amortized, prorated, allocated and spread throughout the full term of the Loans until payment in full so that the rate or amount of interest on account of any Loans hereunder does not exceed the maximum amount allowed by such applicable law. If at any time and from time to time (x) the amount of interest payable to any Agent or any Lender on any date shall be computed at the Highest Lawful Rate applicable to such Agent or such Lender pursuant to this Section 12.18 and (y) in respect of any subsequent interest computation period the amount of interest otherwise payable to such Agent or such Lender would be less than the amount of interest payable to such Agent or such Lender computed at the Highest Lawful Rate applicable to such Agent or such Lender, then the amount of interest payable to such Agent or such Lender in respect of such subsequent interest computation period shall continue to be computed at the Highest Lawful Rate applicable to such Agent or such Lender until the total amount of interest payable to such Agent or such Lender shall equal the total amount of interest which would have been payable to such Agent or such Lender if the total amount of interest had been computed without giving effect to this Section 12.18.

For purposes of this Section 12.18, the term "applicable law" shall mean that law in effect from time to time and applicable to the loan transaction between the Borrower, on the one hand, and the Agents and the Lenders, on the other, that lawfully permits the charging and collection of the highest permissible, lawful non-usurious rate of interest on such loan transaction and this Agreement, including laws of the State of New York and, to the extent controlling, laws of the United States of America.

The right to accelerate the maturity of the Obligations does not include the right to accelerate any interest that has not accrued as of the date of acceleration.

Section 12.19 Confidentiality. Each Agent and each Lender agrees (on behalf of itself and its Related Parties) to use reasonable precautions to keep confidential, in accordance with its customary procedures for handling confidential information of this nature and in accordance with safe and sound practices of comparable commercial finance companies, any non-public information supplied to it by the Loan Parties pursuant to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents (which at the time is not, and does not thereafter become, publicly available or available to such Person from another source not known to be subject to a confidentiality obligation to such Person not to disclose such information), provided that nothing herein shall limit the disclosure by any Agent or any Lender of any such information (i) to its Affiliates, its Related Parties or the Related Parties of any Person described in clauses (ii) or (iii) below (it being understood that the Persons to whom such disclosure is made either will be informed of the confidential nature of such information and instructed to keep such information confidential in accordance with this Section 12.19 or is subject to other customary confidentiality obligations); (ii) to any other party hereto; (iii) to any assignee or participant (or prospective assignee or participant) or any party to a Securitization, so long as such assignee or participant (or prospective assignee or participant) or party to a Securitization agrees, in writing, to be bound by or is otherwise subject to customary confidentiality obligations (including, without limitation, confidentiality provisions similar in substance to this Section 12.19); (iv) to the extent required by any Requirement of Law or judicial process or as otherwise requested by any Governmental Authority; (v) to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any similar organization, any examiner, auditor or accountant or any nationally recognized rating agency; (vi) in connection with any litigation to which any Agent or any Lender is a party; (vii) in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or under any other Loan Document or any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the enforcement of rights hereunder or thereunder; (viii) to any other Person if such information is general portfolio information that does not identity the Loan Parties, or (ix) with the consent of the Borrower. In addition, the Agents and the Lenders may disclose the existence of this Agreement and information about this Agreement to market data collectors, similar service providers to the lending industry and service providers to any Agent or any Lender in connection with the administration of this Agreement, the other Loan Documents and the Commitments.

Section 12.20 Public Disclosure. Each Loan Party agrees that neither it nor any of its Affiliates will now or in the future issue any press release or other public disclosure using the name of an Agent, any Lender or any of their respective Affiliates or referring to this Agreement or any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of such Agent or such Lender, except to the extent that such Loan Party or such Affiliate is required to do so under applicable law (in which event, such Loan Party or such Affiliate will consult with such Agent or such Lender before issuing such press release or other public disclosure). Each Loan Party hereby authorizes each Agent and each Lender, after consultation with the Borrower, to advertise the closing of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and to make appropriate announcements of the financial arrangements entered into among the parties hereto, as such Agent or such Lender shall deem appropriate, including, without limitation, on a home page or similar place for dissemination of information on the Internet or worldwide web, or in announcements commonly known as tombstones, in such trade publications, business journals, newspapers of general circulation and to such selected parties as such Agent or such Lender shall deem appropriate.

Section 12.21 Integration. This Agreement, together with the other Loan Documents, reflects the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and shall not be contradicted or qualified by any other agreement, oral or written, before the date hereof.

Section 12.22 USA PATRIOT Act. Each Lender that is subject to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act hereby notifies the Borrower that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the entity composing the Borrower, which information includes the name and address of such entity and other information that will allow such Lender to identify the entity composing the Borrower in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act. Each Loan Party agrees to take such action and execute, acknowledge and deliver at its sole cost and expense, such instruments and documents as any Lender may reasonably require from time to time in order to enable such Lender to comply with the USA PATRIOT Act.

(b) Except as supplemented hereby, the Financing Agreement and each other Loan Document shall continue to be, and shall remain, in full force and effect. Each Investor's obligations hereunder with respect to the purchase of a Note shall be several, and not joint.

3. Closing of Sale of Notes.

3.1 Closings. The closings with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby (each a "Closing") shall take place on one or more dates (each a "Closing Date") as may be determined by the Company either (i) until the Company shall have effectuated Closings for not more than $35,000,000 in original principal amount of the Notes (or such greater amount as may be determined by the Company in its sole discretion), or (ii) until the Board of Managers of the Company (the "Board") shall have determined, in its sole discretion, that the offering of the Notes made by this Agreement shall have terminated. The Company may accept or reject, in whole or in part and at its sole discretion, any offer by an Investor to purchase a Note.

3.2 Issuance and Delivery of Note. As of the date of each Closing, the Company shall issue and deliver to each Investor an executed Note in the form of Exhibit A in the original principal amount as is set forth on the Signature Page of such Investor delivered to the Company hereunder (which amount shall thereafter be entered by the Company on Schedule I opposite such Investor's name). The rights of each Investor with respect to such Investor's Note shall be as set forth in the Note and this Agreement.

4. Conversion of Notes. In accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Notes, the entire amount of outstanding principal and accrued interest under each Note shall be redeemed or converted, as follows:

4.1 Go-Public Transaction. From and after the date hereof, in the event that the Company completes a Go-Public Transaction (defined below) prior to the Maturity Date (as defined in the Notes), all Notes, including all accrued and unpaid interest thereon less applicable withholding taxes, shall automatically and simultaneously with the closing thereof be converted (which such conversion shall be mandatory as to all Notes outstanding at the time of such Go-Public Transaction) into equity securities of the Company issued in connection with the Go-Public Transaction (the "Go-Public Security"), with such numbers of Go-Public Securities of the Company issued on the basis of a price equal to the lesser of: (a) (i) in the event the Go-Public Transaction occurs on or before 12 months from the Closing Date, a 20% discount to the issue price of the Go-Public Securities; (ii) in the event the Go-Public Transaction occurs after 12 months from the Closing Date, but before the Maturity Date, a 25% discount to the issue price of the Go-Public Securities; and (b) a price per security equal to the price per share resulting from a pre-money valuation of the Company of $295,900,000 (the "Maturity Conversion Price") (which pre-money valuation is used for the sole purpose of calculating the amount of equity to which the Notes are converted into). As used herein, a "Go-Public Transaction" shall be defined as the closing of: (i) a transaction resulting in the business or assets of the Company being listed (directly or indirectly) on the Canadian Securities Exchange or any other recognized securities exchange (the "Stock Exchange"), including but not limited to an initial public offering, plan of arrangement, amalgamation, reverse take-over or other business combination pursuant to which the securities of the Company (or any resulting issuer or parent thereof) are listed on the Stock Exchange; and (ii) a concurrent financing for aggregate gross proceeds of greater than or equal to $20,000,000.

4.2 Maturity. If the Company does not consummate a Go-Public Transaction prior to the Maturity Date then, upon the election of the Holder of a Note, the outstanding principal amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest, on the Notes (i) shall be paid in full on the Maturity Date, or (ii) shall convert into shares of common units of the Company ("Shares"), at a price per Share reflecting the Maturity Conversion Price.

4.3 Change of Control. In the event that the Company effects a Change of Control (as defined below) prior to the Maturity Date, other than in connection with the Go-Public Transaction, then within 30 days following the consummation of a Change of Control, the Company shall make an offer in writing to each of the Holders (the "Change of Control Offer") to, at each of such Holders' election, either: (i) purchase the Notes from such Holders for cash at 102% of the principal amount thereof and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon; or (ii) convert the outstanding principal amount together with accrued and unpaid interest of the Note at a price equal to 95% of the Maturity Conversion Price. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if 90% or more of the principal amount of the Notes outstanding on the date of the giving of notice of the Change of Control have been tendered to the Company pursuant to an offer made to the Holders, the Company will have the right to redeem all the remaining Notes for cash at 102% of the principal amount thereof and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon. As used herein, a "Change of Control" shall mean, other than in connection with the Go-Public Transaction: (i) any transaction (whether by purchase, merger or otherwise) whereby a person or persons acting jointly or in concert directly or indirectly acquires the right to cast, at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company, more than 50% of the votes that may be ordinarily cast at a general meeting; (ii) the Company's amalgamation, consolidation or merger with or into any other person, any merger of another person into the Company, unless the holders of voting securities of the Company immediately prior to such amalgamation, consolidation or merger hold securities representing 50% or more of the voting control or direction in the Company or the successor entity upon completion of such amalgamation, consolidation or merger; or (iii) any conveyance, transfer, sale lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's and the Company's subsidiaries' assets and properties, taken as a whole, to another arm's length person.

4.4 In all events of conversion of Notes and as a condition thereto, which only the Company can waive, Holder agrees to execute all documents executed by members of the Company holding similar equity to which the Note is converted.

5. Representations and Warranties of the Company. The Company hereby represents and warrants to the Investors as follows:

5.1 Organization. The Company is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware; and has all requisite company power and authority to own and lease its property and to carry on its business as presently conducted and as proposed to be conducted.

5.2 Authorization of this Agreement and the Notes. The execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Agreement and the Notes and of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite action on the part of the Company. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of the Company that is enforceable in accordance with its terms. As of the date of issue thereof, each of the Notes will constitute a valid and binding obligation of the Company that is enforceable in accordance with its terms. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Notes, and the compliance with the provisions hereof and thereof by the Company, will not (i) conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute (with due notice or lapse of time, or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under (A) any agreement, document, instrument, contract, understanding, arrangement, note, indenture, mortgage or lease to which the Company is a party or under which the Company or any of its assets is bound or affected, (B) the Company's Certificate of Formation, or (C) the Company's limited liability company agreement; or (ii) result in the creation of any lien, security interest, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of the Company.

5.3 Consents and Approvals. No authorization, consent, approval or other order of, or declaration to or filing with, any governmental agency or body (other than filings required to be made under applicable federal or state securities laws) is required for the valid authorization, execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Agreement or the Notes. The Company has obtained all other consents that are necessary to permit the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

5.4 Sole Representations. Except as expressly set forth in this Section 5, the Company makes no other representation or warranty in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6. Use of Proceeds. The Company is expected to use the proceeds from the sale of the Notes for general corporate purposes including working capital, business development and mergers & acquisitions.

7. Representations and Warranties of the Investors. Each of the Investors, severally and not jointly, represents and warrants to the Company as follows:

7.1 Authorization. The Investor has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement which, when executed and delivered by the Investor, will constitute the valid and legally binding obligation of the Investor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance, and any other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors' rights generally, and as limited by laws relating to the availability of specific performance, injunctive relief, or other equitable remedies.

7.2 Purchase for Investment. The Investor is purchasing the Note, and if and when the Note is converted will acquire the units of the Company, for investment for the account of the Investor and not for the account of any other person, and not with a view toward resale or other distribution thereof. The Investor understands that the Note being purchased has not been, and when issued the units issuable upon conversion will not be, registered under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws and, therefore, cannot be resold unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws or unless an exemption from such registration is available. The Investor further understands and agrees that, until so registered or transferred pursuant to the provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, the Note and all certificates evidencing any of the units, whether upon initial issuance or upon any transfer thereof, shall bear a legend, prominently stamped or printed thereon, reading substantially as follows:

> THIS SECURITY HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), OR APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THIS SECURITY MAY ONLY BE SOLD, PLEDGED, OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED PURSUANT TO AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT UNDER THE ACT AND APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, OR PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION PROVISIONS OF THE ACT AND SUCH LAWS. ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS ARE IMPOSED BY THIS SECURITY AND THE AGREEMENT PURSUANT TO WHICH THIS SECURITY WAS SOLD, AND THE COMPANY MAY REFUSE TO THE TRANSFER OF THIS SECURITY UNLESS SUCH CONDITIONS ARE FULFILLED.

The Investor understands and agrees that the Company does not have any present intention and is under no obligation to register the Note, the units issuable upon conversion, whether upon initial issuance or upon any transfer thereof under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, and that Rule 144 may not be available as a basis for exemption from registration. The Investor acknowledges and agrees that the Company may condition the transfer of the Note, or the units, upon the receipt of an opinion, satisfactory in form and substance to the Company and from counsel satisfactory to the Company, in each of such instances in the sole discretion of the Company, that such proposed transfer shall not result in the violation of any federal or state securities law.

7.3 Receipt of Information. The Investor or such Investor's representative, during the course of this transaction and prior to the purchase of the Note being purchased by the Investor hereunder, has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from representatives of the Company concerning the terms and conditions of the offering of the Notes and the business of the Company; and to obtain any additional information or documents relative to the Company, its business and an investment in the Company necessary to verify the accuracy of information provided by the Company relative to the business of the Company. The Investor or the Investor's representative has received and read or reviewed, and is familiar with, this Agreement, the form of the Note and all such additional information and documents provided to the Investor.

7.4 Materials Incorporated by Reference. Investor acknowledges receipt of the Third Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company and the Risk Factors as set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto (the "Risk Factors"), and acknowledges having read and understood the terms and provisions of both of the foregoing, including, without limitation, all Risk Factors relating to the Company's involvement in the cannabis industry. Investor hereby further acknowledges and agrees that the Risk Factors do not reflect all of the risks involved in an investment in the Company.

7.4 Sophistication of Investor. The Investor or the Investor's representative is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the purchase of the Notes. The Investor has the capacity to protect his or her own interests in connection with the purchase of the Notes by reason of the Investor's business or financial experience or the business or financial experience of the Investor's representative (who is unaffiliated with and who is not compensated by the Company or any affiliate, directly or indirectly).

7.5 Risk of Investment. The purchase of a Note by the Investor is consistent with his or her general investment objectives. The Investor understands that the purchase of the Notes involves a high degree of risk and there is now no established market for the Company's Notes or equity and there is no assurance that any public market for the Notes or such equity will develop. The Investor has no present need for liquidity in connection with the funds being tendered by such Investor hereunder. The Investor can bear the economic risks of this investment and can afford a complete loss of his investment.

7.6 Accredited Investor. The Investor has completed and delivered to the Company herewith the applicable accredited investor questionnaire attached hereto as Form A, Form B and Form C, acknowledging, among other matters, that he, she or it is an "Accredited Investor," as that term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act (or similar affirmation of accreditation under Canadian or other applicable laws).

7.7 No Commissions. No person or entity has or will have, as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, any right, interest or claim against or upon the Company or the Investor for any commission, fee or other compensation as a finder or broker because of any act or omission by the Investor or by any agent of the Investor.

7.8 No General Solicitation. Neither the Investor, nor any of its officers, managers, members employees, agents, members or partners has either directly or indirectly, including through a broker or finder (a) engaged in any general solicitation, or (b) published any advertisement in connection with the offer and sale of the Notes.

7.9 Residence. If the Investor is an individual, then the Investor resides in the state or province identified in the address of the Investor set forth on the Signature Page; if the Investor is a partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other entity, then the office or offices of the Investor in which its principal place of business is identified in the address or addresses of the Investor set forth on the Signature Page.

7.10 Authorization of the Company. Each Investor hereby appoints, and shall appoint, any person(s) designated by the board of the Company as the Investor's true and lawful proxy and attorney, with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution,

(a) to receive the Notes, to execute in the Investor's name and on its behalf all closing receipts and required documents, to complete and correct any errors or omissions in any form or document provided by the Investor, including this Agreement and the attachments hereto, in connection with the subscription for the Notes;

(b) to extend such time periods and to waive, in whole or in part, any representations, warranties, covenants, conditions or other terms for the Investor's benefit contained in this Agreement or any ancillary or related document;

(c) to terminate, prior to the Initial Closing, this Agreement if any condition precedent is not satisfied, in such manner and on such terms and conditions as the Company in its sole discretion may determine, acting reasonably;

(d) to vote all voting securities held by the Investor; and

(e) to execute and deliver on behalf of the Investor all documents, instruments, and agreements necessary or requested by the Company or its underwriters, including any customary lock-up agreement in a Go-Public Transaction.

EACH INVESTOR HEREBY GRANTS TO THE COMPANY OR ITS DESIGNEE AN IRREVOCABLE PROXY AND POWER OF ATTORNEY TO VOTE ALL VOTING SECURITIES OF THE COMPANY NOW OR HEREAFTER OWNED OR CONTROLLED BY EACH OF THEM AT ANY ANNUAL OR SPECIAL MEETING OF THE MEMBERS OR STOCKHOLDERS OF THE COMPANY, OR BY WRITTEN CONSENT IN LIEU OF SUCH A MEETING. EACH INVESTOR ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT THE PROXY AND POWER OF ATTORNEY GRANTED PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION IS COUPLED WITH AN INTEREST AND SHALL SURVIVE THE DEATH, DISABILITY, INCAPACITY, DISSOLUTION, BANKRUPTCY, INSOLVENCY OR TERMINATION OF SUCH INVESTOR AND THE TRANSFER OF ALL OR ANY PORTION OF SUCH INVESTOR'S SHARES AND SHALL EXTEND TO SUCH INVESTOR'S HEIRS, SUCCESSORS, ASSIGNS, AND PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

Any of the following events shall constitute an "Event of Default", unless waived by holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount outstanding on all Notes (the "Majority Holders"): (a) the Company's execution of a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (b) the filing by or against the Company of a petition in bankruptcy or any petition for relief under the federal bankruptcy act or the continuation of such petition without dismissal for a period of ninety (90) days or more; (c) the appointment of a receiver or trustee to take possession of substantially all of the property or assets of the Company or (d) the Company's failure to pay any amounts owing hereunder when due.

1.2 Remedies Upon Default. Following an Event of Default:

(a) The Holder shall have all rights and remedies granted to it under this Note and the Purchase Agreement. All such rights and remedies and the exercise thereof shall be cumulative. No exercise of any such rights and remedies shall be deemed to be exclusive or constitute an election of remedies.

(b) Payment of the outstanding Principal Amount, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon determined in accordance with the first paragraph of this Note shall, at the option of the Majority Holders, become immediately due and payable without notice or demand.

No Event of Default may be waived or shall be deemed to have been waived except by an express notice delivered by the Majority Holders to the Company in accordance with Section 7, and any such waiver shall be applicable only to the specific Event(s) of Default expressly identified in such notice and shall not be deemed to apply to any other or subsequent Event of Default. The Majority Holders may grant or withhold any such waiver in the sole exercise of its discretion, and may condition such waiver upon the payment by the Company of a premium or the acceptance of other terms and conditions under this Note or the Purchase Agreement. No course of dealing by the Holder or the failure, forbearance or delay by the Majority Holders in exercising any of their rights or remedies under this Note or the Purchase Agreement shall operate as a waiver of any Event of Default or of any right of the Holder hereunder. Notwithstanding anything contained herein or the Purchase Agreement to the contrary, upon an Event of Default pursuant to Section 1.1(b), this Note shall be automatically due and payable without any action or notice by the Holder.

2. Treatment of Note. To the extent permitted by generally accepted accounting principles, the Company will treat, account and report this Note as debt and not equity for accounting purposes and with respect to any returns filed with federal, state or local tax authorities.

3. Prepayment. The Principal Amount and accrued interest will not be prepaid without the written consent of the Holder hereof.

4. Representations, Warranties and Acknowledgements of the Holder. By accepting this Note, the Holder hereby: (i) represents and warrants that it is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"); (ii) represents and warrants that conversion units (together, the "Securities") are being or will be acquired by it for the purpose of investment and not with a view to distribution; (iii) agrees that it will not sell or transfer any of the Securities without registration under applicable federal and state securities laws, or the availability of exemptions therefrom; (iv) acknowledges that the documents evidencing the Securities will each bear a restrictive legend stating that the Securities represented thereby have not been registered under applicable federal and state securities laws and referring to restrictions on their transferability and sale; (v) acknowledges that it currently has, and had immediately prior to its receipt of the offer of sale from the Company, such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of this investment; (vi) acknowledges that an investment in the Securities involves a high degree of risk; (vii) acknowledges that it is able to bear the economic risk of this investment; (viii) acknowledges that it had the opportunity to ask questions of, and receive answers from, management of the Company concerning the terms and conditions of this investment; and (ix) acknowledges that it has received such information as it deems necessary to enable it to make its investment decision.

5. No Membership Rights. Nothing contained in this Note shall be construed as conferring upon the Holder the right to vote or to consent or to receive notice as a member in respect of meeting of members for the election of board of managers of the Company or any other matters or any rights whatsoever as a member of the Company; and no dividends shall be payable or accrued in respect of this Note or the interest represented hereby or the Securities obtainable hereunder upon conversion until, and only to the extent that, this Note shall have been so converted in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement.

6. Recourse. The Holder agrees that no officers, managers or members of the Company shall have any personal liability with respect to the obligations of the Company under this Note or any agreements related to this Note.

7. Notice. Any notice, request or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be delivered in accordance with Section 9.2 of the Purchase Agreement.

8. Waiver and Amendment. Any provision of this Note may be amended, waived or modified only upon the written consent of the Company and the Majority Holders.

9. Restrictions on Transfer of this Note. No transfers of the Note, or the Securities, or any portion hereof or thereof, may be made by the Holder without the prior written consent of the Company, which consent may be withheld in the Company's sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing (i) a Holder may transfer this Note to any of its "affiliates" (as defined in Rule 405 promulgated under the Securities Act) without the consent of the Company and (ii) following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Holder may transfer this Note to any person without the consent of the Company, in each case so long as the transferee is an Accredited Investor. The rights and obligations of the Company and the Holder shall be binding upon and benefit their respective successors, permitted assigns, heirs, administrators and permitted transferees.

10. Payment. Any cash payments of the Principal Amount will be made by check or wire transfer in immediately available United States funds sent to the Holder at the address or to the account furnished to the Company for that purpose.

11. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. The provisions of Section 9.7 of the Purchase Agreement shall apply to this Note.

12. Headings; References. All headings used herein are used for convenience only and shall not be used to construe or interpret this Note. Except where otherwise indicated, all references herein to Sections refer to Sections hereof. EXHIBIT B
RISK FACTORS

Legal and Political Risks

Cannabis remains illegal under federal law.

Cannabis is a Schedule-I controlled substance and is illegal under federal law. It remains illegal under United States federal law to grow, cultivate, sell or possess cannabis for any purpose or to assist or conspire with those who do so. Additionally, 21 U.S.C. 856 makes it illegal to "knowingly open, lease, rent, use, or maintain any place, whether permanently or temporarily, for the purpose of manufacturing, distributing, or using any controlled substance." Even in those states in which the use of cannabis has been authorized, its use remains a violation of federal law. Any person that is connected to the cannabis industry, including, but not limited to, a Investor and other investors in the Company, may be at risk of federal criminal prosecution and civil liability. Any investments could also be subject to civil or criminal forfeiture and a total loss. Since federal law criminalizing the use of cannabis is not preempted by state laws that legalize its use, strict enforcement of federal law regarding cannabis would likely result in the Company's inability to proceed with its business plan and a possible total loss of its investment. Additionally, pursuant to 26 U.S. Code § 280E, any business engaged in the trafficking of a controlled substance may be prohibited from making certain deductions or obtaining certain tax credits.

Some courts have determined that contracts relating to state legal cultivation and sale of cannabis are unenforceable on the grounds that they are illegal under federal law and therefore void as a matter of public policy. This could substantially impact the rights of parties making or defending claims involving the Company and any lender or member of the Company.

Due to the federal illegality of cannabis and the charged political climate surrounding the cannabis industries of various states, political risks are inherent in the cannabis industry. It remains to be seen whether policy changes at the federal level will have a chilling effect on the cannabis industry.

Rescission of the "Cole Memo."

On January 4, 2018, Attorney General Sessions rescinded the previously issued memoranda from the Justice Department which de-prioritized the enforcement of federal law against marijuana users and businesses who comply with state cannabis laws, adding uncertainty to the question of how the Federal government will now choose to enforce federal laws regarding cannabis. Attorney General Sessions issued a memorandum to all United States Attorneys in which Attorney General Sessions affirmatively rescinded the previous guidance as to cannabis enforcement, calling such guidance "unnecessary."

Attorney General Sessions' one-page memorandum was vague in nature, stating that federal prosecutors should use established principals in setting their law enforcement priorities. Under previous administrations, the U.S. Department of Justice indicated that those users and suppliers of medical cannabis who complied with state laws, which required compliance with certain criteria, would not be prosecuted. As a result, it is now unclear if the Justice Department will seek to enforce the Controlled Substances Act against those users and suppliers who comply with state cannabis laws. If such enforcement occurs, the federal government may raid the Company, seize all of its equipment and inventory, and arrest all of its officers, managers, and Members.

The FinCEN Memo could be rescinded.

Despite Attorney General Sessions' rescission of the Cole Memorandum, the Department of the Treasury, Financial Crimes Enforcement Network has not rescinded the "FinCEN Memo" dated February 14, 2014, which de-prioritizes enforcement of the Bank Secrecy Act against financial institutions and cannabis related businesses which utilize them. This memo appears to be a standalone document, and is presumptively still in effect.

At any time, the Department of the Treasury, Financial Crimes Enforcement Network could elect to rescind the FinCEN Memo. This would make it more difficult for the Company to access the U.S. banking system and conduct financial transactions, which would have a material adverse effect on the Company Business (defined below). Enforcement of the Bank Secrecy Act against the Company would also be made more likely by the rescission of the FinCEN Memo. This would subject the Company's officers, managers and Members to potential criminal prosecution, and would have a material adverse effect on the Company Business.

Even with the FinCEN Memo in place, prosecution of the Company for violations of the Bank Secrecy Act remains possible, as the FinCEN Memo is only prosecutorial guidance and does not have the force of law.

The 2015 Appropriations Rider must be reauthorized every year to provide any protections.

In 2014, Congress passed a spending bill (the "2015 Appropriations Bill") containing a provision (the "Appropriations Rider") blocking federal funds and resources allocated under the 2015 Appropriations Bill from being used to "prevent such States from implementing their own State [medical marijuana] law". The Appropriations Rider seemed to have prohibited the federal government from interfering with the ability of states to administer their medical cannabis laws, although it did not codify federal protections for medical cannabis patients and producers. Moreover, despite the Appropriations Rider, the Justice Department maintains that it can still prosecute violations of the federal cannabis ban and continue cases already in the courts.

Additionally, the Appropriations Rider must be re-enacted every year. While it was continued in 2016, 2017 and 2018 (until December 21, 2018), continued re-authorization of the Appropriations Rider cannot be guaranteed. If Congress should pass a FY 2019 budget rather than an extension of the 2018 budget, it would need to re-add the Appropriations Rider at such time, and there can be no assurance that the Appropriations Rider would be renewed at such time. As of December 21, 2018, Congress has failed either to pass a FY 2019 budget or an extension of the 2018 budget in the form of a "continuing resolution," resulting in a government shutdown, and the Appropriations Rider is no longer in force. While it is unclear if the Appropriations Rider will be re-enacted once Congress passes a FY 2019 budget, proposed legislative packages have included the Appropriations Rider that, if passed, would fund the federal government until September 2019.

The Company's proposed business is dependent on laws pertaining to the cannabis industry, and further legislative development is not guaranteed.

The Company's business plan involves the cultivation, distribution, manufacture, storage, transportation and/or sale of medical and adult use cannabis products in compliance with applicable state law, but in violation of federal law (generally referred to herein as the "Company Business"). Continued development of the cannabis industry is dependent upon continued legislative and regulatory authorization of cannabis at the state level. Any number of factors could slow or halt progress in this area. Further progress is not assured. While there may be ample public support for legislative action, numerous factors impact the legislative and regulatory process. Any one of these factors could slow or halt business operations relating to cannabis or the current tolerance for the use of cannabis by consumers, which would negatively impact the Company Business.

The cannabis industry faces strong opposition.

Many believe that several large, well-funded businesses may have a strong economic opposition to the cannabis industry. The Company believes that the pharmaceutical industry does not want to cede control of any product that could generate significant revenue. For example, medical cannabis will likely adversely impact the existing market for the current "cannabis pill" sold by mainstream pharmaceutical companies. Further, the medical cannabis industry could face a material threat from the pharmaceutical industry should cannabis displace other drugs or encroach upon the pharmaceutical industry's products. The pharmaceutical industry is well funded with a strong and experienced lobby that eclipses that of the medical and retail cannabis industries. Any inroads the pharmaceutical industry made in halting or impeding the cannabis industry could have a detrimental impact on the Company Business.

The legality of cannabis could be reversed in one or more states of operation.

The voters or legislatures of states in which cannabis has been legalized could potentially repeal applicable laws which permit both the operation of medical and retail cannabis businesses. These actions might force the Company to cease the Company Business.

Enforceability of Contracts.

It is a fundamental principle of law that a contract will not be enforced if it involves a violation of law or public policy. Notwithstanding that cannabis related businesses operate pursuant to the laws of states in which such activity is legal under state law, judges have on a number of occasions refused to enforce contracts for the repayment of money when the loan was used in connection with activities that violate federal law, even if there is no violation of state law. There remains doubt and uncertainty that the Company will be able to legally enforce contracts it enters into if necessary. As the Company cannot be assured that it will have a remedy for breach of contract, the Company and its Members must bear the risk of the uncertainty in the law. If borrowers fail or refuse to repay loans and the Company is unable to legally enforce its contracts, the Company may suffer substantial losses for which it has no legal remedy.

Risk of Criminal Prosecutions for Money Laundering.

One possible repercussion for Members and other investors in the Company is a prosecution for violation of federal money laundering statutes, specifically U.S.C.A. § 1956 and § 1957. Because these statutes criminalize certain transactions involving the proceeds of activity which is itself criminal, it is possible that investors in the Company could be subject to prosecution for investing in, obtaining dividends from, or otherwise transacting with the Company. While there have been no recent prosecutions of investors in cannabis-related businesses for violation of either § 1956 or § 1957, this could change along with federal enforcement priorities.

Risk of civil asset forfeiture.

Because the cannabis industry remains illegal under federal law, any property owned by participants in the cannabis industry which are either used in the course of conducting such business, or are the proceeds of such business, could be subject to seizure by law enforcement and subsequent civil asset forfeiture. Even if the owners of the property were never charged with a crime, the property in question could still be seized and subject to an administrative proceeding by which, with minimal due process, it could be subject to forfeiture.

Risk of RICO prosecution or civil liability.

The Racketeer Influenced Corrupt Organizations Act ("RICO") criminalizes the use of any profits from certain defined "racketeering" activities in interstate commerce. While intended to provide an additional cause of action against organized crime, due to the fact that cannabis is illegal under U.S. federal law, the production and sale of cannabis qualifies cannabis related businesses as "racketeering" as defined by RICO. As such, all officers, managers and owners in a cannabis related business could be subject to criminal prosecution under RICO, which carries substantial criminal penalties.

RICO can create civil liability as well: persons harmed in their business or property by actions which would constitute racketeering under RICO often have a civil cause of action against such "racketeers," and can claim triple their amount of estimated damages in attendant court proceedings. The Company as well as its officers, managers and owners could all be subject to civil claims under RICO.

Legal Uncertainty.

Laws and regulations affecting the medical and retail cannabis industry are constantly changing, which could detrimentally affect the Company's proposed operations. Local, state and federal cannabis laws and regulations are broad in scope and subject to evolving interpretations, which could require the Company to incur substantial costs associated with compliance or alter its business plan. In addition, violations of these laws, or allegations of such violations, could disrupt the Company Business and result in a material adverse effect on its operations. In addition, it is possible that regulations may be enacted in the future that will be directly applicable to the Company's proposed business, including, but not limited to, regulations or laws impacting the amount of production that the Company is authorized to produce. The Company cannot predict the nature of any future laws, regulations, interpretations or applications, nor can the Company determine what effect additional governmental regulations or administrative policies and procedures, if promulgated, could have on the Company Business.

Business Risks

Economic Environment.

The Company's operations could be affected by the economic context should the unemployment level, interest rates or inflation reach levels that influence consumer trends and consequently, impact the Company's sales and profitability.

As well, general demand for banking services and alternative banking or financial services cannot be predicted and future prospects of such areas might be different from those predicted by the Company's management.

The Company Business is dependent on the acquisition and retention of various licenses.

The Company Business is dependent on obtaining various licenses from various municipalities and the state licensing agencies. There can be no assurance that any or all licenses necessary to operate the Company Business will be obtained. If a licensing body were to determine the Company had violated the applicable rules and regulations, there is a risk the licenses granted could be revoked, which would prevent the operation of the Company Business. Further, there is no guarantee the Company will be able to obtain any additional licenses necessary to expand the Company Business.

The Company's management team or other owners could be disqualified from ownership in the Company.

The Company Business is in a highly regulated industry in which many states have enacted extensive rules for ownership of a participant company. The Company's Managers or other owners (which could include the Members of the Company) could become disqualified from having an ownership stake in the Company under relevant laws and regulations of applicable state and/or local regulators, if the applicable Manager or owner is convicted of a certain type of felony or fails to meet the requirements for owning equity in a company like the Company.

The Company may have difficulty accessing the service of banks and bankruptcy protections, which may make it difficult for them to operate or unwind.

Since the use of cannabis is illegal under federal law, there is a compelling argument that banks cannot lawfully accept for deposit funds from businesses involved with cannabis. Consequently, businesses involved in the cannabis industry often have trouble finding a bank willing to accept their business. The inability to open bank accounts may make it difficult for the Company to operate and the reliance on cash can result in a heightened risk of theft. Additionally, some courts have denied cannabis businesses bankruptcy protection, thus, making it very difficult for lenders to recoup their investments.

The Company will not have full access to federal intellectual property protections.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office does not allow trademarks directly related to cannabis and cannabis products to be registered due to the illegal nature of the business and products under federal law. While patent protection for inventions related to cannabis and cannabis products is available, there are substantial difficulties faced in the patent process by cannabis related businesses. There can be no assurances that any proprietary business processes, patents, copyrights or trademarks that may be issued to a cannabis business will offer any degree of protection.

Insurance Risks.

In the United States, many cannabis related companies are subject to a lack of adequate insurance coverage including, without limitation, general coverage for cultivating cannabis and traditional commercial insurance covering dispensary transit. In addition, many insurance companies may deny claims for any loss relating to cannabis for reasons such as it is illegal under federal law, a contract for an illegal item is unenforceable or there can be no insurable interest in an illegal item.

Product Liability in Cannabis-Related Companies.

Many cannabis related companies are subject to strict product liability laws where a cannabis related retailer who sells a defective product to a consumer is subject to liability for any harm that befalls that consumer due to the defect. For example, a retailer who sells cannabis infused products could be held liable if that product was tainted in the manufacturing process or inadequately labeled and a consumer subsequently fell ill, even if the retailer had nothing to do with the manufacturing process. Any suit against any cannabis related business could adversely affect the Company and cause substantial losses for the Company. This area of law is unsettled and there is very little statutory or case law regarding cannabis and products liability.

Risks Associated with Young Industries.

The cannabis industries in those states which have legalized such activity are not yet well- developed, and many aspects of these industries' development and evolution cannot be accurately predicted. While the Company has attempted to identify many risks specific to the cannabis and hemp industries, prospective investors should carefully consider that there are probably other risks that the Company has not foreseen or not mentioned in this document, which may cause prospective Members to lose some, or all, of such prospective Member's investment. Given the limited history, it is difficult to predict whether this market will continue to grow or whether it can be maintained. For example, as a result of the Company's limited operating history in a new industry, it is difficult to discern meaningful or established trends with respect to the purchase activity of the Company's customers.

The Company expects that the market will evolve in ways which may be difficult to predict. For example, the Company anticipates that over time it will reach a point in most markets where the Company has achieved a market penetration such that investments in new customer acquisition are less productive and the continued growth of the Company's revenue will require more focus on increasing the rate at which the Company's existing customers purchase products. In the event of these or any other changes to the market, the Company's continued success will depend on the Company's ability to successfully adjust the Company's strategy to meet the changing market dynamics. If the Company is unable to successfully adapt to changes in the Company's markets, the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations could suffer a material negative impact.

Possible Shrinkage or Lack of Growth in the Industry.

If no additional states, U.S. territories or countries allow the legal use of cannabis, or if one or more jurisdictions which currently allow it were to reverse position, the Company may not be able to grow, or the market for the Company's products and services may decline. There can be no assurance that the number of jurisdictions which allow the use of cannabis will grow, and if it does not, there can be no assurance that the existing jurisdictions will not reverse position and disallow such use. If either of these events were to occur, not only would the growth of the Company's business be materially impacted in an adverse manner, but the Company may experience declining revenue as the market for the Company's products and services declines.

Product Risks.

The Company's product line is in a new and unique product category and there can be no guarantee the product will be appealing to consumers, or will be a success commercially. As with any product, there is the possibility that a claim could be brought against the Company if any consumer has a negative reaction to the product.

Illiquid Investment, Restrictions on Transfer.

The Units are subject to legal and other restrictions on transfer and are investments for which no liquid market exists. As a consequence, a Member may not be able to sell his, her or its Units if a Member desired to do so, or to realize what he, she or it perceives to be its fair value in the event of a sale or liquidation. There is no market for the Units and it should not be assumed that a public market will develop. The Units may not be resold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by any holder except in compliance with applicable securities laws and the transfer restrictions contained in the Subscription Agreement and the Operating Agreement. Accordingly, Investors in this offering may not be able to liquidate their investment in the Company, or pledge the investment as collateral, and should consider their investment to be long-term.

Indemnification.

The Operating Agreement provides that under certain circumstances the Managers and officers of the Company and/or others may be indemnified by the Company for any liabilities or losses arising out of activities in connection with the Company. Indemnification under such provision could reduce or deplete the assets of the Company.

Member May Lose the Right to Hold the Units.

Member may encounter a life event (such as a criminal conviction) that would disqualify Member from owning equity in a licensed cannabis business, and thereby trigger the relevant provisions of the Operating Agreement. Additionally, aside from as provided for in the Subscription Agreement and the Operating Agreement, events, including a change in control of the Company, a liquidation or an event of insolvency, could occur prior to the time that a Member is able to receive any liquidation benefit from a sale of the Company or a sale of Units.

Unitholders May Owe Taxes in Excess of Cash Distributions from the Company.

Notwithstanding applicable provisions in the Operating Agreement, Members may become subject to income tax liability for Company income in excess of the cash they actually receive from the Company. For example, if the Company borrows money, a unitholder's share of Company revenues used to pay principal on the loan will be included in its taxable income from the Company and will not be deductible; income from operations may be accrued by the Company in one tax year, although payment is not actually received until the following year; taxable income or gain may be allocated to a member of the Company if there is a deficit in its capital account even though the unitholder does not receive a corresponding distribution of Company revenues; and Company revenues may be expended for non-deductible costs or retained to establish a reserve for future estimated costs.

Units Not Registered Under the Securities Act or State Blue Sky Laws.

The Units will not be registered for public sale or resale under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state, in reliance upon exemptions which depend in part upon the investment intent of the Investors. There is no present plan to register the Units in the future. Accordingly, the Units must be acquired for investment purposes only and not with a view to resale or other distribution. Such Units will only be offered and sold to such persons who are "accredited investors" as defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act. Such Units will be offered without registration in reliance upon the Securities Act exemption for transactions not involving a public offering. Investors will be required to make certain representations to the Company, including that they are acquiring interests in the Company for their own account, for investment purposes only and not with a view to their distribution.

Risks Associated with Investing in Securities in General.

Investment in the Company's Units involves a high degree of risk. All securities investments risk the loss of all capital. The Company makes no guarantee or representation that the Company will achieve its business objectives or that a Member will receive a return of his, her or its capital. Making an investment in the Company is speculative. Prospective Members should carefully consider, among other factors, the matters described in this section, each of which could have a material adverse effect on the value of the Units offered hereby. As a result of these factors, as well as other risks set forth elsewhere in this document, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to implement the business plan or that the Units will be of value in the future. A prospective Member should only invest in the Units as part of an overall investment strategy and only if the prospective Member is able to withstand a total loss of his, her or its investment.

Absence of Operating History.

The Company is a newly formed venture. The Company has extremely limited operating history on which to base an evaluation of its business and prospects and its success, if any, will be entirely dependent on its management and employees. The past performance, existing relationships and rapid growth of the Company cannot be relied upon as indicia of future performance or success of the Company. The Company faces risks in developing its products and eventually bringing them to market. The Company also faces risks that it will lose some or all of the Company's market share in existing businesses to competition, or the Company risks that its business model becomes obsolete. Many of the Company's business projects are not yet developed, and can be considered subject to risk associated with development-level businesses. The Company operates in a rapidly evolving market. Accordingly, the Company's future prospects are difficult to evaluate, increasing the risk that the Company may not be successful. The Company will encounter risks and difficulties as a company operating in a rapidly evolving market and may not be able to successfully address these risks and difficulties, which could materially harm its business and operating results. The risks detailed herein are material risks faced by the Company. If any of these risks occur, the Company's business, its ability to receive revenues, its operating results and its financial condition could be seriously harmed.

Need for Additional Financing.

The Company anticipates that it will be able to raise sufficient capital to fund its anticipated development and operation through various sources. However, the estimated budget is based on certain assumptions, including assumptions related to the performance of the business, and there can be no assurance that unanticipated unbudgeted costs will not be incurred or that the business will not perform as expected. Furthermore, the Board of Managers has the authority to increase the budget if the Board of Managers deems it advisable to enhance the viability of the venture. Future events, including problems, delays, expenses and difficulties frequently encountered in the industry, as well as changes in economic, regulatory or competitive conditions, may lead to cost increases that could make it necessary or advisable for the Company to seek additional financing. There can be no assurance that the Company would be able to obtain any necessary additional financing on terms acceptable to the Company, if at all. Also, additional financings may result in dilution of equity stakes in the Company.

Ability to Obtain Requisite Permits.

Prior to beginning operations, the Company's subsidiaries must obtain certain operating, building and safety, and other necessary permits. The Company's subsidiaries are in the process of obtaining such permits as required by law. The Company cannot guarantee that approval of such permits will be completed in the time frame required for beginning operations as planned. While the Company believes there should be no impediments to granting any necessary permits and licenses, or obtaining any consents or approvals, no assurances can be made that they will be obtained.

Reliance on Management; Potential Disqualification of Managers.

The Company's Board of Managers has discretionary authority to structure, manage and monitor the Company's activities, as well as to commit the Company assets, and, in doing so, has no responsibility to consult with any member. The continued availability of the services of the Company's Managers is critical to the Company's success, and the Company has no key insurance on such Managers. The Company's Managers could become disqualified from having an ownership stake in the Company under the cannabis agencies' interpretation of the relevant state laws and regulations if any Manager is convicted of a certain type of felony or fails to meet the residency requirements for owning equity in a company like the Company. The loss of services of any key manager, officer or employee or consultant may have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Manager Conflict of Interest.

The Managers and their principals and employees are not required to render exclusive services in connection with the Company. Consequently, the Managers or one or more of their principals or employees may render services in connection with other business projects, including other projects in the cannabis industry, during any and or all phases of operations. Furthermore, there may be conflicts of interest between a Manager on the one hand, and the Company and its other Members on the other. Such conflicts may include cash distribution policies, working capital reserve policies, and the opening of other enterprises in the cannabis industry by the Managers.

Dependence on Successful Recruiting Efforts.

The Company's long-term success is heavily dependent upon its ability to recruit and train qualified personnel, including key management, industry talent, and technical and marketing personnel. Competition for highly qualified professional, technical, talent, business development, and management and marketing personnel is intense. There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in attracting, training, or retaining the key personnel required to execute its business plan. If the Company is unsuccessful in its recruiting efforts, such failure could have a material adverse effect on its business, results of operations, financial condition and forecasted financial results.

Risks Associated with Valuation.

The assumption of Company value underlying this offer may not be representative of fair market value. There is no market for the Company's Units. Likewise, no independent appraisal or valuation has been performed on the Company. Consequently, the Company has arbitrarily determined the value of the Company based on several factors: estimates of the Company's business potential and earnings prospects; the present state of the Company's development; assessment of the Company's management; the Company's capital needs; and consideration of these factors in relation to the market evaluations of comparable companies, the current conditions of the Company's industry, and the economy as a whole. There can be no assurance that the valuation is representative of fair market value.

Fluctuation of Operating Results.

The Company and its management expect that the Company will experience substantial variations in net sales and operating results from quarter to quarter due to customer acceptance of its products. If customers do not accept the Company's products, its sales and revenues will decline, resulting in a reduction in its operating income. Customer interest for the Company's products could also be impacted by the timing of the Company's introduction of new products. If competitors introduce new products around the same time that the Company issues new products, and if such competing products are superior to the Company's, customers' desire for the Company's products could decrease, resulting in a decrease in Company sales and revenue. The Company may also lose market share to better-funded, aggressive competitors, particularly if large pharmaceutical companies or alcohol or tobacco companies decide to compete against the Company. Increased competition is likely to result in lower sales volumes, price reductions and reduced revenue and gross margins.

Risks Inherent in an Agricultural Business.

Adult-use and medical cannabis are agricultural products. There are risks inherent in the agricultural business, such as insects, plant diseases and similar agricultural risks. Although the products are usually grown indoors under climate-controlled conditions, with conditions monitored, there can be no assurance that natural elements will not have a material adverse effect on the production of the Company's subsidiaries' products.

Vulnerability to Rising Energy Costs.

Adult-use and medical cannabis growing operations consume considerable energy, making the Company potentially vulnerable to rising energy costs. Rising or volatile energy costs may have a material adverse effect as to the business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of the Company.

Product Recalls.

Manufacturers and distributors of products are sometimes subject to the recall or return of their products for a variety of reasons, including product defects, such as contamination, unintended harmful side effects or interactions with other substances, packaging safety and inadequate or inaccurate labeling disclosure. Such recalls cause unexpected expenses of the recall and any legal proceedings that might arise in connection with the recall. This can cause loss of a significant amount of sales. In addition, a product recall may require significant management attention.

Although the Company's subsidiaries will have detailed procedures in place for testing its products, there can be no assurance that any quality, potency or contamination problems will be detected in time to avoid unforeseen product recalls, regulatory action or lawsuits. Additionally, if one of the Company's subsidiaries' brands or products were subject to recall, the image of that brand and the Company could be harmed. Additionally, product recalls can lead to increased scrutiny of operations by applicable regulatory agencies, requiring further management attention and potential legal fees and other expenses.

Results of Future Clinical Research.

Research in Canada, the U.S. and internationally regarding the medical benefits, viability, safety, efficacy, dosing and social acceptance of cannabis or isolated cannabinoids remains in early stages. There have been relatively few clinical trials on the benefits of cannabis or isolated cannabinoids (such as CBD and THC). Future research and clinical trials may prove such statements to be incorrect, or could raise concerns regarding, and perceptions relating to, cannabis. Given these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, prospective Investors should not place undue reliance on such articles and reports. Future research studies and clinical trials may reach negative conclusions regarding the medical benefits, viability, safety, efficacy, dosing, social acceptance or other facts and perceptions related to cannabis, which could have a material adverse effect on the demand for the Company's products with the potential to lead to a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects.

Reliance on Key Inputs.

The cannabis business is dependent on a number of key inputs and their related costs including raw materials and supplies related to growing operations, as well as electricity, water and other local utilities. Any significant interruption or negative change in the availability or economics of the supply chain for key inputs could materially impact the business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects of the Company. Some of these inputs may only be available from a single supplier or a limited group of suppliers. If a sole source supplier was to go out of business, the Company might be unable to find a replacement for such source in a timely manner or at all. If a sole source supplier were to be acquired by a competitor, that competitor may elect not to sell to the Company in the future. Any inability to secure required supplies and services or to do so on appropriate terms could have a materially adverse impact on the business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects of the Company.

Competition from Synthetic Production and Technological Advances.

The pharmaceutical industry may attempt to dominate the cannabis industry through the development and distribution of synthetic products which emulate the effects and treatment of organic cannabis. If they are successful, the widespread popularity of such synthetic products could change the demand, volume and profitability of the cannabis industry. This could adversely affect the ability of the Company to secure long-term profitability and success through the sustainable and profitable operation of its business. There may be unknown additional regulatory fees and taxes that may be assessed in the future.

Constraints on Marketing Products.

The development of the Company's business and operating results may be hindered by applicable restrictions on sales and marketing activities imposed by government regulatory bodies. The regulatory environment in the United States limits companies' abilities to compete for market share in a manner similar to other industries. If the Company is unable to effectively market its products and compete for market share, or if the costs of compliance with government legislation and regulation cannot be absorbed through increased selling prices for its products, the Company's sales and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Fraudulent Or Illegal Activity by Employees, Contractors And Consultants.

The Company is exposed to the risk that its employees, independent contractors and consultants may engage in fraudulent or other illegal activity. Misconduct by these parties could include intentional, reckless and/or negligent conduct or disclosure of unauthorized activities to the Company that violates: (i) government regulations; (ii) manufacturing standards; (iii) federal and provincial healthcare fraud and abuse laws and regulations; or (iv) laws that require the true, complete and accurate reporting of financial information or data. It may not always be possible for the Company to identify and deter misconduct by its employees and other third parties, and the precautions taken by the Company to detect and prevent this activity may not be effective in controlling unknown or unmanaged risks or losses or in protecting the Company from governmental investigations or other actions or lawsuits stemming from a failure to be in compliance with such laws or regulations. If any such actions are instituted against Company, and it is not successful in defending itself or asserting its rights, those actions could have a significant impact on the Company's business, including the imposition of civil, criminal and administrative penalties, damages, monetary fines, contractual damages, reputational harm, diminished profits and future earnings, and curtailment of the Company's operations, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects.

Information Technology Systems and Cyber-Attacks.

The Company's operations depend, in part, on how well it and its suppliers protect networks, equipment, and information technology systems and software against damage from a number of threats, including, but not limited to, cable cuts, damage to physical plants, natural disasters, intentional damage and destruction, fire, power loss, hacking, computer viruses, vandalism and theft. The Company's operations also depend on the timely maintenance, upgrade and replacement of networks, equipment, IT systems and software, as well as pre-emptive expenses to mitigate the risks of failures. Any of these and other events could result in information system failures, delays and/or increase in capital expenses. The failure of information systems or a component of information systems could, depending on the nature of any such failure, adversely impact the Company's reputation and results of operations. The Company's risk and exposure to these matters cannot be fully mitigated because of, among other things, the evolving nature of these threats. As a result, cyber security and the continued development and enhancement of controls, processes and practices designed to protect systems, computers, software, data and networks from attack, damage or unauthorized access is a priority. As cyber threats continue to evolve, the Company may be required to expend additional resources to continue to modify or enhance protective measures or to investigate and remediate any security vulnerabilities.

Security Breaches.

Given the nature of the Company's products and its deficit of legal availability, as well as the concentration of inventory in its facilities, despite meeting or exceeding all legislative security requirements, there remains a risk of shrinkage as well as theft. A security breach at one of the Company's facilities could expose the Company to additional liability and to potentially costly litigation, increase expenses relating to the resolution and future prevention of these breaches and may deter potential patients from choosing the Company's products.

In addition, the Company collects and stores personal information about its patients and is responsible for protecting that information from privacy breaches. A privacy breach may occur through procedural or process failure, information technology malfunction, or deliberate unauthorized intrusions. Theft of data for competitive purposes, particularly patient lists and preferences, is an ongoing risk whether perpetrated via employee collusion or negligence or through deliberate cyber-attack. Any such theft or privacy breach would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

THE FOREGOING LIST OF RISK FACTORS DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A COMPLETE ENUMERATION OR EXPLANATION OF THE RISKS INVOLVED IN AN INVESTMENT IN THE COMPANY. EACH INVESTOR SHOULD READ THIS AGREEMENT IN ITS ENTIRETY AND CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN ADVISORS BEFORE DECIDING WHETHER TO INVEST IN THE COMPANY. IN ADDITION, AS THE COMPANY'S INVESTMENT PROGRAM DEVELOPS AND CHANGES OVER TIME, AN INVESTMENT IN THE COMPANY MAY BE SUBJECT TO ADDITIONAL AND DIFFERENT RISK FACTORS.

EXHIBIT C

Issue Size:	Up to US$35,000,000 principal amount of Convertible Notes or such greater amount as may be determined by the Company (the "Offering").

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in the event the Convertible Notes are converted prior to the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Closing Date, the interest payable will be calculated as of the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Closing Date. Interest paid to non-US holders may be subject to US withholding taxes.
Maturity Date:	The term of the Convertible Notes will be for a period of 24 months from the Closing Date. Provided that no Go-Public Transaction (as defined herein) has occurred, on the Maturity Date, the principal aggregate amount of the Convertible Notes and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon will be payable in cash. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a holder of the Convertible Notes may elect to convert its principal amount of the Convertible Notes and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon into shares of common stock of the Company ("Shares"), at a price per Share reflecting a pre-money valuation of the Company of US$295,900,000 (the "Maturity Conversion Price").
Minimum Investment:	US$100,000
Use of Proceeds:	The net proceeds from the Offering will be used for working capital requirements and other general corporate purposes.

Conversion: The Convertible Notes and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon will automatically be converted into equity securities of the Company, which equity securities will automatically be exchanged for the same type of security (the "Go- Public Security") issued in connection with a Go-Public Transaction (as defined below), less applicable withholding taxes, with such numbers of equity securities of the Company issued on the basis of a price equal to the lesser of: (a) (i) in the event the Go-Public Transaction occurs on or before 12 months from the Closing Date, a 20% discount to the issue price of the Go-Public Securities; (ii) in the event the Go-Public Transaction occurs after 12 months from the Closing Date, but before the Maturity Date, a 25% discount to the issue price of the Go- Public Securities; and (b) a price per security equal to the Maturity Conversion Price.

Go-Public Transaction: A "Go-Public Transaction" shall be defined as the closing of: (i) a transaction resulting in the business or assets of the Company being listed (directly or indirectly) on the Canadian Securities Exchange or any other recognized securities exchange (the "Stock Exchange"), including but not limited to an initial public offering, plan of arrangement, amalgamation, reverse take-over or other business combination pursuant to which the securities of the Company (or any resulting issuer or parent thereof) are listed on the Stock Exchange; and (ii) a concurrent financing for aggregate gross proceeds of greater than or equal to US$20,000,000.

Convertible Note holders will not have the right on a Go-Public Transaction to be repaid the principal amount of the Convertible Notes and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon in cash by the Company. Instead, the Convertible Notes will automatically convert into equity securities of the Company, which equity securities will automatically be exchanged for Go-Public Securities.

Change of Control: Other than in connection with the Go-Public Transaction, within 30 days following the consummation of: (i) any transaction (whether by purchase, merger or otherwise) whereby a person or persons acting jointly or in concert directly or indirectly acquires the right to cast, at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company, more than 50% of the votes that may be ordinarily cast at a general meeting; (ii) the Company's amalgamation, consolidation or merger with or into any other person, any merger of another person into the Company, unless the holders of voting securities of the Company immediately prior to such amalgamation, consolidation or merger hold securities representing 50% or more of the voting control or direction in the Company or the successor entity upon completion of such amalgamation, consolidation or merger; or (iii) any conveyance, transfer, sale lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's and the Company's subsidiaries' assets and properties, taken as a whole, to another arm's length person (collectively, a "Change of Control"), the Company shall make an offer in writing to holders of Convertible Notes (the "Change of Control Offer") to, at the Convertible Note holders' election, either: (i) purchase the Convertible Notes from such holders for cash at 102% of the principal amount thereof and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon; or (ii) convert the Convertible Notes at a price equal to 95% of the Maturity Conversion Price.

If 90% or more of the principal amount of the Convertible Notes outstanding on the date of the giving of notice of the Change of Control have been tendered to the Company pursuant to an offer made to the holders of all Convertible Notes, the Company will have the right to redeem all the remaining Convertible Notes for cash at 102% of the principal amount thereof and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

Form and Terms of Offering:	The Offering will be offered for purchase and sales (i) to accredited investors in Canada pursuant to available private placement exemptions; (ii) to "accredited investors" (within the meaning of Rule 501(a) of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act")) in the U.S. pursuant to available private placement exemptions; (iii) to investors resident in jurisdictions outside of Canada and the U.S., in each case in accordance with all applicable laws; provided that no prospectus, registration statement or similar document is required to be filed in such foreign jurisdiction. The Convertible Notes will not be qualified investments under the Income Tax Act (Canada) for registered accounts. The Convertible Notes may not be transferred in the United States other than to an "institutional accredited investor" in compliance with an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. All transfers of Convertible Notes will be subject to the prior approval of the Company in order to ensure compliance with applicable securities laws, including the Securities Act. At or prior to, and as a condition precedent in favor of the Company for, the Closing, each subscriber that is not a U.S. person shall deliver to the Company an IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E and each subscriber that is a U.S. person shall deliver to the Company an IRS Form W-9, in each case in form and completed in a manner satisfactory to the Company. Hold Period:	The Company is a private company and there is currently no market through which its securities may be sold. Holders may not be able to resell Convertible Notes purchased under this Term Sheet. The Convertible Notes and the securities issuable thereunder may be subject to an indefinite hold period pursuant to applicable securities laws.
Conditions:	The Issue remains subject to receipt of Board approval by the Company and the completion of all customary documentation for transactions of this nature.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest),1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box on line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3.

IF the entity/person on line 1 is a(n)	THEN check the box for
• Corporation	Corporation
• Individual • Sole proprietorship, or • Single-member limited liability company (LLC) owned by an individual and disregarded for U.S. federal tax purposes.	Individual/sole proprietor or singlemember LLC
• LLC treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, • LLC that has filed Form 8832 or 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, or • LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner but the owner is another LLC that is not disregarded for U.S. federal tax purposes.	Limited liability company and enter the appropriate tax classification. (P= Partnership; C= C corporation; or S= S corporation)
• Partnership	Partnership
• Trust/estate	Trust/estate

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.Form W-9 (Rev. 10-2018)

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

The Company may accept or reject, in whole or in part and at its sole discretion, any offer by an Investor to purchase a Note.

3.2 Issuance and Delivery of Notes. As of the date of each Closing, the Company shall issue and deliver to each Investor an executed Note in the form of Exhibit A in the original principal amount as set forth on the Signature Page of such Investor delivered to the Company hereunder (which amount shall thereafter be entered by the Company on Schedule I opposite such Investor's name). The rights of each Investor with respect to such Investor's Note shall be as set forth in the Note and this Agreement.

4. Conversion and Repayment of Notes. In accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Notes, the entire amount of outstanding principal and accrued interest under each Note shall be converted or repaid as follows:

4.1 Go-Public Transaction. From and after the date hereof, in the event that the Company completes a Go-Public Transaction (as defined below) prior to the Maturity Date (as defined in the Notes), all Notes, including all accrued and unpaid interest thereon less applicable withholding tax, shall automatically and simultaneously with the closing thereof be converted (which such conversion shall be mandatory as to all Notes outstanding at the time of such Go-Public Transaction) into equity securities of the Company issued in connection with the Go-Public Transaction (the "Go-Public Security"), with such numbers of Go-Public Securities of the Company issued on the basis of a price equal to the lesser of: (a) (i) in the event the Go-Public Transaction occurs on or before 12 months from the Closing Date, a 20% discount to the issue price of the Go-Public Securities; (ii) in the event the Go-Public Transaction occurs after 12 months from the Closing Date, but before the Maturity Date, a 25% discount to the issue price of the Go-Public Securities; and (b) the equivalent per share price applicable to Common Units issued at the Maturity Conversion Price (as defined in Section 4.2 below). As used herein, a "Go-Public Transaction" shall be defined as the closing of: (i) a transaction resulting in the business or assets of the Company being listed (directly or indirectly) on the Canadian Securities Exchange or any other recognized securities exchange (the "Stock Exchange"), including but not limited to an initial public offering, plan of arrangement, amalgamation, reverse take-over or other business combination pursuant to which the securities of the Company (or any resulting issuer or parent thereof) are listed on the Stock Exchange; and (ii) a concurrent financing of the Company's equity securities for aggregate gross proceeds of greater than or equal to $20,000,000.

4.2 Maturity. If the Company does not consummate a Go-Public Transaction prior to the Maturity Date then, upon the election of the Holder of a Note, (i) the outstanding principal amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest, on such Note shall be paid in full in cash on the Maturity Date, or (ii) the outstanding principal amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest (less applicable withholding tax), on such Note shall convert into Common Units at a price per Common Unit of $3.00 per unit, adjusted appropriately for unit splits, unit dividends and similar recapitalization events after the date hereof (the "Maturity Conversion Price").

4.3 Change of Control. In the event that the Company effects a Change of Control (as defined below) prior to the Maturity Date, other than in connection with a Go-Public Transaction, then within 30 days following the consummation of a Change of Control, the Company shall make an offer in writing to each of the Holders (the "Change of Control Offer") to, at each such Holders' election, either: (i) purchase the Notes in cash from such Holders for cash at 102% of the principal amount thereof and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon; or (ii) convert the outstanding principal amount together with accrued and unpaid interest (less applicable withholding tax) of the Note at a price equal to 95% of the Maturity Conversion Price. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if 90% or more of the principal amount of the Notes outstanding on the date of the giving of notice of the Change of Control have been tendered to the Company pursuant to an offer made to the Holders, the Company will have the right to redeem all the remaining Notes for cash at 102% of the principal amount thereof and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon. As used herein, a "Change of Control" shall mean, other than in connection with the Go-Public Transaction: (i) any transaction (whether by purchase, merger or otherwise) whereby a person or persons acting jointly or in concert directly or indirectly acquires the right to cast, at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company, more than 50% of the votes that may be ordinarily cast at a general meeting; (ii) the Company's amalgamation, consolidation or merger with or into any other person or any merger or amalgamation of another person into the Company, unless in each case the holders of voting securities of the Company immediately prior to such amalgamation, consolidation or merger hold securities representing 50% or more of the voting control or direction in the Company or the successor entity upon completion of such amalgamation, consolidation or merger; or (iii) any conveyance, transfer, sale lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's and the Company's subsidiaries' assets and properties, taken as a whole, to another arm's length person.

4.4 Related Documents. In all events of conversion of Notes and as a condition thereto, each Holder agrees to execute all documents executed by members of the Company holding similar equity to which the Note is converted.

5. Representations and Warranties of the Company. The Company hereby represents and warrants to the Investors as follows:

5.1 Organization. The Company is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware; and has all requisite company power and authority to own and lease its property and to carry on its business as presently conducted and as proposed to be conducted.

5.2 Authorization of this Agreement and the Notes. The execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Agreement and the Notes and of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite action on the part of the Company. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of the Company that is enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance, and any other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors' rights generally, and as limited by laws relating to the availability of specific performance, injunctive relief, or other equitable remedies. As of the date of issue thereof, each of the Notes will constitute a valid and binding obligation of the Company that is enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance, and any other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors' rights generally, and as limited by laws relating to the availability of specific performance, injunctive relief, or other equitable remedies. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Notes, and the compliance with the provisions hereof and thereof by the Company, will not (i) conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute (with due notice or lapse of time, or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under (A) any agreement, document, instrument, contract, written understanding or arrangement, note, indenture, mortgage or lease to which the Company is a party or under which the Company or any of its assets is bound or affected, (B) the Company's Certificate of Formation, or (C) the Company's limited liability company agreement; or (ii) result in the creation of any lien, security interest, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of the Company.

5.3 Consents and Approvals. No authorization, consent, approval or other order of, or declaration to or filing with, any governmental agency or body (other than filings required to be made under applicable federal or state securities laws) is required for the valid authorization, execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Agreement or the Notes. The Company has obtained all other consents that are necessary to permit the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

5.4 Sole Representations. Except as expressly set forth in this Section 5, the Company makes no other representation or warranty in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6. Use of Proceeds. The Company is expected to use the proceeds from the sale of the Notes for general corporate purposes including working capital, business development and acquisitions.

7. Representations and Warranties of the Investors. Each of the Investors, severally and not jointly, represents and warrants to the Company as follows:

7.1 Authorization. The Investor has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement which, when executed and delivered by the Investor, will constitute the valid and legally binding obligation of the Investor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance, and any other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors' rights generally, and as limited by laws relating to the availability of specific performance, injunctive relief, or other equitable remedies.

7.2 Purchase for Investment. The Investor is purchasing the Note, and if and when the Note is converted will acquire equity securities of the Company, for investment for the account of the Investor and not for the account of any other person, and not with a view toward resale or other distribution thereof. The Investor understands that the Note being purchased has not been, and when issued the equity securities issuable upon conversion will not be, registered under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws and, therefore, cannot be resold unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws or unless an exemption from such registration is available. The Investor further understands and agrees that, until so registered or transferred pursuant to the provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, the Note and all certificates evidencing any of the equity securities, whether upon initial issuance or upon any transfer thereof, shall bear a legend, prominently stamped or printed thereon, reading substantially as follows:

> THIS SECURITY HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), OR APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THIS SECURITY MAY ONLY BE SOLD, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED PURSUANT TO AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT UNDER THE ACT AND APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, OR PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION PROVISIONS OF THE ACT AND SUCH LAWS. ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS ARE IMPOSED BY THIS SECURITY AND THE AGREEMENT PURSUANT TO WHICH THIS

SECURITY WAS SOLD, AND THE COMPANY MAY REFUSE TO THE TRANSFER OF THIS SECURITY UNLESS SUCH CONDITIONS ARE FULFILLED.

The Investor understands and agrees that the Company does not have any present intention and is under no obligation to register the Note or the equity securities issuable upon conversion, whether upon initial issuance or upon any transfer thereof under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, and that Rule 144 may not be available as a basis for exemption from registration. The Investor acknowledges and agrees that the Company may condition the transfer of the Note, or the equity securities, upon the receipt of an opinion, satisfactory in form and substance to the Company and from counsel satisfactory to the Company, in each of such instances in the sole discretion of the Company, that such proposed transfer shall not result in the violation of any federal or state securities law.

7.3 Receipt of Information. The Investor or such Investor's representative, during the course of this transaction and prior to the purchase of the Note being purchased by the Investor hereunder, has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from representatives of the Company concerning the terms and conditions of the offering of the Notes and the business of the Company; and to obtain any additional information or documents relative to the Company, its business and an investment in the Company necessary to verify the accuracy of information provided by the Company relative to the business of the Company. The Investor or the Investor's representative has received and read or reviewed, and is familiar with, this Agreement, the form of the Note and all such additional information and documents provided to the Investor.

7.4 Materials Incorporated by Reference. The Investor acknowledges receipt of the Fourth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company and the Risk Factors as set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto (the "Risk Factors"), and acknowledges having read and understood the terms and provisions of both of the foregoing, including, without limitation, all Risk Factors relating to the Company's involvement in the cannabis industry. The Investor hereby further acknowledges and agrees that the Risk Factors do not reflect all of the risks involved in an investment in the Company.

7.4 Sophistication of Investor. The Investor or the Investor's representative is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the purchase of the Notes. The Investor has the capacity to protect his or her own interests in connection with the purchase of the Notes by reason of the Investor's business or financial experience or the business or financial experience of the Investor's representative (who is unaffiliated with and who is not compensated by the Company or any affiliate, directly or indirectly).

7.5 Risk of Investment. The purchase of a Note by the Investor is consistent with his or her general investment objectives. The Investor understands that the purchase of the Notes involves a high degree of risk and there is now no established market for the Company's Notes or equity and there is no assurance that any public market for the Notes or such equity will develop. The Investor has no present need for liquidity in connection with the funds being tendered by such Investor hereunder. The Investor can bear the economic risks of this investment and can afford a complete loss of his, her or its investment.

7.6 Accredited Investor. The Investor has completed and delivered to the Company herewith the applicable accredited investor questionnaire attached hereto as Form A, Form B and Form C, acknowledging, among other matters, that he, she or it is an "Accredited Investor," as that term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act (or similar affirmation of accreditation under Canadian or other applicable laws).

7.7 No Commissions. No person or entity has or will have, as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, any right, interest or claim against or upon the Company or the Investor for any commission, fee or other compensation as a finder or broker because of any act or omission by the Investor or by any agent of the Investor.

7.8 No General Solicitation. Neither the Investor, nor any of its officers, managers, members, employees, agents, advisors or partners, has either directly or indirectly, including through a broker or finder (a) engaged in any general solicitation, or (b) published any advertisement in connection with the offer and sale of the Notes.

7.9 Residence. If the Investor is an individual, then the Investor resides in the state or province identified in the address of the Investor set forth on the Signature Page; if the Investor is a partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other entity, then the office of the Investor's principal place of business is identified in the address of the Investor set forth on the Signature Page.

7.10 Authorization of the Company. Each Investor hereby appoints, and shall appoint, any person(s) designated by the Board of Managers as the Investor's true and lawful proxy and attorney, with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution:

(a) to receive the Notes, to execute in the Investor's name and on its behalf all closing receipts and required documents, and to complete and correct any errors or omissions in any form or document provided by the Investor, including this Agreement and the attachments hereto, in connection with the subscription for the Notes;

(b) to extend such time periods and to waive, in whole or in part, any representations, warranties, covenants, conditions or other terms for the Investor's benefit contained in this Agreement or any ancillary or related document;

(c) to terminate, prior to the Initial Closing, this Agreement if any condition precedent is not satisfied, in such manner and on such terms and conditions as the Company in its sole discretion may determine, acting reasonably;

(d) to vote all voting securities of the Company held by the Investor in respect of the Notes prior to the conversion date thereof; and

(e) to execute and deliver on behalf of the Investor all documents, instruments, and agreements necessary or requested by the Company or its underwriters, including any customary lock-up agreement in a Go-Public Transaction.

EACH INVESTOR HEREBY GRANTS TO THE COMPANY OR ITS DESIGNEE AN IRREVOCABLE PROXY AND POWER OF ATTORNEY TO VOTE ALL VOTING SECURITIES OF THE COMPANY NOW OR HEREAFTER OWNED OR CONTROLLED BY EACH OF THEM AT ANY ANNUAL OR SPECIAL MEETING OF THE MEMBERS OR STOCKHOLDERS OF THE COMPANY, OR BY WRITTEN CONSENT IN LIEU OF SUCH A MEETING. EACH INVESTOR ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT THE PROXY AND POWER OF ATTORNEY GRANTED PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION IS COUPLED WITH AN INTEREST AND SHALL SURVIVE THE DEATH, DISABILITY, INCAPACITY, DISSOLUTION, BANKRUPTCY, INSOLVENCY OR TERMINATION OF SUCH INVESTOR AND THE TRANSFER OF ALL OR ANY PORTION OF SUCH INVESTOR'S SHARES AND SHALL EXTEND TO SUCH INVESTOR'S HEIRS, SUCCESSORS, ASSIGNS, AND PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

8. Closing Conditions; Covenants of the Company.

8.1 Conditions to Obligations of the Investors. It shall be a condition precedent to the obligations of any Investor to be performed at the Initial Closing or at the subsequent Closing in which such Investor participates that:

(i) Investors received all documents which they may reasonably have requested in connection with such transactions.

(ii) All representations and warranties of the Company shall be accurate, correct and complete on the date hereof.

(iii) There shall have been no material adverse change in the financial condition of the Company between the date of the Signature Page for such Investor and the date of the Closing in which such Investor shall participate.

8.2 Conditions to Obligations of the Company. It shall be a condition precedent to the obligations of the Company hereunder to be performed at the Initial Closing or at any subsequent Closing that:

(i) The Company shall have received the check, wire transfer or other funds or consideration described in Section 3 to be delivered to the Company in consideration of the issuance of the Notes at such closing.

(ii) All representations and warranties of the Investors shall be accurate, correct and complete on the date of the Closing in which such Investors participate.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company has absolute discretion as to whether or not to accept an investment from the Investor.

9. Miscellaneous.

9.1 Successors and Assigns. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the Company, the Investors, the respective permitted successors and assigns of the Investors and the permitted successors and assigns of the Company. The Company is authorized to assign this Agreement in the event of sale, merger, consolidation, reorganization, share exchange, or similar transaction, involving all or substantially all of its assets or equity, provided the assignee agrees in writing to be bound by the provisions of this Purchase Agreement. The Holder may only assign this Agreement, as provided in the Note or otherwise, upon the prior written consent of the Company and by surrender of the Note at the principal office of the Company, duly endorsed by, or accompanied by a written instrument of transfer duly executed by, the registered Holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing, as specified therein.

9.2 Notices. All notices, offers, acceptances, requests and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered, sent by confirmed fax transmission or electronic mail, or mailed by certified or registered mail to the Company and the Investors at the addresses set forth in their signature lines. If personally delivered or sent by confirmed fax transmission or electronic mail, such notice shall be deemed received upon such delivery, if mailed by overnight courier such notice shall be deemed received one (1) day after such mailing, and if mailed by certified or registered mail, such notice shall be deemed received three (3) days after such mailing. Each party is responsible to update its own address in the manner prescribed above.

9.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the other writings referred to herein or delivered pursuant hereto which form a part hereof contain the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous arrangements or understandings, whether written or oral, with respect thereto.

9.4 Changes. Any term of this Agreement or the Notes may be amended and the observance of any term of this Agreement or the Notes may be waived (either generally or in a particular instance and either retroactively or prospectively), only with the written consent of the Company and the holders of a majority of the outstanding principal amount of all Notes; provided, however, that (i) no such waiver, amendment or modification shall reduce the aforesaid percentage of the principal amount of Notes the holders of which are required to consent to any waiver, amendment or modification, and (ii) no such amendment may increase the funding obligations of any Investors hereunder without such Investor's written consent thereto. Any amendment approved in the manner set forth above shall be binding on all holders of Notes. Neither this Agreement nor any provisions hereof may be waived, amended or modified orally, but only by a signed statement in writing.

9.5 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. The execution and delivery to the Company of a Signature Page in the form annexed to this Agreement by any Investor who shall previously have been furnished the final form of this Agreement (other than Schedule I) shall constitute the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Investor. All exhibits, schedules and annexes attached hereto are part of this Agreement and are incorporated herein by reference. Electronic and fax signatures shall be deemed and accepted as originals.

9.6 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and such unenforceable provision shall be interpreted to the fullest extent permitted by law.

9.7 Governing Law. This Agreement and any dispute arising under or related to this Agreement or the Notes shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to its conflict of laws provisions. Any dispute arising under or related to this Agreement shall be brought before a single arbitrator appointed by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") under the auspices and commercial arbitration rules of the AAA to be held in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

9.8 Nouns and Pronouns. This Note is one of a series of convertible notes (the "Notes") issued pursuant to the Convertible Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of January , 2021 (the "Purchase Agreement"). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Purchase Agreement. All the Notes are pari passu such that all Notes rank equally and no payments shall be made under this Note unless a pro rata payment is simultaneously made under all other Notes.

The following is a statement of the rights of the Holder of this Note and the conditions to which this Note is subject, and to which the Holder, by the acceptance of this Note, agrees:

1. Maturity Date; Conversion. Subject to conversion as determined pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, a single payment of the then outstanding Principal Amount, plus accrued interest thereon determined in accordance with the first paragraph of this Note, shall be due and payable twenty-four (24) months from the Closing Date for this Note (the "Maturity Date"), unless earlier converted in accordance with the Purchase Agreement. This Note may be converted into equity interests of the Company as provided in the Purchase Agreement.

2. Default. Any of the following events shall constitute an "Event of Default", unless waived by holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount outstanding on all Notes (the "Majority Holders"): (i) the Company's execution of a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (ii) the filing by or against the Company of a petition in bankruptcy or any petition for relief under the federal bankruptcy act or the continuation of such petition without dismissal for a period of ninety (90) days or more; (iii) the appointment of a receiver or trustee to take possession of substantially all of the property or assets of the Company or (iv) the Company's failure to pay any amounts owing hereunder when due.

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default:

(a) The Holder shall have all rights and remedies granted to it under this Note and the Purchase Agreement. All such rights and remedies and the exercise thereof shall be cumulative. No exercise of any such rights and remedies shall be deemed to be exclusive or constitute an election of remedies.

(b) Payment of the outstanding Principal Amount, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon determined in accordance with the first paragraph of this Note, shall, at the option of the Majority Holders, become immediately due and payable without notice or demand.

No Event of Default may be waived or shall be deemed to have been waived except by an express notice delivered by the Majority Holders to the Company in accordance with Section 8 below, and any such waiver shall be applicable only to the specific Event(s) of Default expressly identified in such notice and shall not be deemed to apply to any other or subsequent Event of Default. The Majority Holders may grant or withhold any such waiver in the sole exercise of their discretion, and may condition such waiver upon the payment by the Company of a premium or the acceptance of other terms and conditions under this Note or the Purchase Agreement. No course of dealing by the Holder or the failure, forbearance or delay by the Majority Holders in exercising any of their rights or remedies under this Note or the Purchase Agreement shall operate as a waiver of any Event of Default or of any right of the Holder hereunder. Notwithstanding anything contained herein or the Purchase Agreement to the contrary, upon an Event of Default pursuant to Section 2(ii), this Note shall be automatically due and payable without any action or notice by the Holder.

3. Treatment of Note. To the extent permitted by generally accepted accounting principles, the Company will treat, account and report this Note as debt and not equity for accounting purposes and with respect to any returns filed with federal, state or local tax authorities.

4. Prepayment. The Principal Amount and accrued interest will not be prepaid without the written consent of the Holder hereof except as provided in the Purchase Agreement.

5. Representations, Warranties and Acknowledgements of the Holder. 6. No Membership Rights. Nothing contained in this Note shall be construed as conferring upon the Holder the right to vote or to consent or to receive notice as a member in respect of meeting of members for the election of Board of Managers or any other matters or any rights whatsoever as a member of the Company; and no dividends shall be payable or accrued in respect of this Note or the interest represented hereby or the Securities obtainable hereunder upon conversion until, and only to the extent that, this Note shall have been so converted in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement.

7. Recourse. The Holder agrees that no officers, managers or members of the Company shall have any personal liability with respect to the obligations of the Company under this Note, the Purchase Agreement or any other agreements related to this Note.

8. Notice. Any notice, request or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be delivered in accordance with Section 9.2 of the Purchase Agreement.

10. Restrictions on Transfer of this Note. No transfers of the Note or any portion hereof may be made by the Holder without the prior written consent of the Company, which consent may be withheld in the Company's sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing (i) a Holder may transfer this Note to any of its "affiliates" (as defined in Rule 405 promulgated under the Securities Act) without the consent of the Company and (ii) following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Holder may transfer this Note to any person without the consent of the Company, in each case so long as the transferee is an Accredited Investor. The rights and obligations of the Company and the Holder shall be binding upon and benefit their respective successors, permitted assigns, heirs, administrators and permitted transferees.

EXHIBIT B

Legal and Political Risks

Cannabis remains illegal under federal law.

Cannabis is a Schedule-I controlled substance and is illegal under federal law. It remains illegal under United States federal law to grow, cultivate, sell or possess cannabis for any purpose or to assist or conspire with those who do so. Additionally, 21 U.S.C. 856 makes it illegal to "knowingly open, lease, rent, use, or maintain any place, whether permanently or temporarily, for the purpose of manufacturing, distributing, or using any controlled substance." Even in those states in which the use of cannabis has been authorized, its use remains a violation of federal law. Any person that is connected to the cannabis industry, including, but not limited to, an Investor and other investors in the Company, may be at risk of federal criminal prosecution and civil liability. Any investments could also be subject to civil or criminal forfeiture and a total loss. Since federal law criminalizing the use of cannabis is not preempted by state laws that legalize its use, strict enforcement of federal law regarding cannabis would likely result in the Company's inability to proceed with its business plan and a possible total loss of the Investor's investment. Additionally, pursuant to 26 U.S. Code § 280E, any business engaged in the trafficking of a controlled substance may be prohibited from making certain deductions or obtaining certain tax credits.

Some courts may determine that contracts relating to cultivation and sale of cannabis legal under state law are unenforceable on the grounds that such activities are illegal under federal law and therefore void as a matter of public policy. This could substantially impact the rights of parties making or defending claims involving the Company and any lender or member of the Company.

Due to the federal illegality of cannabis and the charged political climate surrounding the cannabis industries of various states, political risks are inherent in the cannabis industry. It remains to be seen whether policy changes at the federal level will have a chilling effect on the cannabis industry.

Rescission of the "Cole Memo."

On January 4, 2018, then-Attorney General Sessions rescinded the previously issued memoranda from the Justice Department which de-prioritized the enforcement of federal law against marijuana users and businesses who comply with state cannabis laws (the "Cole Memo"), adding uncertainty to the question of how the Federal government will now choose to enforce federal laws regarding cannabis. Attorney General Sessions issued a memorandum to all United States Attorneys in which Attorney General Sessions affirmatively rescinded the Cole Memo as to cannabis enforcement, calling such guidance "unnecessary."

Attorney General Sessions' one-page memorandum was vague in nature, stating that federal prosecutors should use established principals in setting their law enforcement priorities. Under previous administrations, the U.S. Department of Justice indicated that those users and suppliers of medical cannabis who complied with state laws, which required compliance with certain criteria, would not be prosecuted. As a result, it is now unclear if the Justice Department will seek to enforce the Controlled Substances Act against those users and suppliers who comply with state cannabis laws. If such enforcement occurs, the federal government may raid the Company, seize all of its equipment and inventory, and arrest all of its officers, directors, managers, and members.

The FinCEN Memo could be rescinded.

Due to the categorization of marijuana as a Schedule I drug in the Controlled Substances Ace ("CSA"), federal law also makes it illegal for financial institutions that depend on the Federal Reserve's money transfer system to take any proceeds from marijuana sales as deposits. Banks and other financial institutions could be prosecuted and possibly convicted of money laundering for providing services to cannabis businesses under the United States Currency and Foreign Transactions Reporting Act of 1970 (the "Bank Secrecy Act"). Therefore, under the Bank Secrecy Act, banks or other financial institutions that provide a cannabis business with a checking account, debit or credit card, small business loan, or any other service could be charged with money laundering or conspiracy. Therefore, under the Bank Secrecy Act, banks or other financial institutions that provide a cannabis business with a checking account, debit or credit card, small business loan, or any other service could be charged with money laundering or conspiracy.

The Department of the Treasury, Financial Crimes Enforcement Network issued a memo (the "FinCEN Memo"), dated February 14, 2014, which de-prioritizes enforcement of the Bank Secrecy Act against financial institutions and cannabis related businesses which utilize them. This memo appears to be a standalone document, and is presumptively still in effect.

At any time, the Department of the Treasury, Financial Crimes Enforcement Network could elect to rescind the FinCEN Memo. This would make it more difficult for the Company to access the U.S. banking system and conduct financial transactions, which would have a material adverse effect on the Company Business (defined below). Enforcement of the Bank Secrecy Act against the Company would also be made more likely by the rescission of the FinCEN Memo. This would subject the Company's officers, directors, managers and members to potential criminal prosecution, and would have a material adverse effect on the Company Business.

Even with the FinCEN Memo in place, prosecution of the Company for violations of the Bank Secrecy Act remains possible, as the FinCEN Memo is only prosecutorial guidance and does not have the force of law.

The 2015 Appropriations Rider must be reauthorized every year to provide any protections.

In 2014, Congress passed a spending bill (the "2015 Appropriations Bill") containing a provision (the "Appropriations Rider") blocking federal funds and resources allocated under the 2015 Appropriations Bill from being used to "prevent such States from implementing their own State [medical marijuana] law". The Appropriations Rider seemed to have prohibited the federal government from interfering with the ability of states to administer their medical cannabis laws, although it did not codify federal protections for medical cannabis patients and producers. Moreover, despite the Appropriations Rider, the Justice Department maintains that it can still prosecute violations of the federal cannabis ban and continue cases already in the courts.

Additionally, the Appropriations Rider must be re-enacted every year. The Appropriations Rider was extended in the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2019 (the "2020 Act"), which was signed by President Trump on December 20, 2019 and funded the departments of the federal government through the fiscal year ending September 30, 2020. Congress passed and President Trump signed a Continuing Resolution that extends the 2020 Act through December 11, 2020. In signing the 2020 Act, President Trump issued a signing statement noting that the Act "provides that the Department of Justice may not use any funds to prevent implementation of medical marijuana laws by various States and territories," and further stating "I will treat this provision consistent with the President's constitutional responsibility to faithfully execute the laws of the United States." While the signing statement can fairly be interpreted to mean that the executive branch intends to enforce the CSA and other federal laws prohibiting the sale and possession of medical marijuana, the President did issue a similar signing statement in 2017 and no federal enforcement actions followed. On February 11, 2020, as both he and former President Obama have done in the past, President Trump submitted a budget request to Congress that omitted the language of the Appropriations Rider.

The Company's proposed business is dependent on laws pertaining to the cannabis industry, and further legislative development is not guaranteed.

The Company's business plan involves the cultivation, distribution, manufacture, storage, transportation and/or sale of medical and adult use cannabis products in compliance with applicable state law, but in violation of federal law (generally referred to herein as the "Company Business"). Continued development of the cannabis industry is dependent upon continued legislative and regulatory authorization of cannabis at the state level. Any number of factors could slow or halt progress in this area. Further progress is not assured. While there may be ample public support for legislative action, numerous factors impact the legislative and regulatory process. Any one of these factors could slow or halt business operations relating to cannabis or the current tolerance for the use of cannabis by consumers, which would negatively impact the Company Business.

The cannabis industry faces strong opposition.

Many believe that several large, well-funded businesses may have a strong economic opposition to the cannabis industry. The Company believes that the pharmaceutical industry does not want to cede control of any product that could generate significant revenue. For example, medical cannabis will likely adversely impact the existing market for the current "cannabis pill" sold by mainstream pharmaceutical companies. Further, the medical cannabis industry could face a material threat from the pharmaceutical industry should cannabis displace other drugs or encroach upon the pharmaceutical industry's products. The pharmaceutical industry is well funded with a strong and experienced lobby that eclipses that of the medical and retail cannabis industries. Any inroads the pharmaceutical industry made in halting or impeding the cannabis industry could have a detrimental impact on the Company Business.

The legality of cannabis could be reversed in one or more states of operation.

The voters or legislatures of states in which cannabis has been legalized could potentially repeal applicable laws which permit both the operation of medical and retail cannabis businesses. These actions might force the Company to cease the Company Business.

Enforceability of contracts.

It is a fundamental principle of law that a contract will not be enforced if it involves a violation of law or public policy. Notwithstanding that cannabis related businesses operate pursuant to the laws of states in which such activity is legal under state law, judges have on a number of occasions refused to enforce contracts for the repayment of money when the loan was used in connection with activities that violate federal law, even if there is no violation of state law. There remains doubt and uncertainty that the Company will be able to legally enforce contracts it enters into if necessary. As the Company cannot be assured that it will have a remedy for breach of contract, the Company and its members must bear the risk of the uncertainty in the law. If borrowers fail or refuse to repay loans and the Company is unable to legally enforce its contracts, the Company may suffer substantial losses for which it has no legal remedy.

Risk of criminal prosecutions for money laundering.

One possible repercussion for members and other investors in the Company is a prosecution for violation of federal money laundering statutes, specifically U.S.C.A. § 1956 and § 1957. Because these statutes criminalize certain transactions involving the proceeds of activity which is itself criminal, it is possible that investors in the Company could be subject to prosecution for investing in, obtaining dividends from, or otherwise transacting with the Company. While there have been no recent prosecutions of investors in cannabis-related businesses for violation of either § 1956 or § 1957, this could change along with federal enforcement priorities.

Risk of civil asset forfeiture.

Because the cannabis industry remains illegal under federal law, any property owned by participants in the cannabis industry which is either used in the course of conducting such business, or are the proceeds of such business, could be subject to seizure by law enforcement and subsequent civil asset forfeiture. Even if the owners of the property were never charged with a crime, the property in question could still be seized and subject to an administrative proceeding by which, with minimal due process, it could be subject to forfeiture.

Risk of RICO prosecution or civil liability.

The Racketeer Influenced Corrupt Organizations Act ("RICO") criminalizes the use of any profits from certain defined "racketeering" activities in interstate commerce. While intended to provide an additional cause of action against organized crime, due to the fact that cannabis is illegal under U.S. federal law, the production and sale of cannabis qualifies cannabis related businesses as "racketeering" as defined by RICO. As such, all officers, managers and owners in a cannabis related business could be subject to criminal prosecution under RICO, which carries substantial criminal penalties.

RICO can create civil liability as well: persons harmed in their business or property by actions which would constitute racketeering under RICO often have a civil cause of action against such "racketeers," and can claim triple their amount of estimated damages in attendant court proceedings. The Company as well as its officers, managers and owners could all be subject to civil claims under RICO.

Legal uncertainty.

Laws and regulations affecting the medical and retail cannabis industry are constantly changing, which could detrimentally affect the Company's proposed operations. Local, state and federal cannabis laws and regulations are broad in scope and subject to evolving interpretations, which could require the Company to incur substantial costs associated with compliance or alter its business plan. For example, adult use cannabis regulations in Massachusetts have been substantially amended multiple times. In addition, violations of these laws, or allegations of such violations, could disrupt the Company Business and result in a material adverse effect on its operations. In addition, it is possible that regulations may be enacted in the future that will be directly applicable to the Company's proposed business, including, but not limited to, regulations or laws impacting the amount of production that the Company is authorized to produce. The Company cannot predict the nature of any future laws, regulations, interpretations or applications, nor can the Company determine what effect additional governmental regulations or administrative policies and procedures, if promulgated, could have on the Company Business.

Business Risks

Economic environment; pandemic.

The Company's operations could be affected by the economic context should the unemployment level, interest rates or inflation reach levels that influence consumer trends and consequently, impact the Company's sales and profitability. As well, general demand for banking services and alternative banking or financial services cannot be predicted and future prospects of such areas might be different from those predicted by the Company's management.

Additionally, a serious pandemic or a natural disaster could severely disrupt global, national and/or regional economies. The current outbreak of the COVID-19 novel and highly contagious coronavirus has resulted in health and other government authorities requiring the closure of offices or other businesses, including office buildings, retail stores and other commercial venues and has resulted in a general economic decline, all of which could have an adverse effect on the Company's revenue or ability to operate its business. No assurance can be given as to the effect of these events on the Company's operations.

The Company Business is dependent on the acquisition and retention of various licenses.

The Company Business is dependent on obtaining various licenses from various municipalities and the state licensing agencies. There can be no assurance that any or all licenses necessary to operate the Company Business will be obtained. If a licensing body were to determine the Company had violated the applicable rules and regulations, there is a risk the licenses granted could be revoked, which would prevent the operation of the Company Business. Further, there is no guarantee the Company will be able to obtain any additional licenses necessary to expand the Company Business.

The Company's management team or other owners could be disqualified from ownership in the Company.

The Company Business is in a highly regulated industry in which many states have enacted extensive rules for ownership of a participant company. The Company's managers or other owners (which could include the members of the Company) could become disqualified from having an ownership stake in the Company under relevant laws and regulations of applicable state and/or local regulators, if the applicable manager or owner is convicted of a certain type of felony or fails to meet the requirements for owning equity in a company like the Company.

The Company may have difficulty accessing the service of banks and bankruptcy protections, which may make it difficult for them to operate or unwind.

Since the use of cannabis is illegal under federal law, there is a compelling argument that banks cannot lawfully accept for deposit funds from businesses involved with cannabis. Consequently, businesses involved in the cannabis industry often have trouble finding a bank willing to accept their business. The inability to open bank accounts may make it difficult for the Company to operate and the reliance on cash can result in a heightened risk of theft. Additionally, some courts have denied cannabis businesses bankruptcy protection, thus, making it very difficult for lenders to recoup their investments.

The Company will not have full access to federal intellectual property protections.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office does not allow trademarks directly related to cannabis and cannabis products to be registered due to the illegal nature of the business and products under federal law. While patent protection for inventions related to cannabis and cannabis products is available, there are substantial difficulties faced in the patent process by cannabis related businesses. There can be no assurances that any proprietary business processes, patents, copyrights or trademarks that may be issued to a cannabis business will offer any degree of protection.

Insurance risks.

In the United States, many cannabis related companies are subject to a lack of adequate insurance coverage including, without limitation, general coverage for cultivating cannabis and traditional commercial insurance covering dispensary transit. In addition, many insurance companies may deny claims for any loss relating to cannabis for reasons such as it is illegal under federal law, a contract for an illegal item is unenforceable or there can be no insurable interest in an illegal item.

Product liability in cannabis-related companies.

Many cannabis related companies are subject to strict product liability laws where a cannabis related retailer who sells a defective product to a consumer is subject to liability for any harm that befalls that consumer due to the defect. For example, a retailer who sells cannabis infused products could be held liable if that product was tainted in the manufacturing process or inadequately labeled and a consumer subsequently fell ill, even if the retailer had nothing to do with the manufacturing process. Any suit against any cannabis related business could adversely affect the Company and cause substantial losses for the Company. This area of law is unsettled and there is very little statutory or case law regarding cannabis and products liability.

Risks associated with young industries.

The cannabis industries in those states which have legalized such activity are not yet well- developed, and many aspects of these industries' development and evolution cannot be accurately predicted. While the Company has attempted to identify many risks specific to the cannabis and hemp industries, prospective investors should carefully consider that there are probably other risks that the Company has not foreseen or not mentioned in this document, which may cause prospective members to lose some, or all, of such prospective member's investment. Given the limited history, it is difficult to predict whether this market will continue to grow or whether it can be maintained. For example, as a result of the Company's limited operating history in a new industry, it is difficult to discern meaningful or established trends with respect to the purchase activity of the Company's customers.

The Company expects that the market will evolve in ways which may be difficult to predict. For example, the Company anticipates that over time it will reach a point in most markets where the Company has achieved a market penetration such that investments in new customer acquisition are less productive and the continued growth of the Company's revenue will require more focus on increasing the rate at which the Company's existing customers purchase products. In the event of these or any other changes to the market, the Company's continued success will depend on the Company's ability to successfully adjust the Company's strategy to meet the changing market dynamics. If the Company is unable to successfully adapt to changes in the Company's markets, the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations could suffer a material negative impact.

Possible shrinkage or lack of growth in the industry.

If no additional states, U.S. territories or countries allow the legal use of cannabis , or if one or more jurisdictions which currently allow it were to reverse position, the Company may not be able to grow, or the market for the Company's products and services may decline. There can be no assurance that the number of jurisdictions which allow the use of cannabis will grow, and if it does not, there can be no assurance that the existing jurisdictions will not reverse position and disallow such use. If either of these events were to occur, not only would the growth of the Company's business be materially impacted in an adverse manner, but the Company may experience declining revenue as the market for the Company's products and services declines.

Product risks.

The Company's product line is in a new and unique product category and there can be no guarantee the product will be appealing to consumers, or will be a success commercially. Cannabis products have not been recognized as safe by the Food and Drug Administration, for example. As with any product, there is the possibility that a claim could be brought against the Company if any consumer has a negative reaction to the product.

Illiquid investment, restrictions on transfer.

The Common Units are subject to legal and other restrictions on transfer and are investments for which no liquid market exists. As a consequence, a member may not be able to sell his, her or its Common Units if a member desired to do so, or to realize what he, she or it perceives to be its fair value in the event of a sale or liquidation. There is no market for the Common Units and it should not be assumed that a public market will develop. The Common Units may not be resold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by any holder except in compliance with applicable securities laws and the transfer restrictions contained in the Purchase Agreement and the Operating Agreement. Accordingly, Investors in this offering may not be able to liquidate their investment in the Company, or pledge the investment as collateral, and should consider their investment to be long-term.

Indemnification.

The Operating Agreement provides that under certain circumstances the managers and officers of the Company and/or others may be indemnified by the Company for any liabilities or losses arising out of activities in connection with the Company. Indemnification under such provision could reduce or deplete the assets of the Company.

Member may lose the right to hold the underlying equity securities.

A member may encounter an event (such as a criminal conviction) that would disqualify the member from owning equity in a licensed cannabis business, and thereby trigger the relevant provisions of the Operating Agreement. Additionally, aside from as provided for in the Subscription Agreement and the Operating Agreement, events, including a change in control of the Company, a liquidation or an event of insolvency, could occur prior to the time that a member is able to receive the benefit of any liquidation from a sale of the Company or a sale of Common Units.

Unitholders may owe taxes in excess of cash distributions from the Company.

Notwithstanding applicable provisions in the Operating Agreement, members may become subject to income tax liability for Company income in excess of the cash they actually receive from the Company. For example, if the Company borrows money, a member's share of Company revenues used to pay principal on the loan will be included in its taxable income from the Company and will not be deductible; income from operations may be accrued by the Company in one tax year, although payment is not actually received until the following year; taxable income or gain may be allocated to a member of the Company if there is a deficit in its capital account even though the member does not receive a corresponding distribution of Company revenues; and Company revenues may be expended for non-deductible costs or retained to establish a reserve for future estimated costs.

Common Units not registered under the Securities Act or state Blue Sky laws.

The Common Units will not be registered for public sale or resale under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state, in reliance upon exemptions which depend in part upon the investment intent of the Investors. There is no present plan to register the Common Units in the future. Accordingly, the Common Units must be acquired for investment purposes only and not with a view to resale or other distribution. Such Common Units may only be offered and sold to such persons who are "accredited investors" as defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act. Such Common Units will be offered without registration in reliance upon the Securities Act exemption for transactions not involving a public offering. Investors will be required to make certain representations to the Company, including that they are acquiring interests in the Company for their own account, for investment purposes only and not with a view to their distribution.

Risks associated with investing in securities in general.

Investment in the Common Units involves a high degree of risk, including the risk of the loss of all capital. The Company makes no guarantee or representation that the Company will achieve its business objectives or that a member will receive a return of his, her or its capital. Making an investment in the Company is speculative. Prospective members should carefully consider, among other factors, the matters described in this section, each of which could have a material adverse effect on the value of the Common Units offered hereby. As a result of these factors, as well as other risks set forth elsewhere in this document, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to implement the business plan or that the Common Units will be of value in the future. A prospective member should only invest in the Common Units as part of an overall investment strategy and only if the prospective member is able to withstand a total loss of his, her or its investment.

Absence of operating history.

The Company was formed in 2018 and has extremely limited operating history on which to base an evaluation of its business and prospects and its success, if any, will be entirely dependent on its management and employees. The past performance, existing relationships and historic growth of the Company cannot be relied upon as indicia of future performance or success of the Company. The Company faces risks in developing its products and eventually bringing them to market. The Company also faces risks that it will lose some or all of the Company's market share in existing businesses to competition, or that its business model becomes obsolete. Many of the Company's business projects are not yet developed, and can be considered subject to risk associated with development-level businesses. The Company operates in a rapidly evolving market. Accordingly, the Company's future prospects are difficult to evaluate, with the risk that the Company may not be successful. The Company will encounter risks and difficulties as a company operating in a rapidly evolving market and may not be able to successfully address these risks and difficulties, which could materially harm its business and operating results. The risks detailed herein are material risks faced by the Company. If any of these risks occur, the Company's business, its ability to receive revenues, its operating results and its financial condition could be seriously harmed.

Need for additional financing.

The Company anticipates that it will be able to raise sufficient capital to fund its anticipated development and operation through various sources. However, the estimated budget is based on certain assumptions, including assumptions related to the performance of the business, and there can be no assurance that unanticipated unbudgeted costs will not be incurred or that the business will not perform as expected. Future events, including problems, delays, expenses and difficulties frequently encountered in the industry, as well as changes in economic, regulatory or competitive conditions, may lead to cost increases that could make it necessary or advisable for the Company to seek additional financing. There can be no assurance that the Company would be able to obtain any necessary additional financing on terms acceptable to the Company, if at all. Also, additional financings may result in dilution of equity stakes in the Company.

Ability to obtain requisite permits.

Prior to beginning operations in a particular state, the Company's subsidiaries must obtain certain operating, building and safety, and other necessary permits. The Company's subsidiaries are in the process of obtaining such permits as required by law. The Company cannot guarantee that approval of such permits will be completed in the time frame required for beginning operations as planned. While the Company believes there should be no impediments to granting any necessary permits and licenses, or obtaining any consents or approvals, no assurances can be made that they will be obtained.

Reliance on management; potential disqualification of managers.

The Company's Board of Managers has discretionary authority to structure, manage and monitor the Company's activities, as well as to commit the Company assets, and, in doing so, has no responsibility to consult with any member. The continued availability of the services of the Company's managers is critical to the Company's success, and the Company has no key executive insurance on such managers. The Company's managers could become disqualified from having an ownership stake in the Company under the cannabis agencies' interpretation of the relevant state laws and regulations if any manager is convicted of a certain type of felony or fails to meet the residency requirements for owning equity in a company like the Company. The loss of services of any key manager, officer or employee or consultant may have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Manager conflict of interest.

The managers and their principals and employees are not required to render exclusive services in connection with the Company. Consequently, the managers or one or more of their principals or employees may render services in connection with other business projects, including other projects in the cannabis industry, during any and or all phases of operations. Furthermore, there may be conflicts of interest between a manager on the one hand, and the Company and its other members on the other. Such conflicts may include cash distribution policies, working capital reserve policies, and the opening of other enterprises in the cannabis industry by the managers.

Dependence on successful recruiting efforts.

The Company's long-term success is heavily dependent upon its ability to recruit and train qualified personnel, including key management, industry talent, and technical and marketing personnel. Competition for highly qualified professional, technical, talent, business development, and management and marketing personnel is intense. There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in attracting, training, or retaining the key personnel required to execute its business plan. If the Company is unsuccessful in its recruiting efforts, such failure could have a material adverse effect on its business, results of operations, financial condition and forecasted financial results.

Risks associated with valuation.

The assumption of Company value underlying this offer may not be representative of fair market value. There is no market for the Company's Units. Likewise, no independent appraisal or valuation has been performed on the Company. Consequently, the Company has arbitrarily determined the value of the Company based on several factors: estimates of the Company's business potential and earnings prospects; the present state of the Company's development; assessment of the Company's management; the Company's capital needs; and consideration of these factors in relation to the market evaluations of comparable companies, the current conditions of the Company's industry, and the economy as a whole. There can be no assurance that the valuation is representative of fair market value.

Fluctuation of operating results.

The Company and its management expect that the Company will experience substantial variations in net sales and operating results from quarter to quarter due to customer acceptance of its products. If customers do not accept the Company's products, its sales and revenues will decline, resulting in a reduction in its operating income. Customer interest for the Company's products could also be impacted by the timing of the Company's introduction of new products. If competitors introduce new products around the same time that the Company issues new products, and if such competing products are superior to the Company's, customers' desire for the Company's products could decrease, resulting in a decrease in Company sales and revenue. The Company may also lose market share to better-funded, aggressive competitors, particularly if large pharmaceutical companies or alcohol or tobacco companies decide to compete against the Company. Increased competition is likely to result in lower sales volumes, price reductions and reduced revenue and gross margins.

Risks inherent in an agricultural business

Adult-use and medical cannabis are agricultural products. There are risks inherent in the agricultural business, such as insects, plant diseases and similar agricultural risks. Although the products are usually grown indoors under climate-controlled conditions, with conditions monitored, there can be no assurance that natural elements will not have a material adverse effect on the production of the Company's subsidiaries' products.

Vulnerability to rising energy costs

Adult-use and medical cannabis growing operations consume considerable energy, making the Company potentially vulnerable to rising energy costs. Rising or volatile energy costs may have a material adverse effect as to the business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of the Company.

Product recalls

Manufacturers and distributors of products are sometimes subject to the recall or return of their products for a variety of reasons, including product defects, such as contamination, unintended harmful side effects or interactions with other substances, packaging safety and inadequate or inaccurate labeling disclosure. Such recalls cause unexpected expenses of the recall and any legal proceedings that might arise in connection with the recall. This can cause loss of a significant amount of sales. In addition, a product recall may require significant management attention. Although the Company's subsidiaries have detailed procedures in place for testing its products, there can be no assurance that any quality, potency or contamination problems will be detected in time to avoid unforeseen product recalls, regulatory action or lawsuits. Additionally, if one of the Company's subsidiaries' brands or products were subject to recall, the image of that brand and the Company could be harmed. Additionally, product recalls can lead to increased scrutiny of operations by applicable regulatory agencies, requiring further management attention and potential legal fees and other expenses.

Results of future clinical research

Research in Canada, the U.S. and internationally regarding the medical benefits, viability, safety, efficacy, dosing and social acceptance of cannabis or isolated cannabinoids remains in early stages. There have been relatively few clinical trials on the benefits of cannabis or isolated cannabinoids (such as CBD and THC). Future research and clinical trials may raise concerns regarding, and perceptions relating to, cannabis. Given these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, prospective Investors should not place undue reliance on existing articles and reports. Future research studies and clinical trials may reach negative conclusions regarding the medical benefits, viability, safety, efficacy, dosing, social acceptance or other facts and perceptions related to cannabis, which could have a material adverse effect on the demand for the Company's products with the potential to lead to a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects.

Reliance on key inputs

The cannabis business is dependent on a number of key inputs and their related costs including raw materials and supplies related to growing operations, as well as electricity, water and other local utilities. Any significant interruption or negative change in the availability or economics of the supply chain for key inputs could materially impact the business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects of the Company. Some of these inputs may only be available from a single supplier or a limited group of suppliers. If a sole source supplier was to go out of business, the Company might be unable to find a replacement for such source in a timely manner or at all. If a sole source supplier were to be acquired by a competitor, that competitor may elect not to sell to the Company in the future. Any inability to secure required supplies and services or to do so on appropriate terms could have a materially adverse impact on the business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects of the Company.

Competition from synthetic production and technological advances

The pharmaceutical industry may attempt to dominate the cannabis industry through the development and distribution of synthetic products which emulate the effects and treatment of organic cannabis. If they are successful, the widespread popularity of such synthetic products could change the demand, volume and profitability of the cannabis industry. This could adversely affect the ability of the Company to obtain long-term profitability and success through the sustainable and profitable operation of its business. There may be unknown additional regulatory fees and taxes that may be assessed in the future.

Constraints on marketing products

The development of the Company's business and operating results may be hindered by applicable restrictions on sales and marketing activities imposed by government regulatory bodies. The regulatory environment in the United States limits companies' abilities to compete for market share in a manner similar to other industries. If the Company is unable to effectively market its products and compete for market share, or if the costs of compliance with government legislation and regulation cannot be absorbed through increased selling prices for its products, the Company's sales and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Fraudulent or illegal activity by employees, contractors and consultants

The Company is exposed to the risk that its employees, independent contractors and consultants may engage in fraudulent or other illegal activity. Misconduct by these parties could include intentional, reckless and/or negligent unauthorized activities that violate: (i) government regulations; (ii) manufacturing standards; (iii) federal and provincial healthcare fraud and abuse laws and regulations; or (iv) laws that require the true, complete and accurate reporting of financial information or data. It may not always be possible for the Company to identify and deter misconduct by its employees and other third parties, and the precautions taken by the Company to detect and prevent this activity may not be effective in controlling unknown or unmanaged risks or losses or in protecting the Company from governmental investigations or other actions or lawsuits stemming from a failure to be in compliance with such laws or regulations. If any such actions are instituted against the Company, and it is not successful in defending itself or asserting its rights, those actions could have a significant impact on the Company's business, including the imposition of civil, criminal and administrative penalties, damages, monetary fines, contractual damages, reputational harm, diminished profits and future earnings, and curtailment of the Company's operations, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects.

Information technology systems and cyber-attacks

The Company's operations depend, in part, on how well it and its suppliers protect networks, equipment, and information technology systems and software against damage from a number of threats, including, but not limited to, cable cuts, damage to physical plants, natural disasters, intentional damage and destruction, fire, power loss, hacking, computer viruses, vandalism and theft. The Company's operations also depend on the timely maintenance, upgrade and replacement of networks, equipment, IT systems and software, as well as pre-emptive expenses to mitigate the risks of failures. Any of these and other events could result in information system failures, delays and/or increase in capital expenses. The failure of information systems or a component of information systems could, depending on the nature of any such failure, adversely impact the Company's reputation and results of operations. The Company's risk and exposure to these matters cannot be fully mitigated because of, among other things, the evolving nature of these threats. As a result, cyber security and the continued development and enhancement of controls, processes and practices designed to protect systems, computers, software, data and networks from attack, damage or unauthorized access is a priority. As cyber threats continue to evolve, the Company may be required to expend additional resources to continue to modify or enhance protective measures or to investigate and remediate any security vulnerabilities.

Security breaches

Given the nature of the Company's products and its deficit of legal availability, as well as the concentration of inventory in its facilities, despite meeting or exceeding all legislative security requirements, there remains a risk of shrinkage as well as theft. A security breach at one of the Company's facilities could expose the Company to additional liability and to potentially costly litigation, increase expenses relating to the resolution and future prevention of these breaches and may deter potential patients from choosing the Company's products.

In addition, the Company collects and stores personal information about its patients and is responsible for protecting that information from privacy breaches. A privacy breach may occur through procedural or process failure, information technology malfunction, or deliberate unauthorized intrusions. Theft of data for competitive purposes, particularly patient lists and preferences, is an ongoing risk whether perpetrated via employee collusion or negligence or through deliberate cyber-attack. EXHIBIT C

TERM SHEET

Issuer:	Ascend Wellness Holdings, LLC (the "Company").
Issue:	Unsecured convertible notes of the Company (the "Convertible Notes"). Each Convertible Note will be convertible into equity securities of the Company, as described in greater detail below.
Issue Size:	Up to US$30,000,000 principal amount of Convertible Notes or such greater amount as may be determined by the Company (the "Offering").
Coupon:	Interest on the Convertible Notes will accrue commencing on the Closing Date of the Note at a rate of: (a) eight percent (8%) per annum from the Closing Date through and including the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Closing Date, (b) ten percent (10%) per annum following the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Closing Date through and including the fifteen (15) month anniversary of the Closing Date, and (c) thirteen percent (13%) per annum following the fifteen (15) month anniversary of the Closing Date and thereafter; which interest will be "paid-in-kind" and added to the outstanding principal amount and be computed on the basis of a three hundred sixty five (365) day year. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in the event the Convertible Notes are converted prior to the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Closing Date, the interest payable will be calculated as of the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Closing Date. Interest paid to non-US holders may be subject to US withholding tax.

Maturity Date:	The term of the Convertible Notes will be for a period of 24 months from the Closing Date. Provided that no Go-Public Transaction (as defined herein) has occurred, on the Maturity Date, the principal aggregate amount of the Convertible Notes and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon will be payable in cash. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a holder of the Convertible Notes may elect to convert its principal amount of the Convertible Notes and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon, subject to applicable withholding tax, into Common Units of the Company ("Common Units"), at a price per Common Unit of $3.00 (subject to appropriate adjustments for future unit splits, unit dividends and similar recapitalization events, the "Maturity Conversion Price").
Use of Proceeds:	The net proceeds from the Offering will be used for working capital requirements and other general corporate purposes, including potential acquisitions.
Conversion:	The Convertible Notes and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon, less applicable withholding tax, will automatically be converted into equity securities of the Company, which equity securities will automatically be exchanged for the same type of security (the "Go-Public Security") issued in connection with a Go-Public Transaction (as defined below), with such numbers of equity securities of the Company issued on the basis of a price equal to the lesser of: (a) (i) in the event the Go-Public Transaction occurs on or before 12 months from the Closing Date, a 20% discount to the issue price of the Go-Public Securities; (ii) in the event the Go-Public Transaction occurs after 12 months from the Closing Date, but before the Maturity Date, a 25% discount to the issue price of the Go-Public Securities; and (b) the equivalent per share price applicable to Common Units issued at the Maturity Conversion Price.
Go-Public Transaction:	A "Go-Public Transaction" shall be defined as the closing of: (i) a transaction resulting in the business or assets of the Company being listed (directly or indirectly) on the Canadian Securities Exchange or any other recognized securities exchange (the "Stock Exchange"), including but not limited to an initial public offering, plan of arrangement, amalgamation, reverse take-over or other business combination pursuant to which the securities of the Company (or any resulting issuer or parent thereof) are listed on the Stock Exchange; and (ii) a concurrent financing of equity securities of the Company for aggregate gross proceeds of greater than or equal to US$20,000,000. Convertible Note holders will not have the right on a Go-Public Transaction to be repaid the principal amount of the Convertible Notes and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon in cash by the Company. Instead, the Convertible Notes will automatically convert into equity securities of the Company, which equity securities will automatically be exchanged for Go- Public Securities.

Change of Control:	Other than in connection with the Go-Public Transaction, within 30 days following the consummation of: (i) any transaction (whether by purchase, merger or otherwise) whereby a person or persons acting jointly or in concert directly or indirectly acquires the right to cast, at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company, more than 50% of the votes that may be ordinarily cast at a general meeting; (ii) the Company's amalgamation, consolidation or merger with or into any other person or any merger of another person into the Company, unless in each case the holders of voting securities of the Company immediately prior to such amalgamation, consolidation or merger hold securities representing 50% or more of the voting control or direction in the Company or the successor entity upon completion of such amalgamation, consolidation or merger; or (iii) any conveyance, transfer, sale lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's and the Company's subsidiaries' assets and properties, taken as a whole, to another arm's length person (collectively, a "Change of Control"), the Company shall make an offer in writing to holders of Convertible Notes (the "Change of Control Offer") to, at the Convertible Note holders' election, either: (i) purchase the Convertible Notes from such holders for cash at 102% of the principal amount thereof and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon; or (ii) convert the Convertible Notes at a price equal to 95% of the Maturity Conversion Price. If 90% or more of the principal amount of the Convertible Notes outstanding on the date of the giving of notice of the Change of Control have been tendered to the Company pursuant to an offer made to the holders of all Convertible Notes, the Company will have the right to redeem all the remaining Convertible Notes for cash at 102% of the principal amount thereof and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

Form and Terms of Offering:	The Offering will be offered for purchase and sales (i) to accredited investors in Canada pursuant to available private placement exemptions; (ii) to "accredited investors" (within the meaning of Rule 501(a) of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act")) in the U.S. pursuant to available private placement exemptions; (iii) to investors resident in jurisdictions outside of Canada and the U.S., in each case in accordance with all applicable laws; provided that no prospectus, registration statement or similar document is required to be filed in such foreign jurisdiction. The Convertible Notes will not be qualified investments under the Income Tax Act (Canada) for registered accounts. The Convertible Notes may not be transferred in the United States other than to an "institutional accredited investor" in compliance with an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. All transfers of Convertible Notes will be subject to the prior approval of the Company in order to ensure compliance with applicable securities laws, including the Securities Act. At or prior to, and as a condition precedent in favor of the Company for, the Closing, each subscriber that is not a U.S. person shall deliver to the Company an IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E and each subscriber that is a U.S. person shall deliver to the Company an IRS Form W-9, in each case in form and completed in a manner satisfactory to the Company. Each subscriber shall irrevocably grant to the Company and its designees an irrevocable proxy and power of attorney, with full power of substitution, with full power and authority in the subscriber's place and stead to execute and deliver all documents, instruments and agreements, including any lock-up agreement, in such manner and on such terms as is customary, in respect of such subscriber's equity securities of the Company in respect of the Go-Public Transaction, and to vote all voting securities of the Company in respect of the Notes prior to conversion in such manner as more fully described in the Subscription Agreement.
Hold Period:	The Company is a private company and there is currently no market through which its securities may be sold. Holders may not be able to resell Convertible Notes purchased under this Term Sheet. The Convertible Notes and the securities issuable thereunder may be subject to an indefinite hold period pursuant to applicable securities laws.
Conditions:	The Issue remains subject to receipt of Board of Managers approval by the Company and the completion of all customary documentation for transactions of this nature.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (this "Agreement") dated as of March 22, 2021 (the "Effective Date") is made and entered into by and between Ascend Wellness Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company with a principal place of business at 1411 Broadway, 16th Floor, New York, NY 10018 (the "Company"), and Abner Kurtin, an individual whose principal business address is in care of the Company at 1411 Broadway, 16th Floor, New York, NY 10018 (the "Executive").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Executive has served as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company since its inception; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to memorialize the terms of such employment, on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree:

1. Employment. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company hereby offers, and the Executive hereby accepts, continued employment as Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

2. Term. Subject to earlier termination as hereinafter provided, the Executive's employment hereunder shall be for a term of three (3) years, commencing on the Effective Date, and, on the third anniversary of the Effective Date and each annual anniversary of the Effective Date thereafter, shall be automatically extended for successive terms of one (1) year each, unless either the Company or the Executive provides notice (a "Non-Renewal Notice") to the other at least 90 days prior to expiration of the original or any extension term that the Executive's employment hereunder is not to be so extended. The term of this Agreement, as from time to time extended or renewed, is hereafter referred to as "the term of this Agreement" or "the term hereof."

3. Capacity and Performance.

(a) During the term hereof, the Executive shall serve the Company as Chief Executive Officer, reporting directly to the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board").

(b) During the term hereof, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time and diligent basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company as are customarily performed by a Chief Executive Officer of a company of comparable size and as may be reasonably designated from time to time by the Board.

(c) During the term hereof, for so long as the Executive is employed as the Company's Chief Executive Officer, the Company will nominate the Executive for re-election to the Board and the Executive shall serve in such other officer and/or director positions with any affiliate of the Company (for no additional compensation) as may be determined by the Board (excluding the Executive) from time to time. For purposes of this Agreement, an "affiliate" of the Company shall mean any person or entity that that directly or indirectly controls, or is under common control with, or is controlled by, the Company, and as used in this definition, "control" (including, with its correlative meanings, "controlled by" and "under common control with") shall mean possession, directly or indirectly, of power to direct or cause the direction of management or policies (whether through ownership of voting equity interests, by contract or otherwise).

(d) During the term hereof, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, render any services of a business, commercial or professional nature to any person or entity other than the Company (or any affiliate thereof), whether for compensation or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the Board (excluding the Executive), which shall not be unreasonably withheld. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive may (i) engage in the activities set forth on Exhibit A hereto so long as such activities do not (A) individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement and (B) materially change in nature or scope of the Executive's engagement after the Effective Date, in which case the Executive shall not be permitted to continue such engagement without the prior written consent of the Board (excluding the Executive) and (ii) engage in educational, charitable and civic activities and manage the Executive's personal investments and affairs, in each case, so long as such activities (A) do not, individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement and (B) are not contrary to the interests of the Company or any of its affiliates or competitive in any way with the Company or any of its affiliates.

4. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive under this Agreement and during the term hereof and subject to performance of the Executive's duties and obligations to the Company pursuant to this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. The Company shall pay the Executive a base salary at the rate of $1,000,000 per annum. The Executive's base salary shall be payable in accordance with the payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase from time to time by the Board (excluding the Executive), in its sole discretion. The base salary set forth in this Section 4(a), as from time to time increased, is hereafter referred to as the "Base Salary."

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each fiscal year that ends during the term hereof, the Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus"). The Executive's annual target bonus opportunity for each such fiscal year shall be equal to 100% of Base Salary (the "Target Bonus"), based on the achievement of target performance goals established by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the

"Compensation Committee"). If the Company and/or the Executive achieves superior performance goals established by the Compensation Committee for any fiscal year, then the Executive shall be eligible to earn an additional 100% of Base Salary as part of his Annual Bonus for such fiscal year, for total Annual Bonus eligibility of 200% of Base Salary (the "Maximum Annual Bonus"). If threshold performance goals are not achieved for any fiscal year, then the Executive shall not receive an Annual Bonus for such fiscal year. The Annual Bonus, if any, will be paid within thirty (30) days after the Board's approval of the Company's and its subsidiaries' consolidated audited financial statements for the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates (and in all events in the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates).

(c) Bonus upon Change of Control Event. Upon the consummation of a change of control (as defined in the 2021 Incentive Plan), and concurrent with the payment of any consideration to any other holders of capital stock of the Company in connection with such change of control, the Executive shall be deemed to have earned the Maximum Annual Bonus (the "Change in Control Bonus") for each fiscal year during the remainder of the Term (inclusive of partial fiscal years). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the obligations of the Company to pay the Change of Control Bonus to Executive shall survive any termination of this Agreement by reason of death, disability or termination of employment of Executive without limitation, except that the Company's obligation to pay the Change of Control Bonus shall terminate concurrently with any termination of Executive's employment for Cause (as defined in Section 5(c) below).

(d) Equity Incentives. Subject to the approval of the Board (excluding the Executive), on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, the Executive will be granted 2,500,000 Restricted Stock Units pursuant to and as defined in the Company's 2021 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2021 Incentive Plan") and subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable award agreement. During the term hereof, the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional equity grants under the 2021 Incentive Plan, or any successor plan for the issuance of stock options, restricted stock, or other equity incentives hereafter maintained by the Company and in which other senior executives of the Company participate. Any and all additional grants to the Executive under the 2021 Incentive Plan or any such successor plan shall be made at the sole discretion of the Board (excluding the Executive) and shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable award agreement.

(e) Vacations. During the term hereof, the Executive shall be entitled to vacation, personal days, sick time and similar paid time off benefits in accordance with the applicable policies of the Company, as in effect from time to time.

(f) Insurance Benefits. During the term hereof and subject to any contribution therefor generally required of employees of the Company, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in any medical, dental and disability insurance plans maintained by the Company from time to time (collectively, the "Insurance Benefits"). The Executive's participation in such Insurance Benefits shall be subject to applicable law, the terms of the applicable plan documents and generally applicable Company policies. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company may amend, modify or terminate any Insurance Benefits at any time in its discretion.

(g) Business Expenses. During the term hereof, the Company shall promptly pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable, customary and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to any reasonable maximum annual limit and other restrictions on such expenses set by the Board (excluding the Executive) and otherwise in accordance with the Company's then-prevailing policies and procedures for expense reimbursement (including such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Company from time to time).

5. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2 hereof, the Executive's employment hereunder shall terminate prior to the expiration of the term under the following circumstances:

(a) Death. In the event of the Executive's death during the term hereof, the Executive's employment hereunder shall immediately and automatically terminate. In such event, the Company shall pay to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate, (i) the Base Salary earned but not paid through the date of termination (to be paid in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies or at such earlier time as required by applicable law), (ii) the value of any vacation time earned but not used through the date of termination (to be paid in accordance with the Company's policies and applicable law), (iii) any Annual Bonus earned under Section 4(b) with respect to the fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year in which such termination occurs, but only to the extent unpaid as of the date of termination (with any such earned Annual Bonus to be paid at the same time as if no such termination had occurred), and (iv) any business expenses incurred by the Executive but unreimbursed as of the date of termination, provided that such expenses are reimbursable under Company policy (with such expenses to be reimbursed in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policies as in effect from time to time) (all of the foregoing, "Final Compensation"). In addition to Final Compensation, if the Executive's employment terminates due to his death during the term hereof, the Executive will be entitled to (x) a prorated portion of any Annual Bonus earned for the fiscal year in which such termination occurs (calculated as the Annual Bonus that would have been paid for such fiscal year, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is equal to the number of days the Executive worked for the Company in such fiscal year, and the denominator of which is equal to the total number of days in such fiscal year), with any such prorated Annual Bonus to be paid at the same time as if no such termination had occurred (the "Prorated Bonus") and (y) the Benefit Continuation he would have been entitled to receive under clause (iii) of Section 5(d) below had the Executive been terminated by the Company other than for Cause in accordance with such Section 5(d). The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive or his estate hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during his employment hereunder through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, with or without reasonable accommodation, for any period of ninety (90) consecutive days or more, or one hundred eighty (180) days (whether or not consecutive) during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. In the event of such termination, the Company shall pay to the Executive the Final Compensation and shall otherwise comply with the provisions of this Section 5(b). In addition to such Final Compensation, the Executive will be entitled to (x) the Prorated Bonus and (y) the Benefit Continuation he would have been entitled to receive under clause (iii) of Section 5(d) below had the Executive been terminated by the Company other than for Cause in accordance with such Section 5(d). The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(ii) In lieu of terminating the Executive's employment hereunder, the Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability. Notwithstanding any such designation, the Executive shall continue to receive the Base Salary in accordance with Section 4(a) and Insurance Benefits in accordance with Section 4(e), to the extent permitted by the then-current terms of the applicable benefit plans, until the Executive becomes eligible for long-term disability income benefits under the Company's disability income plan (or any disability insurance policy of the Company).

(iii) If the Executive becomes eligible to receive disability income payments under the Company's disability income plan (or any disability insurance policy of the Company), the Executive shall be entitled to receive Base Salary under Section 4(a) hereof less the amount of such disability income payments being made to the Executive, and shall continue to participate in Company benefit plans in accordance with Section 4(e) and as permitted by the terms of such plans, in each case, until the termination of his employment.

(iv) Any determination as to whether during any period the Executive is disabled through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature so as to be unable to perform substantially all of his duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be made by a physician satisfactory to both the Executive (or his duly appointed guardian) and the Company, provided that if the Executive and the Company do not agree on a physician, the Executive and the Company shall each select a physician and these two together shall select a third physician, whose determination as to disability shall be binding on all parties. If the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause. The following shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) Repeated or willful refusal, failure or neglect by the Executive to perform the material duties of his employment or to follow the directions of the Board (other than by reason of the Executive's physical or mental illness or impairment);

(ii) The Executive's committing any act of fraud, embezzlement, or theft;

(iii) The Executive's material violation of the Company's policies;

(iv) The Executive's behavior or engagement in any acts that may interfere with the ability of the Company or any of its affiliates to maintain a license to harvest, cultivate, process, or sell cannabis or otherwise continue to operate its business;

(v) The Executive's breach of any non-disclosure, non-disparagement, non-competition, non-solicitation, assignment of inventions agreement or other restrictive covenants set forth herein, other than the Executive's inadvertent and immaterial breach of any non-competition or non-disclosure obligation that is not otherwise detrimental to the Company or any of its affiliates, as determined by the Board (excluding the Executive);

(vi) The Executive's conviction of a felony (including pleading guilty or nolo contendere to a felony) or commitment of other acts causing a material detriment to the reputation, the business or a business relationship of the Company or any of its affiliates; provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, no conviction or plea of nolo contendere of a felony or crime that occurs solely as a result of a violation of U.S. federal law concerning cannabis or the cannabis industry shall be deemed to constitute "Cause", so long as (A) the acts, omissions, conduct or activity related to cannabis or the cannabis industry giving rise to any such conviction or plea of nolo contendere of a felony or crime could be reasonably believed to be in compliance with applicable state and local laws and (B) such conviction or plea of nolo contendere is not likely to interfere with the ability of the Company or any of its affiliates to maintain a license to harvest, cultivate, process, or sell cannabis or otherwise continue to operate its business;

(vii) The Executive's willful engagement in dishonesty, illegal conduct (other than solely as a result of a violation of U.S. federal law concerning cannabis or the cannabis industry, so long as (A) the acts, omissions, conduct or activity related to cannabis or the cannabis industry giving rise to such illegal conduct could be reasonably believed to be in compliance with applicable state and local laws and (B) such illegal conduct is not likely to interfere with the ability of the Company or any of its affiliates to maintain a license to harvest, cultivate, process, or sell cannabis or otherwise continue to operate its business), or gross misconduct, which in each case is materially injurious (monetarily or otherwise) to the Company or its affiliates; or (viii) The Executive's material breach of the terms of this Agreement.

For purposes of this provision, no act or failure to act on the part of the Executive shall be considered "willful" unless it is done, or omitted to be done, by the Executive in bad faith or without reasonable belief that the Executive's action or omission was in the best interests of the Company. Any act, or failure to act, based on authority given pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by the Board or on the advice of counsel for the Company shall be conclusively presumed to be done, or omitted to be done, by the Executive in good faith and in the best interests of the Company.

Termination of the Executive's employment shall not be deemed to be for Cause unless and until (I) the Company has given notice thereof to the Executive specifying in reasonable detail the conduct constituting "Cause," (II) solely with respect to the conduct described in clauses (i), (iii), (iv), (v) and (viii) above, the Executive fails to cure and correct his conduct (if capable of cure and correction) within thirty (30) days after such notice, and (III) the Company delivers to the Executive a copy of a resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Board (excluding the Executive) (after the Executive is given an opportunity, together with counsel, to be heard before the Board), finding in good faith that the Executive has engaged in the conduct described in any of (i)-(viii) above.

Upon the giving of notice of termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation hereunder to the Executive, other than for Final Compensation.

(d) By the Company Other than for Cause or by Giving a Non-Renewal Notice. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder other than for Cause (and other than in connection with the Executive's death or disability) at any time upon ninety (90) days' written notice to the Executive; provided that, during such 90-day notice period (or any portion thereof), the Executive may be required to work remotely from his residence or the Company may place the Executive on garden leave, and in all events, the Company may prohibit the Executive from entering any premises of the Company or any of its affiliates, contacting any employee, customer, vendor or supplier of the Company or any of its affiliates or accessing any property of the Company or any of its affiliates. In the event of such termination, or in the event that the Executive's employment is terminated as a result of the Company's Non-Renewal Notice pursuant to Section 2 hereof, then (i) the Company shall pay to the Executive the Final Compensation, (ii) the Company shall pay the Executive an amount equal to two (2) times the sum of Base Salary and Annual Bonus earned by the Executive for the full fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year in which such termination occurs (the "Termination Compensation"), payable in substantially equal installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices as in effect from time to time, over the twelve (12) month period immediately following the termination date (with the first payment to be made on the first payroll date following the effective date of the Employee Release (as defined below) and to include a catch-up to cover any payment that would have been made prior to such date had the Employee Release been effective on the termination date); provided that, if such termination date occurs prior to the conclusion of one full fiscal year of employment, it shall be assumed, for purposes of determining the Termination Compensation, that Executive earned one full fiscal year of his current Base Salary and achieved an Annual Bonus of 100% of his current Base Salary; provided, further, that, if (and only if) such termination date occurs within eighteen (18) months after a Change of Control Event (as defined below), then the Termination Compensation shall be payable to the Executive in a lump sum payment on the first payroll date following the effective date of the Employee Release (rather than in installments, as provided above in this clause (ii)), (iii) subject to any employee contribution applicable to the Executive as of immediately prior to the date of termination, the Company shall continue to pay the cost of the Executive's participation in the Company's medical and dental insurance plans for a period of twelve (12) months, provided that if the Executive's continued participation in such plans would result in a violation of any non-discrimination rules or result in any fines, penalties or excise taxes to the Company or any of its affiliates or if the Executive is otherwise not eligible to continue participation in such plans under applicable law or plan terms, then, to the extent possible without resulting in such violation, fines, penalties or excise taxes, the Company shall instead make monthly cash payments to the Executive in an amount equal to the employer portion of the monthly insurance premiums that would have been applicable had the Executive been eligible to continue such participation (the benefit described in this clause (iii), collectively, the "Benefit Continuation"), (iv) the Prorated Bonus, and (v) notwithstanding the terms of any other agreement, instrument or document to the contrary (including without limitation any vesting terms, performance criteria or other conditions, and regardless of whether entered into before or after the date of this Agreement), upon such termination, Executive's right to purchase or otherwise acquire any equity securities of the Company under any stock option or other agreement, instrument, plan, program or arrangement outstanding or in effect on the effective date of such termination shall thereupon vest in full (subject only to the payment of the applicable exercise or purchase price, if any, and provided that any equity awards that are subject to the satisfaction of performance goals shall be deemed earned at target performance), and any right of the Company or any subsidiary to repurchase any equity securities of the Company from Executive, whether arising under any option, agreement, instrument, plan, program, arrangement or otherwise, shall thereupon terminate. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Change of Control Event" shall mean the consummation, after the Effective Date, of (i) the sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets or at least a majority of voting power of the capital stock of the Company, (ii) any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, or (iii) the merger or consolidation of the Company with or into another entity, except a merger or consolidation in which the holders of capital stock of the Company immediately prior to such merger or consolidation continue to hold at least 50% of the voting power of the capital stock of the Company or the surviving or acquiring entity, as applicable; provided, however, that no event described in the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) shall constitute a Change of Control Event for purposes of this Agreement unless it satisfies the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(5)(v) or (vii).

(e) Any obligation of the Company to make the payments and provide the benefits to the Executive under Section 5 (other than Final Compensation) is conditioned, however, upon the Executive (or his estate or legal representative, as applicable) signing a general release of claims and covenant not to sue in such form and substance as may be agreed to by the Company and the Executive (or his estate or legal representative, as applicable) (the "Employee Release") within twenty-one days (or such greater period as the Company may specify) (the "Release Period") following the date of termination of employment and upon the Executive (or his estate or legal representative, as applicable) not revoking the Employee Release during the 7-day revocation period following the execution of the Employee Release (the "Revocation Period"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if payment of Termination Compensation and the Benefit Continuation could commence in more than one taxable year based on when the Employee Release could become effective, then to the extent required by Section 409A of the Code, any such payments that would have been made during the calendar year in which the Executive's employment terminates shall instead be withheld and paid on the first payroll date in the calendar year immediately after the calendar year in which the Executive's employment terminates, with all remaining payments to be made as if no such delay had occurred.

(f) By the Executive for Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason, upon notice to the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason. The following shall constitute "Good Reason", subject to the notice and cure periods set forth below, unless the Executive shall have consented in writing to any of the following:

(i) any reduction in the Executive's Base Salary other than in connection with a general reduction in base salaries that affects all similarly situated executives in substantially the same proportions;

(ii) any reduction in the Executive's Target Bonus or Maximum Annual Bonus opportunity (other than solely as a result of a reduction in Base Salary);

(iii) any failure by the Company to nominate the Executive for re-election to the Board and to use its best efforts to have the Executive re-elected (other than as a result of a Change of Control Event, which shall be governed by this Section 5(f)(v)), or any change in the Executive's title as Chief Executive Officer of the Company;

(iv) any diminution in the Executive's responsibilities or authority within the Company, or any alteration in the nature or status of Executive's position, title or responsibilities or the conditions of Executive's employment, including the requirement for the Executive to report to any person(s) other than the Board, in any case without his prior written consent, other than any of the foregoing that occurs as a result of a Change of Control Event (which shall be governed by this Section 5(f)(v));

(v) in the event of a Change of Control Event, any failure by the acquirer to (a) make an offer of employment to the Executive for a base salary, target bonus and maximum bonus opportunity amounts that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to the Executive's Base Salary and Annual Bonus (taking into consideration both the Target Bonus and the Maximum Annual Bonus) each as of immediately prior to such sale, (b) nominate the Executive for election to the Board of the acquirer, (c) offer the Executive a position with duties, responsibilities and authority that are materially comparable to the Executive's duties, responsibilities and authority as Chief Executive Officer of the Company (disregarding any duties, responsibilities and authority the Executive had as a member of the Board or as an officer or director of any affiliate of the Company) as of immediately prior to such sale;

(vi) any failure by the Company to comply with any material provision of this Agreement; and

(vii) any requirement that the Executive relocate the principal place of his work for the Company such that his existing commute is increased by more than 50 miles.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Good Reason shall not be deemed to exist unless (x) the Executive gives the Company written notice within ninety (90) days after the Executive first has knowledge of the occurrence of the event which the Executive believes constitutes the basis for Good Reason, specifying the particular act or failure to act which the Executive believes constitutes the basis for Good Reason, (y) the Company fails to cure such act or failure to act within sixty (60) days after receipt of such notice and (z) the Executive terminates his employment within sixty (60) days after the end of the period specified in clause (y).

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 5(f), then the Executive will be entitled to the same payments and benefits (i.e., the Final Compensation, the Termination Compensation, the Benefit Continuation, the Prorated Bonus and acceleration of equity vesting (or termination of Company repurchase rights, as applicable)) he would have been entitled to receive had the Executive been terminated by the Company other than for Cause (and not due to his death or disability) in accordance with Section 5(d) above (subject to the terms of Section 5(e) above).

(g) By the Executive Other than for Good Reason or by Giving a Non-Renewal Notice. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time upon ninety (90) days' prior written notice to the Company. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 5(g), or if the Executive should give a Non-Renewal Notice pursuant to Section 2 hereof, the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive the Final Compensation and, to the extent permitted under (and subject to the terms of) the applicable plan documents, provide the Insurance Benefits for the notice period (or any portion thereof) so waived. Upon such employment termination, the Company shall have no further obligation hereunder to the Executive, other than for any Final Compensation and Prorated Bonus due to him.

(h) Post-Agreement Employment. In the event the Executive remains in the employ of the Company or any of its subsidiaries following termination of this Agreement, by the expiration of the term hereof or otherwise, then such employment shall be at will.

6. Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 6 shall apply to a termination of the Executive's employment with the Company hereunder, whether due to the expiration of the term hereof, pursuant to Section 5 or otherwise.

(a) Payment by the Company of any applicable Final Compensation, Termination Compensation, Benefit Continuation, acceleration of equity vesting (or termination of Company repurchase rights, as applicable) and/or any other amounts or benefits that may be due the Executive in each case under the applicable termination provision of Section 5 shall constitute the entire obligation of the Company to the Executive, and the Executive shall not be entitled to additional payments or benefits under any other severance agreement or executive severance plan of the Company. Upon request of the Company, the Executive shall promptly give the Company notice of all facts necessary for the Company to determine the amount and duration of its obligations in connection with any termination pursuant to Section 5 hereof.

(b) Except for the Benefit Continuation and equity-security related benefits pursuant to Section 5(d) or 5(f) hereof, all benefits shall terminate pursuant to the terms of the applicable benefit plans based on the date of termination of the Executive's employment without regard to any continuation of any applicable Termination Compensation or other payment to the Executive following such date of termination.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination of Executive's employment hereunder if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of other surviving provisions, including without limitation the Restrictive Covenants (as defined below). The obligation of the Company to make payments and provide benefits to or on behalf of the Executive under 5(b), 5(d), 5(f) or 5(g) hereof (other than the Final Compensation) is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued compliance with the Restrictive Covenants; provided that (i) the Company may not discontinue any such payments and benefits (or require repayment of any such payments or benefits already provided to the Executive) unless the Company has provided written notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such non-compliance and, if the nature of such non-compliance is such that it is capable of being remedied by the Executive without any damage to the Company, as determined by the Board (excluding the Executive), the Executive shall have failed to remedy such non-compliance within ten (10) days following receipt of such notice (it being understood that if the nature of such non-compliance is such that it is not capable of being remedied by the Executive without any damage to the Company, as determined by the Board (excluding the Executive), the Company may discontinue such payments and benefits at such time as it provides such written notice to the Executive) and (ii) to the extent curable, the Company may suspend or discontinue such payments or benefits thereafter only during such period as such non-compliance continues. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided in Section 5, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

7. Restrictive Covenants. As an inducement and as essential consideration for the Company to enter into this Agreement, and in exchange for other good and valuable consideration, the Executive hereby agrees to the restrictive covenants contained in this Section 7 (the "Restrictive Covenants"). The Company and the Executive agree that the Restrictive Covenants are essential and narrowly tailored to preserve the goodwill of the business of the Company and its affiliates, to maintain the confidential and trade secret information of the Company and its affiliates, and to protect other legitimate business interests of the Company and its affiliates in light of their niche businesses and the executive position held by the Executive. The Company and the Executive further agree that the Company would not have entered into this Agreement without the Executive's agreement to the Restrictive Covenants. For purposes of the Restrictive Covenants, each reference to "Company" and "affiliate" shall also refer to the predecessors and successors of the Company and any of its affiliates (as the case may be).

(a) Non-Competition. During the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the date that is twelve (12) months after the date on which the Executive's employment hereunder terminates (the "Termination Date"), regardless of the reason for the Executive's termination of employment and regardless of who initiates such termination (such period, the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, anywhere in the United States or in any other country or jurisdiction in which the Company or any of its affiliates conducts or conducted business during the Non-Competition Period, either directly or indirectly, as a proprietor, partner, stockholder, director, executive, employee, consultant, joint venturer, member, investor, lender or otherwise, engage or assist others to engage in, or own, manage, operate or control, or participate in the ownership, management, operation or control of, or become employed or engaged by any person or entity that (i) is engaged in the business of the cultivation, manufacture and/or sale of cannabis or (ii) is, or has taken steps to become, competitive with the current business, activities, products or services of the type conducted, authorized, offered, or provided by the Company or any of its affiliates, or with respect to prospective business, activities, products or services which the Company or any of its affiliates (with the Executive's knowledge or involvement) has spent significant time or resources analyzing for the purposes of assessing expansion opportunities by the Company or any of its affiliates during the twelve (12) month period immediately prior to the Termination Date, in each case except as set forth on Exhibit A or otherwise approved by the Board at any time prior to the Termination Date (the "Competitive Business"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 7(a) shall prevent the Executive from (i) participating in any or all of the engagements or activities set forth on Exhibit A hereto so long as such engagements or activities do not (A) individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement and (B) materially change in the nature or scope of the Executive's engagement after the Effective Date or (ii) owning, as a passive investor, up to two percent (2%) of the securities of any entity that are publicly traded on a national securities exchange.

(b) Customer Non-Solicitation. During the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the date that is twelve (12) months after the Termination Date, regardless of the reason for the Executive's termination of employment and regardless of who initiates such termination, the Executive shall not (except on the Company's behalf during the term hereof), for purposes of providing products or services that are competitive with those provided by the Company or any of its affiliates, directly or indirectly, on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, contact, solicit, divert, induce, call on, take away, or do business with (or attempt to do any of the foregoing) any customer or client of the Company or any of its affiliates (or any person or entity who, during the twelve (12) months prior to the Termination Date, was engaged in mutual contact, discussion or correspondence with the Company in respect of becoming a customer or client of the Company or any of its affiliates) with whom the Executive had contact within the twelve (12) months immediately prior to the Termination Date.

(c) Service Provider Non-Solicitation. During the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the date that is twelve (12) months after the Termination Date, regardless of the reason for the Executive's termination of employment and regardless of who initiates such termination, the Executive shall not (except on the Company's behalf during the term hereof), directly or indirectly, on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, solicit for employment or engagement, employ or engage, or interfere with the employment or engagement of (or attempt to do any of the foregoing) any individual who (A) is employed by, or an independent contractor of, the Company or any of its affiliates at the time of such solicitation, interference or attempt thereof or (B) was employed by, or an independent contractor of, the Company or any of its affiliates within twelve (12) months prior to such solicitation, employment, engagement, interference or attempt thereof.

(d) Non-Disparagement. During the term hereof and at all times thereafter, (I) the Executive shall not, directly or through any other person or entity, make any public or private statements (whether orally, in writing, via electronic transmission, or otherwise) that disparage, denigrate or malign (i) the Company or any of its affiliates, (ii) any of the businesses, activities, operations, affairs, reputations or prospects of the Company or any of its affiliates, or (iii) any of the officers, employees, directors, managers, partners (general and limited), agents, members or shareholders of any of the persons or entities described in any of clauses (i) or (ii) and (II) none of the members of the Board shall, and the Company shall not instruct any of its employees or employees of any of its affiliates to, directly or through any other person or entity, make any public or private statements (whether orally, in writing, via electronic transmission, or otherwise) that disparage, denigrate or malign the Executive. For purposes of clarification, and not limitation, a statement shall be deemed to disparage, denigrate or malign a person or entity if such statement could be reasonably construed to adversely affect the opinion any other person or entity may have or form of such first person or entity. No obligation under this Section 7(d) shall be violated by truthful statements (x) made to any governmental authority, (y) which are in connection with legal process, required governmental testimony or filings, or administrative or arbitral proceedings (including, without limitation, depositions in connection with such proceedings) or (z) made in performance reviews.

(e) Confidentiality; Return of Property. During the term hereof and at all times thereafter, the Executive shall not, without the prior express written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly, use on the Executive's behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, or divulge, disclose or make available or accessible to any person or entity, any Confidential Information (as defined below), other than when required to do so in good faith to perform the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder while employed by the Company, or when required to do so by a lawful order of a court of competent jurisdiction, any governmental authority or agency, or any recognized subpoena power. Nothing in this Section 7(e) or in this Agreement prohibits the Executive from reporting possible violations of federal law or regulation to any governmental agency or entity, or making other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of applicable law or regulation. Further, in accordance with the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, (I) the Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that: (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal, and (II) if the Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, the Executive may disclose a trade secret to his attorney and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the Executive files any document containing the trade secret under seal and does not disclose the trade secret except pursuant to court order. In the event that the Executive becomes legally compelled (by oral questions, interrogatories, request for information or documents, subpoena, criminal or civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose any Confidential Information, then prior to such disclosure, the Executive will provide the Board with prompt written notice so that the Company may seek (with the Executive's cooperation) a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. In the event that such protective order or other remedy is not obtained, then the Executive will furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information which is legally required (as may be advised by Executive's legal counsel), and will cooperate with the Company in the Company's efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to the Confidential Information. In addition, the Executive shall not create any derivative work or other product based on or resulting from any Confidential Information (except in the good faith performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement while employed by the Company). The Executive shall also proffer to the Board's designee, no later than the Termination Date (or upon the earlier request of the Company), and without retaining any copies, notes or excerpts thereof, all property of the Company and its affiliates in whatever form, including, without limitation, memoranda, computer disks or other media, computer programs, diaries, notes, records, data, customer or client lists, marketing plans and strategies, and any other documents consisting of or containing Confidential Information, that are in the Executive's actual or constructive possession or which are subject to the Executive's control at such time. To the extent the Executive has retained any such property or Confidential Information on any electronic or computer equipment belonging to the Executive or under the Executive's control, the Executive agrees to so advise Company and to follow Company's instructions in permanently deleting all such property or Confidential Information and all copies. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean all information of a sensitive, confidential or proprietary nature respecting the business and activities of the Company or any of its affiliates, including, without limitation, the terms and provisions of this Agreement (except for the terms and provisions of Section 7), and the clients, customers, suppliers, computer or other files, projects, products, computer disks or other media, computer hardware or computer software programs, marketing plans, financial information, methodologies, Inventions (as defined below), know-how, research, developments, processes, practices, approaches, projections, forecasts, formats, systems, data gathering methods and/or strategies of the Company or any of its affiliates. Confidential Information also includes all information received by the Company or any of its affiliates under an obligation of confidentiality to a third party of which the Executive has knowledge. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information shall not include any information that is generally available, or is made generally available, to the public other than as a result of a direct or indirect unauthorized disclosure by the Executive or any other person or entity subject to a confidentiality obligation.

(f) Ownership of Inventions. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that all Company Inventions (as defined below) (including all intellectual property rights arising therein or thereto, all rights of priority relating to patents, and all claims for past, present and future infringement, misappropriation relating thereto), and all Confidential Information, hereby are and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company (collectively, the "Company IP"). For consideration acknowledged and received, the Executive hereby irrevocably assigns, conveys and sets over to the Company all of the Executive's right, title and interest in and to all Company IP. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that the compensation received by the Executive for employment or services provided to the Company is adequate consideration for the foregoing assignment. The Executive further agrees to disclose in writing to the Board any Company Inventions promptly following their conception or reduction to practice. Such disclosure shall be sufficiently complete in technical detail and appropriately illustrated by sketch or diagram to convey to one skilled in the art of which the Company Invention pertains, a clear understanding of the nature, purpose, operations, and other characteristics of the Company Invention. The Executive agrees to execute and deliver such deeds of assignment or other documents of conveyance and transfer as the Company may request to confirm in the Company or its designee the ownership of the Company Inventions, without compensation beyond that provided in this Agreement. The Executive further agrees, upon the request of the Company and at its expense, that the Executive will execute any other instrument and document necessary or desirable in applying for and obtaining patents in the United States and in any foreign country with respect to any Company Invention. The Executive further agrees, whether or not the Executive is then an employee or other service provider of the Company or any of its affiliates, upon request of the Company, to provide reasonable assistance with respect to the perfection, recordation or other documentation of the assignment of Company IP hereunder, and the enforcement of the Company's rights in any Company IP, and to cooperate to the extent and in the manner reasonably requested by the Company in any litigation or other claim or proceeding (including, without limitation, the prosecution or defense of any claim involving a patent) involving any Company IP covered by this Agreement, without further compensation, but all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Executive in satisfying the requirements of this Section 7(f) shall be paid by the Company or its designee. The Executive shall not, on or after the Effective Date, directly or indirectly challenge the validity or enforceability of the Company's ownership of, or rights with respect to, any Company IP, including, without limitation, any patent issued on, or patent application filed in respect of, any Company Invention. For purposes of this Agreement, "Company Invention" shall mean any Invention that is made, conceived, invented, authored, or first actually reduced to practice, by the Executive (alone or jointly with others) (i) in the course of, in connection with, or as a result of the Executive's employment or other service with the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date, but not before the commencement of Executive's employment with the Company or its predecessor), (ii) at the direction or request of the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date), or (iii) through the use of, or that is related to, facilities, equipment, Confidential Information, other Company Inventions, intellectual property or other resources of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether or not during the Executive's work hours (and whether before, on, or after the Effective Date, but not before the commencement of Executive's employment with the Company or its predecessor). For purposes of this Agreement, "Invention" shall mean any invention, formula, therapy, diagnostic technique, discovery, improvement, idea, technique, design, method, art, process, methodology, algorithm, machine, development, product, service, technology, strategy, software, work of authorship or other Works (as defined below), trade secret, innovation, trademark, data, database, or the like, whether or not patentable, together with all intellectual property rights therein.

(g) Works for Hire. The Executive also acknowledges and agrees that all works of authorship, in any format or medium, and whether published or unpublished, created wholly or in part by the Executive, whether alone or jointly with others, (i) in the course of, in connection with, or as a result of the Executive's employment or other service with the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date), (ii) at the direction or request of the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date), or (iii) through the use of, or that is related to, facilities, equipment, Confidential Information, other Company Inventions, intellectual property or other resources of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether or not during the Executive's work hours (and whether before, on, or after the Effective Date) ("Works"), are works made for hire as defined under United States copyright law, and that the Works (and all copyrights arising in the Works) are owned exclusively by the Company and all rights therein will automatically vest in the Company without the need for any further action by any party. To the extent any such Works are not deemed to be works made for hire, for consideration acknowledged and received, the Executive hereby waives any "moral rights" in such Works and the Executive hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, conveys and sets over to the Company or its designee, without compensation beyond that provided in this Agreement, all right, title and interest in and to such Works, including without limitation all rights of copyright arising therein or thereto, and further agrees to execute such assignments or other deeds of conveyance and transfer as the Company may request to vest in the Company or its designee all right, title and interest in and to such Works, including all rights of copyright arising in or related to the Works.

(h) Cooperation. During and after the term hereof, the Executive agrees to cooperate with the Company and its affiliates in any internal investigation, any administrative, regulatory, or judicial proceeding or any dispute with a third party concerning issues about which the Executive has knowledge or that may relate to the Executive or the Executive's employment or service with the Company or any of its affiliates (or the termination thereof). The Executive's obligation to cooperate hereunder includes, without limitation, being available to the Company and its affiliates upon reasonable notice for interviews and factual investigations, appearing in any forum at the Company's or any of its affiliates' reasonable request to give testimony (without requiring service of a subpoena or other legal process), volunteering to the Company and its affiliates pertinent information, and turning over to the Company and its affiliates all relevant documents which are or may come into the Executive's possession. The Company shall promptly reimburse the Executive for the reasonable pre-approved out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Executive in connection with such cooperation. For the avoidance of doubt, the immediately preceding sentence shall not require the Company to reimburse the Executive for any attorneys' fees or related costs the Executive may incur absent advance written approval by the Company, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(i) Notification Requirement. Until the expiration of the period or periods for Restrictive Covenants (as applicable), the Executive shall, upon a reasonable request by the Company, give notice to the Company of any new business activity in which he is engaged. Such notice shall state the name and address of the individual, corporation, limited liability company, association, partnership, estate, trust and other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its affiliates (any such individual or entity being hereinafter referred to as a "Person") for whom such activity is undertaken and the nature of the Executive's business relationship(s) and position(s) with such Person. The Executive shall provide the Company with such other pertinent information concerning such business activity as the Company may reasonably request in order to determine the Executive's continued compliance with the Restrictive Covenants.

(j) Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the Restrictive Covenants. The Executive agrees that the Restrictive Covenants are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company and its affiliates and that each and every one of the Restrictive Covenants is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area, and otherwise. The Executive further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the Restrictive Covenants, the damage to the Company and its affiliates would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company and its affiliates, in addition to any other legal or equitable remedies available to them, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of the Restrictive Covenants, without having to post bond, and to specific performance of each of the terms thereof, and shall be entitled to recover their reasonable costs and attorneys' fees in enforcing the Restrictive Covenants. The Executive further agrees that (i) any breach or claimed breach of the provisions of this Agreement by, or any other claim the Executive may have against, the Company or any of its affiliates will not be a defense to enforcement of any Restrictive Covenant and (ii) the circumstances of the Executive's termination of employment with the Company will have no impact on the Executive's obligations to comply with any Restrictive Covenant. The Restrictive Covenants are intended for the benefit of the Company and each of its affiliates. Each affiliate of the Company is an intended third party beneficiary of the Restrictive Covenants, and each affiliate of the Company, as well as any successor or assign of the Company or such affiliate, may enforce the Restrictive Covenants. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of the Restrictive Covenants shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities or otherwise, such provision shall be deemed to be modified by the court to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

(k) Notification of New Employer. In the event that the Executive is employed or otherwise engaged by any other person or entity following the Termination Date, the Executive agrees to notify, and consents to the notification by Company and its affiliates of, such person or entity of the Restrictive Covenants.

8. Excise Tax.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or otherwise, to the extent that any payment, distribution or acceleration of vesting to or for the benefit of Executive by the Company (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and the regulations thereunder), whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise (the "Total Payments"), is or will be subject to the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), then the Total Payments shall be reduced (but not below zero) to the Safe Harbor Amount (as defined below) if and to the extent that a reduction in the Total Payments would result in Executive retaining a larger amount, on an after-tax basis (taking into account federal, state and local income and employment taxes and the Excise Tax), than if Executive received the entire amount of such Total Payments in accordance with their existing terms (taking into account federal, state, and local income and employment taxes and the Excise Tax). For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Safe Harbor Amount" means the largest portion of the Total Payments that would result in no portion of the Total Payments being subject to the Excise Tax. To effectuate the foregoing, the Company shall reduce or eliminate the Total Payments by first reducing or eliminating the portion of the Total Payments which are payable in cash and then by reducing or eliminating non-cash payments, in each case, starting with the payments to be made farthest in time from the Determination (as defined below).

(b) The determination of whether the Total Payments shall be reduced as provided in Section 8(a) and the amount of such reduction shall be made at the Company's expense by an accounting firm selected by Company from among the 10 largest accounting firms in the United States or by qualified independent tax counsel (the "Determining Party"); provided, that Executive shall be given advance notice of the Determining Party selected by the Company, and shall have the opportunity to reject the selection, within two business days of being notified of the selection, on the basis of that Determining Party's having a conflict of interest or other reasonable basis, in which case the Company shall select an alternative firm among the 10 largest accounting firms in the United States or alternative independent qualified tax counsel, which shall become the Determining Party. Such Determining Party shall provide its determination (the "Determination"), together with detailed supporting calculations and documentation to the Company and Executive, within 10 business days of the termination of Executive's employment or at such other time mutually agreed by the Company and Executive. If the Determining Party determines that no Excise Tax is payable by Executive with respect to the Total Payments, it shall furnish Executive with an opinion reasonably acceptable to Executive that no Excise Tax will be imposed with respect to any such payments and, absent manifest error, such Determination shall be binding, final and conclusive upon the Company and Executive. If the Determining Party determines that an Excise Tax would be payable, the Company shall have the right to accept the Determination as to the extent of the reduction, if any, pursuant to Section 8(a), or to have such Determination reviewed by another accounting firm selected by the Company, at the Company's expense. If the two accounting firms do not agree, a third accounting firm shall be jointly chosen by Executive and the Company, in which case the determination of such third accounting firm shall be binding, final and conclusive upon the Company and Executive.

(c) If, notwithstanding any reduction described in this Section 8, the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") determines that Executive is liable for the Excise Tax as a result of the receipt of any of the Total Payments or otherwise, then Executive shall be obligated to pay back to the Company, within 30 calendar days after a final IRS determination or in the event that Executive challenges the final IRS determination, a final judicial determination, a portion of the Total Payments equal to the "Repayment Amount". The "Repayment Amount" with respect to the payment of benefits shall be the smallest such amount, if any, as shall be required to be paid to the Company so that Executive's net after-tax proceeds with respect to the Total Payments (after taking into account the payment of the Excise Tax and all other applicable taxes imposed on the Total Payments) shall be maximized. The Repayment Amount shall be zero if a Repayment Amount of more than zero would not result in Executive's net after-tax proceeds with respect to the Total Payments being maximized. If the Excise Tax is not eliminated pursuant to this Section 8, Executive shall pay the Excise Tax.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 8, if (i) there is a reduction in the Total Payments as described in this Section 8, (ii) the IRS later determines that Executive is liable for the Excise Tax, the payment of which would result in the maximization of Executive's net after-tax proceeds (calculated as if Executive's benefits had not previously been reduced), and (iii) Executive pays the Excise Tax, then the Company shall pay to Executive those payments or benefits which were reduced pursuant to this Section 8 as soon as administratively possible after Executive pays the Excise Tax (but not later than March 15 following the calendar year of the IRS determination) so that Executive's net after-tax proceeds with respect to the Total Payments are maximized.

(e) If, following a reduction of the Total Payments pursuant to Section 8(a), the Determining Party or a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the Total Payments were reduced to a greater extent than required under Section 8, then the Company shall as soon as administratively possible (but not later than by March 15 following the calendar year of such determination) pay the amount of such excess reduction to or for the benefit of Executive, together with interest at the applicable federal rate (as defined in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code), from the date the amount would have otherwise been paid to Executive until the payment date.

(f) To the extent requested by Executive, the Company shall cooperate with Executive in good faith in valuing, and the Determining Party shall take into account the value of, services provided or to be provided by Executive (including, without limitation, Executive's agreeing to refrain from performing services pursuant to a covenant not to compete or similar covenant, before, on or after the date of a change in ownership or control of the Company (within the meaning of Q&A-2(b) of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code), such that payments in respect of such services may be considered reasonable compensation within the meaning of Q&A-9 and Q&A-40 to Q&A-44 of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code and/or exempt from the definition of the term "parachute payment" within the meaning of Q&A-2(a) of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code in accordance with Q&A-5(a) of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code.

9. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of his obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants or any court order or other legal obligation that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder, any and all of which are superseded by this Agreement. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

10. Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify the Executive to the maximum extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. At the request of the Executive, and subject to the approval of the Board (excluding the Executive), the Company shall enter into an indemnification agreement with the Executive on terms at least as favorable in each respect to the Executive as the terms of any other indemnification agreement between the Company and any other director or officer of the Company. The Executive agrees to promptly notify the Company of any actual or threatened claim arising out of or as a result of his employment or other service with the Company or any of its affiliates (or the termination thereof).

11. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

12. Assignment. Neither the Company nor the Executive may make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other; provided, however, that the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter effect a reorganization, consolidate with, or merge into, any person or entity, transfer a substantial majority of its properties or assets to any person or entity, or engage in a similar transaction with any person or entity. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, and their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

13. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

14. Amendment and Waiver. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and the Company. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach. No waiver by either of the parties of any breach by the other party hereto of any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by the other party hereto shall be deemed a waiver of any similar or dissimilar provision or condition at the same or any prior or subsequent time.

15. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed:

(a) if to the Executive, at his last known address on the books of the Company, with a copy to Feinberg Hanson LLP, 855 Boylston Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02116, attention: David H. Feinberg; and

(b) if to the Company, at its principal place of business, attention, Secretary, with a copy to Foley Hoag LLP, Seaport West, 155 Seaport Boulevard, Boston, Massachusetts 02210, attention: Erica Rice; or

(c) to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment and the subject matter hereof.

17. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

18. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement, by electronic mail in portable document format (.pdf) or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, has the same effect as delivery of an executed original of this Agreement.

19. Governing Law; Venue; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. This Agreement, the rights of the parties and all claims, actions, causes of action, suits, litigation, controversies, hearings, charges, complaints or proceedings arising in whole or in part under or in connection herewith, will be governed by and construed in accordance with the domestic substantive laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction. Both the Executive and the Company agree to appear before and submit exclusively to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York with respect to any controversy, dispute, or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Executive's employment or service with the Company or any of its affiliates (or the termination thereof), or if such controversy, dispute or claim may not be brought in federal court, to the state courts located in New York, New York and, in each case, the applicable courts of appeals of such court. Both the Executive and the Company also agree to waive, to the fullest possible extent, the defense of an inconvenient forum or lack of jurisdiction. The Executive further consents to service of process in the State of New York. THE COMPANY AND THE EXECUTIVE HEREBY WAIVE, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LITIGATION IN ANY COURT WITH RESPECT TO, IN CONNECTION WITH, OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE EXECUTIVE'S EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICE WITH THE COMPANY OR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES (OR THE TERMINATION THEREOF), OR THE VALIDITY, PROTECTION, INTERPRETATION, COLLECTION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT (WHETHER ARISING IN CONTRACT, EQUITY, TORT OR OTHERWISE).

20. Code Section 409A Compliance. This Agreement is intended to comply with Code Section 409A (to the extent applicable) and the parties hereto agree to interpret this Agreement in the least restrictive manner necessary to comply therewith and without resulting in any increase in the amounts owed hereunder by the Company. To the maximum extent possible, any severance owed under this Agreement shall be construed to fit within the "short-term deferral rule" under Code Section 409A and/or the "two times two year" involuntary separation pay exception under Code Section 409A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Executive is a "specified employee" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and the regulations issued thereunder, and a payment or benefit provided for in this Agreement would be subject to additional tax under Code Section 409A if such payment or benefit is paid within six (6) months after the Executive's "separation from service" (within the meaning of Code Section 409A), then such payment or benefit required under this Agreement (i) shall not be paid (or commence) during the six-month period immediately following the Executive's separation from service and (ii) shall instead be paid to the Executive in a lump-sum cash payment on the earlier of (A) the first regular payroll date of the seventh month following the Executive's separation from service or (B) the 10th business day following the Executive's death (but not earlier than such payment would have been made absent such death). If the Executive's termination of employment hereunder does not constitute a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A, then any amounts payable hereunder on account of a termination of the Executive's employment and which are subject to Code Section 409A shall not be paid until the Executive has experienced a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A. In addition, no reimbursement or in-kind benefit shall be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit and the amount available for reimbursement, or in-kind benefits provided, during any calendar year shall not affect the amount available for reimbursement, or in-kind benefits to be provided, in a subsequent calendar year. Any reimbursement to which the Executive is entitled hereunder shall be made no later than the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such expenses were incurred. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, neither the Company nor any of its affiliates shall have any liability to the Executive or to any other person or entity if this Agreement is, or if the payments and benefits provided in this Agreement that are intended to be exempt from or compliant with Code Section 409A are, not so exempt or compliant. Each payment payable hereunder shall be treated as a separate payment in a series of payments within the meaning of, and for purposes of, Code Section 409A.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (this "Agreement") dated as of March 23, 2021 (the "Effective Date") is made and entered into by and between Ascend Wellness Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company with a principal place of business at 1411 Broadway, 16th Floor, New York, NY 10018 (the "Company"), and Francis Perullo, an individual whose principal business address is in care of the Company at 1411 Broadway, 16th Floor, New York, NY 10018 (the "Executive").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Executive has served as the Chief Strategy Officer of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to memorialize the terms of such employment, on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree:

1. Employment. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company hereby offers, and the Executive hereby accepts, continued employment as Chief Strategy Officer of the Company.

2. Term. Subject to earlier termination as hereinafter provided, the Executive's employment hereunder shall be for a term of three (3) years, commencing on the Effective Date, and, on the third anniversary of the Effective Date and each annual anniversary of the Effective Date thereafter, shall be automatically extended for successive terms of one (1) year each, unless either the Company or the Executive provides notice (a "Non-Renewal Notice") to the other at least 90 days prior to expiration of the original or any extension term that the Executive's employment hereunder is not to be so extended. The term of this Agreement, as from time to time extended or renewed, is hereafter referred to as "the term of this Agreement" or "the term hereof."

3. Capacity and Performance.

(a) During the term hereof, the Executive shall serve the Company as Chief Strategy Officer, reporting directly to the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board").

(b) During the term hereof, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time and diligent basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company as are customarily performed by a Chief Strategy Officer of a company of comparable size and as may be reasonably designated from time to time by the Board.

(c) During the term hereof, for so long as the Executive is employed as the Company's Chief Strategy Officer, the Company will nominate the Executive for re-election to the Board and the Executive shall serve in such other officer and/or director positions with any affiliate of the Company (for no additional compensation) as may be determined by the Board (excluding the Executive) from time to time. For purposes of this Agreement, an "affiliate" of the Company shall mean any person or entity that that directly or indirectly controls, or is under common control with, or is controlled by, the Company, and as used in this definition, "control" (including, with its correlative meanings, "controlled by" and "under common control with") shall mean possession, directly or indirectly, of power to direct or cause the direction of management or policies (whether through ownership of voting equity interests, by contract or otherwise).

(d) During the term hereof, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, render any services of a business, commercial or professional nature to any person or entity other than the Company (or any affiliate thereof), whether for compensation or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the Board (excluding the Executive), which shall not be unreasonably withheld. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive may (i) engage in the activities set forth on Exhibit A hereto so long as such activities do not (A) individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement and (B) materially change in nature or scope of the Executive's engagement after the Effective Date, in which case the Executive shall not be permitted to continue such engagement without the prior written consent of the Board (excluding the Executive) and (ii) engage in educational, charitable and civic activities and manage the Executive's personal investments and affairs, in each case, so long as such activities (A) do not, individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement and (B) are not contrary to the interests of the Company or any of its affiliates or competitive in any way with the Company or any of its affiliates.

4. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive under this Agreement and during the term hereof and subject to performance of the Executive's duties and obligations to the Company pursuant to this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. The Company shall pay the Executive a base salary at the rate of $750,000 per annum. The Executive's base salary shall be payable in accordance with the payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase from time to time by the Board (excluding the Executive), in its sole discretion. The base salary set forth in this Section 4(a), as from time to time increased, is hereafter referred to as the "Base Salary."

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each fiscal year that ends during the term hereof, the Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus"). The Executive's annual target bonus opportunity for each such fiscal year shall be equal to 100% of Base Salary (the "Target Bonus"), based on the achievement of target performance goals established by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the

"Compensation Committee"). If the Company and/or the Executive achieves superior performance goals established by the Compensation Committee for any fiscal year, then the Executive shall be eligible to earn an additional 100% of Base Salary as part of his Annual Bonus for such fiscal year, for total Annual Bonus eligibility of 200% of Base Salary (the "Maximum Annual Bonus"). If threshold performance goals are not achieved for any fiscal year, then the Executive shall not receive an Annual Bonus for such fiscal year. The Annual Bonus, if any, will be paid within thirty (30) days after the Board's approval of the Company's and its subsidiaries' consolidated audited financial statements for the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates (and in all events in the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates).

(c) Bonus upon Change of Control Event. Upon the consummation of a change of control (as defined in the 2021 Incentive Plan), and concurrent with the payment of any consideration to any other holders of capital stock of the Company in connection with such change of control, the Executive shall be deemed to have earned the Maximum Annual Bonus (the "Change in Control Bonus") for each fiscal year during the remainder of the Term (inclusive of partial fiscal years). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the obligations of the Company to pay the Change of Control Bonus to Executive shall survive any termination of this Agreement by reason of death, disability or termination of employment of Executive without limitation, except that the Company's obligation to pay the Change of Control Bonus shall terminate concurrently with any termination of Executive's employment for Cause (as defined in Section 5(c) below).

(d) Equity Incentives. Subject to the approval of the Board (excluding the Executive), on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, the Executive will be granted 1,500,000 Restricted Stock Units pursuant to and as defined in the Company's 2021 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2021 Incentive Plan") and subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable award agreement. During the term hereof, the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional equity grants under the 2021 Incentive Plan, or any successor plan for the issuance of stock options, restricted stock, or other equity incentives hereafter maintained by the Company and in which other senior executives of the Company participate. Any and all additional grants to the Executive under the 2021 Incentive Plan or any such successor plan shall be made at the sole discretion of the Board (excluding the Executive) and shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable award agreement.

(e) Vacations. During the term hereof, the Executive shall be entitled to vacation, personal days, sick time and similar paid time off benefits in accordance with the applicable policies of the Company, as in effect from time to time.

(f) Insurance Benefits. During the term hereof and subject to any contribution therefor generally required of employees of the Company, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in any medical, dental and disability insurance plans maintained by the Company from time to time (collectively, the "Insurance Benefits"). The Executive's participation in such Insurance Benefits shall be subject to applicable law, the terms of the applicable plan documents and generally applicable Company policies. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company may amend, modify or terminate any Insurance Benefits at any time in its discretion.

(g) Business Expenses. During the term hereof, the Company shall promptly pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable, customary and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to any reasonable maximum annual limit and other restrictions on such expenses set by the Board (excluding the Executive) and otherwise in accordance with the Company's then-prevailing policies and procedures for expense reimbursement (including such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Company from time to time).

5. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2 hereof, the Executive's employment hereunder shall terminate prior to the expiration of the term under the following circumstances:

(a) Death. In the event of the Executive's death during the term hereof, the Executive's employment hereunder shall immediately and automatically terminate. In such event, the Company shall pay to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate, (i) the Base Salary earned but not paid through the date of termination (to be paid in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies or at such earlier time as required by applicable law), (ii) the value of any vacation time earned but not used through the date of termination (to be paid in accordance with the Company's policies and applicable law), (iii) any Annual Bonus earned under Section 4(b) with respect to the fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year in which such termination occurs, but only to the extent unpaid as of the date of termination (with any such earned Annual Bonus to be paid at the same time as if no such termination had occurred), and (iv) any business expenses incurred by the Executive but unreimbursed as of the date of termination, provided that such expenses are reimbursable under Company policy (with such expenses to be reimbursed in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policies as in effect from time to time) (all of the foregoing, "Final Compensation"). In addition to Final Compensation, if the Executive's employment terminates due to his death during the term hereof, the Executive will be entitled to (x) a prorated portion of any Annual Bonus earned for the fiscal year in which such termination occurs (calculated as the Annual Bonus that would have been paid for such fiscal year, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is equal to the number of days the Executive worked for the Company in such fiscal year, and the denominator of which is equal to the total number of days in such fiscal year), with any such prorated Annual Bonus to be paid at the same time as if no such termination had occurred (the "Prorated Bonus") and (y) the Benefit Continuation he would have been entitled to receive under clause (iii) of Section 5(d) below had the Executive been terminated by the Company other than for Cause in accordance with such Section 5(d). The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive or his estate hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during his employment hereunder through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, with or without reasonable accommodation, for any period of ninety (90) consecutive days or more, or one hundred eighty (180) days (whether or not consecutive) during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. In the event of such termination, the Company shall pay to the Executive the Final Compensation and shall otherwise comply with the provisions of this Section 5(b). In addition to such Final Compensation, the Executive will be entitled to (x) the Prorated Bonus and (y) the Benefit Continuation he would have been entitled to receive under clause (iii) of Section 5(d) below had the Executive been terminated by the Company other than for Cause in accordance with such Section 5(d). The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(ii) In lieu of terminating the Executive's employment hereunder, the Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability. Notwithstanding any such designation, the Executive shall continue to receive the Base Salary in accordance with Section 4(a) and Insurance Benefits in accordance with Section 4(e), to the extent permitted by the then-current terms of the applicable benefit plans, until the Executive becomes eligible for long-term disability income benefits under the Company's disability income plan (or any disability insurance policy of the Company).

(iii) If the Executive becomes eligible to receive disability income payments under the Company's disability income plan (or any disability insurance policy of the Company), the Executive shall be entitled to receive Base Salary under Section 4(a) hereof less the amount of such disability income payments being made to the Executive, and shall continue to participate in Company benefit plans in accordance with Section 4(e) and as permitted by the terms of such plans, in each case, until the termination of his employment.

(iv) Any determination as to whether during any period the Executive is disabled through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature so as to be unable to perform substantially all of his duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be made by a physician satisfactory to both the Executive (or his duly appointed guardian) and the Company, provided that if the Executive and the Company do not agree on a physician, the Executive and the Company shall each select a physician and these two together shall select a third physician, whose determination as to disability shall be binding on all parties. If the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause. The following shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) Repeated or willful refusal, failure or neglect by the Executive to perform the material duties of his employment or to follow the directions of the Board (other than by reason of the Executive's physical or mental illness or impairment);

(ii) The Executive's committing any act of fraud, embezzlement, or theft;

(iii) The Executive's material violation of the Company's policies;

(iv) The Executive's behavior or engagement in any acts that may interfere with the ability of the Company or any of its affiliates to maintain a license to harvest, cultivate, process, or sell cannabis or otherwise continue to operate its business;

(v) The Executive's breach of any non-disclosure, non-disparagement, non-competition, non-solicitation, assignment of inventions agreement or other restrictive covenants set forth herein, other than the Executive's inadvertent and immaterial breach of any non-competition or non-disclosure obligation that is not otherwise detrimental to the Company or any of its affiliates, as determined by the Board (excluding the Executive);

(vi) The Executive's conviction of a felony (including pleading guilty or nolo contendere to a felony) or commitment of other acts causing a material detriment to the reputation, the business or a business relationship of the Company or any of its affiliates; provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, no conviction or plea of nolo contendere of a felony or crime that occurs solely as a result of a violation of U.S. federal law concerning cannabis or the cannabis industry shall be deemed to constitute "Cause", so long as (A) the acts, omissions, conduct or activity related to cannabis or the cannabis industry giving rise to any such conviction or plea of nolo contendere of a felony or crime could be reasonably believed to be in compliance with applicable state and local laws and (B) such conviction or plea of nolo contendere is not likely to interfere with the ability of the Company or any of its affiliates to maintain a license to harvest, cultivate, process, or sell cannabis or otherwise continue to operate its business;

(vii) The Executive's willful engagement in dishonesty, illegal conduct (other than solely as a result of a violation of U.S. federal law concerning cannabis or the cannabis industry, so long as (A) the acts, omissions, conduct or activity related to cannabis or the cannabis industry giving rise to such illegal conduct could be reasonably believed to be in compliance with applicable state and local laws and (B) such illegal conduct is not likely to interfere with the ability of the Company or any of its affiliates to maintain a license to harvest, cultivate, process, or sell cannabis or otherwise continue to operate its business), or gross misconduct, which in each case is materially injurious (monetarily or otherwise) to the Company or its affiliates; or

For purposes of this provision, no act or failure to act on the part of the Executive shall be considered "willful" unless it is done, or omitted to be done, by the Executive in bad faith or without reasonable belief that the Executive's action or omission was in the best interests of the Company. Any act, or failure to act, based on authority given pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by the Board or on the advice of counsel for the Company shall be conclusively presumed to be done, or omitted to be done, by the Executive in good faith and in the best interests of the Company.

Termination of the Executive's employment shall not be deemed to be for Cause unless and until (I) the Company has given notice thereof to the Executive specifying in reasonable detail the conduct constituting "Cause," (II) solely with respect to the conduct described in clauses (i), (iii), (iv), (v) and (viii) above, the Executive fails to cure and correct his conduct (if capable of cure and correction) within thirty (30) days after such notice, and (III) the Company delivers to the Executive a copy of a resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Board (excluding the Executive) (after the Executive is given an opportunity, together with counsel, to be heard before the Board), finding in good faith that the Executive has engaged in the conduct described in any of (i)-(viii) above.

Upon the giving of notice of termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation hereunder to the Executive, other than for Final Compensation.

(d) By the Company Other than for Cause or by Giving a Non-Renewal Notice. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder other than for Cause (and other than in connection with the Executive's death or disability) at any time upon ninety (90) days' written notice to the Executive; provided that, during such 90-day notice period (or any portion thereof), the Executive may be required to work remotely from his residence or the Company may place the Executive on garden leave, and in all events, the Company may prohibit the Executive from entering any premises of the Company or any of its affiliates, contacting any employee, customer, vendor or supplier of the Company or any of its affiliates or accessing any property of the Company or any of its affiliates. In the event of such termination, or in the event that the Executive's employment is terminated as a result of the Company's Non-Renewal Notice pursuant to Section 2 hereof, then (i) the Company shall pay to the Executive the Final Compensation, (ii) the Company shall pay the Executive an amount equal to two (2) times the sum of Base Salary and Annual Bonus earned by the Executive for the full fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year in which such termination occurs (the "Termination Compensation"), payable in substantially equal installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices as in effect from time to time, over the twelve (12) month period immediately following the termination date (with the first payment to be made on the first payroll date following the effective date of the Employee Release (as defined below) and to include a catch-up to cover any payment that would have been made prior to such date had the Employee Release been effective on the termination date); provided that, if such termination date occurs prior to the conclusion of one full fiscal year of employment, it shall be assumed, for purposes of determining the Termination Compensation, that Executive earned one full fiscal year of his current Base Salary and achieved an Annual Bonus of 100% of his current Base Salary; provided, further, that, if (and only if) such termination date occurs within eighteen (18) months after a Change of Control Event (as defined below), then the Termination Compensation shall be payable to the Executive in a lump sum payment on the first payroll date following the effective date of the Employee Release (rather than in installments, as provided above in this clause (ii)), (iii) subject to any employee contribution applicable to the Executive as of immediately prior to the date of termination, the Company shall continue to pay the cost of the Executive's participation in the Company's medical and dental insurance plans for a period of twelve (12) months, provided that if the Executive's continued participation in such plans would result in a violation of any non-discrimination rules or result in any fines, penalties or excise taxes to the Company or any of its affiliates or if the Executive is otherwise not eligible to continue participation in such plans under applicable law or plan terms, then, to the extent possible without resulting in such violation, fines, penalties or excise taxes, the Company shall instead make monthly cash payments to the Executive in an amount equal to the employer portion of the monthly insurance premiums that would have been applicable had the Executive been eligible to continue such participation (the benefit described in this clause (iii), collectively, the "Benefit Continuation"), (iv) the Prorated Bonus, and (v) notwithstanding the terms of any other agreement, instrument or document to the contrary (including without limitation any vesting terms, performance criteria or other conditions, and regardless of whether entered into before or after the date of this Agreement), upon such termination, Executive's right to purchase or otherwise acquire any equity securities of the Company under any stock option or other agreement, instrument, plan, program or arrangement outstanding or in effect on the effective date of such termination shall thereupon vest in full (subject only to the payment of the applicable exercise or purchase price, if any, and provided that any equity awards that are subject to the satisfaction of performance goals shall be deemed earned at target performance), and any right of the Company or any subsidiary to repurchase any equity securities of the Company from Executive, whether arising under any option, agreement, instrument, plan, program, arrangement or otherwise, shall thereupon terminate. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Change of Control Event" shall mean the consummation, after the Effective Date, of (i) the sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets or at least a majority of voting power of the capital stock of the Company, (ii) any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, or (iii) the merger or consolidation of the Company with or into another entity, except a merger or consolidation in which the holders of capital stock of the Company immediately prior to such merger or consolidation continue to hold at least 50% of the voting power of the capital stock of the Company or the surviving or acquiring entity, as applicable; provided, however, that no event described in the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) shall constitute a Change of Control Event for purposes of this Agreement unless it satisfies the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(5)(v) or (vii).

(e) Any obligation of the Company to make the payments and provide the benefits to the Executive under Section 5 (other than Final Compensation) is conditioned, however, upon the Executive (or his estate or legal representative, as applicable) signing a general release of claims and covenant not to sue in such form and substance as may be agreed to by the Company and the Executive (or his estate or legal representative, as applicable) (the "Employee Release") within twenty-one days (or such greater period as the Company may specify) (the "Release Period") following the date of termination of employment and upon the Executive (or his estate or legal representative, as applicable) not revoking the Employee Release during the 7-day revocation period following the execution of the Employee Release (the "Revocation Period"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if payment of Termination Compensation and the Benefit Continuation could commence in more than one taxable year based on when the Employee Release could become effective, then to the extent required by Section 409A of the Code, any such payments that would have been made during the calendar year in which the Executive's employment terminates shall instead be withheld and paid on the first payroll date in the calendar year immediately after the calendar year in which the Executive's employment terminates, with all remaining payments to be made as if no such delay had occurred.

(f) By the Executive for Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason, upon notice to the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason. The following shall constitute "Good Reason", subject to the notice and cure periods set forth below, unless the Executive shall have consented in writing to any of the following:

(i) any reduction in the Executive's Base Salary other than in connection with a general reduction in base salaries that affects all similarly situated executives in substantially the same proportions;

(ii) any reduction in the Executive's Target Bonus or Maximum Annual Bonus opportunity (other than solely as a result of a reduction in Base Salary);

(iii) any failure by the Company to nominate the Executive for re-election to the Board and to use its best efforts to have the Executive re-elected (other than as a result of a Change of Control Event, which shall be governed by this Section 5(f)(v)), or any change in the Executive's title as Chief Strategy Officer of the Company;

(iv) any diminution in the Executive's responsibilities or authority within the Company, or any alteration in the nature or status of Executive's position, title or responsibilities or the conditions of Executive's employment, including the requirement for the Executive to report to any person(s) other than the Board, in any case without his prior written consent, other than any of the foregoing that occurs as a result of a Change of Control Event (which shall be governed by this Section 5(f)(v));

(v) in the event of a Change of Control Event, any failure by the acquirer to (a) make an offer of employment to the Executive for a base salary, target bonus and maximum bonus opportunity amounts that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to the Executive's Base Salary and Annual Bonus (taking into consideration both the Target Bonus and the Maximum Annual Bonus) each as of immediately prior to such sale, (b) nominate the Executive for election to the Board of the acquirer, (c) offer the Executive a position with duties, responsibilities and authority that are materially comparable to the Executive's duties, responsibilities and authority as Chief Strategy Officer of the Company (disregarding any duties, responsibilities and authority the Executive had as a member of the Board or as an officer or director of any affiliate of the Company) as of immediately prior to such sale;

(vi) any failure by the Company to comply with any material provision of this Agreement; and

(vii) any requirement that the Executive relocate the principal place of his work for the Company such that his existing commute is increased by more than 50 miles.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Good Reason shall not be deemed to exist unless (x) the Executive gives the Company written notice within ninety (90) days after the Executive first has knowledge of the occurrence of the event which the Executive believes constitutes the basis for Good Reason, specifying the particular act or failure to act which the Executive believes constitutes the basis for Good Reason, (y) the Company fails to cure such act or failure to act within sixty (60) days after receipt of such notice and (z) the Executive terminates his employment within sixty (60) days after the end of the period specified in clause (y).

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 5(f), then the Executive will be entitled to the same payments and benefits (i.e., the Final Compensation, the Termination Compensation, the Benefit Continuation, the Prorated Bonus and acceleration of equity vesting (or termination of Company repurchase rights, as applicable)) he would have been entitled to receive had the Executive been terminated by the Company other than for Cause (and not due to his death or disability) in accordance with Section 5(d) above (subject to the terms of Section 5(e) above).

(g) By the Executive Other than for Good Reason or by Giving a Non-Renewal Notice. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time upon ninety (90) days' prior written notice to the Company. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 5(g), or if the Executive should give a Non-Renewal Notice pursuant to Section 2 hereof, the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive the Final Compensation and, to the extent permitted under (and subject to the terms of) the applicable plan documents, provide the Insurance Benefits for the notice period (or any portion thereof) so waived. Upon such employment termination, the Company shall have no further obligation hereunder to the Executive, other than for any Final Compensation and Prorated Bonus due to him.

(h) Post-Agreement Employment. In the event the Executive remains in the employ of the Company or any of its subsidiaries following termination of this Agreement, by the expiration of the term hereof or otherwise, then such employment shall be at will.

6. Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 6 shall apply to a termination of the Executive's employment with the Company hereunder, whether due to the expiration of the term hereof, pursuant to Section 5 or otherwise.

(a) Payment by the Company of any applicable Final Compensation, Termination Compensation, Benefit Continuation, acceleration of equity vesting (or termination of Company repurchase rights, as applicable) and/or any other amounts or benefits that may be due the Executive in each case under the applicable termination provision of Section 5 shall constitute the entire obligation of the Company to the Executive, and the Executive shall not be entitled to additional payments or benefits under any other severance agreement or executive severance plan of the Company. Upon request of the Company, the Executive shall promptly give the Company notice of all facts necessary for the Company to determine the amount and duration of its obligations in connection with any termination pursuant to Section 5 hereof.

(b) Except for the Benefit Continuation and equity-security related benefits pursuant to Section 5(d) or 5(f) hereof, all benefits shall terminate pursuant to the terms of the applicable benefit plans based on the date of termination of the Executive's employment without regard to any continuation of any applicable Termination Compensation or other payment to the Executive following such date of termination.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination of Executive's employment hereunder if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of other surviving provisions, including without limitation the Restrictive Covenants (as defined below). The obligation of the Company to make payments and provide benefits to or on behalf of the Executive under 5(b), 5(d), 5(f) or 5(g) hereof (other than the Final Compensation) is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued compliance with the Restrictive Covenants; provided that (i) the Company may not discontinue any such payments and benefits (or require repayment of any such payments or benefits already provided to the Executive) unless the Company has provided written notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such non-compliance and, if the nature of such non-compliance is such that it is capable of being remedied by the Executive without any damage to the Company, as determined by the Board (excluding the Executive), the Executive shall have failed to remedy such non-compliance within ten (10) days following receipt of such notice (it being understood that if the nature of such non-compliance is such that it is not capable of being remedied by the Executive without any damage to the Company, as determined by the Board (excluding the Executive), the Company may discontinue such payments and benefits at such time as it provides such written notice to the Executive) and (ii) to the extent curable, the Company may suspend or discontinue such payments or benefits thereafter only during such period as such non-compliance continues. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided in Section 5, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

7. Restrictive Covenants. As an inducement and as essential consideration for the Company to enter into this Agreement, and in exchange for other good and valuable consideration, the Executive hereby agrees to the restrictive covenants contained in this Section 7 (the "Restrictive Covenants"). The Company and the Executive agree that the Restrictive Covenants are essential and narrowly tailored to preserve the goodwill of the business of the Company and its affiliates, to maintain the confidential and trade secret information of the Company and its affiliates, and to protect other legitimate business interests of the Company and its affiliates in light of their niche businesses and the executive position held by the Executive. The Company and the Executive further agree that the Company would not have entered into this Agreement without the Executive's agreement to the Restrictive Covenants. For purposes of the Restrictive Covenants, each reference to "Company" and "affiliate" shall also refer to the predecessors and successors of the Company and any of its affiliates (as the case may be).

(a) Non-Competition. During the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the date that is twelve (12) months after the date on which the Executive's employment hereunder terminates (the "Termination Date"), regardless of the reason for the Executive's termination of employment and regardless of who initiates such termination (such period, the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, anywhere in the United States or in any other country or jurisdiction in which the Company or any of its affiliates conducts or conducted business during the Non-Competition Period, either directly or indirectly, as a proprietor, partner, stockholder, director, executive, employee, consultant, joint venturer, member, investor, lender or otherwise, engage or assist others to engage in, or own, manage, operate or control, or participate in the ownership, management, operation or control of, or become employed or engaged by any person or entity that (i) is engaged in the business of the cultivation, manufacture and/or sale of cannabis or (ii) is, or has taken steps to become, competitive with the current business, activities, products or services of the type conducted, authorized, offered, or provided by the Company or any of its affiliates, or with respect to prospective business, activities, products or services which the Company or any of its affiliates (with the Executive's knowledge or involvement) has spent significant time or resources analyzing for the purposes of assessing expansion opportunities by the Company or any of its affiliates during the twelve (12) month period immediately prior to the Termination Date, in each case except as set forth on Exhibit A or otherwise approved by the Board at any time prior to the Termination Date (the "Competitive Business"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 7(a) shall prevent the Executive from (i) participating in any or all of the engagements or activities set forth on Exhibit A hereto so long as such engagements or activities do not (A) individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement and (B) materially change in the nature or scope of the Executive's engagement after the Effective Date or (ii) owning, as a passive investor, up to two percent (2%) of the securities of any entity that are publicly traded on a national securities exchange.

(b) Customer Non-Solicitation. During the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the date that is twelve (12) months after the Termination Date, regardless of the reason for the Executive's termination of employment and regardless of who initiates such termination, the Executive shall not (except on the Company's behalf during the term hereof), for purposes of providing products or services that are competitive with those provided by the Company or any of its affiliates, directly or indirectly, on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, contact, solicit, divert, induce, call on, take away, or do business with (or attempt to do any of the foregoing) any customer or client of the Company or any of its affiliates (or any person or entity who, during the twelve (12) months prior to the Termination Date, was engaged in mutual contact, discussion or correspondence with the Company in respect of becoming a customer or client of the Company or any of its affiliates) with whom the Executive had contact within the twelve (12) months immediately prior to the Termination Date.

(c) Service Provider Non-Solicitation. During the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the date that is twelve (12) months after the Termination Date, regardless of the reason for the Executive's termination of employment and regardless of who initiates such termination, the Executive shall not (except on the Company's behalf during the term hereof), directly or indirectly, on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, solicit for employment or engagement, employ or engage, or interfere with the employment or engagement of (or attempt to do any of the foregoing) any individual who (A) is employed by, or an independent contractor of, the Company or any of its affiliates at the time of such solicitation, interference or attempt thereof or (B) was employed by, or an independent contractor of, the Company or any of its affiliates within twelve (12) months prior to such solicitation, employment, engagement, interference or attempt thereof.

(d) Non-Disparagement. During the term hereof and at all times thereafter, (I) the Executive shall not, directly or through any other person or entity, make any public or private statements (whether orally, in writing, via electronic transmission, or otherwise) that disparage, denigrate or malign (i) the Company or any of its affiliates, (ii) any of the businesses, activities, operations, affairs, reputations or prospects of the Company or any of its affiliates, or (iii) any of the officers, employees, directors, managers, partners (general and limited), agents, members or shareholders of any of the persons or entities described in any of clauses (i) or (ii) and (II) none of the members of the Board shall, and the Company shall not instruct any of its employees or employees of any of its affiliates to, directly or through any other person or entity, make any public or private statements (whether orally, in writing, via electronic transmission, or otherwise) that disparage, denigrate or malign the Executive. For purposes of clarification, and not limitation, a statement shall be deemed to disparage, denigrate or malign a person or entity if such statement could be reasonably construed to adversely affect the opinion any other person or entity may have or form of such first person or entity. No obligation under this Section 7(d) shall be violated by truthful statements (x) made to any governmental authority, (y) which are in connection with legal process, required governmental testimony or filings, or administrative or arbitral proceedings (including, without limitation, depositions in connection with such proceedings) or (z) made in performance reviews.

(e) Confidentiality; Return of Property. During the term hereof and at all times thereafter, the Executive shall not, without the prior express written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly, use on the Executive's behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, or divulge, disclose or make available or accessible to any person or entity, any Confidential Information (as defined below), other than when required to do so in good faith to perform the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder while employed by the Company, or when required to do so by a lawful order of a court of competent jurisdiction, any governmental authority or agency, or any recognized subpoena power. Nothing in this Section 7(e) or in this Agreement prohibits the Executive from reporting possible violations of federal law or regulation to any governmental agency or entity, or making other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of applicable law or regulation. Further, in accordance with the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, (I) the Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that: (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal, and (II) if the Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, the Executive may disclose a trade secret to his attorney and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the Executive files any document containing the trade secret under seal and does not disclose the trade secret except pursuant to court order. In the event that the Executive becomes legally compelled (by oral questions, interrogatories, request for information or documents, subpoena, criminal or civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose any Confidential Information, then prior to such disclosure, the Executive will provide the Board with prompt written notice so that the Company may seek (with the Executive's cooperation) a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. In the event that such protective order or other remedy is not obtained, then the Executive will furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information which is legally required (as may be advised by Executive's legal counsel), and will cooperate with the Company in the Company's efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to the Confidential Information. In addition, the Executive shall not create any derivative work or other product based on or resulting from any Confidential Information (except in the good faith performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement while employed by the Company). The Executive shall also proffer to the Board's designee, no later than the Termination Date (or upon the earlier request of the Company), and without retaining any copies, notes or excerpts thereof, all property of the Company and its affiliates in whatever form, including, without limitation, memoranda, computer disks or other media, computer programs, diaries, notes, records, data, customer or client lists, marketing plans and strategies, and any other documents consisting of or containing Confidential Information, that are in the Executive's actual or constructive possession or which are subject to the Executive's control at such time. To the extent the Executive has retained any such property or Confidential Information on any electronic or computer equipment belonging to the Executive or under the Executive's control, the Executive agrees to so advise Company and to follow Company's instructions in permanently deleting all such property or Confidential Information and all copies. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean all information of a sensitive, confidential or proprietary nature respecting the business and activities of the Company or any of its affiliates, including, without limitation, the terms and provisions of this Agreement (except for the terms and provisions of Section 7), and the clients, customers, suppliers, computer or other files, projects, products, computer disks or other media, computer hardware or computer software programs, marketing plans, financial information, methodologies, Inventions (as defined below), know-how, research, developments, processes, practices, approaches, projections, forecasts, formats, systems, data gathering methods and/or strategies of the Company or any of its affiliates. Confidential Information also includes all information received by the Company or any of its affiliates under an obligation of confidentiality to a third party of which the Executive has knowledge. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information shall not include any information that is generally available, or is made generally available, to the public other than as a result of a direct or indirect unauthorized disclosure by the Executive or any other person or entity subject to a confidentiality obligation.

(f) Ownership of Inventions. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that all Company Inventions (as defined below) (including all intellectual property rights arising therein or thereto, all rights of priority relating to patents, and all claims for past, present and future infringement, misappropriation relating thereto), and all Confidential Information, hereby are and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company (collectively, the "Company IP"). For consideration acknowledged and received, the Executive hereby irrevocably assigns, conveys and sets over to the Company all of the Executive's right, title and interest in and to all Company IP. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that the compensation received by the Executive for employment or services provided to the Company is adequate consideration for the foregoing assignment. The Executive further agrees to disclose in writing to the Board any Company Inventions promptly following their conception or reduction to practice. Such disclosure shall be sufficiently complete in technical detail and appropriately illustrated by sketch or diagram to convey to one skilled in the art of which the Company Invention pertains, a clear understanding of the nature, purpose, operations, and other characteristics of the Company Invention. The Executive agrees to execute and deliver such deeds of assignment or other documents of conveyance and transfer as the Company may request to confirm in the Company or its designee the ownership of the Company Inventions, without compensation beyond that provided in this Agreement. The Executive further agrees, upon the request of the Company and at its expense, that the Executive will execute any other instrument and document necessary or desirable in applying for and obtaining patents in the United States and in any foreign country with respect to any Company Invention. The Executive further agrees, whether or not the Executive is then an employee or other service provider of the Company or any of its affiliates, upon request of the Company, to provide reasonable assistance with respect to the perfection, recordation or other documentation of the assignment of Company IP hereunder, and the enforcement of the Company's rights in any Company IP, and to cooperate to the extent and in the manner reasonably requested by the Company in any litigation or other claim or proceeding (including, without limitation, the prosecution or defense of any claim involving a patent) involving any Company IP covered by this Agreement, without further compensation, but all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Executive in satisfying the requirements of this Section 7(f) shall be paid by the Company or its designee. The Executive shall not, on or after the Effective Date, directly or indirectly challenge the validity or enforceability of the Company's ownership of, or rights with respect to, any Company IP, including, without limitation, any patent issued on, or patent application filed in respect of, any Company Invention. For purposes of this Agreement, "Company Invention" shall mean any Invention that is made, conceived, invented, authored, or first actually reduced to practice, by the Executive (alone or jointly with others) (i) in the course of, in connection with, or as a result of the Executive's employment or other service with the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date, but not before the commencement of Executive's employment with the Company or its predecessor), (ii) at the direction or request of the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date), or (iii) through the use of, or that is related to, facilities, equipment, Confidential Information, other Company Inventions, intellectual property or other resources of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether or not during the Executive's work hours (and whether before, on, or after the Effective Date, but not before the commencement of Executive's employment with the Company or its predecessor). For purposes of this Agreement, "Invention" shall mean any invention, formula, therapy, diagnostic technique, discovery, improvement, idea, technique, design, method, art, process, methodology, algorithm, machine, development, product, service, technology, strategy, software, work of authorship or other Works (as defined below), trade secret, innovation, trademark, data, database, or the like, whether or not patentable, together with all intellectual property rights therein.

(g) Works for Hire. The Executive also acknowledges and agrees that all works of authorship, in any format or medium, and whether published or unpublished, created wholly or in part by the Executive, whether alone or jointly with others, (i) in the course of, in connection with, or as a result of the Executive's employment or other service with the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date), (ii) at the direction or request of the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date), or (iii) through the use of, or that is related to, facilities, equipment, Confidential Information, other Company Inventions, intellectual property or other resources of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether or not during the Executive's work hours (and whether before, on, or after the Effective Date) ("Works"), are works made for hire as defined under United States copyright law, and that the Works (and all copyrights arising in the Works) are owned exclusively by the Company and all rights therein will automatically vest in the Company without the need for any further action by any party. To the extent any such Works are not deemed to be works made for hire, for consideration acknowledged and received, the Executive hereby waives any "moral rights" in such Works and the Executive hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, conveys and sets over to the Company or its designee, without compensation beyond that provided in this Agreement, all right, title and interest in and to such Works, including without limitation all rights of copyright arising therein or thereto, and further agrees to execute such assignments or other deeds of conveyance and transfer as the Company may request to vest in the Company or its designee all right, title and interest in and to such Works, including all rights of copyright arising in or related to the Works.

(h) Cooperation. During and after the term hereof, the Executive agrees to cooperate with the Company and its affiliates in any internal investigation, any administrative, regulatory, or judicial proceeding or any dispute with a third party concerning issues about which the Executive has knowledge or that may relate to the Executive or the Executive's employment or service with the Company or any of its affiliates (or the termination thereof). The Executive's obligation to cooperate hereunder includes, without limitation, being available to the Company and its affiliates upon reasonable notice for interviews and factual investigations, appearing in any forum at the Company's or any of its affiliates' reasonable request to give testimony (without requiring service of a subpoena or other legal process), volunteering to the Company and its affiliates pertinent information, and turning over to the Company and its affiliates all relevant documents which are or may come into the Executive's possession. The Company shall promptly reimburse the Executive for the reasonable pre-approved out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Executive in connection with such cooperation. For the avoidance of doubt, the immediately preceding sentence shall not require the Company to reimburse the Executive for any attorneys' fees or related costs the Executive may incur absent advance written approval by the Company, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(i) Notification Requirement. Until the expiration of the period or periods for Restrictive Covenants (as applicable), the Executive shall, upon a reasonable request by the Company, give notice to the Company of any new business activity in which he is engaged. Such notice shall state the name and address of the individual, corporation, limited liability company, association, partnership, estate, trust and other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its affiliates (any such individual or entity being hereinafter referred to as a "Person") for whom such activity is undertaken and the nature of the Executive's business relationship(s) and position(s) with such Person. The Executive shall provide the Company with such other pertinent information concerning such business activity as the Company may reasonably request in order to determine the Executive's continued compliance with the Restrictive Covenants.

(j) Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the Restrictive Covenants. The Executive agrees that the Restrictive Covenants are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company and its affiliates and that each and every one of the Restrictive Covenants is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area, and otherwise. The Executive further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the Restrictive Covenants, the damage to the Company and its affiliates would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company and its affiliates, in addition to any other legal or equitable remedies available to them, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of the Restrictive Covenants, without having to post bond, and to specific performance of each of the terms thereof, and shall be entitled to recover their reasonable costs and attorneys' fees in enforcing the Restrictive Covenants. The Executive further agrees that (i) any breach or claimed breach of the provisions of this Agreement by, or any other claim the Executive may have against, the Company or any of its affiliates will not be a defense to enforcement of any Restrictive Covenant and (ii) the circumstances of the Executive's termination of employment with the Company will have no impact on the Executive's obligations to comply with any Restrictive Covenant. The Restrictive Covenants are intended for the benefit of the Company and each of its affiliates. Each affiliate of the Company is an intended third party beneficiary of the Restrictive Covenants, and each affiliate of the Company, as well as any successor or assign of the Company or such affiliate, may enforce the Restrictive Covenants. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of the Restrictive Covenants shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities or otherwise, such provision shall be deemed to be modified by the court to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

(k) Notification of New Employer. In the event that the Executive is employed or otherwise engaged by any other person or entity following the Termination Date, the Executive agrees to notify, and consents to the notification by Company and its affiliates of, such person or entity of the Restrictive Covenants.

8. Excise Tax.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or otherwise, to the extent that any payment, distribution or acceleration of vesting to or for the benefit of Executive by the Company (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and the regulations thereunder), whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise (the "Total Payments"), is or will be subject to the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), then the Total Payments shall be reduced (but not below zero) to the Safe Harbor Amount (as defined below) if and to the extent that a reduction in the Total Payments would result in Executive retaining a larger amount, on an after-tax basis (taking into account federal, state and local income and employment taxes and the Excise Tax), than if Executive received the entire amount of such Total Payments in accordance with their existing terms (taking into account federal, state, and local income and employment taxes and the Excise Tax). For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Safe Harbor Amount" means the largest portion of the Total Payments that would result in no portion of the Total Payments being subject to the Excise Tax. To effectuate the foregoing, the Company shall reduce or eliminate the Total Payments by first reducing or eliminating the portion of the Total Payments which are payable in cash and then by reducing or eliminating non-cash payments, in each case, starting with the payments to be made farthest in time from the Determination (as defined below).

(b) The determination of whether the Total Payments shall be reduced as provided in Section 8(a) and the amount of such reduction shall be made at the Company's expense by an accounting firm selected by Company from among the 10 largest accounting firms in the United States or by qualified independent tax counsel (the "Determining Party"); provided, that Executive shall be given advance notice of the Determining Party selected by the Company, and shall have the opportunity to reject the selection, within two business days of being notified of the selection, on the basis of that Determining Party's having a conflict of interest or other reasonable basis, in which case the Company shall select an alternative firm among the 10 largest accounting firms in the United States or alternative independent qualified tax counsel, which shall become the Determining Party. Such Determining Party shall provide its determination (the "Determination"), together with detailed supporting calculations and documentation to the Company and Executive, within 10 business days of the termination of Executive's employment or at such other time mutually agreed by the Company and Executive. If the Determining Party determines that no Excise Tax is payable by Executive with respect to the Total Payments, it shall furnish Executive with an opinion reasonably acceptable to Executive that no Excise Tax will be imposed with respect to any such payments and, absent manifest error, such Determination shall be binding, final and conclusive upon the Company and Executive. If the Determining Party determines that an Excise Tax would be payable, the Company shall have the right to accept the Determination as to the extent of the reduction, if any, pursuant to Section 8(a), or to have such Determination reviewed by another accounting firm selected by the Company, at the Company's expense. If the two accounting firms do not agree, a third accounting firm shall be jointly chosen by Executive and the Company, in which case the determination of such third accounting firm shall be binding, final and conclusive upon the Company and Executive.

(c) If, notwithstanding any reduction described in this Section 8, the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") determines that Executive is liable for the Excise Tax as a result of the receipt of any of the Total Payments or otherwise, then Executive shall be obligated to pay back to the Company, within 30 calendar days after a final IRS determination or in the event that Executive challenges the final IRS determination, a final judicial determination, a portion of the Total Payments equal to the "Repayment Amount". The "Repayment Amount" with respect to the payment of benefits shall be the smallest such amount, if any, as shall be required to be paid to the Company so that Executive's net after-tax proceeds with respect to the Total Payments (after taking into account the payment of the Excise Tax and all other applicable taxes imposed on the Total Payments) shall be maximized. The Repayment Amount shall be zero if a Repayment Amount of more than zero would not result in Executive's net after-tax proceeds with respect to the Total Payments being maximized. If the Excise Tax is not eliminated pursuant to this Section 8, Executive shall pay the Excise Tax.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 8, if (i) there is a reduction in the Total Payments as described in this Section 8, (ii) the IRS later determines that Executive is liable for the Excise Tax, the payment of which would result in the maximization of Executive's net after-tax proceeds (calculated as if Executive's benefits had not previously been reduced), and (iii) Executive pays the Excise Tax, then the Company shall pay to Executive those payments or benefits which were reduced pursuant to this Section 8 as soon as administratively possible after Executive pays the Excise Tax (but not later than March 15 following the calendar year of the IRS determination) so that Executive's net after-tax proceeds with respect to the Total Payments are maximized.

(e) If, following a reduction of the Total Payments pursuant to Section 8(a), the Determining Party or a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the Total Payments were reduced to a greater extent than required under Section 8, then the Company shall as soon as administratively possible (but not later than by March 15 following the calendar year of such determination) pay the amount of such excess reduction to or for the benefit of Executive, together with interest at the applicable federal rate (as defined in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code), from the date the amount would have otherwise been paid to Executive until the payment date.

(f) To the extent requested by Executive, the Company shall cooperate with Executive in good faith in valuing, and the Determining Party shall take into account the value of, services provided or to be provided by Executive (including, without limitation, Executive's agreeing to refrain from performing services pursuant to a covenant not to compete or similar covenant, before, on or after the date of a change in ownership or control of the Company (within the meaning of Q&A-2(b) of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code), such that payments in respect of such services may be considered reasonable compensation within the meaning of Q&A-9 and Q&A-40 to Q&A-44 of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code and/or exempt from the definition of the term "parachute payment" within the meaning of Q&A-2(a) of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code in accordance with Q&A-5(a) of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code.

9. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of his obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants or any court order or other legal obligation that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder, any and all of which are superseded by this Agreement. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

10. Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify the Executive to the maximum extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. At the request of the Executive, and subject to the approval of the Board (excluding the Executive), the Company shall enter into an indemnification agreement with the Executive on terms at least as favorable in each respect to the Executive as the terms of any other indemnification agreement between the Company and any other director or officer of the Company. The Executive agrees to promptly notify the Company of any actual or threatened claim arising out of or as a result of his employment or other service with the Company or any of its affiliates (or the termination thereof).

11. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

12. Assignment. Neither the Company nor the Executive may make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other; provided, however, that the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter effect a reorganization, consolidate with, or merge into, any person or entity, transfer a substantial majority of its properties or assets to any person or entity, or engage in a similar transaction with any person or entity. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, and their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

13. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

14. Amendment and Waiver. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and the Company. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach. No waiver by either of the parties of any breach by the other party hereto of any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by the other party hereto shall be deemed a waiver of any similar or dissimilar provision or condition at the same or any prior or subsequent time.

15. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed:

(a) if to the Executive, at his last known address on the books of the Company, with a copy to Feinberg Hanson LLP, 855 Boylston Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02116, attention: David H. Feinberg; and

(b) if to the Company, at its principal place of business, attention, Secretary, with a copy to Foley Hoag LLP, Seaport West, 155 Seaport Boulevard, Boston, Massachusetts 02210, attention: Erica Rice; or

(c) to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment and the subject matter hereof.

17. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

18. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement, by electronic mail in portable document format (.pdf) or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, has the same effect as delivery of an executed original of this Agreement.

19. Governing Law; Venue; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. This Agreement, the rights of the parties and all claims, actions, causes of action, suits, litigation, controversies, hearings, charges, complaints or proceedings arising in whole or in part under or in connection herewith, will be governed by and construed in accordance with the domestic substantive laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction. Both the Executive and the Company agree to appear before and submit exclusively to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York with respect to any controversy, dispute, or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Executive's employment or service with the Company or any of its affiliates (or the termination thereof), or if such controversy, dispute or claim may not be brought in federal court, to the state courts located in New York, New York and, in each case, the applicable courts of appeals of such court. Both the Executive and the Company also agree to waive, to the fullest possible extent, the defense of an inconvenient forum or lack of jurisdiction. The Executive further consents to service of process in the State of New York. THE COMPANY AND THE EXECUTIVE HEREBY WAIVE, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LITIGATION IN ANY COURT WITH RESPECT TO, IN CONNECTION WITH, OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE EXECUTIVE'S EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICE WITH THE COMPANY OR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES (OR THE TERMINATION THEREOF), OR THE VALIDITY, PROTECTION, INTERPRETATION, COLLECTION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT (WHETHER ARISING IN CONTRACT, EQUITY, TORT OR OTHERWISE).

20. Code Section 409A Compliance. This Agreement is intended to comply with Code Section 409A (to the extent applicable) and the parties hereto agree to interpret this Agreement in the least restrictive manner necessary to comply therewith and without resulting in any increase in the amounts owed hereunder by the Company. To the maximum extent possible, any severance owed under this Agreement shall be construed to fit within the "short-term deferral rule" under Code Section 409A and/or the "two times two year" involuntary separation pay exception under Code Section 409A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Executive is a "specified employee" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and the regulations issued thereunder, and a payment or benefit provided for in this Agreement would be subject to additional tax under Code Section 409A if such payment or benefit is paid within six (6) months after the Executive's "separation from service" (within the meaning of Code Section 409A), then such payment or benefit required under this Agreement (i) shall not be paid (or commence) during the six-month period immediately following the Executive's separation from service and (ii) shall instead be paid to the Executive in a lump-sum cash payment on the earlier of (A) the first regular payroll date of the seventh month following the Executive's separation from service or (B) the 10th business day following the Executive's death (but not earlier than such payment would have been made absent such death). If the Executive's termination of employment hereunder does not constitute a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A, then any amounts payable hereunder on account of a termination of the Executive's employment and which are subject to Code Section 409A shall not be paid until the Executive has experienced a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A. In addition, no reimbursement or in-kind benefit shall be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit and the amount available for reimbursement, or in-kind benefits provided, during any calendar year shall not affect the amount available for reimbursement, or in-kind benefits to be provided, in a subsequent calendar year. Any reimbursement to which the Executive is entitled hereunder shall be made no later than the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such expenses were incurred. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, neither the Company nor any of its affiliates shall have any liability to the Executive or to any other person or entity if this Agreement is, or if the payments and benefits provided in this Agreement that are intended to be exempt from or compliant with Code Section 409A are, not so exempt or compliant. Each payment payable hereunder shall be treated as a separate payment in a series of payments within the meaning of, and for purposes of, Code Section 409A.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (this "Agreement") dated as of March 23, 2021 (the "Effective Date") is made and entered into by and between Ascend Wellness Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company with a principal place of business at 1411 Broadway, 16th Floor, New York, NY 10018 (the "Company"), and Daniel Neville, an individual whose principal business address is in care of the Company at 1411 Broadway, 16th Floor, New York, NY 10018 (the "Executive").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Executive has served as the Chief Financial Officer of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to memorialize the terms of such employment, on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree:

1. Employment. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company hereby offers, and the Executive hereby accepts, continued employment as Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

2. Term. Subject to earlier termination as hereinafter provided, the Executive's employment hereunder shall be for a term of three (3) years, commencing on the Effective Date, and, on the third anniversary of the Effective Date and each annual anniversary of the Effective Date thereafter, shall be automatically extended for successive terms of one (1) year each, unless either the Company or the Executive provides notice (a "Non-Renewal Notice") to the other at least 90 days prior to expiration of the original or any extension term that the Executive's employment hereunder is not to be so extended. The term of this Agreement, as from time to time extended or renewed, is hereafter referred to as "the term of this Agreement" or "the term hereof."

3. Capacity and Performance.

(a) During the term hereof, the Executive shall serve the Company as Chief Financial Officer, reporting to the Chief Executive Officer and to the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board").

(b) During the term hereof, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time and diligent basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company as are customarily performed by a Chief Financial Officer of a company of comparable size and as may be reasonably designated from time to time by the Board.

(c) During the term hereof, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, render any services of a business, commercial or professional nature to any person or entity other than the Company (or any affiliate thereof), whether for compensation or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the Board (excluding the Executive), which shall not be unreasonably withheld. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive may (i) engage in the activities set forth on Exhibit A hereto so long as such activities do not (A) individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement and (B) materially change in nature or scope of the Executive's engagement after the Effective Date, in which case the Executive shall not be permitted to continue such engagement without the prior written consent of the Board (excluding the Executive) and (ii) engage in educational, charitable and civic activities and manage the Executive's personal investments and affairs, in each case, so long as such activities (A) do not, individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement and (B) are not contrary to the interests of the Company or any of its affiliates or competitive in any way with the Company or any of its affiliates.

4. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive under this Agreement and during the term hereof and subject to performance of the Executive's duties and obligations to the Company pursuant to this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. The Company shall pay the Executive a base salary at the rate of $500,000 per annum. The Executive's base salary shall be payable in accordance with the payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase from time to time by the Board (excluding the Executive), in its sole discretion. The base salary set forth in this Section 4(a), as from time to time increased, is hereafter referred to as the "Base Salary."

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each fiscal year that ends during the term hereof, the Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus"). The Executive's annual target bonus opportunity for each such fiscal year shall be equal to 100% of Base Salary (the "Target Bonus"), based on the achievement of target performance goals established by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee"). If the Company and/or the Executive achieves superior performance goals established by the Compensation Committee for any fiscal year, then the Executive shall be eligible to earn an additional 100% of Base Salary as part of his Annual Bonus for such fiscal year, for total Annual Bonus eligibility of 200% of Base Salary (the "Maximum Annual Bonus"). If threshold performance goals are not achieved for any fiscal year, then the Executive shall not receive an Annual Bonus for such fiscal year. The Annual Bonus, if any, will be paid within thirty (30) days after the Board's approval of the Company's and its subsidiaries' consolidated audited financial statements for the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates (and in all events in the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates).

(c) Bonus upon Change of Control Event. Upon the consummation of a change of control (as defined in the 2021 Incentive Plan), and concurrent with the payment of any consideration to any other holders of capital stock of the Company in connection with such change of control, the Executive shall be deemed to have earned the Maximum Annual Bonus (the "Change in Control Bonus") for each fiscal year during the remainder of the Term (inclusive of partial fiscal years). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the obligations of the Company to pay the Change of Control Bonus to Executive shall survive any termination of this Agreement by reason of death, disability or termination of employment of Executive without limitation, except that the Company's obligation to pay the Change of Control Bonus shall terminate concurrently with any termination of Executive's employment for Cause (as defined in Section 5(c) below).

(d) Equity Incentives. Subject to the approval of the Board (excluding the Executive), on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, the Executive will be granted 1,500,000 Restricted Stock Units pursuant to and as defined in the Company's 2021 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2021 Incentive Plan") and subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable award agreement. During the term hereof, the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional equity grants under the 2021 Incentive Plan, or any successor plan for the issuance of stock options, restricted stock, or other equity incentives hereafter maintained by the Company and in which other senior executives of the Company participate. Any and all additional grants to the Executive under the 2021 Incentive Plan or any such successor plan shall be made at the sole discretion of the Board (excluding the Executive) and shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable award agreement.

(e) Vacations. During the term hereof, the Executive shall be entitled to vacation, personal days, sick time and similar paid time off benefits in accordance with the applicable policies of the Company, as in effect from time to time.

(f) Insurance Benefits. During the term hereof and subject to any contribution therefor generally required of employees of the Company, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in any medical, dental and disability insurance plans maintained by the Company from time to time (collectively, the "Insurance Benefits"). The Executive's participation in such Insurance Benefits shall be subject to applicable law, the terms of the applicable plan documents and generally applicable Company policies. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company may amend, modify or terminate any Insurance Benefits at any time in its discretion.

(g) Business Expenses. During the term hereof, the Company shall promptly pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable, customary and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to any reasonable maximum annual limit and other restrictions on such expenses set by the Board (excluding the Executive) and otherwise in accordance with the Company's then-prevailing policies and procedures for expense reimbursement (including such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Company from time to time).

5. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2 hereof, the Executive's employment hereunder shall terminate prior to the expiration of the term under the following circumstances:

(a) Death. In the event of the Executive's death during the term hereof, the Executive's employment hereunder shall immediately and automatically terminate. In such event, the Company shall pay to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate, (i) the Base Salary earned but not paid through the date of termination (to be paid in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies or at such earlier time as required by applicable law), (ii) the value of any vacation time earned but not used through the date of termination (to be paid in accordance with the Company's policies and applicable law), (iii) any Annual Bonus earned under Section 4(b) with respect to the fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year in which such termination occurs, but only to the extent unpaid as of the date of termination (with any such earned Annual Bonus to be paid at the same time as if no such termination had occurred), and (iv) any business expenses incurred by the Executive but unreimbursed as of the date of termination, provided that such expenses are reimbursable under Company policy (with such expenses to be reimbursed in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policies as in effect from time to time) (all of the foregoing, "Final Compensation"). In addition to Final Compensation, if the Executive's employment terminates due to his death during the term hereof, the Executive will be entitled to (x) a prorated portion of any Annual Bonus earned for the fiscal year in which such termination occurs (calculated as the Annual Bonus that would have been paid for such fiscal year, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is equal to the number of days the Executive worked for the Company in such fiscal year, and the denominator of which is equal to the total number of days in such fiscal year), with any such prorated Annual Bonus to be paid at the same time as if no such termination had occurred (the "Prorated Bonus") and (y) the Benefit Continuation he would have been entitled to receive under clause (iii) of Section 5(d) below had the Executive been terminated by the Company other than for Cause in accordance with such Section 5(d). The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive or his estate hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during his employment hereunder through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, with or without reasonable accommodation, for any period of ninety (90) consecutive days or more, or one hundred eighty (180) days (whether or not consecutive) during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. In the event of such termination, the Company shall pay to the Executive the Final Compensation and shall otherwise comply with the provisions of this Section 5(b). In addition to such Final Compensation, the Executive will be entitled to (x) the Prorated Bonus and (y) the Benefit Continuation he would have been entitled to receive under clause (iii) of Section 5(d) below had the Executive been terminated by the Company other than for Cause in accordance with such Section 5(d). The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(ii) In lieu of terminating the Executive's employment hereunder, the Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability. Notwithstanding any such designation, the Executive shall continue to receive the Base Salary in accordance with Section 4(a) and Insurance Benefits in accordance with Section 4(e), to the extent permitted by the then-current terms of the applicable benefit plans, until the Executive becomes eligible for long-term disability income benefits under the Company's disability income plan (or any disability insurance policy of the Company).

(iii) If the Executive becomes eligible to receive disability income payments under the Company's disability income plan (or any disability insurance policy of the Company), the Executive shall be entitled to receive Base Salary under Section 4(a) hereof less the amount of such disability income payments being made to the Executive, and shall continue to participate in Company benefit plans in accordance with Section 4(e) and as permitted by the terms of such plans, in each case, until the termination of his employment.

(iv) Any determination as to whether during any period the Executive is disabled through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature so as to be unable to perform substantially all of his duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be made by a physician satisfactory to both the Executive (or his duly appointed guardian) and the Company, provided that if the Executive and the Company do not agree on a physician, the Executive and the Company shall each select a physician and these two together shall select a third physician, whose determination as to disability shall be binding on all parties. If the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause. The following shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) Repeated or willful refusal, failure or neglect by the Executive to perform the material duties of his employment or to follow the directions of the Board (other than by reason of the Executive's physical or mental illness or impairment);

(ii) The Executive's committing any act of fraud, embezzlement, or theft;

(iii) The Executive’s material violation of the Company’s policies;

(iv) The Executive’s behavior or engagement in any acts that may interfere with the ability of the Company or any of its affiliates to maintain a license to harvest, cultivate, process, or sell cannabis or otherwise continue to operate its business;

(v) The Executive’s breach of any non-disclosure, non-disparagement, non-competition, non-solicitation, assignment of inventions agreement or other restrictive covenants set forth herein, other than the Executive’s inadvertent and immaterial breach of any non-competition or non-disclosure obligation that is not otherwise detrimental to the Company or any of its affiliates, as determined by the Board (excluding the Executive);

(vi) The Executive’s conviction of a felony (including pleading guilty or nolo contendere to a felony) or commitment of other acts causing a material detriment to the reputation, the business or a business relationship of the Company or any of its affiliates; provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, no conviction or plea of nolo contendere of a felony or crime that occurs solely as a result of a violation of U.S. federal law concerning cannabis or the cannabis industry shall be deemed to constitute “Cause”, so long as (A) the acts, omissions, conduct or activity related to cannabis or the cannabis industry giving rise to any such conviction or plea of nolo contendere of a felony or crime could be reasonably believed to be in compliance with applicable state and local laws and (B) such conviction or plea of nolo contendere is not likely to interfere with the ability of the Company or any of its affiliates to maintain a license to harvest, cultivate, process, or sell cannabis or otherwise continue to operate its business;

(vii) The Executive’s willful engagement in dishonesty, illegal conduct (other than solely as a result of a violation of U.S. federal law concerning cannabis or the cannabis industry, so long as (A) the acts, omissions, conduct or activity related to cannabis or the cannabis industry giving rise to such illegal conduct could be reasonably believed to be in compliance with applicable state and local laws and (B) such illegal conduct is not likely to interfere with the ability of the Company or any of its affiliates to maintain a license to harvest, cultivate, process, or sell cannabis or otherwise continue to operate its business), or gross misconduct, which in each case is materially injurious (monetarily or otherwise) to the Company or its affiliates; or

(viii) The Executive’s material breach of the terms of this Agreement.

For purposes of this provision, no act or failure to act on the part of the Executive shall be considered "willful" unless it is done, or omitted to be done, by the Executive in bad faith or without reasonable belief that the Executive's action or omission was in the best interests of the Company. Any act, or failure to act, based on authority given pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by the Board or on the advice of counsel for the Company shall be conclusively presumed to be done, or omitted to be done, by the Executive in good faith and in the best interests of the Company.

Termination of the Executive's employment shall not be deemed to be for Cause unless and until (I) the Company has given notice thereof to the Executive specifying in reasonable detail the conduct constituting "Cause," (II) solely with respect to the conduct described in clauses (i), (iii), (iv), (v) and (viii) above, the Executive fails to cure and correct his conduct (if capable of cure and correction) within thirty (30) days after such notice, and (III) the Company delivers to the Executive a copy of a resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Board (excluding the Executive) (after the Executive is given an opportunity, together with counsel, to be heard before the Board), finding in good faith that the Executive has engaged in the conduct described in any of (i)-(viii) above.

Upon the giving of notice of termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation hereunder to the Executive, other than for Final Compensation.

(d) By the Company Other than for Cause or by Giving a Non-Renewal Notice. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder other than for Cause (and other than in connection with the Executive's death or disability) at any time upon ninety (90) days' written notice to the Executive; provided that, during such 90-day notice period (or any portion thereof), the Executive may be required to work remotely from his residence or the Company may place the Executive on garden leave, and in all events, the Company may prohibit the Executive from entering any premises of the Company or any of its affiliates, contacting any employee, customer, vendor or supplier of the Company or any of its affiliates or accessing any property of the Company or any of its affiliates. In the event of such termination, or in the event that the Executive's employment is terminated as a result of the Company's Non-Renewal Notice pursuant to Section 2 hereof, then (i) the Company shall pay to the Executive the Final Compensation, (ii) the Company shall pay the Executive an amount equal to two (2) times the sum of Base Salary and Annual Bonus earned by the Executive for the full fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year in which such termination occurs (the "Termination Compensation"), payable in substantially equal installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices as in effect from time to time, over the twelve (12) month period immediately following the termination date (with the first payment to be made on the first payroll date following the effective date of the Employee Release (as defined below) and to include a catch-up to cover any payment that would have been made prior to such date had the Employee Release been effective on the termination date); provided that, if such termination date occurs prior to the conclusion of one full fiscal year of employment, it shall be assumed, for purposes of determining the Termination Compensation, that Executive earned one full fiscal year of his current Base Salary and achieved an Annual Bonus of 100% of his current Base Salary; provided, further, that, if (and only if) such termination date occurs within eighteen (18) months after a Change of Control Event (as defined below), then the Termination Compensation shall be payable to the Executive in a lump sum payment on the first payroll date following the effective date of the Employee Release (rather than in installments, as provided above in this clause (ii)), (iii) subject to any employee contribution applicable to the Executive as of immediately prior to the date of termination, the Company shall continue to pay the cost of the Executive's participation in the Company's medical and dental insurance plans for a period of twelve (12) months, provided that if the Executive's continued participation in such plans would result in a violation of any non-discrimination rules or result in any fines, penalties or excise taxes to the Company or any of its affiliates or if the Executive is otherwise not eligible to continue participation in such plans under applicable law or plan terms, then, to the extent possible without resulting in such violation, fines, penalties or excise taxes, the Company shall instead make monthly cash payments to the Executive in an amount equal to the employer portion of the monthly insurance premiums that would have been applicable had the Executive been eligible to continue such participation (the benefit described in this clause (iii), collectively, the "Benefit Continuation"), (iv) the Prorated Bonus, and (v) notwithstanding the terms of any other agreement, instrument or document to the contrary (including without limitation any vesting terms, performance criteria or other conditions, and regardless of whether entered into before or after the date of this Agreement), upon such termination, Executive's right to purchase or otherwise acquire any equity securities of the Company under any stock option or other agreement, instrument, plan, program or arrangement outstanding or in effect on the effective date of such termination shall thereupon vest in full (subject only to the payment of the applicable exercise or purchase price, if any, and provided that any equity awards that are subject to the satisfaction of performance goals shall be deemed earned at target performance), and any right of the Company or any subsidiary to repurchase any equity securities of the Company from Executive, whether arising under any option, agreement, instrument, plan, program, arrangement or otherwise, shall thereupon terminate. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Change of Control Event" shall mean the consummation, after the Effective Date, of (i) the sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets or at least a majority of voting power of the capital stock of the Company, (ii) any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, or (iii) the merger or consolidation of the Company with or into another entity, except a merger or consolidation in which the holders of capital stock of the Company immediately prior to such merger or consolidation continue to hold at least 50% of the voting power of the capital stock of the Company or the surviving or acquiring entity, as applicable; provided, however, that no event described in the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) shall constitute a Change of Control Event for purposes of this Agreement unless it satisfies the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(5)(v) or (vii).

(e) Any obligation of the Company to make the payments and provide the benefits to the Executive under Section 5 (other than Final Compensation) is conditioned, however, upon the Executive (or his estate or legal representative, as applicable) signing a general release of claims and covenant not to sue in such form and substance as may be agreed to by the Company and the Executive (or his estate or legal representative, as applicable) (the "Employee Release") within twenty-one days (or such greater period as the Company may specify) (the "Release Period") following the date of termination of employment and upon the Executive (or his estate or legal representative, as applicable) not revoking the Employee Release during the 7-day revocation period following the execution of the Employee Release (the "Revocation Period"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if payment of Termination Compensation and the Benefit Continuation could commence in more than one taxable year based on when the Employee Release could become effective, then to the extent required by Section 409A of the Code, any such payments that would have been made during the calendar year in which the Executive's employment terminates shall instead be withheld and paid on the first payroll date in the calendar year immediately after the calendar year in which the Executive's employment terminates, with all remaining payments to be made as if no such delay had occurred.

(f) By the Executive for Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason, upon notice to the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason. The following shall constitute "Good Reason", subject to the notice and cure periods set forth below, unless the Executive shall have consented in writing to any of the following:

(i) any reduction in the Executive's Base Salary other than in connection with a general reduction in base salaries that affects all similarly situated executives in substantially the same proportions;

(ii) any reduction in the Executive's Target Bonus or Maximum Annual Bonus opportunity (other than solely as a result of a reduction in Base Salary);

(iii) any failure by the Company to nominate the Executive for re-election to the Board and to use its best efforts to have the Executive re-elected (other than as a result of a Change of Control Event, which shall be governed by this Section 5(f)(v)), or any change in the Executive's title as Chief Financial Officer of the Company;

(iv) any diminution in the Executive's responsibilities or authority within the Company, or any alteration in the nature or status of Executive's position, title or responsibilities or the conditions of Executive's employment, including the requirement for the Executive to report to any person(s) other than the Board, in any case without his prior written consent, other than any of the foregoing that occurs as a result of a Change of Control Event (which shall be governed by this Section 5(f)(v));

(v) in the event of a Change of Control Event, any failure by the acquirer to (a) make an offer of employment to the Executive for a base salary, target bonus and maximum bonus opportunity amounts that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to the Executive's Base Salary and Annual Bonus (taking into consideration both the Target Bonus and the Maximum Annual Bonus) each as of immediately prior to such sale, (b) nominate the Executive for election to the Board of the acquirer, (c) offer the Executive a position with duties, responsibilities and authority that are materially comparable to the Executive's duties, responsibilities and authority as Chief Financial Officer of the Company (disregarding any duties, responsibilities and authority the Executive had as a member of the Board or as an officer or director of any affiliate of the Company) as of immediately prior to such sale;

(vi) any failure by the Company to comply with any material provision of this Agreement; and

(vii) any requirement that the Executive relocate the principal place of his work for the Company such that his existing commute is increased by more than 50 miles.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Good Reason shall not be deemed to exist unless (x) the Executive gives the Company written notice within ninety (90) days after the Executive first has knowledge of the occurrence of the event which the Executive believes constitutes the basis for Good Reason, specifying the particular act or failure to act which the Executive believes constitutes the basis for Good Reason, (y) the Company fails to cure such act or failure to act within sixty (60) days after receipt of such notice and (z) the Executive terminates his employment within sixty (60) days after the end of the period specified in clause (y).

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 5(f), then the Executive will be entitled to the same payments and benefits (i.e., the Final Compensation, the Termination Compensation, the Benefit Continuation, the Prorated Bonus and acceleration of equity vesting (or termination of Company repurchase rights, as applicable)) he would have been entitled to receive had the Executive been terminated by the Company other than for Cause (and not due to his death or disability) in accordance with Section 5(d) above (subject to the terms of Section 5(e) above).

(g) By the Executive Other than for Good Reason or by Giving a Non-Renewal Notice. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time upon ninety (90) days' prior written notice to the Company. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 5(g), or if the Executive should give a Non-Renewal Notice pursuant to Section 2 hereof, the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive the Final Compensation and, to the extent permitted under (and subject to the terms of) the applicable plan documents, provide the Insurance Benefits for the notice period (or any portion thereof) so waived. Upon such employment termination, the Company shall have no further obligation hereunder to the Executive, other than for any Final Compensation and Prorated Bonus due to him.

(h) Post-Agreement Employment. In the event the Executive remains in the employ of the Company or any of its subsidiaries following termination of this Agreement, by the expiration of the term hereof or otherwise, then such employment shall be at will.

6. Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 6 shall apply to a termination of the Executive's employment with the Company hereunder, whether due to the expiration of the term hereof, pursuant to Section 5 or otherwise.

(a) Payment by the Company of any applicable Final Compensation, Termination Compensation, Benefit Continuation, acceleration of equity vesting (or termination of Company repurchase rights, as applicable) and/or any other amounts or benefits that may be due the Executive in each case under the applicable termination provision of Section 5 shall constitute the entire obligation of the Company to the Executive, and the Executive shall not be entitled to additional payments or benefits under any other severance agreement or executive severance plan of the Company. Upon request of the Company, the Executive shall promptly give the Company notice of all facts necessary for the Company to determine the amount and duration of its obligations in connection with any termination pursuant to Section 5 hereof.

(b) Except for the Benefit Continuation and equity-security related benefits pursuant to Section 5(d) or 5(f) hereof, all benefits shall terminate pursuant to the terms of the applicable benefit plans based on the date of termination of the Executive's employment without regard to any continuation of any applicable Termination Compensation or other payment to the Executive following such date of termination.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination of Executive's employment hereunder if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of other surviving provisions, including without limitation the Restrictive Covenants (as defined below). The obligation of the Company to make payments and provide benefits to or on behalf of the Executive under 5(b), 5(d), 5(f) or 5(g) hereof (other than the Final Compensation) is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued compliance with the Restrictive Covenants; provided that (i) the Company may not discontinue any such payments and benefits (or require repayment of any such payments or benefits already provided to the Executive) unless the Company has provided written notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such non-compliance and, if the nature of such non-compliance is such that it is capable of being remedied by the Executive without any damage to the Company, as determined by the Board (excluding the Executive), the Executive shall have failed to remedy such non-compliance within ten (10) days following receipt of such notice (it being understood that if the nature of such non-compliance is such that it is not capable of being remedied by the Executive without any damage to the Company, as determined by the Board (excluding the Executive), the Company may discontinue such payments and benefits at such time as it provides such written notice to the Executive) and (ii) to the extent curable, the Company may suspend or discontinue such payments or benefits thereafter only during such period as such non-compliance continues. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided in Section 5, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

7. Restrictive Covenants. As an inducement and as essential consideration for the Company to enter into this Agreement, and in exchange for other good and valuable consideration, the Executive hereby agrees to the restrictive covenants contained in this Section 7 (the "Restrictive Covenants"). The Company and the Executive agree that the Restrictive Covenants are essential and narrowly tailored to preserve the goodwill of the business of the Company and its affiliates, to maintain the confidential and trade secret information of the Company and its affiliates, and to protect other legitimate business interests of the Company and its affiliates in light of their niche businesses and the executive position held by the Executive.

The Company and the Executive further agree that the Company would not have entered into this Agreement without the Executive's agreement to the Restrictive Covenants. For purposes of the Restrictive Covenants, each reference to "Company" and "affiliate" shall also refer to the predecessors and successors of the Company and any of its affiliates (as the case may be).

(a) Non-Competition. During the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the date that is twelve (12) months after the date on which the Executive's employment hereunder terminates (the "Termination Date"), regardless of the reason for the Executive's termination of employment and regardless of who initiates such termination (such period, the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, anywhere in the United States or in any other country or jurisdiction in which the Company or any of its affiliates conducts or conducted business during the Non-Competition Period, either directly or indirectly, as a proprietor, partner, stockholder, director, executive, employee, consultant, joint venturer, member, investor, lender or otherwise, engage or assist others to engage in, or own, manage, operate or control, or participate in the ownership, management, operation or control of, or become employed or engaged by any person or entity that (i) is engaged in the business of the cultivation, manufacture and/or sale of cannabis or (ii) is, or has taken steps to become, competitive with the current business, activities, products or services of the type conducted, authorized, offered, or provided by the Company or any of its affiliates, or with respect to prospective business, activities, products or services which the Company or any of its affiliates (with the Executive's knowledge or involvement) has spent significant time or resources analyzing for the purposes of assessing expansion opportunities by the Company or any of its affiliates during the twelve (12) month period immediately prior to the Termination Date, in each case except as set forth on Exhibit A or otherwise approved by the Board at any time prior to the Termination Date (the "Competitive Business"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 7(a) shall prevent the Executive from (i) participating in any or all of the engagements or activities set forth on Exhibit A hereto so long as such engagements or activities do not (A) individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement and (B) materially change in the nature or scope of the Executive's engagement after the Effective Date or (ii) owning, as a passive investor, up to two percent (2%) of the securities of any entity that are publicly traded on a national securities exchange.

(b) Customer Non-Solicitation. During the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the date that is twelve (12) months after the Termination Date, regardless of the reason for the Executive's termination of employment and regardless of who initiates such termination, the Executive shall not (except on the Company's behalf during the term hereof), for purposes of providing products or services that are competitive with those provided by the Company or any of its affiliates, directly or indirectly, on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, contact, solicit, divert, induce, call on, take away, or do business with (or attempt to do any of the foregoing) any customer or client of the Company or any of its affiliates (or any person or entity who, during the twelve (12) months prior to the Termination Date, was engaged in mutual contact, discussion or correspondence with the Company in respect of becoming a customer or client of the Company or any of its affiliates) with whom the Executive had contact within the twelve (12) months immediately prior to the Termination Date.

(c) Service Provider Non-Solicitation. During the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the date that is twelve (12) months after the Termination Date, regardless of the reason for the Executive's termination of employment and regardless of who initiates such termination, the Executive shall not (except on the Company's behalf during the term hereof), directly or indirectly, on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, solicit for employment or engagement, employ or engage, or interfere with the employment or engagement of (or attempt to do any of the foregoing) any individual who (A) is employed by, or an independent contractor of, the Company or any of its affiliates at the time of such solicitation, interference or attempt thereof or (B) was employed by, or an independent contractor of, the Company or any of its affiliates within twelve (12) months prior to such solicitation, employment, engagement, interference or attempt thereof.

(d) Non-Disparagement. During the term hereof and at all times thereafter, (I) the Executive shall not, directly or through any other person or entity, make any public or private statements (whether orally, in writing, via electronic transmission, or otherwise) that disparage, denigrate or malign (i) the Company or any of its affiliates, (ii) any of the businesses, activities, operations, affairs, reputations or prospects of the Company or any of its affiliates, or (iii) any of the officers, employees, directors, managers, partners (general and limited), agents, members or shareholders of any of the persons or entities described in any of clauses (i) or (ii) and (II) none of the members of the Board shall, and the Company shall not instruct any of its employees or employees of any of its affiliates to, directly or through any other person or entity, make any public or private statements (whether orally, in writing, via electronic transmission, or otherwise) that disparage, denigrate or malign the Executive. For purposes of clarification, and not limitation, a statement shall be deemed to disparage, denigrate or malign a person or entity if such statement could be reasonably construed to adversely affect the opinion any other person or entity may have or form of such first person or entity. No obligation under this Section 7(d) shall be violated by truthful statements (x) made to any governmental authority, (y) which are in connection with legal process, required governmental testimony or filings, or administrative or arbitral proceedings (including, without limitation, depositions in connection with such proceedings) or (z) made in performance reviews.

(e) Confidentiality; Return of Property. During the term hereof and at all times thereafter, the Executive shall not, without the prior express written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly, use on the Executive's behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, or divulge, disclose or make available or accessible to any person or entity, any Confidential Information (as defined below), other than when required to do so in good faith to perform the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder while employed by the Company, or when required to do so by a lawful order of a court of competent jurisdiction, any governmental authority or agency, or any recognized subpoena power. Nothing in this Section 7(e) or in this Agreement prohibits the Executive from reporting possible violations of federal law or regulation to any governmental agency or entity, or making other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of applicable law or regulation. Further, in accordance with the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, (I) the Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that: (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal, and (II) if the Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, the Executive may disclose a trade secret to his attorney and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the Executive files any document containing the trade secret under seal and does not disclose the trade secret except pursuant to court order. In the event that the Executive becomes legally compelled (by oral questions, interrogatories, request for information or documents, subpoena, criminal or civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose any Confidential Information, then prior to such disclosure, the Executive will provide the Board with prompt written notice so that the Company may seek (with the Executive's cooperation) a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. In the event that such protective order or other remedy is not obtained, then the Executive will furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information which is legally required (as may be advised by Executive's legal counsel), and will cooperate with the Company in the Company's efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to the Confidential Information. In addition, the Executive shall not create any derivative work or other product based on or resulting from any Confidential Information (except in the good faith performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement while employed by the Company). The Executive shall also proffer to the Board's designee, no later than the Termination Date (or upon the earlier request of the Company), and without retaining any copies, notes or excerpts thereof, all property of the Company and its affiliates in whatever form, including, without limitation, memoranda, computer disks or other media, computer programs, diaries, notes, records, data, customer or client lists, marketing plans and strategies, and any other documents consisting of or containing Confidential Information, that are in the Executive's actual or constructive possession or which are subject to the Executive's control at such time. To the extent the Executive has retained any such property or Confidential Information on any electronic or computer equipment belonging to the Executive or under the Executive's control, the Executive agrees to so advise Company and to follow Company's instructions in permanently deleting all such property or Confidential Information and all copies. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean all information of a sensitive, confidential or proprietary nature respecting the business and activities of the Company or any of its affiliates, including, without limitation, the terms and provisions of this Agreement (except for the terms and provisions of Section 7), and the clients, customers, suppliers, computer or other files, projects, products, computer disks or other media, computer hardware or computer software programs, marketing plans, financial information, methodologies, Inventions (as defined below), know-how, research, developments, processes, practices, approaches, projections, forecasts, formats, systems, data gathering methods and/or strategies of the Company or any of its affiliates. Confidential Information also includes all information received by the Company or any of its affiliates under an obligation of confidentiality to a third party of which the Executive has knowledge. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information shall not include any information that is generally available, or is made generally available, to the public other than as a result of a direct or indirect unauthorized disclosure by the Executive or any other person or entity subject to a confidentiality obligation.

(f) Ownership of Inventions. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that all Company Inventions (as defined below) (including all intellectual property rights arising therein or thereto, all rights of priority relating to patents, and all claims for past, present and future infringement, misappropriation relating thereto), and all Confidential Information, hereby are and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company (collectively, the "Company IP"). For consideration acknowledged and received, the Executive hereby irrevocably assigns, conveys and sets over to the Company all of the Executive's right, title and interest in and to all Company IP. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that the compensation received by the Executive for employment or services provided to the Company is adequate consideration for the foregoing assignment. The Executive further agrees to disclose in writing to the Board any Company Inventions promptly following their conception or reduction to practice. Such disclosure shall be sufficiently complete in technical detail and appropriately illustrated by sketch or diagram to convey to one skilled in the art of which the Company Invention pertains, a clear understanding of the nature, purpose, operations, and other characteristics of the Company Invention. The Executive agrees to execute and deliver such deeds of assignment or other documents of conveyance and transfer as the Company may request to confirm in the Company or its designee the ownership of the Company Inventions, without compensation beyond that provided in this Agreement. The Executive further agrees, upon the request of the Company and at its expense, that the Executive will execute any other instrument and document necessary or desirable in applying for and obtaining patents in the United States and in any foreign country with respect to any Company Invention. The Executive further agrees, whether or not the Executive is then an employee or other service provider of the Company or any of its affiliates, upon request of the Company, to provide reasonable assistance with respect to the perfection, recordation or other documentation of the assignment of Company IP hereunder, and the enforcement of the Company's rights in any Company IP, and to cooperate to the extent and in the manner reasonably requested by the Company in any litigation or other claim or proceeding (including, without limitation, the prosecution or defense of any claim involving a patent) involving any Company IP covered by this Agreement, without further compensation, but all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Executive in satisfying the requirements of this Section 7(f) shall be paid by the Company or its designee. The Executive shall not, on or after the Effective Date, directly or indirectly challenge the validity or enforceability of the Company's ownership of, or rights with respect to, any Company IP, including, without limitation, any patent issued on, or patent application filed in respect of, any Company Invention. For purposes of this Agreement, "Company Invention" shall mean any Invention that is made, conceived, invented, authored, or first actually reduced to practice, by the Executive (alone or jointly with others) (i) in the course of, in connection with, or as a result of the Executive's employment or other service with the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date, but not before the commencement of Executive's employment with the Company or its predecessor), (ii) at the direction or request of the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date), or (iii) through the use of, or that is related to, facilities, equipment, Confidential Information, other Company Inventions, intellectual property or other resources of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether or not during the Executive's work hours (and whether before, on, or after the Effective Date, but not before the commencement of Executive's employment with the Company or its predecessor). For purposes of this Agreement, "Invention" shall mean any invention, formula, therapy, diagnostic technique, discovery, improvement, idea, technique, design, method, art, process, methodology, algorithm, machine, development, product, service, technology, strategy, software, work of authorship or other Works (as defined below), trade secret, innovation, trademark, data, database, or the like, whether or not patentable, together with all intellectual property rights therein.

(g) Works for Hire. The Executive also acknowledges and agrees that all works of authorship, in any format or medium, and whether published or unpublished, created wholly or in part by the Executive, whether alone or jointly with others, (i) in the course of, in connection with, or as a result of the Executive's employment or other service with the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date), (ii) at the direction or request of the Company or any of its affiliates (whether before, on, or after the Effective Date), or (iii) through the use of, or that is related to, facilities, equipment, Confidential Information, other Company Inventions, intellectual property or other resources of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether or not during the Executive's work hours (and whether before, on, or after the Effective Date) ("Works"), are works made for hire as defined under United States copyright law, and that the Works (and all copyrights arising in the Works) are owned exclusively by the Company and all rights therein will automatically vest in the Company without the need for any further action by any party. To the extent any such Works are not deemed to be works made for hire, for consideration acknowledged and received, the Executive hereby waives any "moral rights" in such Works and the Executive hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, conveys and sets over to the Company or its designee, without compensation beyond that provided in this Agreement, all right, title and interest in and to such Works, including without limitation all rights of copyright arising therein or thereto, and further agrees to execute such assignments or other deeds of conveyance and transfer as the Company may request to vest in the Company or its designee all right, title and interest in and to such Works, including all rights of copyright arising in or related to the Works.

(h) Cooperation. During and after the term hereof, the Executive agrees to cooperate with the Company and its affiliates in any internal investigation, any administrative, regulatory, or judicial proceeding or any dispute with a third party concerning issues about which the Executive has knowledge or that may relate to the Executive or the Executive's employment or service with the Company or any of its affiliates (or the termination thereof). The Executive's obligation to cooperate hereunder includes, without limitation, being available to the Company and its affiliates upon reasonable notice for interviews and factual investigations, appearing in any forum at the Company's or any of its affiliates' reasonable request to give testimony (without requiring service of a subpoena or other legal process), volunteering to the Company and its affiliates pertinent information, and turning over to the Company and its affiliates all relevant documents which are or may come into the Executive's possession. The Company shall promptly reimburse the Executive for the reasonable pre-approved out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Executive in connection with such cooperation. For the avoidance of doubt, the immediately preceding sentence shall not require the Company to reimburse the Executive for any attorneys' fees or related costs the Executive may incur absent advance written approval by the Company, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(i) Notification Requirement. Until the expiration of the period or periods for Restrictive Covenants (as applicable), the Executive shall, upon a reasonable request by the Company, give notice to the Company of any new business activity in which he is engaged. Such notice shall state the name and address of the individual, corporation, limited liability company, association, partnership, estate, trust and other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its affiliates (any such individual or entity being hereinafter referred to as a "Person") for whom such activity is undertaken and the nature of the Executive's business relationship(s) and position(s) with such Person. The Executive shall provide the Company with such other pertinent information concerning such business activity as the Company may reasonably request in order to determine the Executive's continued compliance with the Restrictive Covenants.

(j) Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the Restrictive Covenants. The Executive agrees that the Restrictive Covenants are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company and its affiliates and that each and every one of the Restrictive Covenants is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area, and otherwise. The Executive further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the Restrictive Covenants, the damage to the Company and its affiliates would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company and its affiliates, in addition to any other legal or equitable remedies available to them, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of the Restrictive Covenants, without having to post bond, and to specific performance of each of the terms thereof, and shall be entitled to recover their reasonable costs and attorneys' fees in enforcing the Restrictive Covenants. The Executive further agrees that (i) any breach or claimed breach of the provisions of this Agreement by, or any other claim the Executive may have against, the Company or any of its affiliates will not be a defense to enforcement of any Restrictive Covenant and (ii) the circumstances of the Executive's termination of employment with the Company will have no impact on the Executive's obligations to comply with any Restrictive Covenant. The Restrictive Covenants are intended for the benefit of the Company and each of its affiliates. Each affiliate of the Company is an intended third party beneficiary of the Restrictive Covenants, and each affiliate of the Company, as well as any successor or assign of the Company or such affiliate, may enforce the Restrictive Covenants. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of the Restrictive Covenants shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities or otherwise, such provision shall be deemed to be modified by the court to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

(k) Notification of New Employer. In the event that the Executive is employed or otherwise engaged by any other person or entity following the Termination Date, the Executive agrees to notify, and consents to the notification by Company and its affiliates of, such person or entity of the Restrictive Covenants.

8. Excise Tax.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or otherwise, to the extent that any payment, distribution or acceleration of vesting to or for the benefit of Executive by the Company (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and the regulations thereunder), whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise (the "Total Payments"), is or will be subject to the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), then the Total Payments shall be reduced (but not below zero) to the Safe Harbor Amount (as defined below) if and to the extent that a reduction in the Total Payments would result in Executive retaining a larger amount, on an after-tax basis (taking into account federal, state and local income and employment taxes and the Excise Tax), than if Executive received the entire amount of such Total Payments in accordance with their existing terms (taking into account federal, state, and local income and employment taxes and the Excise Tax). For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Safe Harbor Amount" means the largest portion of the Total Payments that would result in no portion of the Total Payments being subject to the Excise Tax. To effectuate the foregoing, the Company shall reduce or eliminate the Total Payments by first reducing or eliminating the portion of the Total Payments which are payable in cash and then by reducing or eliminating non-cash payments, in each case, starting with the payments to be made farthest in time from the Determination (as defined below).

(b) The determination of whether the Total Payments shall be reduced as provided in Section 8(a) and the amount of such reduction shall be made at the Company's expense by an accounting firm selected by Company from among the 10 largest accounting firms in the United States or by qualified independent tax counsel (the "Determining Party"); provided, that Executive shall be given advance notice of the Determining Party selected by the Company, and shall have the opportunity to reject the selection, within two business days of being notified of the selection, on the basis of that Determining Party's having a conflict of interest or other reasonable basis, in which case the Company shall select an alternative firm among the 10 largest accounting firms in the United States or alternative independent qualified tax counsel, which shall become the Determining Party. Such Determining Party shall provide its determination (the "Determination"), together with detailed supporting calculations and documentation to the Company and Executive, within 10 business days of the termination of Executive's employment or at such other time mutually agreed by the Company and Executive. If the Determining Party determines that no Excise Tax is payable by Executive with respect to the Total Payments, it shall furnish Executive with an opinion reasonably acceptable to Executive that no Excise Tax will be imposed with respect to any such payments and, absent manifest error, such Determination shall be binding, final and conclusive upon the Company and Executive. If the Determining Party determines that an Excise Tax would be payable, the Company shall have the right to accept the Determination as to the extent of the reduction, if any, pursuant to Section 8(a), or to have such Determination reviewed by another accounting firm selected by the Company, at the Company's expense. If the two accounting firms do not agree, a third accounting firm shall be jointly chosen by Executive and the Company, in which case the determination of such third accounting firm shall be binding, final and conclusive upon the Company and Executive.

(c) If, notwithstanding any reduction described in this Section 8, the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") determines that Executive is liable for the Excise Tax as a result of the receipt of any of the Total Payments or otherwise, then Executive shall be obligated to pay back to the Company, within 30 calendar days after a final IRS determination or in the event that Executive challenges the final IRS determination, a final judicial determination, a portion of the Total Payments equal to the "Repayment Amount". The "Repayment Amount" with respect to the payment of benefits shall be the smallest such amount, if any, as shall be required to be paid to the Company so that Executive's net after-tax proceeds with respect to the Total Payments (after taking into account the payment of the Excise Tax and all other applicable taxes imposed on the Total Payments) shall be maximized. The Repayment Amount shall be zero if a Repayment Amount of more than zero would not result in Executive's net after-tax proceeds with respect to the Total Payments being maximized. If the Excise Tax is not eliminated pursuant to this Section 8, Executive shall pay the Excise Tax.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 8, if (i) there is a reduction in the Total Payments as described in this Section 8, (ii) the IRS later determines that Executive is liable for the Excise Tax, the payment of which would result in the maximization of Executive's net after-tax proceeds (calculated as if Executive's benefits had not previously been reduced), and (iii) Executive pays the Excise Tax, then the Company shall pay to Executive those payments or benefits which were reduced pursuant to this Section 8 as soon as administratively possible after Executive pays the Excise Tax (but not later than March 15 following the calendar year of the IRS determination) so that Executive's net after-tax proceeds with respect to the Total Payments are maximized.

(e) If, following a reduction of the Total Payments pursuant to Section 8(a), the Determining Party or a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the Total Payments were reduced to a greater extent than required under Section 8, then the Company shall as soon as administratively possible (but not later than by March 15 following the calendar year of such determination) pay the amount of such excess reduction to or for the benefit of Executive, together with interest at the applicable federal rate (as defined in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code), from the date the amount would have otherwise been paid to Executive until the payment date.

(f) To the extent requested by Executive, the Company shall cooperate with Executive in good faith in valuing, and the Determining Party shall take into account the value of, services provided or to be provided by Executive (including, without limitation, Executive's agreeing to refrain from performing services pursuant to a covenant not to compete or similar covenant, before, on or after the date of a change in ownership or control of the Company (within the meaning of Q&A-2(b) of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code), such that payments in respect of such services may be considered reasonable compensation within the meaning of Q&A-9 and Q&A-40 to Q&A-44 of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code and/or exempt from the definition of the term "parachute payment" within the meaning of Q&A-2(a) of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code in accordance with Q&A-5(a) of the final regulations under Section 280G of the Code.

9. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of his obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants or any court order or other legal obligation that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder, any and all of which are superseded by this Agreement. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

10. Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify the Executive to the maximum extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. At the request of the Executive, and subject to the approval of the Board (excluding the Executive), the Company shall enter into an indemnification agreement with the Executive on terms at least as favorable in each respect to the Executive as the terms of any other indemnification agreement between the Company and any other director or officer of the Company. The Executive agrees to promptly notify the Company of any actual or threatened claim arising out of or as a result of his employment or other service with the Company or any of its affiliates (or the termination thereof).

11. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

12. Assignment. Neither the Company nor the Executive may make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other; provided, however, that the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter effect a reorganization, consolidate with, or merge into, any person or entity, transfer a substantial majority of its properties or assets to any person or entity, or engage in a similar transaction with any person or entity. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, and their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

13. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

14. Amendment and Waiver. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and the Company. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach. No waiver by either of the parties of any breach by the other party hereto of any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by the other party hereto shall be deemed a waiver of any similar or dissimilar provision or condition at the same or any prior or subsequent time.

15. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed:

(a) if to the Executive, at his last known address on the books of the Company, with a copy to Feinberg Hanson LLP, 855 Boylston Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02116, attention: David H. Feinberg; and

(b) if to the Company, at its principal place of business, attention, Secretary, with a copy to Foley Hoag LLP, Seaport West, 155 Seaport Boulevard, Boston, Massachusetts 02210, attention: Erica Rice; or

(c) to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment and the subject matter hereof.

17. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

18. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement, by electronic mail in portable document format (.pdf) or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, has the same effect as delivery of an executed original of this Agreement.

19. Governing Law; Venue; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. This Agreement, the rights of the parties and all claims, actions, causes of action, suits, litigation, controversies, hearings, charges, complaints or proceedings arising in whole or in part under or in connection herewith, will be governed by and construed in accordance with the domestic substantive laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction. Both the Executive and the Company agree to appear before and submit exclusively to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York with respect to any controversy, dispute, or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Executive's employment or service with the Company or any of its affiliates (or the termination thereof), or if such controversy, dispute or claim may not be brought in federal court, to the state courts located in New York, New York and, in each case, the applicable courts of appeals of such court. Both the Executive and the Company also agree to waive, to the fullest possible extent, the defense of an inconvenient forum or lack of jurisdiction. The Executive further consents to service of process in the State of New York. THE COMPANY AND THE EXECUTIVE HEREBY WAIVE, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LITIGATION IN ANY COURT WITH RESPECT TO, IN CONNECTION WITH, OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE EXECUTIVE'S EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICE WITH THE COMPANY OR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES (OR THE TERMINATION THEREOF), OR THE VALIDITY, PROTECTION, INTERPRETATION, COLLECTION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT (WHETHER ARISING IN CONTRACT, EQUITY, TORT OR OTHERWISE).

20. Code Section 409A Compliance. This Agreement is intended to comply with Code Section 409A (to the extent applicable) and the parties hereto agree to interpret this Agreement in the least restrictive manner necessary to comply therewith and without resulting in any increase in the amounts owed hereunder by the Company. To the maximum extent possible, any severance owed under this Agreement shall be construed to fit within the "short-term deferral rule" under Code Section 409A and/or the "two times two year" involuntary separation pay exception under Code Section 409A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Executive is a "specified employee" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and the regulations issued thereunder, and a payment or benefit provided for in this Agreement would be subject to additional tax under Code Section 409A if such payment or benefit is paid within six (6) months after the Executive's "separation from service" (within the meaning of Code Section 409A), then such payment or benefit required under this Agreement (i) shall not be paid (or commence) during the six-month period immediately following the Executive's separation from service and (ii) shall instead be paid to the Executive in a lump-sum cash payment on the earlier of (A) the first regular payroll date of the seventh month following the Executive's separation from service or (B) the 10th business day following the Executive's death (but not earlier than such payment would have been made absent such death). If the Executive's termination of employment hereunder does not constitute a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A, then any amounts payable hereunder on account of a termination of the Executive's employment and which are subject to Code Section 409A shall not be paid until the Executive has experienced a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A. In addition, no reimbursement or in-kind benefit shall be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit and the amount available for reimbursement, or in-kind benefits provided, during any calendar year shall not affect the amount available for reimbursement, or in-kind benefits to be provided, in a subsequent calendar year. Any reimbursement to which the Executive is entitled hereunder shall be made no later than the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such expenses were incurred. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, neither the Company nor any of its affiliates shall have any liability to the Executive or to any other person or entity if this Agreement is, or if the payments and benefits provided in this Agreement that are intended to be exempt from or compliant with Code Section 409A are, not so exempt or compliant. Each payment payable hereunder shall be treated as a separate payment in a series of payments within the meaning of, and for purposes of, Code Section 409A.

MOCA, LLC
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND 2019

March 24, 2021

MOCA, LLC
Chicago, Illinois

Independent Auditor's Report

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of MOCA, LLC (the Company) (an Illinois corporation), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the related statements of income, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the United States of America, together with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with those requirements, respectively.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for evaluating whether there are conditions and events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the entity's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued, and for disclosing, as applicable, matters related to this evaluation unless the liquidation basis of accounting is being used by the entity.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but it is not a guarantee that an audit will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. We design audit procedures responsive to those risks and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error because fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.

Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation, structure, and content of the financial statements, including disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

As part of an audit, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting, and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether substantial doubt exists related to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that substantial doubt exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of MOCA, LLC as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter – Cannabis Laws

As discussed in Note 8 to the financial statements, the Company operates in the cannabis industry which is legal in the state of Illinois but illegal under United States federal law. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these financial statements

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

(a) Business Description

MOCA, LLC (the "Company") owns and operates two dispensaries in Chicago, Illinois. The Logan Square location opened in 2016 and sells both medical and recreational cannabis. The River North location, which opened in 2020, sells recreational cannabis.

On August 1, 2020, the Company entered into an agreement with Ascend Illinois, LLC to sell its membership units for total consideration of approximately $22,311,000 consisting of $21,173,806 in cash, including working capital adjustments, and 8,125 common units of Ascend Wellness Holdings, LLC.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and reflect the accounts and operations of the Company.

(b) Revenue

Revenue is recognized at the point of sale, at which time title and risk of loss pass to the customers. The Company has customer loyalty programs in which retail customers accumulate points for each dollar of spending. These points are recorded as a contract liability until customers redeem their points for discounts on cannabis and vape products as part of an in-store sales transaction.

(c) Cash

Cash include cash deposits in financial institutions and other deposits that are readily convertible to cash. The Company considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At times cash may be in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) limits.

(d) Accounts Receivables

Accounts receivable represents payments owed from third party payments processors. Account balances are charged off against the allowance when the Company believes it is probable the receivable will not be recovered. As of December 31, 2020 and 2019, the Company did not have an allowance for doubtful accounts.

(e) Inventories

Inventories consist of cannabis and non-cannabis products that are valued at cost and subsequently at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Net realizable value is determined as the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. Cost is determined using the weighted average cost basis. The Company reviews its inventories for obsolete, redundant and slow-moving goods and any such inventories are written down to net realizable value. There were no reserves for obsolete inventories as of December 31, 2020 and 2019.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(f) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Expenditures that materially increase the life of the assets are capitalized. Ordinary repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the asset using the following terms and methods:

Furniture and Fixtures	7 Years
Equipment	5-7 Years
Leasehold Improvements	Remaining Life of Lease of Useful Life

The assets' residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation are reviewed at each financial statement year-end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate. An item of equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying value of the asset) is included in operations in the year the asset is derecognized.

(g) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company accounts for its long-lived assets such as property and equipment and intangible assets in accordance with FASB ASC Topic No. 360, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-lived Assets" ("ASC 360").

Management reviews long-lived assets for impairment whenever changes in events or circumstances indicate the assets may be impaired, but no less frequently than annually. Pursuant to ASC 360, an impairment loss is to be recorded when the net book value of an asset exceeds the undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated from the use of the asset. If an asset is determined to be impaired, the asset is written down to its realizable value, and the loss is recognized in the statement of income in the period when the determination is made. No impairment charges for long-lived assets have been recorded for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

(h) Leased Assets

A lease of property and equipment is classified as a capital lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and awards incidental to ownership to the Company. A lease of property and equipment is classified as an operating lease whenever the terms of the lease do not transfer substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. Lease payments are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term, except where another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern in which the economic benefits are consumed.

(i) Income Taxes

Income tax expense consisting of current and deferred tax expense is recognized in the Statements of Income based on the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at year end.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities and the related deferred income tax expense or recovery, if any, are recognized for deferred tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the enacted or substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply when the asset is realized, or the liability settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that substantive enactment occurs.

The Company is subject to U.S. Internal Revenue Code Section 280E. The section disallows deductions and credits attributable to a trade or business of trafficking in controlled substances. Under U.S. law marijuana is a Schedule I controlled substance. The Company has taken the position that any costs included in the cost of goods sold should not be treated as amounts subject to the Section 280E expense disallowance.

There are no positions for which it is reasonably possible that the uncertain tax benefit will significantly increase or decrease within twelve months. The Company files income tax returns in the United States and Illinois. The federal statute of limitation remains open for the 2017 tax year to the present. The state income tax returns generally remain open for the 2017 tax year through the present.

(j) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company applies fair value accounting for all financial assets and liabilities and non-financial assets and liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis. The Company defines fair value as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. When determining the fair value measurements for assets and liabilities that are required to be recorded at fair value, the Company considers the principal or most advantageous market in which the Company would transact and the market-based risk measurements or assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, such as risks inherent in valuation techniques, transfer restrictions and credit risk. Fair value is estimated by applying the following hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value into three levels and bases the categorization within the hierarchy upon the lowest level of input that is available and significant to the fair value measurement:

Level 1 – Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 – Observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 – Inputs that are generally unobservable and typically reflect management’s estimate of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

There were no transfers between levels during the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

(k) Significant Accounting Judgments, Estimates, and Assumptions

The preparation of the Company's financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and revenue and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Significant estimates inherent in the preparation of the Company's financial statements include the assumptions related to the estimated useful lives for property and equipment.

The novel coronavirus commonly referred to as "COVID-19" was identified in December 2019 in Wuhan, China. On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak a global health emergency, and on March 11, 2020, the spread of COVID-19 was declared a pandemic by the World Health Organization. On March 13, 2020, the spread of COVID-19 was declared a national emergency by President Donald Trump. The outbreak has spread throughout Europe, the Middle East and North America, causing companies and various international jurisdictions to impose restrictions such as quarantines, business closures and travel restrictions.

While these effects are expected to be temporary, the duration of the business disruptions and related financial impact cannot reasonably be estimated at this time. In addition, it is possible that estimates in the Company's financial statements will change in the near term as a result of COVID-19 and the effect of any such changes could be material, which could result in, among other things, impairment of long-lived assets including intangibles and goodwill. The Company is closely monitoring the impact of the pandemic on all aspects of its business.

(l) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

(i) The FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, (Topic 606) (ASU 2014-09), in May 2014. ASU 2014-09 sets forth a new five-step revenue recognition model that will require the use of more estimates and judgment. ASU 2014-09 will replace current revenue recognition requirements in Topic 605, Revenue Recognition, in its entirety. The standard also requires more detailed disclosures and provides additional guidance for transactions that were not addressed completely in prior accounting guidance. ASU 2014-09 is effective for annual financial statements of private companies issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, and should be applied retrospectively in the year the ASU is first applied using one of two allowable application methods. The Company has adopted this ASU as of January 1, 2019. The impact of the new standard on the financial statements was not significant.

(ii) In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) ("ASC 842"), which will replace ASC 840, "Leases". This standard introduces a single lessee accounting model and requires a lessee to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases with a term of more than twelve months unless the underlying asset is of low value. A lessee is required to recognize a right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset and a lease liability representing its obligation to make lease payments. For private companies, the standard will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after December 15 2021, with earlier application permitted. The standard requires a modified retrospective approach for leases that exist or are entered into after the beginning of the earliest comparative period in the financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating the effect of adopting this ASU on the Company's financial statements.

(iii) In June 2016, the FASB issued ASC 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326), Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments. ASU 2016-13 requires entities to measure all expected credit losses for most financial assets held at the reporting date based on an expected loss model which includes historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. Companies will now use forward-looking information to better form their credit loss estimates. ASU 2016-13 also requires enhanced disclosures to help financial statement users better understand significant estimates and judgements used in estimating credit losses, as well as the credit quality and underwriting standards of a company's portfolio. For private companies, ASU 2016-13 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2022. The Company does not believe that the impact of the new standard on its financial statements will be material.

(iv) In December 2019, the FASB issued ASU 2019-12, Income Taxes (Topic 740) - Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes, which is intended to simplify various aspects related to accounting for income taxes. ASU 2019-12 removes certain exceptions to the general principles in Topic 740 and also clarifies and amends existing guidance to improve consistent application. For private companies, ASU 2019-12 is effective for annual periods beginning and after December 15, 2021. The Company is currently evaluating the effect of adopting this ASU on the Company's financial statements.

(v) In October 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-17, Targeted improvements to related party guidance for variable interest entities which amended the Consolidation topic (Topic 810) of the Accounting Standards Codification. Under the amended guidance, a nonpublic entity has the option to exempt itself from applying the variable interest entity (VIE) consolidation model to qualifying common control arrangements. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2020, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2021, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the amended guidance and elected to exempt itself from applying the VIE consolidation model to qualifying common control arrangements in 2019.

Effective February 1, 2019, MOCA, LLC elected to be treated as a C Corporation for federal income tax purposes. Members' equity is comprised of one class of units, as described in the Company's applicable operating agreement.

6. INCOME TAXES

Provision for income taxes consists of the following for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019:

	2020	2019
Current Taxes
Federal	$ 2,170,954	$ 743,794
Total income tax expense	$ 3,153,053	$ 1,052,222

Effective February 1, 2019, the Company elected to be treated as a C Corporation for Federal income tax purposes.

As the Company operates in the cannabis industry, it is subject to the limitations of IRC Section 280E under which the Company is only allowed to deduct expenses directly related to sales of product. This results in permanent differences between ordinary and necessary business expenses deemed non-allowable under IRC Section 280E. Therefore, the effective tax rate can be highly variable and may not necessarily correlate with pre-tax income or loss. The Company has not identified any uncertain tax positions as of December 31, 2020.

7. LEASE COMMITMENTS

The Company leases certain business facilities from third parties under operating lease agreements that specify minimum rentals. The leases expire through 2029 and contain renewal provisions. Additionally, certain leases provide for rent abatement and escalating payments, and rent expense is calculated on straight-line basis over the terms of the leases with the incentives reported as deferred rent. The Company's net rent expense for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019 was $1,043,722 and $113,912, respectively.

Future minimum lease payments under non-cancelable operating leases having an initial or remaining term of more than one year are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	Total
2021	$ 817,995
2022	835,078
2023	852,522
2024	870,333
2025	767,914
2026 and Thereafter	3,063,456

8. CONTINGENCIES

The Company is subject to lawsuits, investigations and other claims related to employment, commercial and other matters that arise out of operations in the normal course of business. Periodically, the Company reviews the status of each significant matter and assesses the potential financial exposure. If the potential loss from any claim or legal proceeding is considered probable, and the amount can be reliably estimated, such amount is recognized in other liabilities.

Contingent liabilities are measured at management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting period and are discounted to present value where the effect is material. The Company performs evaluations to identify onerous contracts and, where applicable, records contingent liabilities for such contracts.

The Company engages in the marijuana business. Marijuana is currently illegal under U.S. federal law. It is a Schedule I controlled substance The Company's operations are subject to a variety of local and state regulation. Failure to comply with one or more of those regulations could result in fines, restrictions on its operations, or losses of permits that could result in the Company ceasing operations. While management of the Company believes that the Company is in compliance with applicable local and state regulation as of December 31, 2020, marijuana regulations continue to evolve and are subject to differing interpretations. As a result, the Company may be subject to regulatory fines, penalties or restrictions in the future.

As discussed above, the cultivation, sale, and use of marijuana is illegal under U.S. federal law. Therefore, there is a compelling argument that banks cannot accept deposit funds from the medical marijuana business and therefore would not be able to do business with the Company. As such, the Company may have trouble finding a bank willing to accept its business. There can be no assurance that banks in U.S. states currently or in the future will decide to do business with medical marijuana growers or retailers, or that in the absence of U.S. legislation, U.S. state and federal banking regulators will not strictly enforce current prohibitions on banks handling funds generated from an activity that is illegal under U.S. federal law. This may make it difficult for the Company to open accounts, use the service of banks, and otherwise transact business, which in turn may negatively affect the Company.

9. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated significant events or transactions that have occurred since the balance sheet date and through the date the financial statements were available to be issued. Management has determined that no events or transactions have occurred subsequent to the balance sheet date that require additional disclosure in the financial statements or notes.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

This management discussion and analysis, which we refer to as the "MD&A", of the financial condition and results of operations of MOCA, LLC (the "Company") is for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019. It is supplemental to, and should be read in conjunction with, the financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the accompanying notes thereto (the "Annual Financial Statements"). The Annual Financial Statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which we refer to as "GAAP".

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by, the Annual Financial Statements and the accompanying notes thereto. In addition to historical information, the discussion in this section contains forward-looking statements and forward-looking information (collectively, forward-looking information") that involve risks and uncertainties. Generally, forward-looking information may be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "plans," "expects," "does not expect," "proposed," "is expected," "budgets," "scheduled," "estimates," "forecasts," "intends," "anticipates," "does not anticipate," "believes," or variations of such words and phrases, or by the use of words or phrases which state that certain actions, events, or results may, could, would, or might occur or be achieved. There can be no assurance that such forward-looking information will prove to be accurate, and actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking information. Forward-looking information is subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that may cause the actual results, level of activity, performance, or achievements of the Company to be materially different from those or implied by such forward-looking information. Such risks and other factors may include, but are not limited to: general business, economic, competitive, political and social uncertainties; general capital market conditions and market prices for securities; delay or failure to receive board or regulatory approvals; the actual results of future operations; operating and development costs; competition; changes in legislation or regulations affecting the Company; the timing and availability of external financing on acceptable terms; favorable production levels and outputs; the stability of pricing of cannabis products; the level of demand for cannabis product; the availability of third-party service providers and other inputs for the Company's operations; and lack of qualified, skilled labor or loss of key individuals. Although the Company has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in forward-looking information, including those set forth under the "Risk Factors" section and elsewhere in this Prospectus, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. Readers are cautioned that the foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. Readers are further cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking information as there can be no assurance that the plans, intentions or expectations upon which they are placed will occur. Forward-looking information contained in this MD&A is expressly qualified by this cautionary statement.

Financial information presented in this MD&A is presented in thousands of United States dollars ("$"), unless otherwise indicated. We round amounts in this MD&A to the thousands and calculate all percentages and per-share data from the underlying whole-dollar amounts. Thus, certain amounts may not foot, crossfoot, or recalculate based on reported numbers due to rounding. Unless otherwise indicated, all references to years are to our fiscal year, which ends on December 31.

This MD&A was prepared by management of the Company and is dated and presented as of March 26, 2021.

Net Income	$ 1,089,533	$ 1,230,790

Revenue

Revenue for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $21,626,283, compared to $7,863,660 in 2019, primarily driven by growth in our retail business, legalization of adult use cannabis in Illinois, and the opening of our second location.

Cost of Goods Sold

Cost of goods sold for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $11,288,403, compared to $4,119,717 in 2019, driven by growth in our retail business, legalization of adult use cannabis in Illinois, and the opening of our second location. Cost of goods sold represents the direct costs for product sold.

Gross Profit

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $6,095,294, compared to $1,460,926 in 2019. The increase of $4,634,368 was primarily driven by an increase of $2,260,838 related to payroll, an increase of $929,810 related to rent, an increase of $115,824 related to professional services, an increase of $229,512 related to marketing expenses, and an increase of $101,415 related to insurance expenses, all due to the Company’s expansion of operations during 2020.

Compensation Expense

Compensation expense for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $3,051,289, compared to $790,451 in 2019, primarily driven by the hiring of personnel to support the expansion of operations during 2020.

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation and amortization for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $175,787, compared to $56,435 in 2019. The increase was attributable to amortization of the Company’s intangible assets and depreciation on capital assets during 2020.

Income Tax Expense

Since the Company operates in the cannabis industry, it is subject to the limitations of Section 280E of the Code, which prohibits businesses engaged in the trafficking of Schedule I or Schedule II controlled substances from deducting normal business expenses, such as payroll and rent, from gross profit (revenue less cost of goods sold). Section 280E was originally intended to penalize criminal market operators, but because cannabis remains a Schedule I controlled substance for federal purposes, the IRS has subsequently applied Section 280E to state legal cannabis businesses. Cannabis businesses operating in states that align their tax codes with the IRC are also unable to deduct normal business expenses from their state taxes. This results in permanent differences between ordinary and necessary business expenses deemed non-deductible under IRC Section 280E. Therefore, the effective tax rate can be highly variable and may not necessarily correlate with pre-tax income or loss, primarily driven by non-deductible expense.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our primary source of liquidity is operating cash flows. We are generating cash from sales and deploying our capital reserves to acquire and develop assets capable of producing additional revenue and earnings over both the immediate and long term..

Financing History and Future Capital Requirements

To date, we have used private financing as a source of liquidity for short-term working capital needs and general corporate purposes. Our future ability to fund operations, to make planned capital expenditures, to acquire other entities or investments, and to repay or refinance indebtedness depends on our future operating performance, cash flows, and ability to obtain equity or debt financing, which are subject to prevailing economic conditions, as well as financial, business, and other factors, some of which are beyond our control.

As of December 31, 2020, and 2019, the Company had total current liabilities of $2,083,365 and $57,500, respectively, and cash of $2,470,457 and $415,950, respectively, to meet its current obligations. As of December 31, 2020, the Company had working capital of $1,953,719, an increase of $1,108,804 as compared to December 31, 2019, driven primarily by investments in inventory and notes receivable during 2020.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires our management to make certain estimates that affect the reported amounts. The Company's significant accounting policies are described in Note 2, "Summary of Significant Accounting Policies," in the Annual Financial Statements. The Company bases estimates on historical experience, known or expected trends, independent valuations, and various other assumptions that the Company believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. The Company believes the following critical accounting policies govern the more significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of the Annual Financial Statements: estimated useful lives for property and equipment.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The following GAAP standards have been recently issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB"). We are assessing the impact of these new standards on future financial statements. Pronouncements that are not applicable to the Company or where it has been determined do not have a significant impact on us have been excluded herein.

The FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, (Topic 606) (ASU 2014-09), in May 2014. ASU 2014-09 sets forth a new five-step revenue recognition model that will require the use of more estimates and judgment. ASU 2014-09 will replace current revenue recognition requirements in Topic 605, Revenue Recognition, in its entirety. The standard also requires more detailed disclosures and provides additional guidance for transactions that were not addressed completely in prior accounting guidance. ASU 2014-09 is effective for annual financial statements of private companies issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, and should be applied retrospectively in the year the ASU is first applied using one of two allowable application methods. The Company has adopted this ASU as of January 1, 2019. The impact of the new standard on the financial statements was not significant.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) ("ASC 842"), which will replace ASC 840, "Leases". This standard introduces a single lessee accounting model and requires a lessee to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases with a term of more than twelve months unless the underlying asset is of low value. A lessee is required to recognize a right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset and a lease liability representing its obligation to make lease payments. For private companies, the standard will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after December 15, 2021, with earlier application permitted. The standard requires a modified retrospective approach for leases that exist or are entered into after the beginning of the earliest comparative period in the financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating the effect of adopting this ASU on the Company's financial statements.

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASC 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326), Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments. ASU 2016-13 requires entities to measure all expected credit losses for most financial assets held at the reporting date based on an expected loss model which includes historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. Companies will now use forward-looking information to better form their credit loss estimates. ASU 2016-13 also requires enhanced disclosures to help financial statement users better understand significant estimates and judgements used in estimating credit losses, as well as the credit quality and underwriting standards of a company's portfolio. For private companies, ASU 2016-13 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2022. The Company does not believe that the impact of the new standard on its financial statements will be material.

In December 2019, the FASB issued ASU 2019-12, Income Taxes (Topic 740) - Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes, which is intended to simplify various aspects related to accounting for income taxes. ASU 2019-12 removes certain exceptions to the general principles in Topic 740 and also clarifies and amends existing guidance to improve consistent application. For private companies, ASU 2019-12 is effective for annual periods beginning and after December 15, 2021. The Company is currently evaluating the effect of adopting this ASU on the Company's financial statements.

In October 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-17, Targeted improvements to related party guidance for variable interest entities which amended the Consolidation topic (Topic 810) of the Accounting Standards Codification. Under the amended guidance, a nonpublic entity has the option to exempt itself from applying the variable interest entity (VIE) consolidation model to qualifying common control arrangements. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2020, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2021, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the amended guidance and elected to exempt itself from applying the VIE consolidation model to qualifying common control arrangements in 2019.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We are exposed in varying degrees to a variety of financial instrument related risks. The Company mitigates these risks by assessing, monitoring and approving our risk management processes.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of a potential loss to us if a customer or third party to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The maximum credit exposure at December 31, 2020 is the carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents. We do not have significant credit risk with respect to our customers. All cash and cash equivalents are placed with major U.S. financial institutions.

We provide credit to our customers in the normal course of business. We have established credit evaluation and monitoring processes to mitigate credit risk but have limited risk as the majority of our sales are transacted with cash.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that we will not be able to meet our financial obligations associated with financial liabilities. We manage liquidity risk through the effective management of our capital structure. Our approach to managing liquidity is to ensure that we will have sufficient liquidity at all times to settle obligations and liabilities when due.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of loss arising from adverse changes in market rates and prices, such as interest rates, raw materials, and other commodity prices. Strategic and operational risks may arise if we fail to carry out business operations and/or raise sufficient equity and/or debt financing. Strategic opportunities or threats may arise from a range of factors that might include changing economic and political circumstances and regulatory approvals and competitor actions. We seek to mitigate such risks by consideration of potential development opportunities and challenges.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Cash and cash equivalents bear interest at market rates. Our financial debts have fixed rates of interest and therefore expose us to a limited interest rate fair value risk.

Commodities Price Risk

Price risk is the risk of variability in fair value due to movements in equity or market prices. The primary raw materials used by us aside from those cultivated internally are labels and packaging. Management believes a hypothetical 10% change in the price of these materials would not have a significant effect on our annual results of operations or cash flows, as these costs are generally passed through to our customers. However, such an increase could have an impact on our customers' demand for our products, and we are not able to quantify the impact of such potential change in demand on our annual results of operations or cash flows.

COVID-19 Risk

We are monitoring COVID-19 closely, and although our operations have not been materially affected by the COVID-19 outbreak to date, the ultimate severity of the outbreak and its impact on the economic environment is uncertain. Our operations are ongoing as the cultivation, processing and sale of cannabis products is currently considered an essential business by the states in which we operate with respect to all customers (except for Massachusetts, where cannabis has been deemed essential only for medical patients). In all locations where regulations have been enabled by governmental authorities, we have expanded consumer delivery options and curbside pickup to help protect the health and safety of our employees and customers. The pandemic has not materially impacted our business operations or liquidity position to date. We continue to generate operating cash flows to meet our short-term liquidity needs. The uncertain nature of the spread of COVID-19 may impact our business operations for reasons including the potential quarantine of our employees or those of our supply chain partners or a change in our designation as "essential" in states where we do business that currently or in the future impose restrictions on business operations.

Independent Auditor's Report

Report on the Audit of the Combined Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying combined financial statements of Chicago Alternative Health Center Holdings, LLC and Affiliate (the Company) (an Illinois corporation), which comprise the combined balance sheets as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the related combined statements of income, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the combined financial statements.

We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audits of the combined financial statements in the United States of America, together with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with those requirements, respectively.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Combined Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these combined financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of combined financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In preparing the combined financial statements, management is responsible for evaluating whether there are conditions and events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the entity's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the combined financial statements are available to be issued, and for disclosing, as applicable, matters related to this evaluation unless the liquidation basis of accounting is being used by the entity.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but it is not a guarantee that an audit will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these combined financial statements.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the combined financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the combined financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. We design audit procedures responsive to those risks and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error because fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the combined financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.

Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation, structure, and content of the combined financial statements, including disclosures, and whether the combined financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation. We will also obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the combined financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

As part of an audit, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting, and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether substantial doubt exists related to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that substantial doubt exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the combined financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the combined financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter – Cannabis Laws

As discussed in Note 8 to the combined financial statements, the Company operates in the cannabis industry which is legal in the state of Illinois but illegal under the United States federal law. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

(a) Business Description

Chicago Alternative Health Center, LLC owns and operates a dispensary in Chicago, Illinois that sells both medical and recreational cannabis. Chicago Alternative Health Center Holdings, LLC is a real estate holding company. Chicago Alternative Health Center, LLC and Chicago Alternative Health Center Holdings, LLC are referred to collectively as the "Company."

On December 15, 2020, the Company entered into an agreement with Ascend Illinois, LLC to sell its membership units for consideration of approximately $28,000,000.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of Accounting

The accompanying combined financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and reflect the accounts and operations of the Company.

(b) Basis of Combination

Affiliates are entities controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly and indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity and be exposed to the variable returns from its activities. The financial statements of affiliates are included in the combined financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases.

The combined financial statements include the accounts of Chicago Alternative Health Center Holdings, LLC and Chicago Alternative Health Center, LLC. These companies are controlled by common owners and management.

(c) Revenue

Revenue is recognized at the point of sale, at which time title and risk of loss pass to the customers. The Company has customer loyalty programs in which retail customers accumulate points for each dollar of spending. These points are recorded as a contract liability until customers redeem their points for discounts on cannabis and vape products as part of an in-store sales transaction.

(d) Cash

Cash includes cash deposits in financial institutions and other deposits that are readily convertible to cash. The Company considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At times cash may be in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) limits.

(e) Inventories

Inventories consist of cannabis and non-cannabis products that are valued at cost and subsequently at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Net realizable value is determined as the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. Cost is determined using the weighted average cost basis. The Company reviews its inventories for obsolete, redundant and slow-moving goods and any such inventories are written down to net realizable value. There were no reserves for obsolete inventories as of December 31, 2020 and 2019.

(f) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Expenditures that materially increase the life of the assets are capitalized. Ordinary repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the asset using the following terms and methods:

Furniture and Fixtures	7 Years
Leasehold Improvements	Remaining Life of Lease or Useful Life

The assets' residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation are reviewed at each financial statement year-end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate. An item of equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying value of the asset) is included in operations in the year the asset is derecognized.

(g) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company accounts for its long-lived assets such as property and equipment and intangible assets in accordance with FASB ASC Topic No. 360, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-lived Assets" ("ASC 360").

Management reviews long-lived assets for impairment whenever changes in events or circumstances indicate the assets may be impaired, but no less frequently than annually. Pursuant to ASC 360, an impairment loss is to be recorded when the net book value of an asset exceeds the undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated from the use of the asset. If an asset is determined to be impaired, the asset is written down to its realizable value, and the loss is recognized in the statement of income in the period when the determination is made. No impairment charges for long-lived assets have been recorded for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

(h) Income Taxes

Income tax expense consisting of current and deferred tax expense is recognized in the combined statements of income based on the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at year end.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities and the related deferred income tax expense or recovery, if any, are recognized for deferred tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the enacted or substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply when the asset is realized, or the liability settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that substantive enactment occurs.

The Company is subject to U.S. Internal Revenue Code Section 280E. The section disallows deductions and credits attributable to a trade or business of trafficking in controlled substances. Under U.S. law marijuana is a Schedule I controlled substance. The Company has taken the position that any costs included in the cost of goods sold should not be treated as amounts subject to the Section 280E expense disallowance.

There are no positions for which it is reasonably possible that the uncertain tax benefit will significantly increase or decrease within twelve months. The Company files income tax returns in the United States and Illinois. The federal statute of limitation remains open for the 2017 tax year to the present. The state income tax returns generally remain open for the 2017 tax year through the present.

(i) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company applies fair value accounting for all financial assets and liabilities and non-financial assets and liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the combined financial statements on a recurring basis. The Company defines fair value as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. When determining the fair value measurements for assets and liabilities that are required to be recorded at fair value, the Company considers the principal or most advantageous market in which the Company would transact and the market-based risk measurements or assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, such as risks inherent in valuation techniques, transfer restrictions and credit risk. Fair value is estimated by applying the following hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value into three levels and bases the categorization within the hierarchy upon the lowest level of input that is available and significant to the fair value measurement:

Level 1 – Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 – Observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 – Inputs that are generally unobservable and typically reflect management’s estimate of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

There were no transfers between levels during the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(j) Significant Accounting Judgments, Estimates, and Assumptions

The preparation of the Company's combined financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and revenue and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Significant estimates inherent in the preparation of the Company's combined financial statements include the assumptions related to the estimated useful lives for property and equipment.

The novel coronavirus commonly referred to as "COVID-19" was identified in December 2019 in Wuhan, China. On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak a global health emergency, and on March 11, 2020, the spread of COVID-19 was declared a pandemic by the World Health Organization. On March 13, 2020, the spread of COVID-19 was declared a national emergency by President Donald Trump. The outbreak has spread throughout Europe, the Middle East and North America, causing companies and various international jurisdictions to impose restrictions such as quarantines, business closures and travel restrictions.

While these effects are expected to be temporary, the duration of the business disruptions and related financial impact cannot reasonably be estimated at this time. In addition, it is possible that estimates in the Company's combined financial statements will change in the near term as a result of COVID-19 and the effect of any such changes could be material, which could result in, among other things, impairment of long-lived assets including intangibles and goodwill. The Company is closely monitoring the impact of the pandemic on all aspects of its business.

(k) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

(i) The FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, (Topic 606) (ASU 2014-09), in May 2014. ASU 2014-09 sets forth a new five-step revenue recognition model that will require the use of more estimates and judgment. ASU 2014-09 will replace current revenue recognition requirements in Topic 605, Revenue Recognition, in its entirety. The standard also requires more detailed disclosures and provides additional guidance for transactions that were not addressed completely in prior accounting guidance. ASU 2014-09 is effective for annual financial statements of private companies issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, and should be applied retrospectively in the year the ASU is first applied using one of two allowable application methods. The Company has adopted this ASU as of January 1, 2019. The impact of the new standard on the combined financial statements was not significant.

(ii) In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) ("ASC 842"), which will replace ASC 840, "Leases". This standard introduces a single lessee accounting model and requires a lessee to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases with a term of more than twelve months unless the underlying asset is of low value. A lessee is required to recognize a right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset and a lease liability representing its obligation to make lease payments. For private companies, the standard will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after December 15 2021, with earlier application permitted. The standard requires a modified retrospective approach for leases that exist or are entered into after the beginning of the earliest comparative period in the financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating the effect of adopting this ASU on the Company's combined financial statements.

(iii) In June 2016, the FASB issued ASC 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326), Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments. ASU 2016-13 requires entities to measure all expected credit losses for most financial assets held at the reporting date based on an expected loss model which includes historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. Companies will now use forward-looking information to better form their credit loss estimates. ASU 2016-13 also requires enhanced disclosures to help financial statement users better understand significant estimates and judgements used in estimating credit losses, as well as the credit quality and underwriting standards of a company's portfolio. For private companies, ASU 2016-13 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2022. The Company does not believe that the impact of the new standard on its combined financial statements will be material.

(iv) In December 2019, the FASB issued ASU 2019-12, Income Taxes (Topic 740) - Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes, which is intended to simplify various aspects related to accounting for income taxes. ASU 2019-12 removes certain exceptions to the general principles in Topic 740 and also clarifies and amends existing guidance to improve consistent application. For private companies, ASU 2019-12 is effective for annual periods beginning and after December 15, 2021. The Company is currently evaluating the effect of adopting this ASU on the Company's combined financial statements.

(v) In October 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-17, Targeted Improvements to Related Party guidance for variable interest entities which amended the Consolidation topic (Topic 810) of the Accounting Standards Codification. Under the amended guidance, a nonpublic entity has the option to exempt itself from applying the variable interest entity (VIE) consolidation model to qualifying common control arrangements. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2020, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2021, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the amended guidance and elected to exempt itself from applying the VIE consolidation model to qualifying common control arrangements in 2019.

3. INVENTORIES

The Company's inventories include the following at December 31, 2020 and 2019:

	2020	2019
Cannabis	$ 442,602	$ 220,985
Non-cannabis	5,172	4,662
Total Inventories	$ 447,774	$ 225,647

4. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

At December 31, 2020 and 2019, property and equipment consisted of:

	2020	2019
Furniture and Equipment	$ 42,993	$ 42,993
Building	2,074,593	1,211,389
Construction in Progress	—	328,363
Total Property and Equipment, Gross	2,117,586	1,582,745
Less: Accumulated Depreciation	(191,815)	(143,089)
Property and Equipment, Net	$ 1,925,771	$ 1,439,656

5. NOTES PAYABLE - MEMBERS

The Company had unsecured notes payable to members with original issuance amounts totaling of $2,040,787. The notes accrued interest ranging from 1% to 12%. All notes were paid off as of December 15, 2020 in connection with the asset sale (see Note 1).

6. MEMBERS' EQUITY

Effective December 15, 2020, the Company elected to be treated as a C Corporation for federal income tax purposes. Members' equity is comprised of one class of units, as described in the Company's applicable operating agreement.

7. INCOME TAXES

Provision for income taxes consists of the following for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019:

	2020	2019
Current Taxes
Federal	$ 58,041	$ —
State	$ 23,338	$ —
Total income tax expense	$ 81,379	$ —

Effective December 15, 2020, the Company elected to be treated as a C Corporation for Federal income tax purposes.

As the Company operates in the cannabis industry, it is subject to the limitations of IRC Section 280E under which the Company is only allowed to deduct expenses directly related to sales of product. This results in permanent differences between ordinary and necessary business expenses deemed non-allowable under IRC Section 280E. Therefore, the effective tax rate can be highly variable and may not necessarily correlate with pre-tax income or loss. The Company has not identified any uncertain tax positions as of December 31, 2020.

8. CONTINGENCIES

The Company is subject to lawsuits, investigations and other claims related to employment, commercial and other matters that arise out of operations in the normal course of business. Periodically, the Company reviews the status of each significant matter and assesses the potential financial exposure. If the potential loss from any claim or legal proceeding is considered probable, and the amount can be reliably estimated, such amount is recognized in other liabilities.

Contingent liabilities are measured at management’s best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting period and are discounted to present value where the effect is material. The Company performs evaluations to identify onerous contracts and, where applicable, records contingent liabilities for such contracts.

The Company engages in the marijuana business. Marijuana is currently illegal under U.S. federal law. It is a Schedule I controlled substance The Company’s operations are subject to a variety of local and state regulation. Failure to comply with one or more of those regulations could result in fines, restrictions on its operations, or losses of permits that could result in the Company ceasing operations. While management of the Company believes that the Company is in compliance with applicable local and state regulation as of December 31, 2020, marijuana regulations continue to evolve and are subject to differing interpretations. As a result, the Company may be subject to regulatory fines, penalties or restrictions in the future.

As discussed above, the cultivation, sale, and use of marijuana is illegal under U.S. federal law. Therefore, there is a compelling argument that banks cannot accept deposit funds from the medical marijuana business and therefore would not be able to do business with the Company. As such, the Company may have trouble finding a bank willing to accept its business. There can be no assurance that banks in U.S. states currently or in the future will decide to do business with medical marijuana growers or retailers, or that in the absence of U.S. legislation, U.S. state and federal banking regulators will not strictly enforce current prohibitions on banks handling funds generated from an activity that is illegal under U.S. federal law. This may make it difficult for the Company to open accounts, use the service of banks, and otherwise transact business, which in turn may negatively affect the Company.

9. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated significant events or transactions that have occurred since the combined balance sheet date and through the date the combined financial statements were available to be issued. Management has determined that no events or transactions have occurred subsequent to the combined balance sheet date that require additional disclosure in the combined financial statement or notes.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

This management discussion and analysis, which we refer to as the "MD&A", of the financial condition and results of operations of Chicago Alternative Health Center Holdings, LLC and Affiliate (the "Company") is for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019. It is supplemental to, and should be read in conjunction with, the combined financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the accompanying notes thereto (the "Annual Financial Statements"). The Annual Financial Statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which we refer to as "GAAP".

There can be no assurance that such forward-looking information will prove to be accurate, and actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking information. Forward-looking information is subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that may cause the actual results, level of activity, performance, or achievements of the Company to be materially different from those or implied by such forward-looking information. Such risks and other factors may include, but are not limited to: general business, economic, competitive, political and social uncertainties; general capital market conditions and market prices for securities; delay or failure to receive board or regulatory approvals; the actual results of future operations; operating and development costs; competition; changes in legislation or regulations affecting the Company; the timing and availability of external financing on acceptable terms; favorable production levels and outputs; the stability of pricing of cannabis products; the level of demand for cannabis product; the availability of third-party service providers and other inputs for the Company's operations; and lack of qualified, skilled labor or loss of key individuals. Although the Company has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in forward-looking information, including those set forth under the "Risk Factors" section and elsewhere in this Prospectus, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. Readers are cautioned that the foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. Readers are further cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking information as there can be no assurance that the plans, intentions or expectations upon which they are placed will occur. Forward-looking information contained in this MD&A is expressly qualified by this cautionary statement.

Financial information presented in this MD&A is presented in thousands of United States dollars ("$"), unless otherwise indicated. We round amounts in this MD&A to the thousands and calculate all percentages and per-share data from the underlying whole-dollar amounts. Thus, certain amounts may not foot, crossfoot, or recalculate based on reported numbers due to rounding. Unless otherwise indicated, all references to years are to our fiscal year, which ends on December 31.

This MD&A was prepared by management of the Company and is dated and presented as of March 26, 2021.

Business Overview

We were founded in 2016 and operate in one U.S. geographic market. As of March 26, 2021, we employ approximately 30 people. We currently have one open and operating retail location.

Revenue

Revenue for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $11,163,773, compared to $4,062,438 in 2019, primarily driven by growth in our retail business and the legalization of adult use cannabis in Illinois in 2020.

Cost of Goods Sold

Cost of goods sold for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $7,380,092, compared to $2,478,293 in 2019.

Gross Profit

Gross profit for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $3,783,681, representing a gross margin of 34%, compared to 39% in 2019. Gross margin during 2020 reflects strong performance in our retail location.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $961,905, compared to $1,006,830 in 2019.

Compensation Expense

Compensation expense for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $406,674, compared to $428,163 in 2019, primarily driven by the hiring of personnel to support the expansion of operations during 2020.

Interest Expense

Interest expense for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $160,288, compared to $4,362 in 2019. The increase of $155,926 was due to an increase in the principal amount of Company debt outstanding during 2020.

Income Tax Expense

Income tax expense is recognized based on the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted at year-end. For the year ended December 31, 2020, income tax expense totaled $81,379.

Since the Company operates in the cannabis industry, it is subject to the limitations of Section 280E of the Code, which prohibits businesses engaged in the trafficking of Schedule I or Schedule II controlled substances from deducting normal business expenses, such as payroll and rent, from gross profit (revenue less cost of goods sold). Section 280E was originally intended to penalize criminal market operators, but because cannabis remains a Schedule I controlled substance for federal purposes, the IRS has subsequently applied Section 280E to state legal cannabis businesses. Cannabis businesses operating in states that align their tax codes with the IRC are also unable to deduct normal business expenses from their state taxes. This results in permanent differences between ordinary and necessary business expenses deemed non-deductible under IRC Section 208E. Therefore, the effective tax rate can be highly variable and may not necessarily correlate with pre-tax income or loss, primarily driven by non-deductible expense.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our primary sources of liquidity are operating cash flows and borrowings through the issuances of notes payable.

Financing History and Future Capital Requirements

To date, we have used private financing as a source of liquidity for short-term working capital needs and general corporate purposes. Our future ability to fund operations, to make planned capital expenditures, and to repay or refinance indebtedness depends on our future operating performance, cash flows, and ability to obtain equity or debt financing, which are subject to prevailing economic conditions, as well as financial, business, and other factors, some of which are beyond our control.

As of December 31, 2020, and 2019, the Company had total current liabilities of $358,900 and $1,656,592, respectively, and cash of $376,226 and $235,543, respectively, to meet its current obligations. As of December 31, 2020, the Company had working capital of $494,848, an increase of $1,684,548 as compared to December 31, 2019, driven primarily by investments in inventory and notes receivable during 2020.

As of the date of this MD&A, we do not have any off-balance-sheet arrangements, as defined by applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, that have, or are reasonably likely to have, a current or future effect on the results of our operations or financial condition, including, and without limitation, such considerations as liquidity and capital resources.

Related Party Transactions

We did not identify significant related party transactions during the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of combined financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires our management to make certain estimates that affect the reported amounts. The Company's significant accounting policies are described in Note 2, "Summary of Significant Accounting Policies," in the Annual Financial Statements. The Company bases estimates on historical experience, known or expected trends, independent valuations, and various other assumptions that the Company believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. The Company believes the following critical accounting policies govern the more significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of the Annual Financial Statements. Significant estimates inherent in the preparation of the Company's combined financial statements include the assumptions related to the estimated useful lives for property and equipment.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The following GAAP standards have been recently issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB"). We are assessing the impact of these new standards on future combined financial statements. Pronouncements that are not applicable to the Company or where it has been determined do not have a significant impact on us have been excluded herein.

The FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, (Topic 606) (ASU 2014-09), in May 2014. ASU 2014-09 sets forth a new five-step revenue recognition model that will require the use of more estimates and judgment. ASU 2014-09 will replace current revenue recognition requirements in Topic 605, Revenue Recognition, in its entirety. The standard also requires more detailed disclosures and provides additional guidance for transactions that were not addressed completely in prior accounting guidance. ASU 2014-09 is effective for annual financial statements of private companies issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, and should be applied retrospectively in the year the ASU is first applied using one of two allowable application methods. The Company has adopted this ASU as of January 1, 2019. The impact of the new standard on the combined financial statements was not significant.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) ("ASC 842"), which will replace ASC 840, "Leases". This standard introduces a single lessee accounting model and requires a lessee to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases with a term of more than twelve months unless the underlying asset is of low value. A lessee is required to recognize a right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset and a lease liability representing its obligation to make lease payments. For private companies, the standard will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after December 15 2021, with earlier application permitted. The standard requires a modified retrospective approach for leases that exist or are entered into after the beginning of the earliest comparative period in the financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating the effect of adopting this ASU on the Company's combined financial statements.

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASC 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326), Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments. ASU 2016-13 requires entities to measure all expected credit losses for most financial assets held at the reporting date based on an expected loss model which includes historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. Companies will now use forward-looking information to better form their credit loss estimates. ASU 2016-13 also requires enhanced disclosures to help financial statement users better understand significant estimates and judgements used in estimating credit losses, as well as the credit quality and underwriting standards of a company's portfolio. For private companies, ASU 2016-13 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2022. The Company does not believe that the impact of the new standard on its combined financial statements will be material.

In December 2019, the FASB issued ASU 2019-12, Income Taxes (Topic 740) - Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes, which is intended to simplify various aspects related to accounting for income taxes. ASU 2019-12 removes certain exceptions to the general principles in Topic 740 and also clarifies and amends existing guidance to improve consistent application. For private companies, ASU 2019-12 is effective for annual periods beginning and after December 15, 2021. The Company is currently evaluating the effect of adopting this ASU on the Company's combined financial statements.

In October 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-17, Targeted Improvements to Related Party guidance for variable interest entities which amended the Consolidation topic (Topic 810) of the Accounting Standards Codification. Under the amended guidance, a nonpublic entity has the option to exempt itself from applying the variable interest entity (VIE) consolidation model to qualifying common control arrangements. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2020, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2021, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the amended guidance and elected to exempt itself from applying the VIE consolidation model to qualifying common control arrangements in 2019.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We are exposed in varying degrees to a variety of financial instrument related risks. The Company mitigates these risks by assessing, monitoring and approving our risk management processes.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of a potential loss to us if a customer or third party to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The maximum credit exposure at December 31, 2020 is the carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents. We do not have significant credit risk with respect to our customers. All cash and cash equivalents are placed with major U.S. financial institutions.

We provide credit to our customers in the normal course of business. We have established credit evaluation and monitoring processes to mitigate credit risk but have limited risk as the majority of our sales are transacted with cash.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that we will not be able to meet our financial obligations associated with financial liabilities. We manage liquidity risk through the effective management of our capital structure. Our approach to managing liquidity is to ensure that we will have sufficient liquidity at all times to settle obligations and liabilities when due.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of loss arising from adverse changes in market rates and prices, such as interest rates, raw materials, and other commodity prices. Strategic and operational risks may arise if we fail to carry out business operations and/or raise sufficient equity and/or debt financing. Strategic opportunities or threats may arise from a range of factors that might include changing economic and political circumstances and regulatory approvals and competitor actions. We seek to mitigate such risks by consideration of potential development opportunities and challenges.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Cash and cash equivalents bear interest at market rates. Our financial debts have fixed rates of interest and therefore expose us to a limited interest rate fair value risk.

Commodities Price Risk

Price risk is the risk of variability in fair value due to movements in equity or market prices. The primary raw materials used by us aside from those cultivated internally are labels and packaging. Management believes a hypothetical 10% change in the price of these materials would not have a significant effect on our combined annual results of operations or cash flows, as these costs are generally passed through to our customers. However, such an increase could have an impact on our customers' demand for our products, and we are not able to quantify the impact of such potential change in demand on our annual results of operations or cash flows.

COVID-19 Risk

We are monitoring COVID-19 closely, and although our operations have not been materially affected by the COVID-19 outbreak to date, the ultimate severity of the outbreak and its impact on the economic environment is uncertain. Our operations are ongoing as the cultivation, processing and sale of cannabis products is currently considered an essential business by the states in which we operate with respect to all customers (except for Massachusetts, where cannabis has been deemed essential only for medical patients). In all locations where regulations have been enabled by governmental authorities, we have expanded consumer delivery options and curbside pickup to help protect the health and safety of our employees and customers. The pandemic has not materially impacted our business operations or liquidity position to date. We continue to generate operating cash flows to meet our short-term liquidity needs. The uncertain nature of the spread of COVID-19 may impact our business operations for reasons including the potential quarantine of our employees or those of our supply chain partners or a change in our designation as "essential" in states where we do business that currently or in the future impose restrictions on business operations.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of MedMen NY, Inc. (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the statements of loss, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.
In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2020 and 2019, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audits of the financial statements in the United States, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other Matter

As part of our audits of the 2020 and 2019 financial statements, we also audited the adjustments described in Note 13 that were applied to restate the 2018 financial statements. In our opinion, such adjustments are appropriate and have been properly applied. We were not engaged to audit, review, or apply any procedures to the 2018 financial statements of the Company other than with respect to the adjustments and, accordingly, we do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on the 2018 financial statements as a whole.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audits and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audits.

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Organization

MedMen NY, Inc. (“MMNY” or “the Company”, formerly known as Bloomfield Industries, Inc.) is a New York corporation. The Company was formed on March 12, 2015 in the State of New York and began operations when it opened its retail storefront in Buffalo (Williamsville), New York in January 2016.

On January 19, 2017, Project Compassion NY, LLC, a Deleware limited liability company (“Project Compassion”), a company controlled by MMMG, LLC, a Nevada Limited liability company (“MMMG” or “MedMen”), acquired all of the assets of the Company.

The Company is a retail seller and cultivator of medical cannabis and has received the necessary governmental approvals and permitting to operate medical cannabis dispensary facilities and a cultivation facility in the State of New York. The dispensary facilities are located in Buffalo (Williamsville; Long Island (lake Success); Syracuse (Salma); and New York City (Fifth Avenue). The cultivation facility is located in Utica.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") and reflect the accounts of and operations of the Company.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the dates of the financial statements and the reported amounts of total net revenue and expenses in the reporting periods. The Company regularly evaluates significant estimates and assumptions related to the estimated useful lives, depreciation of property and equipment, amortization of intangible assets, inventory valuation, goodwill impairment, long-lived asset impairment, and going concern. These estimates and assumptions are based on current facts, historical experience and various other factors that the Company believes to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the recording of revenue, costs and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. The actual results the Company experiences may differ materially and adversely from these estimates. To the extent there are material differences between the estimates and actual results, the Company's future results of operations will be affected.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and cash deposits in financial institutions.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash balances are those which meet the definition of cash and cash equivalents but are not available for use by the Company. As of December 31, 2020 and 2019, restricted cash was $5,280 and $8,844, respectively.

Inventory

The costs of growing cannabis, including but not limited to labor, utilities, nutrition and supplies, are capitalized into inventory until the time of harvest. All direct and indirect costs related to inventory are capitalized when incurred, and subsequently classified to cost of goods sold in the Statement of Operations. Retail inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out method. Net realizable value is determined as the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less estimated costs to sell. Packaging and supplies are initially valued at cost. The Company reviews inventory for obsolete, redundant and slow-moving goods and any such inventory is written down to net realizable value. As of December 31, 2020 and 2019, the Company determined that no reserve was necessary.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation, amortization and impairment losses, if any. Depreciation and amortization is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the asset using the following terms and methods:

Furniture and Fixtures	3 – 7 Years
Leasehold Improvements	Shorter of Lease Term or Economic Life
Equipment and Software	3 – 7 Years
Construction in Progress	Not Depreciated

Expenditures for major renewals and improvements are capitalized, while minor replacements, maintenance and repairs, which do not extend the asset lives, are charged to operations as incurred. The assets' residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation are reviewed at each reporting period and adjusted prospectively if appropriate. An item of property and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying value of the asset) is included in the statement of operations in the period the asset is derecognized.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are recorded at cost, less accumulated amortization and impairment losses, if any. Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are measured at fair value at the acquisition date. Amortization of definite life intangibles is recorded on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives, which do not exceed the contractual period, if any. The estimated useful lives, residual values and amortization methods are reviewed at each reporting period, and any changes in estimates are accounted for prospectively. Intangible assets with an indefinite life or not yet available for use are not subject to amortization. Amortization is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the asset using the following terms and methods:

Dispensary Licenses	15 Years

Goodwill

Goodwill is measured as the excess of consideration transferred and the net of the acquisition date fair value of assets acquired, and liabilities assumed in a business acquisition. In accordance with ASC 350, "Intangibles—Goodwill and Other", goodwill and other intangible assets with indefinite lives are no longer subject to amortization. The Company reviews the goodwill and other intangible assets for impairment on an annual basis as of year-end or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate carrying amount it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. The carrying amount is determined based upon the assignment of the Company's assets and liabilities, including existing goodwill, to the identified reporting units. Where an acquisition benefits only one reporting unit, the Company allocates, as of the acquisition date, all goodwill for that acquisition to the reporting unit that will benefit. In order to determine if goodwill is impaired, the Company measures the impairment of goodwill by comparing the carrying amount to the estimated fair value. If the carrying amount is in excess of its fair value, the Company recognizes an impairment charge equal to the amount in excess.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets such as property and equipment and intangible assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable, but no less frequently than annually. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to future net cash flows (undiscounted and without interest charges) expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the estimated fair value of the assets.

Revenue Recognition

The Company adopted Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers," and all the related amendments, which are also codified into ASC 606. Under the new standard, the Company recognizes a sale as follows:

Revenue is recognized at the fair value of consideration received or receivable. Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized when all the following conditions have been satisfied, which are generally met once the products are shipped to customers:

- The Company has transferred the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods to the purchaser;
- The Company retains neither continuing managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership nor effective control over the goods sold;
- The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the entity; and
- The costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales includes the costs directly attributable to product sales.

Income Taxes

The Company is treated as a C Corporation for federal income tax purposes and corporate income taxes in the State of New York. Tax expense recognized in profit or loss comprises the sum of current and deferred taxes not recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current Tax

Current tax assets and/or liabilities comprise those claims from, or obligations to, fiscal authorities relating to the current or prior reporting periods that are unpaid at the reporting date. Current tax is payable on taxable profit, which differs from profit or loss in the financial statements. Calculation of current tax is based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred Tax

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method, which requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined on the basis of the differences between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities by using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. The effect of a change in tax rates on deferred tax assets and liabilities is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that the Company believe that these assets are more likely than not to be realized. In making such a determination, all available positive and negative evidence are considered, including future reversals of existing taxable temporary differences, projected future taxable income, tax-planning strategies, and results of recent operations. If it is determined that the Company would be able to realize deferred tax assets in the future in excess of their net recorded amount, an adjustment to the deferred tax asset valuation allowance is recorded, which would reduce the provision for income taxes.

Tax benefit from an uncertain tax position may be recognized when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including resolutions of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. ASC 740 also provides guidance on measurement, derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition.

Leased Assets

A lease of property and equipment is classified as a capital lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership to the Company. A lease of property and equipment is classified as an operating lease whenever the terms of the lease do not transfer substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. Lease payments are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term, except where another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern in which the economic benefits are consumed.

Concentrations of Risk

The Company's significant concentrations of risk consists of cash and cash equivalents. The Company maintains its cash with high-credit, quality financial institutions. At times, such deposits may be in excess of amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, up to $250,000 per bank. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes that it is not exposed to any significant credit risk.

There were no customers that comprised more than 10% of the Company's revenue for the year ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

Advertising Costs

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. There were $14,000 and $1,617 in advertising costs during the year ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

FASB ASU No. 2016-02 (Topic 842), "Leases" - Issued in February 2016, ASU No. 2016-02 established ASC Topic 842, Leases, as amended by subsequent ASUs on the topic, which sets out the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases for both lessees and lessors. ASU 2016-02 requires lessees to apply a two-method approach, classifying leases as either finance or operating leases based on the principle of whether or not the lease is effectively a financed purchase. Lessees are required to record a right-of-use asset and a lease liability for all leases with a term greater than 12 months. Leases with a term of 12 months or less will be accounted for similar to existing guidance for operating leases. Lessees will recognize expense based on the effective interest method for finance leases or on a straight-line basis for operating leases. The accounting applied by the lessor is largely unchanged from that applied under the existing lease standard. The Company will be required to record a right-of-use asset and lease liability equal to the present value of the remaining minimum lease payments and will continue to recognize expense on a straight-line basis upon adoption of this standard. The Company expects to record a decrease in long- term prepaid rent, reduction in its deferred rents, and an increase in lease liabilities and right of use assets upon adoption. The Company does not expect any impact to retained earnings upon transition. ASU 2016-02 is effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2020 for non-public entities.

FASB ASU No. 2019-12 (Topic 740), "Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes" - Issued in December 2019, which eliminates certain exceptions related to the approach for intraperiod tax allocation, the methodology for calculating income taxes in an interim period and the recognition of deferred tax liabilities for outside basis differences. It also clarifies and simplifies other aspects of the accounting for income taxes. ASU 2019-12 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company is currently evaluating the adoption date and impact, if any, adoption will have on its financial position and results of operations.

NOTE 3 - LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

In March 2020 the World Health Organization declared coronavirus COVID-19 a global pandemic. This contagious disease outbreak, which has continued to spread, and any related adverse public health developments, has adversely affected workforces, customers, economies, and financial markets globally, leading to an economic downturn. It has also disrupted the normal operations of many businesses, including ours. This outbreak has decreased spending, adversely affected demand for our product and harmed our business and results of operations.

As of December 31, 2020 and 2019, the Company had a working capital (deficit) of $(1,086,951) and $(8,069), respectively, and net losses of $24,360,457 and $11,044,496 for the year ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively. The Company's parent company continues to finance its cash needs through on-demand partner contributions. If management is unsuccessful in its efforts to generate profitable operations and/or continue to receive financial support, the Company may not be able to continue as a going concern.

The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern and to meet its obligations will be dependent upon successful sales of inventory and ultimately successful operations and cash flows. The accompanying combined financial statements do not reflect any adjustment that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTE 8 - GOODWILL

As of December 31, 2020 and 2019, goodwill was $0 and $10,677,692, respectively. Goodwill is assigned to the reporting unit, which is the operating segment level or one level below the operating segment. Management considers the Company to be one operating segment and one reporting unit. Goodwill arises from the purchase price for acquired businesses exceeding the fair value of tangible and intangible assets acquired less assumed liabilities. Goodwill is reviewed annually for impairment or more frequently if impairment indicators arise. The Company adopted ASU 2017-04 which eliminates Step 2 from the quantitative assessment of the goodwill impairment test wherein the goodwill impairment loss was measured by comparing the implied fair value of a reporting unit's goodwill with its carrying amount. As a result of the amendment, the goodwill impairment test consists of one step comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount. The amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the reporting unit's fair value is recognized as a goodwill impairment loss.

The Company conducts its annual goodwill impairment assessment during the second quarter of each year. For the purpose of the goodwill impairment for the year ended December 31, 2019, the Company performed the qualitative approach and concluded based upon the qualitative factors, no impairment was required. For the purpose of the goodwill impairment test for the year ended December 31, 2020, due to various factors, the Company forwent the qualitative approach and performed a quantitative assessment wherein the fair value of each reporting unit is determined using a discounted cash flow method (income approach). The earnings forecast for the reporting unit impaired was revised based on a decrease in anticipated operating profits and cash flows for the next five years as it relates to the current economic environment related to COVID-19. The fair value of that reporting unit was estimated using the expected present value of future cash flows. As of December 31, 2020, the Company recorded a goodwill impairment loss in the amount of $10,677,692 which is included as a component of impairment expense in the accompanying statement of operations.

NOTE 9 - NOTES PAYABLE

During the year ended December 31, 2019 the Company's parent company paid the debt holders through the issuance of the parent company's shares. The payment is reflected as a contribution in the statement changes in shareholders' equity. As a result, the Company recognized a loss on extinguishment of debt of approximately $448,000 which is included as a component of other expense in the accompanying statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2019.

Revenue

Revenue for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $9,148,884, compared to $9,189,298 in 2019. The decrease in revenue was due to COVID-19 related restrictions partially offset by increased revenue from broader product offerings.

Cost of Goods Sold

Cost of goods sold for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $4,364,585, compared to $4,173,970 in 2019, driven by increased mix of third-party products sold in our retail stores.

Gross Profit

Gross profit for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $4,784,299, representing a gross margin of 52%, compared to 55% in 2019.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses for the year ended December 31, 2020 was $10,485,162 compared to $13,186,153 in 2019. The decrease was primarily driven by lower payroll cost and other operating expenses.

Impairment

During the year ended December 31, 2020, management noted indicators of impairment of its long-lived assets due to the impacts of COVID-19. Accordingly, the Company recorded an impairment of $7,396,531 of its property which are included as a component of impairment expense in the accompanying statement of operations. In addition, the Company recorded a goodwill impairment loss in the amount of $10,677,692.

Income Tax Expense

Income tax expense is recognized based on the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted at year-end. For the year ended December 31, 2020, income tax expense totaled $2,275,616.

Since the Company operates in the cannabis industry, it is subject to the limitations of Section 280E of the Code, which prohibits businesses engaged in the trafficking of Schedule I or Schedule II controlled substances from deducting normal business expenses, such as payroll and rent, from gross profit (revenue less cost of goods sold). Section 280E was originally intended to penalize criminal market operators, but because cannabis remains a Schedule I controlled substance for federal purposes, the IRS has subsequently applied Section 280E to state legal cannabis businesses. Cannabis businesses operating in states that align their tax codes with the IRC are also unable to deduct normal business expenses from their state taxes. This results in permanent differences between ordinary and necessary business expenses deemed non-deductible under IRC Section 208E. Therefore, the effective tax rate can be highly variable and may not necessarily correlate with pre-tax income or loss, primarily driven by non-deductible expense.

Financing History and Future Capital Requirements

To date, we have used contributions from our parent company as a source of liquidity for short-term working capital needs and general corporate purposes.

As of December 31, 2020, and 2019, the Company had total current liabilities of $8,852,487 and $6,621,052, respectively, and cash and cash equivalents of $733,811 and $297,150, respectively, to meet its current obligations.

Cash Flows

Net cash used in investing activities	775,440	8,559,892

Operating Activities

Net cash used in operating activities decreased by $1,816,824 during 2020, as compared to 2019, primarily driven by the decrease in general and administrative expenses.

Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities decreased by $7,784,452 during 2020, as compared to 2019, primarily due to decrease in construction spend and purchases of property and equipment.

Financing Activities

Net cash provided by financing activities decreased by $8,734,627during 2020, as compared to 2019, primarily due to decreased cash used in operating and investing activities.

Contractual Obligations and Other Commitments and Contingencies

As of December 31, 2020, the Company does not have material future contractual obligations other than the operating leases disclosed in the financial statements.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

As of the date of this MD&A, we do not have any off-balance-sheet arrangements, as defined by applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, that have, or are reasonably likely to have, a current or future effect on the results of our operations or financial condition, including, and without limitation, such considerations as liquidity and capital resources.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We are exposed in varying degrees to a variety of financial instrument related risks. The Company mitigates these risks by assessing, monitoring and approving our risk management processes.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of a potential loss to us if a customer or third party to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The maximum credit exposure at December 31, 2020 is the carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents. We do not have significant credit risk with respect to our customers. All cash and cash equivalents are placed with major U.S. financial institutions.

We provide credit to our customers in the normal course of business. We have established credit evaluation and monitoring processes to mitigate credit risk but have limited risk as the majority of our sales are transacted with cash.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that we will not be able to meet our financial obligations associated with financial liabilities. We manage liquidity risk through the effective management of our capital structure. Our approach to managing liquidity is to ensure that we will have sufficient liquidity at all times to settle obligations and liabilities when due.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of loss arising from adverse changes in market rates and prices, such as interest rates, raw materials, and other commodity prices. Strategic and operational risks may arise if we fail to carry out business operations and/or raise sufficient equity and/or debt financing. Strategic opportunities or threats may arise from a range of factors that might include changing economic and political circumstances and regulatory approvals and competitor actions. We seek to mitigate such risks by consideration of potential development opportunities and challenges.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Cash and cash equivalents bear interest at market rates. Our financial debts have fixed rates of interest and therefore expose us to a limited interest rate fair value risk.

Commodities Price Risk

Price risk is the risk of variability in fair value due to movements in equity or market prices. The primary raw materials used by us aside from those cultivated internally are labels and packaging. Management believes a hypothetical 10% change in the price of these materials would not have a significant effect on our annual results of operations or cash flows, as these costs are generally passed through to our customers. However, such an increase could have an impact on our customers' demand for our products, and we are not able to quantify the impact of such potential change in demand on our annual results of operations or cash flows.

COVID-19 Risk

We are monitoring COVID-19 closely, and although our operations have not been materially affected by the COVID-19 outbreak to date, the ultimate severity of the outbreak and its impact on the economic environment is uncertain. Our operations are ongoing as the cultivation, processing and sale of cannabis products is currently considered an essential business by the states in which we operate with respect to all customers (except for Massachusetts, where cannabis has been deemed essential only for medical patients). In all locations where regulations have been enabled by governmental authorities, we have expanded consumer delivery options and curbside pickup to help protect the health and safety of our employees and customers. The pandemic has not materially impacted our business operations or liquidity position to date. We continue to generate operating cash flows to meet our short-term liquidity needs. The uncertain nature of the spread of COVID-19 may impact our business operations for reasons including the potential quarantine of our employees or those of our supply chain partners or a change in our designation as "essential" in states where we do business that currently or in the future impose restrictions on business operations.

NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED STATEMENT OF OPERATIONS

MOCA Acquisition

Effective August 1, 2020 (the "MOCA Agreement Date"), the Company acquired MOCA, a dispensary operator in the Chicago, Illinois area for total consideration of $22,312. The transaction was treated as a business combination under Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 805, Business Combinations, and MOCA was consolidated as a Variable Interest Entity ("VIE") between the MOCA Agreement Date and the closing date in December 2020. The business combination is accounted for by applying the acquisition method, whereby the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recorded at their fair values with any excess of the aggregate consideration over the fair values of the identifiable net assets allocated to goodwill. A preliminary purchase price allocation has been completed for this acquisition, which is included in Note 4 to the Company's 2020 Audited Financial Statements, included elsewhere in this Prospectus. The final fair value and purchase price allocation may differ from this preliminary determination.

Midway Acquisition

Effective December 15, 2020 (the "Midway Agreement Date"), the Company acquired Midway for total cash consideration of $28,000, subject to certain adjustments including a customary working capital adjustment. The transaction was treated as a business combination under ASC Topic 805, Business Combinations, and is consolidated as a VIE from the Midway Agreement Date through the final closing date, which is pending the state's approval of the license transfer. The business combination is accounted for by applying the acquisition method, whereby the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recorded at their fair values with any excess of the aggregate consideration over the fair values of the identifiable net assets allocated to goodwill. A preliminary purchase price allocation has been completed for this acquisition, which is included in Note 4 to the Company's 2020 Audited Financial Statements, included elsewhere in this Prospectus. The final fair value and purchase price allocation may differ from this preliminary determination.

Investment in MMNY

On February 25, 2021, the Company entered into a definitive investment agreement with MedMen Enterprises Inc. ("MedMen"), under which the Company will, subject to regulatory approval, complete an investment of approximately $73,000 in MMNY, a licensed medical cannabis operator in New York. In connection with the investment, and subject to regulatory approval, MMNY will engage the Company's services pursuant to a management agreement (the "Management Agreement") under which we will advise on MMNY's operations pending regulatory approval of the Investment transaction.

Under the terms of the investment, at closing, MMNY will assume approximately $73,000 of MedMen's existing secured debt, AWH will invest $35,000 in cash in MMNY, and AWH New York, LLC will issue a senior secured promissory note in favor of MMNY's senior secured lender in the principal amount of $28,000, guaranteed by AWH, which cash investment and note will be used to reduce the amounts owed to MMNY's senior secured lender. Following its investment, AWH will hold a controlling interest in MMNY equal to approximately 86.7% of the equity in MMNY, and be provided with an option to acquire MedMen's remaining interest in MMNY in the future. AWH must also make an additional investment of $10,000 in exchange for additional equity in MMNY, which investment will also be used to repay MMNY's senior secured lender if adult-use cannabis sales commence in MMNY's dispensaries.

The Company has included the results of MMNY in the Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Statement of Operations on the basis of the transaction being a probable acquisition during 2021.
